THE LEAD THUNDER, AND THE CHRONOLOGY OF REVELATION 10 PART 1

The following message was preached by Brother Amos, on the evening of Saturday 17th May, 2014, at 2014 May Convention of Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. It is a very timely message, and the Lord helped Brother Amos to present it beautifully, as we face the scoffers and scorners, all the opposition of the end time bride, concerning the ministry of the seven thunders.

Good evening saints. When we seriously consider what the Lord is doing at this evening time for the bride of Jesus Christ, from the continent of Africa, I have to say that the pride of men is the reason they will perish. Otherwise, they should be able to see something! Because it is very clear and undeniable that God is dealing with the universal bride from here, in the light of truth! When Apostle Paul stood up, and he plainly declared who he was, proclaiming in Romans Chapter 11, verse 13: "For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am THE APOSTLE OF THE GENTILES, I MAGNIFY MINE OFFICE", there was nobody that challenged him, and neither did any one accuse him of pride or impersonation. Again, when he took on a prophetic Scripture which pertained to the Messiah, declaring in the Book of Acts Chapter 13, verse 47: "For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, THAT THOU SHOULDEST BE FOR SALVATION unto the ends of the earth", nobody said he was blaspheming, or that he was making himself Jesus the Christ, or that he was beefing up his ministry importance. Furthermore, when Apostle Peter also stood up before the other apostles, and laid out the pre-eminence the Lord placed on his ministry, the difference the Lord Jesus made of it, (in relation to the other eleven apostles), by the Gentile Connection he made, no other apostle or ministry challenged his open claim, and neither was he called a “Nicolaitan” on this account, or a heretic, as recorded in Acts Chapter 15, verses 6-7: “And the APOSTLES and elders” (making up the fivefold ministry), “came together for to consider of this matter. And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago GOD MADE CHOICE AMONG US, that the Gentiles by MY MOUTH should hear the Word of the Gospel, and believe.” These testimonies are in the Bible for the whole world to read to date! Nobody thinks anything negative about the ministry claims of the apostles of the early church. But let another man rise up at this end time, and declare who he is in the ministry, in the light of God's revealed plan of redemption, a ministry which is plainly laid out in the Scriptures, just as Apostle Paul did, they will say he is proud, and that he is an impostor. So, if a man is proud today, simply because he declares who he is, within the ministry plan of God for salvation, what then will you say of Saint Paul? Because almost every Epistle he wrote, he opened it with a declaration of who he is in the ministry! Let me tell you now: The fruit of what God is doing through the race of Ham at this very junction of time, in Laodicea, in the light of truth, is too much for anybody to deny anything. As such, I care less for how they feel; I care less for what they say; and I care less for what they do. One thing I know is that when God opens the door of the light of the Word of life, you have to follow God in that move, or darkness will envelope your life completely. That is the absolute truth! If you do not follow the light, darkness will certainly take over your life. Before I take my message, I will share a dream tonight, a dream which a brother had. However, I will not mention his name in this Scribe message. But because the brother is putting the branch to his nose, just as Ezekiel declared of the nation of Israel, whom he said “put The Branch to their nose,” I will touch on certain developments with regards to the brother, particularly as it touches on his dream, for he is now in his dream. Saints, the brother, a white man from the United States, visited us once before, for he was in our November 2007 Convention, at Bible Faith Tabernacle, and he stayed in my house, and my wife took very good care of him. She cooked for him, washed and ironed his clothes, as is expected of saints. During that Convention, the angel of the Lord stood right at his back, as a shining star on the glass wall behind him, and a streak of light shined from that star right over and across his face. The brother sat under Brother Jackson for about twenty-something solid years at Faith Assembly; but unfortunately, he saw nothing. When Brother Jackson passed away, he had a lot of grudges against the man. It was, “Brother Jackson did so and so to my father-in-law; Brother Jackson allowed himself to be deified. Brother Jackson encouraged this... Brother Jackson did that...” And I warned him: “Brother, you had better watch what you say.” And I showed him: “This is the place of this man in the ministry. If you speak ill of him, you will be in trouble with God.” Moreover, I know that no one at Faith Assembly made Raymond Jackson Jesus the Christ, and neither did anybody make him God! People saw the major way in which he was being used, and simply acknowledged that. Period! That was not deifying the man! I was also accused of deifying him, simply because I recognized his precise ministry office within the Ephesian body of ministry. Anyway, the brother thanked me for the correction I made that day, and we moved on.

When Brother Jackson passed away, and God started this Third Move, the brother thanked me so much for what God used me to do for him, in straightening him out on truth, and for the further light being shed on God's written Word. There are many commendatory emails I got from him concerning my ministry. However, I did not know he had a serious ambition buried in his heart to preach. I am not the one that makes preachers; and I am not interested in the ambition of men; and neither am I interested in their educational or economic status; because being educated does not give anyone the right to the pulpit, for you do not intrude into such holy things, just as business men have no place in the pulpit either. God expects humility and godly reverence from those that will worship Him. I am only interested in the perfect will of God. But because he realized he could not achieve his ambition through me, and neither did Brother Jackson bother himself with him in his days, and even though he had a number of misgivings against Alvin Suggs, misgivings which he had communicated to me on phone, when I was holding meetings in Togo, an example of which is that the man lacked capacity more than I had attributed to him, and further, that he was too laid back, this brother later changed tune, and stood with Alvin Suggs. But I had to separate with Brother Suggs, strictly on the issues of faith, because we do not believe the same thing. Period! Although Alvin Suggs had earlier stood with us in the Continuing light of Christ, which God is giving us through the Lead Ministry of John, however, he later made a U-turn, and began to condemn a move he had stood for, a move he had written a good testimony about on the Internet. This particular brother now became his counselor. Listen to this: A man, who is not in the ministry, became the counselor of a minister of the Gospel, and eventually, he became his preacher as well, for Brother Suggs later began to use him to preach. This message is going on the Internet as I speak, which is why I am taking this route. But let me say this before the world, and please hear me loud and clear: I do not care for the colour of any man's skin, white, black, brown, or yellow; a man's skin colour is meaningless to me, because the colour of your skin has no more virtue than the paint on the wall of this building; whereas, the revelation of Jesus Christ is everything, for it is more than life itself. Consequently, if you have disregard and disrespect for God's Holy Writ, which is the Holy Bible; if you have a shabby attitude towards the Scriptures of life, I will not have any regard for you either, for your fleshly racial descent does not matter a dime to me, and neither does God care for it, for as Prophet Isaiah cried: “ALL FLESH IS GRASS...” Therefore, I say this to all those out there: You do not have to stand for the Truth. You are at complete liberty to stand for anything you want, however erroneous and ridiculous it may be. It is your God given choice, for it is your life. In Acts Chapter 13, Apostles Paul and Barnabas faced Jewish critics and opposition in their day as well, even as verses 46-48 reveal: “Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the Word of God should first have been spoken to you: BUT SEEING YE PUT IT FROM YOU, AND JUDGE YOURSELVES UNWORTHY OF EVERLASTING LIFE, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the Word of the Lord: AND AS MANY AS WERE ORDAINED TO ETERNAL LIFE BELIEVED.” This truth remains the same, for the elects of God cannot be kept from seeing the light of the truth of Jesus Christ, though many people today may likewise count themselves unworthy of eternal life. I am not saying that to you my lovely brothers and sisters: I am addressing the people out there on the Internet.

And I say again to them: You do not have to stand for the truth; although I pray you do, for the sake of your soul salvation. But I guarantee you this one thing: As a person following the Message of the end time Elijah, IF you do not follow the progressive light of Jesus Christ, you will not make it home; you will not make it through. It is as simple as that. So the choice is yours. You can glory in your empty and virtue-less skin colour; you can glory in your racial descent which has no ounce of spiritual virtue; you can even glory in your racial worldly accomplishments: But note that as a Gentile, particularly one who is following the Message of the end time Elijah, and as Apostle James warned in Chapter 1, verse 21, unless you “lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted WORD, which is able to save your souls”, YOU ARE BOUND TO PERISH! The choice is yours. Brothers and sisters, when I had to part ways with Alvin Suggs, realizing that our relationship no longer had any spiritual meaning, this brother now stood with Alvin Suggs, because he saw the opportunity to preach. And right from that time, the Move of John has become his topic. He is knocking everything he can lay his hands upon concerning this Move, whether it is THE PROMISE OF JOHN, or THE SPIRIT OF JOHN, or even about Apostle John's position as the “Candlestick” of Jesus Christ in 96 AD, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 2, verse 5! And in many instances, he does not realize that he is only blaspheming, by calling the ministry and the move of the end time John Anti-Christ: For it is one thing to disagree with something; and it is quite another thing altogether to attribute it to the devil! This brother has taken it upon himself to fight this move tooth and nail, and he is running the roads without a message, preaching a puerile five part sermon on women wearing trousers, titled, Is She Wearing Pants? Now he is having dreams! My! Raymond Jackson passed away in December 2004. But in recent years, he is now having dreams where he saw Brother Jackson labouring very hard; (a man who is resting in glory, and whose labour is completely over); and now, he is the one who is helping him with the work. He is helping the ministry of a man who is dead; a ministry that has served God's purpose, and is over and done with. My, oh my! He should have had that dream before the man died! He should have helped him before he died, at a time when he could be helped; a time when he needed help! When the issue of Rolf Strommen destabilized the local assembly of the chief apostle, and rocked the Jackson Movement, where was he? When the issue of Tim McKay rocked the ministry of men who were following Brother Jackson in the United States and Canada, and men were saying incredible things, that Brother Jackson was trying to destroy the ministry of other men, where was he? Did he help the chief apostle? No, not at all! But that was when he should have helped the man, for that was when the man needed help! That was when he should have stood! But instead, all he saw at that material time was a man who allowed himself to be deified by some of his church members! All he saw was a man who behaved badly in his judgment of ministers, because of the case of his father-in-law, as if the chief apostle is only scripturally sound, but lacks divine judgment! My! He is even annoyed because I use exclamation marks a lot in my Scribe messages! He is mad at the use of my end of statement responses like, "Amen"; "Yes"; "Exactly"; "Absolutely", etc. It bites him real hard! Now, he is the one helping a dead man! Gentiles are a foolish people! But ask me: In what way is he helping Brother Jackson? What a big joke! Now, however, the Spirit of John is what he has problems with; as if anyone told him he must follow! He forgot he had a serious dream, which was repeated three times, and according to his own written testimony, it was repeated with only slight variations in about a five year period or so, before Brother Jackson passed away, a dream I must now remind him of, for its repetition shows its utter imminence. It will be ten years on 4th December of this Year, 2014, since Brother Jackson passed away. In that dream, the brother was outside, when all of a sudden, he saw that darkness was coming in fast, and the darkness was so great, that it turned into blackness. Darkness engulfed everywhere; palpable darkness! He wondered, "What am I going to do?" In his own words: "Worry now sets in along with confusion as darkness turns to blackness, SO BLACK IS THE NIGHT, I HAVE NO IDEA WHERE TO GO."

The car park was deserted, and there was no one to help him. But in that gross darkness, far away he saw a light, and he decided to follow that light. It is like a store. I will use his own words to complete the dream, for he wrote: "Walking to the light, I arrive upon a small store; as I walk in there are two women behind the counter cheerful and chatting. They ask me if they can help. Yes, I need directions to my home. They ask, where is your home located? At this moment, my realization is, I DON'T KNOW. I decided to point in the general direction, but find myself once again confused. They respond, WE COULDN'T HELP YOU IF YOU DON'T KNOW. Embarrassed, I walked out and began walking down the road, but not knowing if the direction is correct, and the blackness of night being so black. I find myself worried and confused, wondering, HOW WOULD I FIND MY WAY HOME? End of Dream." In an email which he later wrote to me, he rightly decoded his own dream saying: "Some months and even over the years, I have received a warning from

The Lord in the form of a dream, one that I shared with you over the phone this past January. That I was walking in darkness and could not find my way home. THIS IS UNBELIEF IN MY LIFE, I have surmised. I seek Jesus often that my unbelief be removed that I might live truth. This truth is scriptural truth, the type of truth that brings gravity to one's life, and direction in spirit, so as to please Jesus. Let me tell you now: Without a revelation from God in your soul, a revelation that dovetails perfectly with the written Word of God, there is nobody that can help you find the way to the true home of the soul! For without the inner Teacher, the outer teacher can do you no good: There just must be an unction, a divine unction, of the revelation of God burning in your soul, if any ministry of the end time elect bride is to help you, for the ministry of the bride is one. No one can help you if God is not dealing with you in divine revelation! Period! Outside of the followership of the pure revelation of the Scriptures of Jesus Christ, NO GENTILE MAN CAN FIND HIS WAY HOME! Period! You will only have “SPIRITUAL AMNESIA”, unless you walk in the light! My brother, let me tell you now: You are now fulfilling your dream, for you are now in that dream. You are in gross darkness, and you do not know it! You had better cry to God for mercy! You had better cry for deliverance, or you may not get out of your darkness! This is not a game, and God does not care for your ambition! Education does not give you the right to the pulpit, because you do not know what you are talking about! Moreover, God is bigger than you! There is not one eagle of God you can deceive with your spiritual junk! You will only lead astray those who are not meant for the way of life. Even the brother, in whose house you now hold church once or twice a month in Calhoun, should know better, for he once said to me: “Brother Amos, the first time I heard you preach in Calhoun, before Brother Jackson passed away, I knew you were an apostle.” So, what changed, when I am still standing for the same truths? And what exactly do you think an apostle is? What do you think God is doing? I say all this to remind you tonight, that you are now walking and living in your dream. Now you are in your dream! You had better pray to God, or your end will be exactly as you dreamt. Saints, it is very obvious that racial sentiments and carnal ambition is what will be the death of a lot of people. But it is their choice, and they are entitled to it. They can have their fill, although I pray somebody wakes up before it is too late, for this is not a game. It is about eternal life.

Let me therefore say this tonight: What God is doing today can only grow. It has not even started, and as such, you have not seen anything yet; for God is only still fortifying the foundation of faith He used the end time Elijah to re-establish for us, an exclusive foundation of truth which the chief apostle to this age also worked upon. We are soon to see the launching of the original cadre of ministry, by the putting together of its apostolic head. The bottom-line is that if God is in something, it can only grow. It cannot but grow. The fact that you do not like it does not make a difference. The fact that you do not believe it does not make a difference. But let me also warn you tonight: I AM NOT JESUS CHRIST; I am not the Lord; I AM NOT YOUR SAVIOUR; I am not the Messiah: I AM ONLY YOUR BROTHER, the most wretched sinner grace has ever saved; one that is most unworthy to be a minister of the Gospel of life, but one that has found unusual and unmerited favour with God; for I found grace. I repeat: I am only your brother, and your brother is all I want to be, because it is an honour to be your brother. But if you ask me who I am in the ministry, that is a different kettle of fish. Because I will tell you now, I know exactly who I am in Jesus Christ, within the body of ministry. Many years ago when Brother Jackson passed away, and Faith Assembly did their carnal and most wicked judgment, out of the blues, I got an email from our precious Sister here, and her husband, Brother Grear and Sister Priscilla Milton. May God bless their hearts. When the present day ministry of Faith Assembly stood against me on account of truth, because they have a completely warped understanding of truth, borne out of an inordinate ambition they have, an ambition they will not give to God, and they moved the Jackson Movement worldwide to stand against me and "crucify me", because I said Raymond Jackson would not die before the rapture. Like the "great whore" of Rome, they asked me to "REPEAL THE BOOK"; they asked me to recant! Brother Grear and Sister Priscilla wrote me a lovely email at that heart wrenching moment, in order to make a firm stand for truth, and to put a smile on my face, when these foxes callously tried all they could to run down my character, and they unleashed a great flood of persecution against me in order to bury my ministry, throwing nothing but mud. But I reiterate to the world: I am precisely in the shoes of Apostle Peter in the matter! He also said that Apostle John would not die, and John died, as recorded in the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 21, verses 20-23! Thus saith the Word of God! Therefore, if you condemn me, you also have to condemn Saint Peter, because he committed it first; he committed the same offence, if that is how you see it! FOR THE JUSTICE OF GOD IS ONE! If I am in error, then Apostle Peter was first in error. But if God did not judge Peter for the statement he made, a statement which the Omniscient God knew in that day was not true, because Peter was not meant to understand what Jesus meant, and God does not judge a man for what He does not give him to understand; then you cannot judge me for also misunderstanding the dream Brother Jackson shared openly, a dream which also made me believe that he would not die before the rapture! Moreover, we ALL in his following believed he would not pass away before the rapture, because something was hidden from us all, which is the fact that our Paul was to pass away without realizing the full potentials of the divine attributes invested in his chief apostolic office! Exactly! That is also precisely why we could not see the ministry of John in that day, as his successor lead ministry, for we did not expect him to have a successor before the rapture! The ministry office Brother Jackson occupied blinded our eyes to see what was to follow his ministry, and it was the doing of the Lord. That is how God ordained it, for He ordained that there would be a scale upon our eyes, so that we do not see beyond our Paul, that by it, the sincerity of our hearts may be made known, that we did not plan for this Third move, and we were not expecting this current Move of God: Because we expected Brother Jackson to be on the ground till the rapture, and we proclaimed the same before the whole world! Exactly! But the bottom line is this: The lifespan of a man, indeed the lifespan of any man, whether he lives or dies, has absolutely nothing to do with the revelation of the Word. If because of the statement I made that Brother Jackson would not die, (and I throw this challenge again tonight to the men on the Internet): If you can show any Scripture I have nullified by that statement of personal conviction; if you can show me just one verse of Scripture that that statement nullifies, when it was not offered as Thus saith the Lord; or secondly, if you can take the Scriptures, and prove that my presentation of the truth of “He that is to come” is a lie, I will apologize to you. Because Raymond Jackson, being the chief apostle of this end time, the first fruit of Elijah's ministry, was the one William Branham said would come in his prophetic declaration in 1963, when he was preaching on the Seventh Seal! And until you can prove that he was not the one to come, in fulfilment of that prophetic quote, or until you can show any Bible truth which my statement nullifies, I care less for what you say, and I care less for what chattering squirrels say around the globe! I DEFY THE WHOLE WORLD ON THE BASIS OF THE SCRIPTURES! Because Simon Peter said the very same thing I said! In Exodus Chapter 33, verse 1, God told Moses plainly and categorically, that he would take the children of Israel to the Promised Land, but Moses died on the way! What about that? And further, IF before the death of Moses, Joshua wrote that Moses would be on the ground until they entered the Promised Land, would it have amounted to untruth? Think about it! And with the eventual death of Moses, would he have needed to recant that statement? Of course not! William Branham also declared categorically that everything would be over by 1977, AND THE BRIDE IS STILL HERE IN 2014! Why do you not also condemn him for that statement? You bunch of hypocrites! The truth is: If, in spite of his statement declaring that John would not die, the Omniscient God justified Apostle Peter, for he was not divested, and God is the same, I also stand justified tonight by His grace! Yes, I do, for the justice of God is one, and His standard or yardstick ever remains the same! Our God is not a God of double standards! Brothers and sisters, A MAN IN ERROR CANNOT BEAR THE LIGHT! That is utterly impossible! Look at the camp of James Allen and Bud Thompson, men who did the wicked judgment, men who professed to be standing for the truth, and look at the camp of the man they judged, the man they say is in error, and see the incredible difference! Whilst their camp has been scattered to the four winds, and darkness has engulfed them totally, look at the brilliance of the light we have today! Just look at what God has done since 2005! Look at the incredible volume of light! Come on! Consider it sincerely! Let me tell you brethren, we have two problems in this Continuity Movement, for we are definitely not in want of messages; messages abound galore! We are only in want of money, and the time to produce the messages in the Scribe. It is money we do not have, and time: These are our only constraints in this Move. But talking of messages, we are not in want of that. We are battling to produce the Continuing Message of Jesus Christ. The fountain has been opened up, and is flowing like an artesian well. Jesus has opened up the fountain, and that fountain was opened up, Not in America, and certainly Not in Europe, but IN Africa. As we heard our brother say in the beautiful message he gave yesterday night, and which he concluded this morning, Brother Enoch said: These two continents, America and Europe, have given themselves over to Lucifer, with their abominable lifestyles, with their total negation of God, and their hatred for His written Word! But it is in Africa that God has opened the fountain of divine revelation, for that revelatory unction is here. And the fountain is flowing c o n t i n u o u s l y and inexhaustibly. It will pack us up to heaven in the rapture. If our brother in New York could write what he wrote, then I know a lot of men out there are also feasting from our website, men we know nothing about. I say that because Brother Richard Ofori, wrote from the United States. He said words to this very effect: “Brother Amos, let me confess to you, I have been feasting on the Scribe for a long time. I only waited for the right moment before contacting you.” And if that is so for him, it is also true for a lot of people we do not even know anything about. It is the doing of the Lord, and I confess tonight, that it is marvelous in my eyes, and to God be the glory. Amen. Who can receive anything unless it is given to him from above? Who can do anything, and who can even see anything, and who can say anything that will be of any spiritual benefit to the body of saints, unless the Lord be in it? The Lord makes the difference, and to Him alone be the glory. I want to appreciate these precious ministering brethren standing gallantly for the truth, in a world of gross unbelief, a world full of disdain and hatred for the Word of God. May God bless your ministries mightily, and may His grace abound in your lives, in Jesus' name. Amen. We appreciate your presence at this Convention, and more importantly, we appreciate your love and stand for the pure Word of God. It is what is making the difference to the body of saints. May God bless you all. Pray for me tonight, because I want to show you something by the grace of God. Pray that God will help me. Shall we bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

Please turn your Bibles with me to the Book of Revelation Chapter 10, beginning from verse 1, and it reads: “And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand a little book open”, (which is actually an open scroll, the scroll of redemption): “and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, SEVEN THUNDERS UTTERED THEIR VOICES. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.” Amen. From this prophetic passage of the Word of God, I want to take a message titled, THE LEAD THUNDER, AND THE CHRONOLOGY OF REVELATION 10.

Brothers and sisters, there is a right way to look at something, and there is a wrong way. Tonight, the Lord being my helper, I want to take you through time, scripturally speaking, as we take a close look at the footprints of God, for I want to show you something. I will not be finishing my message tonight; but I pray the Lord to help me do justice to it. I will therefore take my time, so as to make the truth plain. Look at the prophetic text we just read. In the Branham Movement, they take the truth of the “Seven Thunders” to the North, to the South, to the East, and to the West. Every thought imaginable, is where they take this issue. And when talking about the “Seven Thunders”, and you say that John is going to be a Lead Thunder, then the Message world go berserk, saying: “Yak, yak, yak!” They carry on as if you have made an abominable statement; as if you are saying something that is heretical. But let us start from the Seed Chapter, which is the Book of Genesis. Come with me to Genesis Chapter 15, for there our journey begins. Here, Abraham laid his sacrifice on the altar before God. Although it is only two verses we need, verses 13-14, however, we will start from verse 12, for a background, and it records: “And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him. And He” (God) “said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: AND AFTERWARD SHALL THEY COME OUT with great substance.” Brothers and sisters, here we have a sure word of promise God gave to Abraham; a promise concerning the deliverance of the children of Israel. Consequently, the thought of a deliverer, or the very concept of a deliverer, and the promise of a deliverer, is buried right here in this Scripture. I repeat: The promise of a deliverer, which the children of Israel looked forward to in Egypt, is buried in this very Scripture. For God promised them deliverance after four hundred years of servitude, and by which means He would also judge that nation, and they would come out with great substance. So, a promise of deliverance from the bondage of Egypt was already established in the Seed Chapter of the Bible, because that is precisely what God promised Abraham. However, I must make you realize that when we talk of the specific promise of a deliverer himself, that is a specific detail you have to read between the lines, because it was not expressly written before the hour of Moses. Remember that it was Moses who gave us the Book of Genesis, which is the first Book of the Holy Bible. Consequently, (and you must understand this, for this is what it shows), before the hour of Moses, we did not have an express written promise, which laid out in clear terms that there would be a deliverer, a human deliverer. The ministry of the deliverer is a revelation buried right within the promise God made to Abraham in Genesis Chapter 15, verses 13-14. Yet, before Moses came, every Jew in Egypt knew there would be a deliverer; every Jew looked forward to the deliverer, and every Jew prayed earnestly for this deliverer. So, the question is: Where did they get this thought from? Where did they get that promise? That is precisely what Genesis Chapter 15, verses 13-14 gives to us! That is exactly what we just read here, for the promise of a deliverer is buried in this very passage of Scripture, and that is precisely why God warns in His Word, as recorded in 2 Peter Chapter 1, verses

20-21, declaring: “Knowing this first, that NO PROPHECY OF THE SCRIPTURE IS OF ANY PRIVATE INTERPRETATION. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.” In other words: GOD IS HIS OWN INTERPRETER! So, the Word of God we have today, came by divine inspiration; it came by an anointing that fell upon vessels of clay God ordained to carry His written Word. And they penned down the Holy Scriptures that became the Standard and the Plumb-line of God's Truth, the Litmus Test of any and everything that is divinely true. But the interpretation of the written Word of God also comes the very same way! It comes by divine inspiration; it comes by an anointing that falls upon vessels of clay God ordains to carry the revelation of whatever portion of His Written Word they are ordained to carry! In other words: The writing of the Word of God came by divine inspiration, and its revealing or its interpreting, also comes by divine inspiration, because God AND His Word are divine! Simple! That is precisely why the divine revelation of the Scriptures does not come by every man who mounts the pulpit. It comes through the same channel by which it was written; because the Scriptures came by divinely inspired men, therefore, the revelation of it also comes by divinely inspired men. Everything is by the Spirit of God, for no man can do anything in this regard; because this is the realm of the supernatural. Now we enter the realm of God, an invisible eternal Spirit. God's Word, His ways, His revelation, they are all spiritual, and they can only be spiritually discerned. So, we are now dealing with the realm of the Spirit, and as such, we cannot afford to be presumptuous like Korah. This is holy ground. I repeat: The promise of a deliverer is not written anywhere in black and white, before the hour of Moses. What the children of Israel had was the promise of deliverance. What we read here in black and white is of deliverance; because God promised to bring them OUT, to deliver them from the nation of bondage, after four hundred years of servitude. But the point I want you all to see today, and the point I am making, is that there is something that was not expressly written, or expressly stated, which in prophetic reality, is the direct and true interpretation of this promise! In other words: We must read between the lines, for the truth of a deliverer was concealed within this promise. Hence why the Jews carried the true revelation of the promise contained in this verse for centuries of time, right up till Moses came, for they were expecting a deliverer. They knew that God would send a deliverer, because God promised it, and they prayed for that deliverer, on the basis contained in Genesis Chapter 15. Consequently, if all you see in Genesis Chapter 15, is the mere promise of deliverance, and you do not see a deliverer in that very provision of Scripture, your revelation is incomplete, for it is certainly limited; because you must read between the lines, in order to get the complete picture! For it is an obvious fact, that the children of Israel had a scriptural base, for expecting and praying earnestly for a deliverer! Brothers and sisters, No Word of prophecy is of any private interpretation! There is no doubt, that God gave Abraham the perfect picture, for He must have allowed Abraham, who was the recipient of this prophetic Word in that day, to have the revelation knowledge of the coming deliverer, and he passed it down to Isaac; Isaac passed it down to Jacob; Jacob passed it down to the twelve patriarchs, and the twelve patriarchs passed that truth down to the children of Israel. And when the time of their deliverance from the land of bondage in Egypt was drawing near, the Hebrew children began to cry to God for the promised deliverer. Turn with me to Acts Chapter 7, and we will take it verses 23-29, where Stephen was speaking concerning Moses: “And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: For he supposed his brethren would have understood HOW THAT GOD BY HIS HAND WOULD DELIVER THEM: but they understood not. And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.” Their refusal of Moses' ministry added an extra 30 years to their suffering, 30 extra years of bondage. But at the call of Moses, watch what the Lord said in verses 34-36: “I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be A RULER AND A DELIVERER by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.” Brothers and sisters, verse 25 states: “For he SUPPOSED his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.” It is always like that. And pathetically, the same thing is going on tonight, the same attitude; the same negative reaction. History is always repeating itself. But the question is this: What was the expectation of Moses in that day, when he stood up to fight for the Jew that was being oppressed by an Egyptian? He supposed that the children of Israel would understand that he was their deliverer, the one they had long sought and prayed for, for the hour had come! He expected them to realize that he was the promised one, for he knew who he was; but they did not realize anything, unfortunately! They rejected his ministry, calling him a usurper, an impersonator, one who was trying to make himself what he was not, and Moses ran away to the land of Midian. This rejection costed them an additional 30 years of serious slavery, and it made them cry passionately for the deliverer, and God sent Moses back, as RULER (J U D G E) A N D DELIVERER!

Brothers and sisters, we see something right here, and please pay attention. When God promised the Hebrews deliverance after 400 years, they were not told who the man would be. And when we consider the testimony of the inspired written record, even the thought of a human deliverer, was buried in the revelation of the Word of promise; it was buried in a divine revelation. It was not expressly stated in a way that every Tom, Dick, and Harry could see it. We have to read between the lines, for it was the spirit or the revelation of that promise that gave them a deliverer, for that was what God meant in essence. However, one other thing is this, and I want you all to see it: When God promised Abraham that He would send a deliverer, as recorded in Genesis Chapter 15, He did not tell him that there would be a Threefold ministry for the children of Israel. That thought, or that knowledge, was buried only in the mind of God, for the Lord knew that once the deliverer stepped on the scene, it was going to usher in an era when the deliverer would be used to establish the ministry that He, God, had ordained in His omniscient mind, for the nation of Israel, and it would be a Threefold ministry of Prophets, Priests, and Levites. (Brother Amos points to the chart). I would like us to understand that the order of Nethinims which we also see in the Old Testament, were not part of the ministry, but were merely menial workers, men appointed to fetch water and wash the basins and other implements used in the service of God in the Temple grounds. Period! Until recent years, I used to lump them with the ministry though, but they are more or less like deacons. However, that is why we grow in understanding, as we continue to walk with God in the light of His Word. Nethinims are not part of the ministry. I hope you all note the correction. But for the ministry, the Jews had men whom God called to the ministry. Joshua, who is standing right behind Moses, (Brother Amos points to the chart), stands for the ministry of a Prophet. The man standing next to him represents the High Priest, whilst this other man stands for the ministry of Levites. So, the Jewish Threefold Ministry gives us: Prophets, Priests, and Levites. And yet, in the promise of God to Abraham, the details of this ministry was not expressed or revealed to Abraham. Even the details of the deliverer were not expressly written: It was buried in the revelation of God's promise, and Abraham received it by divine insight. He had the knowledge of a promised deliverer by divine revelation, and as we stated earlier, no doubt, he passed that knowledge on to his seeds, for he had the revelation of what God said. Remember, the writer of the Book of Genesis is not Abraham, but Moses, a man who came centuries later. But in reading Moses on this very issue, I am saying that you must read between the lines, for Moses wrote precisely as God inspired him to write. But it is certain that Abraham had a perfect revelation of the promise of a deliverer for Israel, and as I have been emphasizing, No doubt, he passed this knowledge down to Isaac, and Isaac passed it down to Jacob, and Jacob passed it down to the twelve patriarchs, and the twelve patriarchs also passed it down to the children of Israel. Otherwise I have to ask you, and please answer me: When the Hebrews were in the land of bondage, how come they knew there was going to come a deliverer? Every Hebrew looked forward to the deliverer, and prayed for the deliverer! Then I ask you tonight, where did they get that knowledge from, knowing that the Law had not yet been given? Why did they not think that God was just going to deliver them by Himself, without the instrumentality of a vessel of clay, like He did when He brought Peter out of Jail? Come on! How come Moses' parents, Amram and Jochebed, knew that the little boy they gave birth to in that day, was the promised one? That was why they defied the order of Pharaoh to kill him! Apostle Paul revealed in the Book of Hebrews Chapter 11, verse 23, that they knew he was a proper child, meaning that he was the deliverer! Wake up! It is written: “BY FAITH”, (which is divine revelation), “MOSES, when he was born, was hid three months OF HIS PARENTS, BECAUSE THEY SAW HE WAS A PROPER CHILD; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.” By divine revelation, Amram and Jochebed knew that Moses was the promised one, and hence, they defied the king. And when they could not hide Moses any longer, because of his physical growth, they placed him in a basket, and put him on the river, and trusted Elohim to make the difference, and Elohim did! And when the hour came for the deliverance of the Jews, Moses knew, for he knew precisely who he was, and the purpose for which he was born, and he stepped into it; but the children of Israel were not yet ready for deliverance. They needed 30 more years of acute suffering before they would accept the choice of God. Saints, I reiterate: The knowledge of the deliverer, the expectation they carried in their hearts, the hope they had, which kept them alive, and helped them on for 400 long years, in the face of the tyranny they suffered in Egypt; that hope which they nurtured, that, “One day, there will arise a deliverer, and he will stand for us against Pharaoh, and we will be set free from this life of pain and misery, and we will move to the Promised Land, a land flowing with milk and honey”, where did they get it from? Are you with me tonight? Consequently, it is definite that they had something concrete, a perfect understanding of the promise God made to Abraham concerning their deliverance, for they knew they would have a deliverer! Incontestably, they knew something! There was a crystal clear Word of promise of a deliverer that they held unto! And every Hebrew in the land of Egypt went to bed every night, going on their knees, praying: “Our Father Elohim, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and

Jacob, remember us in our misery, and send thy deliverer. Let him come, O Lord our God; send him to deliver us.” Who in essence were they praying for, and looking forward to? It was Moses! Then Moses came on the scene, and God dealt with him, because the time was right. The Bible says that Moses “supposed...” His expectation was that his brethren would know that he was the answer to their prayer of 400 years, the answer to the prayer of four whole centuries! My! What of the promise we hold tonight that is almost 2000 years old, a promise buried in the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 21, verses 21-23, and in Revelation Chapter 10, verses 8-11? My! My! My! Moses knew exactly who he was, and he expected his people to also know! It is wonderful that Moses himself did not utter those precise words to them, for it was only a thought he held in his heart, which was why it is written: “FOR HE SUPPOSED his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.” It was the inspiration God gave Stephen, which picked the thought of about 1500 years! Glory to God! God took him back in a divine inspiration, and he picked the thought that Moses held in his heart that day. And really, the Jews should have known it was Moses, because, prior to that day when Moses defended the Hebrew against an Egyptian, that had never happened; No man had ever dared to stand up against an Egyptian, on account of a Jew! Moses did for them what no man had ever done, and that should have opened their eyes to something! That was a sign of the deliverer, for he was to stand up for the Jews against the Egyptians. But unfortunately, they did not understand. What a pathetic state! And a misery ordained for only 400 years, became a misery of 430 years. Unbelief added 30 extra years; unbelief added three whole decades! Unbelief will only kill you. Let us throw away unbelief.

My point is this, brothers and sisters: They knew there would be a deliverer, but nobody knew there would be Priests and Levites. It was all still buried in the mind of God, until when the time came for God to set these ministries in place. Then, the Holy One of Israel came to Moses, and told him: “Take Aaron, and anoint him as High priest, and all his sons who have no physical handicap, will be priests.” God also set the ministry of Levites in place, men who constitute another order or fold of ministry, thus giving us a Threefold ministry of Prophets, Priests, and Levites, which God set over the entire nation of Israel. And yet, before Moses came to set these ministries in place, there was no Scripture in this whole world, that laid out the Threefold ministry God ordained for Israel; for this revelation was not even given to Abraham, the father of faith. It was a truth buried solely in the mind of God. And at the appointed hour, when the hour came for these ministries to be established, God simply opened the door of divine revelation to Moses, Israel's Lead Ministry, who was also the beginning ministry point of the entire Israeli ministry. He used Moses to let the children of Israel know for the very first time, that they were going to have a Threefold order of ministry, and God set them in place over the nation of Israel. Who can deny this truth? And furthermore, when Moses was on ground, God also positioned Joshua to be his successor prophet, ever before Moses passed away; because that man stepped in the shoes of Moses. He was, as such, a lead ministry in waiting. That is why on my chart, whilst Moses stands in the lead, as the head of the entire Jewish ministry, I also have Joshua standing directly behind him, dressed in the same garment, representing the ministry of a prophet, under the leadership of Moses, with two other ministers beside him, representing Priests and Levites. (Brother Amos points to the chart). In other words, standing next to Joshua on the left, on our chart, we have Aaron, the High Priest, representing the order of Priests, and finally, we have the third man beside the High Priest, representing the fold of Levites, giving us the Threefold ministry of the nation of Israel. Moses, however, was the lead ministry, the standard bearer in that day, for the whole house of Israel, for he carried the blueprint. Do not forget the first thought we laid out earlier, which is that before Moses came, there was nothing said about the Old Testament ministry, except the promise of a deliverer. Full stop! But when the hour came for God to establish the Old Testament ministry, ever before God established that of the high priest, or priests, or that of Levites, the Lord first established that of Moses; because the entire ministry of Israel, under the Old Covenant, was to be born, and was birthed, by the ministry of Moses! And as I have been emphasizing, he was in fact, the beginning ministry point of the entire Israeli ministry. Yet, there was nothing laying out all these things in all what God showed Abraham, other than the promise of a deliverer; For the plot of the Old Testament ministry was not laid out, prior to the hour of the man who held the standard for the Old Testament ministry! God left out this detail completely. It was reserved till the hour of fulfillment, and the revelation of the various folds of ministry for the Old Covenant, came through the man that bore the plumb-line in that day, the man who held the blueprint for that ministry, and a man who constituted the beginning ministry of the nation of Israel. Do not let this fact pass you by, for I just dropped a serious thought for those who have ears to hear. I repeat: Before Moses came, there was nothing that laid out the order of the ministry God ordained for the nation of Israel. They did not have it! Nowhere did they have it, for no one had it, not even by mere revelatory insight! God kept it concealed, until the hour of its establishment. Then God dealt with the man who carried the blueprint of that entire ministry, one who was the starting ministry point of the entire Israeli ministry. And when Moses came, he informed the children of Israel, that the ministry of Israel is a Threefold ministry, and he laid out everything for them, as God began to establish the ministries, under the leadership of Moses. He had the blueprint of how those men were to be put together, and the order of men to make up that ministry. We will say tonight, that the revelation of the Old Testament ministry which Moses carried, was a fresh revelation in that day, for it was “Present Truth”; it was present tense light of God concerning the ministry, and it all came in the hour of Moses, the lead ministry, the man who bore the blueprint of that ministry, and the beginning office of that entire ministry. Yes, it was! Brothers and sisters, by the grace of God, we have now established something, for it is scripturally settled, that prior to the establishment of the ministry of Moses, the ministry of the Old Covenant was buried in the mind of God, until Moses, the man who was the lead ministry under that Covenant, stepped on the scene. Catch it! Until the hour that Moses, the man who was the starting ministry point of the entire Israeli ministry of the Old Covenant, the man who carried the blueprint of that ministry, came, nobody had a clue to the Old Testament ministry! Hence, Brother Jackson often stated: “The beginning of anything gives you first the head”, whether you want to consider the birth of a chicken, a lamb, a bird, or that of a human being, or even that of a juristic person, which is a registered company, a legal entity: The beginning of anything gives you first the head. As it is true in the natural, it is equally true in the spiritual. The details of that ministry were invested in only one man, and it was in the hands of one man, Moses, and he was the man who laid out the details of this Threefold ministry. Are you going to deny that? The call of Moses was the starting point of the Israeli ministry. He carried the plan of Israeli redemption from bondage, and the staff in his hand, which was the staff of a shepherd, became the staff of God, for God borrowed the staff of a man, and it became the standard for the ministry. Glory to God! My! Do not forget that at his call, he pleaded that the children of Israel would not listen to him, and that they would say that God did not send him. And God said, "What is in your hand?" He said, "It is a rod." God said, "Throw it down." He threw it down, and it turned to a snake. Moses ran and God said, "Come back, and hold it by the tail." And when he did, it turned back into a rod. The Lord also said, "Moses, put your hand in your breast, and remove it." It became white like leprosy. God said, "Put it back in your breast, and bring it out again", and when he did, it became normal again. Now the Lord told him: "If they do not believe THE VOICE of the first sign, they will believe THE VOICE of the second sign." This is absolutely so, because to every sign, there is a voice. And to every sign, there must be a voice, a scriptural voice. If they do not have a voice, one that is a scriptural voice, they are blinding angels, deceivers. They are only entertainers, and the bride is not interested in entertainers, because we are tired of this evil, wicked, and adulterous generation of chronic unbelievers: We want to go home! I repeat: To every sign, there must be a voice! And as William Branham rightly stated, for any voice to be accepted by the people of God, it must be a scriptural voice. If it is not scriptural, it is an "uncertain sound", and we will not receive it; because we do not believe anything but the Bible! Here, we are Bible believers! We are the children of the Covenant, the children of light, and as such, the Bible is the only thing we believe! If people do not like this fact about us, tough! Let us move on, for we are seeing a pattern of something.

Remember, I am taking you on a spiritual journey through time, starting from the beginning, because I want to you to see something. I want to show you something. Are you with me? Yes! We have established a fact, and that is that the details of the Threefold ministry God set over Israel, was nowhere written, and the knowledge of it was also nowhere conveyed, prior to the era of Moses. That is settled, for it was known only to Almighty God, until Moses came and laid it all out. But now come with me. In the Book of Jeremiah, Chapter 31, verses 31-34, where the Bible records: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a New Covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to the Covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my Covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord: But this shall be the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." Apostle Paul picked up this prophetic utterance, and laid it out in the Book of Hebrews Chapter 8, verses 7 – 13. Brothers and sisters, now we come to another junction of time, in the Old Testament era: the era of Prophet Jeremiah. In that day, the Old Covenant was already in motion, for God had used Moses to set it in motion. The ministry was also already established over the people of Israel, and Israel was already a nation fully established and thriving in the Promised Land. Many years had come and gone. All of a sudden, God anointed Jeremiah, and he came with a prophetic utterance, letting Israel know that there was going to come a change of Covenant. Are you listening to me? God was going to bring in a New Covenant, which is the New Testament. And Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Savior, is the Testator of the New Covenant. Brothers and sisters, Jeremiah prophesied about this Covenant. Prophet Ezekiel also prophesied about the same Covenant. Many prophets of old spoke about it. However, saints of God, when you consider all these writings, the writings of the Old Testament prophets, I want you to know tonight, that they told us nothing, absolutely nothing, concerning the New Testament MINISTRY! With all the prophetic utterances they gave in abundance, all pointing to the New Covenant, Not one of them laid out in their inspired writings, the details of the New Covenant ministry, outside of Jesus' personal ministry. The details of the New Testament ministry, a plural ministry, were kept absolutely silent. God kept it out of the written record entirely. You are not hearing me. With all the writings of the Old Testament, which all points to the New Testament, both the Law and the Prophets, is it not strange, that with all the writings of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Amos, right up to Malachi, that not one of them spoke anything concerning the New Testament ministry? God kept that out, and kept it to Himself. It was buried only in the mind of Elohim, until the appointed hour for it. This now brings us to the hour of Jesus Christ. Brothers and sisters, when Jesus stepped on the scene in his day, unfortunately, there was nothing in the entire Old Covenant that spoke of the New Covenant ministry, for it was nowhere written, from the Book of Genesis, right up to the last Book of the Old Testament, which was that of Prophet Malachi. I say that simply because Jesus was born under the Law, and he lived and died under the Old Covenant, which was made up of the Law and the Prophets. The manner and the order of the New Testament ministry was completely buried in the mind of God, until the hour came that God was to set it in motion. And church, it took Jesus Christ in that day, who is the Head of the entire church of God, to set the ministry in place, for he set it in motion, beginning first with the ministry of apostles, who make up the head of the New Testament ministry. In the Gospel of Saint Luke, Chapter 6, taking it from verse 12, the Bible records: “And it came to pass in those days, that he” (Jesus) “went out into a mountain TO PRAY, and continued all night in prayer to God.” The question is: What was he praying so earnestly for? He was praying for God's leadership, revelatory leadership, that he may have the mind of the Father concerning the men God had chosen before the foundation of the world, to be the beginning nucleus of the ministry that will constitute the head of the New Testament ministry. Precisely! Because up until this time, there was nothing in the entire written record that laid out the New Testament ministry! It was held in the mind of God, as God's secret! But when the Messiah came, and the hour arrived for the New Testament ministry to be set in motion, Almighty God dealt with His Son about it, and that moved him to seek God's face, as to the precise choice of the Father; for the programme of salvation, and the choice of the men ordained for the ministry, is strictly the Father's choice. Yet, Jeremiah spoke about the New Covenant, as well as Isaiah and other prophets, but to none of them was committed the revelation of the details of the New Testament ministry. They all had no clue! But in that day, the Lord Jesus also started with the men who would become the head of the entire New Testament ministry, a detail of which was written nowhere. I reiterate: There was no scriptural reference point for the ministry he constituted in that day! It was fresh, for it was totally new! Jesus, could do this, because, as the Head of the New Testament church, he held the blueprint of the ministry, as given to him by God; for he is the Testator of the New Covenant. The Jews no doubt expected the Messiah to carry on with the order of ministry Moses had established, particularly since the Law and prophets did not talk about any change in the ministry, except that of the Aaronic priesthood. And even that priesthood change was a truth which was still hidden from them in that day, in spite of the prophetic utterance David gave, and in spite of the prophetic typology Melchizedek also set! Our Lord Jesus Christ, realizing the great and crucial importance of what he was about to do, and knowing that the destiny of the New Testament Church, rested on the caliber of men who would be used to set it all in motion, (and the choice had better be right), went up to the mountain, and prayed all night, and he prayed till he got the mind of God. He saw the face of Peter; he saw the face of James; he saw the face of John; he saw that of Philip, and that of Andrew, along with the other apostles, and even that of Judas: Because God had a plan! Oh, my! But in that day, as God showed him the face of Judas, the Father also showed him exactly what Judas would eventually do, and why it was necessary for it to be so: because it is written, and because the Scripture cannot be broken. That is why the Bible says that Jesus knew from the beginning, who it was that would betray him, for the Father had showed him the betrayer in that day. By the time he was coming down that mountain, he knew by divine revelation, exactly who the men were. Christ did not know everything from the beginning though, but as he moved on in his ministry with God, the Father was showing him the plan. That is why our Lord said in John Chapter 12, verses 49-50: “For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that His commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, SO I SPEAK.” In other words: AS I HEAR, I SPEAK. So, he followed God each step of the way, a step at a time, as God led the way. Saints, when he came down that mountain in the morning, he knew exactly who the men would be! Turn back with me to Luke Chapter 6, and we will continue from verse 13: “And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also HE NAMED APOSTLES.” For the very first time ever, a fresh revelation direct from heaven had been given, concerning the New Testament ministry, a ministry which had been kept secret by God. And the name of this ministry, no doubt, made the mouth of all the Jews drop for its strangeness, being completely unheard of, all through time! "Apostles..." They said, "We know Priests; we know Levites; and we know Prophets. Where did he get Apostles? And what is even the meaning of that? This man is overturning the law, because Moses did not speak about apostles!" It was a fresh revelation! It was a fresh ministry, the ministry of the hour, established in the day God required it. And the man that had the revelation concerning the beginning ministry fold of the New Testament ministry, was the Messiah himself! Brothers and sisters, you must know that all these ministries are invested in Jesus Christ for salvation, for they are all ministerial attributes of Jesus Christ. But he was going to divest himself of them, after his resurrection, and invest them in a Fivefold plural body of ministry, beginning first with the apostolic ministry head; because the beginning of anything gives you first the head! That is why Jesus did not start with prophets, as the Jews would have expected. And they probably wondered, "Apostles? We expected him to start with prophets, for that is the head of the ministry; because it is written in the prophets, God does nothing, but reveal it to His servants the prophets. That is the Word! The Book of Amos said it. Yak! Yak! Yak!"

Brothers and sisters, in the days of Jesus Christ, in their entire Scripture, nowhere was the Fivefold ministry stated, for it was not yet written. In fact, there was only one fold of ministry Jesus himself established before he left the scene, a ministry fold we see all the way to the Upper room, as recorded in the Book of Acts Chapter 1, and that was the fold of apostles; and they were the twelve apostles. No one had any clue to what was to follow thereafter. "But Brother Amos, what about the seventy disciples?" That is precisely why they are not called apostles, but seventy disciples. You did not hear what I said: That is why they were simply called seventy disciples, for they were not differentiated from the other many disciples Jesus Christ had in that day. They were seventy disciples whom the Lord used for an Interim work, so that Israel could be shaken to the reality that the Messiah was on ground, and then, their work was done. That was why in the Upper room before Pentecost, as well as on the Day of Pentecost, and even after Pentecost, you do not see the seventy disciples used in any way again, for any ministerial work. It just never existed again, proving that they served only a temporary, one-time purpose, and it was over and done with. It does not come into the New Testament ministry structure, for it does not form any part of the New Testament ministry, which is the Fivefold ministry! I hope that is clear. Brothers and sisters, Jesus knew he had to establish an order of ministry that would constitute the beginning nucleus of the men that would make up the head of the New Testament ministry, and then he passed away before the church was born on the Day of Pentecost, by the power of the Holy Ghost which came upon and also filled the believers. But ever before he passed away, (Brother Amos points to the chart), what did Jesus also do? Saints, because God will never leave Himself without a lead ministry, the Lord Jesus singled out Peter, and he said to him in Matthew Chapter 16, verse 19: "And I will give unto thee THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” Every other apostle understood this to be the chief apostolic ministry role of Saint Peter, “THE Apostle” to the Circumcision. Hence, Apostle Peter got up in the Upper room, as recorded in the Book of Acts Chapter 1, saying: “Brethren, it is important that the prophecy hanging in the Book of Psalms concerning the apostolic ministry which Judas Iscariot held, needs to be fulfilled now, for we must put somebody else in his place.” Brothers and sisters, no other apostle got up to say, “Brother Peter, do you not think we should wait on the Lord? Do you not think we need to exercise some patience, knowing that it is only God that knows? You need to be humble, Brother Peter, for you are being presumptuous. Who made you the chief apostle? Are you now setting yourself over us? Who told you that that Scripture is for now. Why are you seeking pre-eminence? That is Nicolaitan!” Brothers and sisters, Gentiles are a foolish people! I say that because of the horrible attitude which these religious demons have towards ministry leadership in the Branham Movement! That man went into the Book of Psalms by divine inspiration, by the Spirit of Christ, being the chief apostle, and brought out something which Jesus did not speak about when he was here on earth, a prophecy which no other apostle logged onto, and a prophecy which was ordained for that day, for it was to be fulfilled in that very hour of time. It was not a mistake! If it was a mistake, you would never have seen Matthias, the twelfth apostle, becoming one of the twelve foundation stones of the New Jerusalem, as recorded in the Book of Revelation Chapter 21, for God confirmed it in the Book of Revelation, by the twelfth foundation stone he constituted. So, it was not a mistake, for it is perfect divine leadership, for the Torah allowed them to use the two means they used in that day in choosing Matthias, which was prayer, and casting lot. But most importantly, God was in it. Period! Again, on the Day of Pentecost, Peter also got up to give his inaugural sermon, and James and John did not say, “Brother Peter, you are very forward and presumptuous! We love you, but you need to be humble! Are you the only apostle? It was you who spoke yesterday; and now today, it is you again speaking. Are you the only one that can speak?” Are you listening to me? What does that show you? They never fought him, because they knew his precise place in the ministry, for he was the chief apostle to the Jews! Therefore, I ask: Looking at the twelve apostles, what do we see among them? We see THE Apostle, the man with the staff of leadership of the apostles, the standard bearer, just as Moses also bore a staff in his day. Remember, I said that God borrowed the rod of Moses; because when God touched that rod, from that day, it became the rod of God. God said: “Point that rod to the skies, that it may bring locust, swarm of flies, and darkness; stretch it also over the Red Sea, that it may part ways for thee...” That rod became God's judgment rod. God borrowed the rod of a man, and it became the sign of his office; it became an emblem of his office. He was the standard bearer, the man with the plumb-line of God in his hand. And when Jesus Christ, “the Wisdom of God”, established twelve apostles, he did not forget God's rod, and he gave the rod to Saint Peter, making him “THE Apostle”; not AN Apostle, but THE Apostle of the Jews. An apostle means one of the apostles, but THE Apostle is the chief of them all. Galatians Chapter 2 confirms this truth, beginning from verse 6, where Apostle Paul states: “But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel of the uncircumcision was committed UNTO ME, as the Gospel of the circumcision was UNTO PETER; (For He that wrought effectually in Peter to THE APOSTLESHIP OF THE CIRCUMCISION, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)” Hold it right there for now. In the writings of Apostle Paul, the chief apostolic office of Peter is herein confirmed. Yet, the chief apostolic ministry of Saint Peter was not established in the days of Paul, but was established ever before Paul was converted. Because Peter was already the chief apostle to the Jews, ever before Paul was saved! Consequently, we have to see that Apostle Paul was only using Apostle Peter as a ministry reference point, and a comparative ministry point, as expressed in verses 7-8, which records: “... when they saw that the Gospel of the uncircumcision was committed UNTO ME, as the Gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to THE APOSTLESHIP of the circumcision, the same was MIGHTY IN ME toward the Gentiles.” It is a comparative thing. He acknowledged the chief apostolic ministry of Peter, over and above every other apostle God set over the Israeli nation in that day! 2 Corinthians Chapter 12, verse 11, also confirms this truth, as it is written: “I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very CHIEFEST APOSTLES, though I be nothing.” Let the Branham Movement fight that! Argue with that, for the Bible already used “CHIEFEST APOSTLES”! Hence I repeat: Apostle Peter was not established in the ministry in the days when Saint Paul was brought into the fold: He was already established ever before Saint Paul met with Jesus, thus proving that before Jesus left the scene, having put together the ministry fold or the ministry order, that was going to form the head of the New Covenant ministry, he also singled out one man as The Apostle, the chief of the apostles. You can either call him THE Apostle, not An Apostle, but THE Apostle, or the CHIEF Apostle. If you do not like the title of Chief Apostle, then call him “THE Apostle”; but believe something, and call him something, for it is written, and hence settled! God gave Apostle Peter the standard to bear, for the entire nation of Israel, and then, Jesus went home to be with the Father. Something had now been established: The head of the New Covenant ministry, as well as the chief of that ministry, whose name is Peter, were already put in place. Jesus did not leave this earth, without first establishing a chief apostolic office. P e r i o d !

Saints of God, I wish to emphasize that up till this point in time, (Brother Amos points to the chart), when we had the twelve apostles on the Day of Pentecost, we knew nothing of the other four folds of ministry ordained by God for the New Testament, and nothing was said about them either. The Apostles probably thought that that was all there was to it; they probably thought that that was how it was going to remain. Because as yet, the revelation was still buried in the mind of the Master, for the revelation had not yet been given. Conditions later warranted the adding of the other folds of ministry, one after the other, starting with prophets, then evangelists, and pastors and teachers. Then something happened. Brothers and sisters, it was time for God to start dealing with the Gentiles. Jesus Christ in his resurrection glory, realizing that it was time for Gentile admission; realizing that it was time for Gentile deliverance from the hold of sin, and from the power of death, what did the Master do? He came to a man by the name of Saul of Tarsus, who later became Apostle Paul, in broad daylight, as he was on his way to Damascus, seeking to arrest the people of this way. Yes, some will tell me that it was an Angel of the Lord that appeared to Paul; but he was characterizing Jesus the Christ! So, in true essence, it is Jesus meeting with Paul, and that is also his own testimony. So, the Master met with Saul on his way to Damascus. What was Jesus doing? He was doing exactly what God did in the days of Moses! Because the New Covenant is really for us Gentiles; the blessing of Abraham is for us Gentiles. You are not hearing me. The blessing that God gave Abraham is for us Gentiles; but the Jews did not know that, and they still do not know that! It is Saint Paul that came with the blueprint of it, as recorded in Galatians Chapter 3, verses 13-14, which provides: “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That THE BLESSING OF ABRAHAM MIGHT COME ON THE GENTILES through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.” Brothers and sisters, I ask again: What did the Master do when the time came for Gentile salvation, after having used Apostle Peter to open the door of life to the Gentiles in the home of Cornelius, as recorded in Acts Chapter 10? He did exactly what God did through Moses, when the hour came for the salvation of the children of Israel from Egypt! Jesus dealt with a man who would be the beginning point of the Gentile Ephesian Fivefold ministry! He dealt with the man who would carry the blueprint of God's plan of redemption for the whole world, a plan which Apostles Peter, James, John, and Andrew, knew nothing about as yet; because as yet, they did not see you and me in God's plan of salvation! Even God had to deal with Peter in the supernatural way He did, in order to get him to go to the home of Cornelius. But in spite of that powerful experience, he was still very limited as to the plan of the redemption of the Gentiles. The blueprint of redemption, for the entire Gentile race, was committed into the hands of one man, the beginning office point of the entire Gentile Ephesian ministry. Do not forget that the ministry of the New Testament is really a Gentile ministry, because the bride of Christ, is essentially a Gentile bride, even though it started first with the Jews, for they were its beginning nucleus. That is why the Jews rejected the New Covenant message, for they not only killed the Messiah, they also rejected the ministry of the apostles, and the message was then turned over to the Gentiles, and we embraced it with great joy. However, the Jewish race was the ones God used to set this plan of redemption in motion, which was why they became the beginning nucleus of the bride church. But in reality, or in real essence, it is a message for the Gentiles, which only started with Jews, for you cannot deny the fact tonight, that Jesus is coming back for a Gentile bride, for it is a Gentile message. The point is this: When Jesus Christ was going to begin the New Testament ministry, what did he do? He set the head of the ministry in motion first, with the lead apostolic ministry of Peter, the man with the keys into the kingdom of God. That in itself was a heavy responsibility, for it was a great responsibility for a man to hold the keys of the kingdom of God! It is not a light thing! And if we were to say to the Gentiles today, that a man is similarly holding the key into the kingdom of God, they will accuse you of blasphemy; they will say that you are being sacrilegious, and that you are in idolatry. They will cry out, saying: "How can the key of the kingdom of Almighty God be in the hands of a man? That is blasphemy! No, it cannot be in any man's hand, but in the hand of God!" As if they know the plan of God better than God, and as if they love God more than the children of the Most High God! What if I inform you, that reading between the lines of Scripture, John now holds the key into the kingdom, and that the Lord will also make him use the key to open the door of the kingdom back to the Jews, at the Jewish Connection, before the ministries of Moses and Elijah are set in motion? Or what exactly do you think the Jewish Connection is? It is God re-opening the door to the Jews, and this in itself, signals the closing of the door to the Gentiles! It is God working in reverse of what He did that day through Saint Peter, as recorded in Acts Chapter 10, during the Gentile Connection, whereby the door of life was opened to us Gentiles, before the apostle to the Gentiles was set in motion! And may I inform you that there is no door that can be opened, be it a natural or a spiritual door, without the use of a key, regardless of whether the word "key" is written or not, for that is the absolute implication! Key speaks of a divine authority a man holds from God, to give accessibility to God's children to something divine! Exactly! Brothers and sisters, the children of Israel rejected the Gospel, and God set the nation of Israel aside. In 69 AD., General Titus came against Jerusalem, and by 70 AD., Jerusalem was destroyed, and the temple was raised to the ground, fulfilling the prophetic utterance the Messiah gave in 33 AD., when he declared: "The day will come when the army shall surround Jerusalem, and raze it to the ground. And this temple you pride yourself in, there will not be one stone laid upon the other, that shall not be thrown down." Tonight as we speak, there is no temple in Jerusalem, but a mosque, the mosque of Omar, sitting directly on the rock of Moriah, where the temple of Solomon once stood. Why did this happen? It is all because they rejected the Messiah, and God shut them out, and He turned to us Gentiles. But you know what, church? When the time now came for Jesus Christ to set the ministry of the Universal bride of Christ, the Gentile Ephesian Fivefold ministry, in motion, what exactly did he do? He also appeared in broad daylight, in a pillar of fire, to a man named Saul of Tarsus, and converted him to Paul. The Lord then led him to Arabia, for the space of about two years or so, and in Arabia, the angel of the Lord started laying out before him, the various types and shadows of the Law, all pointing to Jesus Christ, thereby setting forth the New Testament message to Apostle Paul, giving him the blueprint of the message of life. Where do you think the revelation he laid out in the Book of Hebrews comes from? By the time that man left Arabia, he was loaded with the revelation of Almighty God, which is the revelation of Jesus Christ. The revelation he bore was so deep and so serious, God had to send an infirmity to his flesh, to make him humble, on account of the Excellency of the insight he got. In 2 Corinthians Chapter 12, verses 7-9, Apostle Paul states: “And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.” When that man hit the land of the Gentiles, he carried the plumb-line of the truth of Jesus Christ for us Gentiles, because it is upon his revelation that the faith of the Gentiles is founded on, for as it is written in 1 Corinthians Chapter 3, verses 10-11: “According to the grace of God which is given unto ME, as a wise MASTERbuilder, I have laid THE FOUNDATION, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. FOR OTHER FOUNDATION CAN NO MAN LAY THAN THAT IS LAID, WHICH IS JESUS CHRIST.” The Lord God had Saint Paul as the chief apostle in the first church age, the beginning office of the plural apostolic head of the ministry of the Ephesians, just as Moses was the chief prophet, the beginning office of the prophetic head of the Old Testament ministry. Now pay attention.

Brothers and sisters, God began to lay out the New Testament ministry, in the hour of the New Testament dispensation, and hence, it was fresh, it was new, for it was nothing like the Old Testament. And the details of the ministry it now projected on ground, you could not go to the Old Testament writings, in order to bring it out. You could not even go to the days of Jesus Christ, when he was here on earth, in his body of flesh, to bring it out; because the other four folds of ministry were established strictly after the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, being post Jesus' ministry. The office of Deacons was even established before the other four folds of ministry were set in place. But conditions necessitated the adding of these other four folds of ministry, giving us prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers, completing the Fivefold ministry. Hence, we see Apostle Peter, along with the other apostles, making up the head of the New Testament ministry, and we also see Agabus, the prophet, Philip, the evangelist, as well as pastors and teachers, right there in the land of Israel. And when the Lord brought in Saint Paul, he was used to set in motion the ministry of the Ephesians, and all the other folds of ministry were also established for us Gentiles, giving us the Ephesian Fivefold ministry. Hence, it is written in the Book of 1 Corinthians Chapter 12, verse 27: “Now ye are the body of Christ” (in general), “and members in particular.” In other words, although we all together make up the universal body of Christ, but in reality, we make up only a specific individual member of that body. And to show that we are specific individual members of the body, he said in verse 28: “And God hath set some in the church, FIRST apostles...” You cannot talk of the New Covenant ministry without first talking of apostles. I take that verse again: “And God hath set some in the church, FIRST apostles, SECONDARILY prophets, thirdly teachers...” We know that teachers constitute the fifth and last fold of ministry, on the full authority of Ephesians Chapter 4, verse 11. But he used teachers here in this way, only to lay out the fact that there is a divine order to the establishment of the ministry. Period! He was not going into it in details, except to give us an insight, that we may know without any iota of doubt, that there is an order to the establishment of the New Covenant ministry. It is in Ephesians Chapter 4, that he set out the ministry in its precise sequential order, just as it is written: “And he gave some, APOSTLES; and some, PROPHETS; and some, EVANGELISTS; and some, PASTORS and TEACHERS.” This gives us the Ephesian Fivefold ministry. And the Ephesian ministry is a Gentile ministry, for the Jews were shut out, and the Gentiles came in, in pre-eminence, and the Gospel became a Gentile Gospel, and the ministry became a Gentile ministry. Are you with me? Eventually, Jerusalem was sacked, and the Jews were carried away captive, scattered to all the nations of the world. But the Gospel began to shine in the Gentile nations, as God began to deal with the Gentiles, to get a Bride for His Son Jesus. So, when we look at the Gentile ministry, it is a Fivefold ministry, but it starts first with apostles, and secondly prophets, thirdly evangelists, fourthly pastors, fifthly and finally teachers, giving us the number of Grace. But the truth is, there is nothing in the entire Old Testament that even gives us a hint of this ministry. It was established in the hour of the New Covenant, as God ordained that it be set in place in its precise hour. However, church, the man with the blueprint of the New Covenant ministry for us Gentiles, is Apostle Paul. Let me now remind you: He had been anointed, and he was carrying the blueprint of the plan of redemption of the Gentiles, and he was burning the Gentile nations with the message of salvation in Jesus Christ. The hearts of men were being set on fire; and as they were being set on fire, assemblies of the saints were being established, but there was no ministry as yet. But there were men in these local assemblies, whose hearts God had stirred, and God gave them grace to stand in the gap, because somebody must take responsibility. And that was the pattern around Gentile Christendom, until it got to an hour for men to be set in office. The Spirit of God dealt with Apostle Paul, and he wrote to Timothy and Titus: “Go into all these cities, and set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city.” He gave them the requirements for the men in the ministry, and the two men went as instructed. They went under the instruction of the man with the blueprint, a man with the mind of the Spirit of Christ concerning Gentile redemption. Brothers and sisters, Apostle Paul laid out the entire order for the New Testament ministry, and it is needful to point out that it was not revealed ahead of its time; it was revealed in the season when the reality was here. You are not hearing me. The New Testament Fivefold ministry revelation did not come ahead of its time: It came in the season of its establishment. But remember this, before that day, when Jesus was here, we knew nothing of the Fivefold ministry. Are you with me? When Jesus was here, the only ministry fold he knew and established was that of apostles. And if a brother rose up in that day, and said: “Brethren, there is coming an additional four fold ministry to what Jesus is establishing for us right now”, it would not have been an untruth, even though the Branham Movement would have shot him, and called him an Antichrist. Yet, it would have been nothing but a perfect revelation.

Brothers and sisters, I am making a crucial point tonight. Only follow me with the eye of faith; for the foundation of truth is the Scriptures. But now, let me raise my message a notch higher. In 66 AD., Apostle Paul passed away. But in that day, the Ephesian ministry was already fully established, and had served wonderfully, establishing a standard pure seed church. And in that body, everyone saw the place of Paul, for everyone recognized he was “THE APOSTLE of the Gentiles.” But the truth however, is this, and please pay attention: As per 66 AD when Apostle Paul passed away, nobody had any clue that there would be seven thunders. There was nothing called seven thunders in that day, anywhere in the entire Scriptures. As per 66 AD, it had not even entered the mind of any man in the ministry, that there would be a seven thunder ministry. Such thought or knowledge just did not exist! The knowledge of it was buried only in the mind of Elohim. But pay close attention tonight my brethren. Brothers and sisters, in the mind of God, ever before He called Moses, He knew there would be seven thunders; because it is written in Acts Chapter 15, verse 18: “KNOWN UNTO GOD ARE ALL HIS WORKS from the beginning of the world.” God had laid out the entire plan of redemption in His Omniscient mind, but He reveals its light in its ordained season, and the rest, He leaves it buried in His sovereign mind. So, as per 66 AD., the whole of Christendom, which was in no doubt as to the Ephesian fivefold ministry, had no inkling as to the seven thunders. There was not one soul in the ministry, or in the body of saints, that had any inkling that there would be a ministry called seven thunders, right up to 95 AD. The issue of a thunder ministry was still a total mystery, buried in the mind of God! I will say it this way: Even when Jesus was here, he did not know there would be a seven thunder ministry. As for the Branham Movement, a pack of unbelievers, if you think I am speaking nonsense, I will throw the revelation of Jesus in your face. Because the same Jesus, in his prophetic revelation, opened up the Book of Revelation with a plain confession, declaring: “The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him...” The material question is: When did God give it to him? It was after his resurrection, when he ascended up into glory, and was sitting on the throne of the Father! When he was here on earth, he did not need to know about the seven thunders, when he was yet to establish the Ephesian Fivefold ministry! Let me tell you now in plain terms: The details of the ministerial plan of God, is never laid out in full detail ahead of time. I challenge every so-called Doctor of Divinity on that! I challenge every Theologian and Professor of Divinity, and every so-called student of the Bible, to show me the place in the entire Bible, where God ever laid out the details of a pluralistic ministry ahead of its time, and I will apologize! My email address is at the back of the Scribe Magazine. I am waiting to hear from you. But do not write me foolishness, or I will not bother myself with you, for I have better things to do with my time. Brothers and sisters, under the New Testament, God established a new body of ministry, which is the Fivefold ministry. Apostle Paul had been used in a mighty way; and the twelve apostles had come and gone, except John. The early church ministry was dying one by one, until time rolled into 96 AD. Shall I say it like this: Around 85-90 AD., when Apostle John wrote the Gospel and his first three Epistles, all he knew about was the Fivefold ministry. He had no inkling even as of 95 AD, that there would be a ministry called seven thunders. It was still buried in the mind of God! Brothers and sisters, I say this now, it is in 96 AD, when John was banished to the Isle of Patmos, Jesus appeared to him. And that prophetic encounter changed the ministry of John. But even as per that day on the Isle of Patmos, he still did not have a clue that there would be seven thunders; because all he saw as yet, was the unveiling of Jesus on the Isle of Patmos, in the midst of seven golden candlesticks, with the seven stars in his hand, and he was told to write to the seven Gentile churches in Asia. So, right up to Chapter 3, of the Book of Revelation, John did not know that there would be seven thunders, for all that was still buried in the mind of God, until he had the prophetic projection recorded in Revelation Chapter 10. Brothers and sisters, I am showing you a pattern all through time, an infallible pattern, and you really need to open your eyes, so you can see something, and not be caught napping. I am going through time, in order to show you the infallible footprints of God. In the final analysis, we are going to zero in on the prophetic encounter which gives us the seven thunders; because we are dealing with THE LEAD THUNDER, AND THE CHRONOLOGY OF REVELATION 10. God took John through time, to this very end of time, for in the Spirit, John was standing at this end time, to preview a ministry that God is yet to establish; and he saw it. Now for the first time, we heard about seven thunders. Church, prior to this prophetic declaration in 96 AD., the entire Christendom did not know there would be seven thunders. But likewise, in the Old Testament, they did not know there would be an Ephesian Fivefold ministry. Why? It is simply because God does not lay out the details of a ministry ahead of its time. Brothers and sisters, neither did the Old Testament tell us we will have apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. It was fresh in the day of its establishment! Now we come to issue of the thunders. The revelation of the seven thunders was given to John on the Isle of Patmos, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 10, which we will take it from verse 1: “And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.” Watch verses 3-4: “And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried”, (after he had first cried, then), “SEVEN THUNDERS UTTERED THEIR VOICES. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write”, (for John heard precisely what the seven thunders uttered, and was going to write them): “and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and WRITE THEM NOT”, thereby making the message of the seven thunders an unwritten message. But for the first time ever, one man was given an insight into a ministry which God will use to cap the plan of Gentile redemption. And no man before this hour of time had any inkling that there would be seven thunders. Moses did not speak of it in all his inspired writings. When he was here on earth, Jesus did not speak of it either. Apostle Peter did not know of it at all, and Apostle Paul also certainly did not have the slightest inkling concerning the seven thunders. Even John the beloved apostle, as of 95 AD, had no clue that there would be any thunder ministry, for it was a total secret, still locked up in the mind of God! Church, but now, for the very first time,

John saw and heard something! He was about to write their message, when God stopped him from heaven. Consequently, the message of the thunders remains an unwritten message, a message buried in the heart of John, and sealed therein by the Holy Ghost. Hence, to the universal bride, the message of the seven thunders is one which remains with God, for John went to the grave with the message concealed in his heart by the Holy Spirit. But because it is an unwritten message, it is therefore a prophetic one, for it will take a prophetic anointing to bring down a message that is hidden in the mind of God above. However, now for the first time since the beginning of man; for the first time since God set the plan of redemption in motion; for the very first time ever, we now hear about a seven thunders ministry. And as a result, for the first time, we now realize that there will be a ministry of seven thunders. Saints, this ministry revelation came through the man who bore the standard after Paul left the scene: It came through Saint John, the “candlestick” of Jesus Christ in 96 AD. Church, I am making a point. Way back there in 96 AD., John wrote the inspired record concerning the seven thunders. But the seven thunders are not appointed for 96 AD., and they have no application throughout the first six church ages of the grace age, until Laodicea, which is the seventh and final age of Christendom. As a matter of fact, the seven thunders are not appointed for application until the very end of the Laodicean church age. So, that lets you see something: It is still a ministry ordained for the future, the immediate future, and it is a ministry the kind of which we have never seen before; because from the Book of Genesis, right up to the Epistle of Saint Jude, there was no Scripture on the seven thunders ministry, and neither has there ever been a thunder ministry. It is just like in the Old Testament, where there was no mention of the apostolic ministry. It was a fresh light in the day Jesus named the twelve disciples apostles!

However, and this is where I am going, for the very first time, we now have in God's written record, the seven thunders ministry, a ministry of seven men who will utter their prophetic voices, as it is written: “... and when he” (who is the Angel of the Covenant) “had cried, seven thunders uttered THEIR VOICES.” Remember, a voice simply means a message. Isaiah Chapter 40, verse 3 declares: “The VOICE of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.” The voice of the one crying in the wilderness here, speaks of the message of John the Baptist, for a “voice” in prophecy speaks of a message. Period! Consequently, “seven thunders uttered THEIR VOICES”, are seven men with thunder ministries, seven men carrying the prophetic revelation of things that are sealed in the mind of God concerning the rapture, for they are men who are bearing unwritten revelation. However, we must realise, that even though John wrote down their ministry, nevertheless, the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ which they will carry is hidden, and the details of this ministry are also hidden. I repeat: Even though John wrote down the ministry of the seven thunders, for it must come, nonetheless, the details of the constitution of this ministry are unwritten, and their message is also unwritten. For God in His characteristic nature, did not lay out the details of their ministry ahead of its hour, just as He did not lay out the details of the Old Testament ministry ahead of its establishment, and just as He also did not lay out the details of the New Testament ministry ahead of its establishment. Therefore, I ask: Why do you expect God in 96 AD., to lay out the details of the seven thunders ahead of its hour? God does not work like that! The revelational details of a promised ministry is always freshly revealed in the season of its establishment! Furthermore, the revelation of the details of a ministry God has ordained to use in His sovereign mind, has always been unveiled through the man God ordains to carry the light of the Lord for that hour! It took Moses to lay out the details of the Old Testament ministry, for he carried the blueprint for that hour. It took Paul to lay out the details of the New Testament ministry, for he also carried the blueprint of that hour. It will also take John, the man who is carrying the blueprint of this hour, to lay out the details of the seven thunders, for it is a ministry ordained strictly for the very end of the Laodicean church age, which is an era just ahead of us. We are still yet to enter into the hour of the thunders. However, the closer we get to a prophetic event, the brighter our understanding will also get, by the Spirit of Christ. That is thus saith the Lord in His Word! Let me give you the Scripture for it. It is a Scripture we love very much, because it is a pivotal Scripture. But do not forget that I am trying to show you something, and that is that, it is the present tense dealing of God that shows the truth concerning a ministry promised for the hour. It is the present tense dealing of God that shows the present tense ministry! It took Moses in the present tense of his day, to lay out the ministry of his hour. And it took Paul to lay out the ministry of his hour. Just a few more minutes, and we will close. I appreciate your patience. We have had many Conventions, but I have never been buffeted like this before in any Convention. It feels like a mountain getting through these meetings, on account of the bombardment of my flesh by the enemy. I feel so sick, it is incredible. But I know it is well, and I thank God for His grace that has sustained me; because the enemy just wants me to throw in the towel, for he does not want me to preach. But whether we are weak or we are strong, it is written that an unprofitable servant like me has to be faithful, for he must do the bidding of his Master, for we are bought with a price. So, it is well.

In John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, Jesus promised: “I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now”; (because truth comes in folds, and it also comes in its God ordained season. And God does not give a revelation ahead of its season. That is why when Jesus Christ was on earth, he did not know anything about the seven thunders, because God does not give revelation ahead of its season. Simple)! Verse 13: “Howbeit when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO ALL TRUTH: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and HE WILL SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME. He shall glorify me: for He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that HE SHALL TAKE OF MINE”, (THE THINGS OF MINE), “AND SHALL

Brothers and sisters, this verse of Scripture, this promise, of the prophetic revelation of the things of Christ applicable in our day and hour, has application as we speak tonight, particularly as it relates to the prophetic revelation of Jesus contained in the Book of Revelation Chapter 10, verses 1-4, which speaks of the seven thunders. When Apostle Paul came and declared in 1 Corinthians Chapter 15, verses 51-53: “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump...”, it was on the very basis of the promise Jesus gave in John Chapter 16, verses 12-15! May I also say that in 96 AD., when John saw the seven thunders, it was on the basis of this same promise. And as we speak tonight, and because the revelation of the Lord is progressive, not static, it is also on the very basis of the promise Jesus made in John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, that the Spirit of Truth will also show us the things Jesus said in prophecy concerning the seven thunders, for it relates to this day, this junction of time! I ask now tonight: Why does God not show the things to come well ahead of its allotted time? Firstly, if God did, we will not be able to relate to such truths, for the conditions in the earth will not be ripe to enable us to relate to such truths meaningfully. Secondly, if God unveiled the details of everything from the very beginning, all we would have ended up with is just the Book of Genesis. Come on! If God reveals everything in one day, all we would have had is the Seed Chapter, which is the Book of Genesis! But look at the volume of Books that make up the Holy Bible, and consider the progressive number of years it took to put it all together, and the number of men it took to couch the entire Scriptures! Just think about it! This truth was well laid out in our message in the Scribe titled, Why Continuity? As such, truth comes in folds, and in the season the Lord has appointed for it. And as we draw closer to a prophetic event, the situation or conditions in the earth will begin to come together, to throw light on the event, giving it meaning, and making it plain, for prophecy is made clear by events. The Spirit of the Lord will now begin to remove the veil that covers such prophecies, to give a true understanding to the body of saints, for it is written that when the Comforter comes, the Spirit of Truth, He will guide us into ALL TRUTH, and He WILL SHEW US THINGS TO COME, the things of Christ applicable in our day and hour of time! This is so, in order not to leave the bride of Christ in ignorance of the things of Jesus Christ her Bridegroom, things apportioned for her spiritual growth. Brothers and sisters, now that we are facing a prophetic hour relating to the seven thunders, and because the Lord has given us an infallible Word of promise to shew us the things of Christ to come in our day, we can expect the Lord to begin throwing light upon the seven thunders, to enable to know just how to look at this ministry, which has remained hidden all through time. Because we are the ones who will be faced with its reality! That is the beauty of this hour, this junction of time! We are the ones living in the days when it will be made manifest, thus facing its reality; we are the ones who will receive the benefits of the seven thunders, for we are the ones living in the day of its establishment, for they are just ahead! Consequently, the Lord Jesus is now shedding His light on this truth, showing us that which is coming now, just as he promised, for we must know just how to look forward. This reminds me of a dream the Lord gave Sister Eva Onyebuoha a few years back. I do not mean to make this personal, but it ties in with what we are talking about, and hence, I will share it. Her dream goes thus:

“I had a dream yesterday night, Thursday 13th May, 2010, where we were gathered at Bajulaye, (the normal church site), for some kind of meetings. The crowd was not as large as the one we have in this Convention, but people had come from different places for the meetings. Brother Amos had been ministering to us for quite some time, when all of a sudden, he just stopped preaching and started prophetically addressing the people. I honestly cannot remember the details of the messages he was giving, but I do know that he was addressing individuals like Brother Branham used to do when he was alive. The messages were so precise that he would give it, and immediately address some other person, as the people confirmed through screams and signs of clear adoration to God. The pull of the Spirit was so strong that he came down from the pulpit (like he does), and ran into the crowd. As he came, I had been sitting at the back, and somehow, I had this fear that he would pick me out, even though I had bowed my head to hide from him. When he got to where I was, he stopped and placed his hand on my shoulder. I felt a strong anointing from his hands. Then he said, “You have a problem.” As he said those words, I looked at him, and the only way I can explain what I felt was like it happened to the woman at the well. His eyes seemed to say that he had an all-knowing power. He told me to follow him to the pulpit. When I got there, he began to speak about things that only God my Creator can ever know about me. I wondered in amazement and fear, and I was confused, because I knew he is an Apostle; but I also didn't know he had that prophetic unction. I kept looking at him and saying to myself, (like the Bible would say, “Is Saul also amongst the prophets?) Is he a prophet?”

The dream just confirms the promise the Master gave to us, for it is pointing forward to the prophetic hour that is to come; what we are to expect. So the issue is this: Now that we are looking ahead to the thunders, just how do we look at the thunders? How does the bride of Christ look at the thunders? I am speaking tonight to the wisest people on this earth. Remember what the angel of the Lord told Daniel in Chapter 12, a pronouncement Daniel wrote in his prophetic record. Daniel wanted to know the details of certain prophetic truths he was shown, and he asked the angel, but the angel of the Lord replied him in deeply coded language. In verses 8-10, we see the Bible record: “And I heard, BUT I UNDERSTOOD NOT: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the Words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; BUT THE WISE SHALL UNDERSTAND”; (THE WISE OF THE END TIME, which is the elect bride of Jesus Christ, shall understand). I ask you: Are you in that number? We are the wisest on earth tonight, on the sole authority of the Scripture. We are speaking strictly of divine wisdom, one that is eternal, not temporal, not carnal, but of the wisdom of God revealed and expressed in Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour. That is why we know the truth, because the Spirit of truth has come, to show us the things of Christ to come. So, I ask again: How do we look at the thunders? Wise people of God; wise sons and daughters of God, elect bride saints of the end time, how do we look at the thunders? What does the Spirit of Jesus say concerning the thunders? In looking at the seven thunders, brothers and sisters, we must understand two fundamental principles of the dealing of God in the light. FIRSTLY: You must understand tonight that all through time, God Almighty has never laid out the details of a promised ministry well ahead of its time. That is principle number one. I do not care what era of time you look at, and I do not care what Covenant you consider, whether Old or New. The truth remains that all through time, from Genesis to Revelation, Almighty God has never laid out the details of a promised pluralistic ministry ahead of its hour. He may speak of something, giving us an indication of something to come, but He simply leaves it like that, without spelling out the details. Are you listening to me? Hence the reason why, when Jesus was here, he told us nothing of the seven thunders, being characteristic of God. However, in order to enable the end time elect bride of Christ to know that there would come an unusual ministry of seven men called seven thunders, so that she may open her mind to receive such a ministry, God had to make the fact of the seven thunders ministry, a part and parcel of the inspired Scriptures, to give a scriptural base for the projection of this unique ministry. Consequently, God had to deal with Saint John in 96 AD., setting forth in prophecy, the ministry of seven thunders, so that the wise of the end time can relate to it, knowing that it is a promised ministry, and also knowing that their message is nowhere written in the entire Scriptures, for it will be strictly a prophetic projection of unwritten truths buried in the mind of Elohim! And this knowledge only comes to the end time elect bride, because no other age of Christendom can relate to the seven thunders, and neither can any other age understand what they constitute, for in spite of their being written, they remained a mystery all through time, till the star messenger to this last age came, and shed light on the thunders, pointing us forward to a ministry reality ordained for this last junction of Gentile time. The chief apostle also came, letting us know that they are seven prophets, bearing prophetic messages, straight from the throne of God above. But now that we are getting closer to the hour of the thunders, and because the man that God is going to use to set the seven thunders in motion is here on the ground, we now know without any shadow of doubt, that the seven thunders are going to be nothing other than seven apostles known only to the Lord, seven apostles with a prophetic unction upon their lives. For as I have been emphasizing for those who have an ear to hear, if every ounce of the New Testament revelation, outside of those we received from Jesus Christ himself, came strictly from the fold of apostles, the men who make up the head of the Ephesian Fivefold ministry, unwritten revelation of the thunders cannot come by a lesser fold of ministry. That is an infallible scriptural fact, for God does not bypass headship! I repeat: Now that we are getting close to the hour of the seven thunders, and because the man whom God will use to set this ministry in motion is now on the ground, just as God used Moses to set the Old Testament ministry in motion, and as He also used Paul to set the Gentile Ephesian Fivefold ministry in motion, the Spirit of Christ is now helping us to know how to look forward to t h e t h u n d e r s . Consequently, the Lord now wants us to take a closer look at certain details, crucial details concerning this ministry, in order to give us an understanding of this ministry, a ministry which before this age had been an absolute mystery . SECONDLY: You must also understand tonight, that God does not use a plural ministry of men without a lead ministry . I repeat, for you must know tonight as the eagles of God, that whenever we are faced with a plural ministry, whether under the Old Testament or the New Testament, there has to be a lead ministry, for God does not use a plural ministry of men without a lead ministry. That is an indisputable fact of God's dealing all through time. As such, we must know with scriptural certainty, that there is coming a lead thunder, the man God is going to use to set this ministry in motion, even though it is not so written. Saints, we are going to prove this truth by the Scriptures. But not only that; I will not only show you this truth by the Scriptures, I will also show you by the Message of Brother Branham, and by the Continuity Message Raymond Jackson bore for the universal bride of Christ, and you tell me why you would not believe it! Let us now take a close look at the thunders, who are seven in all, which number gives us the number of completion, for God is complete in seven. In God's numerology, seven is the number of completion, for this is precisely where the plan of universal salvation is brought literally to a close, f o r u s G e n t i l e s .

Brothers and sisters, in our consideration of the seven t h u n d e r s , certain fundamental truths have been established thus far, and they are as follows. Point number ONE: It is that God has never laid out the details of a promised ministry well ahead of its time. Point number TWO: God has never used a body of ministry without a lead ministry. You are not hearing me. God has never used a body of ministry without a lead ministry! “What is Brother Amos trying to say?” I am telling you in simple terms, that the Scriptures do not have to lay out the details that there will be a lead thunder! The Old Testament did not tell us that when we have the New Testament, there will be a chief apostle! The Old Testament told us about the New Testament, but it did not give us the details of the ministry of the New Testament, that we may know that it will be a Fivefold ministry, and it certainly did not tell us there will be a chief apostle! Exactly! But God established it, nonetheless, because you cannot have a body of ministry without leadership! Wake up! The seven thunders are unknown as it stands today, but it is certainly a body of ministry made up of seven men. It is enough that God set a testimony concerning this ministry in the Word, enabling us to know scripturally, that there will be seven thunders. That is all God needs to do! He does not need to lay out the details of it, so as to tell us in black and white: “There will be seven thunders, but in the midst of the thunders, there will be a lead thunder.” He never did that in the Old Testament, and He never did that in the New Testament, so we must understand that He will not do that with the thunders either, for God remains the same; He does not change! This detail is reserved strictly for the junction of time we are faced with the reality of thunders, for then, in this junction of time, the Spirit of truth will shew us the things of Christ to come, being imminent or impending! It will be the same for the ministry of the two Jewish prophets, Moses and Elijah, who are to come for the nation of Israel, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 11, verses 3-13. Characteristically, God only gave us the promise of the two ministries. He did not tell us that there would be a lead prophet. However, you must know, that just as God sent out Paul and Barnabas to the Gentiles, and Paul bore the standard, for he was, as it is written, “the chief speaker”, “The apostle”, or the chief apostle, so also will Moses be the Lead Prophet, or the chief speaker, in that day. This is absolutely so for a number of reasons. Firstly: The ministry of

Moses came first in time, ever before that of Elijah, and he also bore a great anointing which preceded that of Elijah. Secondly: Moses was the deliverer and law giver, and it was upon the truth he brought that Elijah's ministry, a restoring ministry, was later founded. Thirdly and finally: The law or the message of Moses, was what Elijah restored the nation of Israel back to, the law being the exclusive foundation of faith, under the Old Testament. Consequently, when the two ministries are restored to the nation of Israel, you must understand that Moses will be the standard bearer, or the lead prophet, or the chief speaker, whatever you want to call him. God did not have to spell out this detail way back there in 96 AD. But now that we are close to the Jewish Connection; now that we are at the closing of the 7th and final Gentile age; and precisely, because we are in the third and final move of God which closes out Gentile salvation, we are privileged to know how to look forward to the two prophets, particularly because we shall see the opening of their ministries before we are taken up in the rapture. You just have to understand, for it is the pattern of God throughout the Bible, that the Lord does not lay out the details of a promised plural ministry, well ahead of its hour of application. However, as the elect bride of Jesus Christ, we are privileged to see what is ahead, even for the Jewish nation, which is why the entire Book of Revelation was written to us, even though it also lays out things that are also to come for the children of Israel, and we must understand these things as well, for we are a privileged people, a chosen people, and a blessed royal seeds of G o d .

Let me tell you now, and make no mistake about it: We are living in the day when God will set the seven thunders in motion, for it is at hand; it is soon to come. Therefore, we will be the beneficiaries of this ministry, because we are the ones unto whom the thunders will come. And we have a sure Word of promise: “Howbeit when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO ALL TRUTH: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and HE WILL SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME.” (John 16:13). I am making a serious point, and if you truly understand it, you have to agree with me, that God has never used a body of ministry without leadership. Never! But it is enough for God to speak in general terms of a ministry that is to come, in order to give a scriptural base for the elect seeds of God to have an expectation, which is an expectation that is anchored in the written Word of God. That is God's pattern all through time. Ministry details have always been left out, for God never lays out the details of a plural body of ministry ahead of its projection. So, why do people expect God to state in the Scriptures, that in having the seven thunders, we are also going to have a lead thunder, from way back in the days of John, the beloved apostle? Because that is precisely what people are requesting for, which is why they are denying and rejecting any projection of a lead thunder! They are saying implicitly or impliedly: “Brother Amos, show me in Scripture, where God says that there will be a lead thunder.” To this shabby attitudinal question, I also reply: In the earthly days of Jesus Christ, show me also in the Scriptures available in that day, where it was written that there will be a chief apostle as well! Come on! In the very day when

Jesus Christ established Peter and Paul as “the apostle” to the circumcision and the uncircumcision, there was not one verse of Scripture as yet for that as well! God simply established it, for it lay in His mind, as an integral part and parcel of God's ministry plan for redemption, and a most crucial part! Brothers and sisters, we are still in the New Testament days. Therefore, open your eyes and see something, because I am trying to show you something! Our God does not change! Let me say this, and it is a serious point I want to make as I now close. Church, even the very thought of the ministry of seven thunders, came through the lead apostolic ministry God established in that day, for it was Apostle John who saw the thunders in a prophetic pre-view! That should let you know that he was standing in the shoes of the end time John, the man who now lives in the days of the reality of its true projection! For if John saw the seven thunders ahead of time, and heard their message, though only in a pre-view, common sense will let you know that the end time John will have to be the lead thunder, carrying the knowledge of the thunders ministry, AND their message, ahead of any and every other thunder, for God has never used a body of ministry without a lead ministry! Come on! Consequently, going back to 96 AD, it is enough that God spoke of the seven thunders in the written Word. God could not have given you the details of the seven thunders ministry, for it would be very much unlike the workings of God through time. I said it would be very much unlike the workings of God through time, for Almighty God never lays out the details of a plural body of ministry outside of its junction of time when it will have application! But as I said before, as we draw closer to a promised event or ministry, and in order to fulfil his unfailing Word of promise, Jesus Christ will begin to shine his light on these things by his Spirit. Because we are now moving slowly towards something, God wants us to know how to look forward to it, so that we do not miss God at the hour of fulfillment. This message is not given in order to give us the details of the men that will make up the seven thunders; it is given strictly to help us to know what is to come, and how we are to approach it; how God sets it in motion, for we are facing a great prophetic reality ordained of God for this junction of time. I will remind you of another promise Jesus made in the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 8, verse 12: “Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: HE THAT FOLLOWETH ME SHALL NOT WALK IN DARKNESS, BUT SHALL HAVE THE LIGHT OF LIFE.” In other words, the true eagles of God will not be ignorant of what the Lord wants to do in the earth, in furtherance of His plan of Gentile salvation, for these are things allotted for her beautification and glorification.

Tomorrow morning, God helping us, brothers and sisters, we are going to zero in on the lead ministry of the seven thunders. But I will have to start with the lead apostolic ministry we have on the ground today, for in presenting the seven thunders ministry to you, it is imperative or compulsory that I also break down the Chronology of the entire Chapter 10, of the Book of Revelation, in order to make this truth plain. There is no other way to make this truth plain, except by breaking down the entire Chapter, in its true Chronological order of prophetic fulfillment, and lay out the truths of God contained in this Chapter. This way, I assure you, as a true seed of God ordained as bride, you cannot but see the seven thunders in their precise place; because God in His mercy is causing us by His Spirit to look at something closer than we have ever done before, for we are facing its reality, which is at hand. Shall we bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

The Lord bless you.

THE LEAD THUNDER, AND THE CHRONOLOGY OF REVELATION 10

This collage features several images and captions. At the top left is a large image of a man in a suit with a speech bubble that says "This is the Lead!". Below this are several smaller portraits of men in suits, some with speech bubbles, labeled "THE THUNDERS" and "LEAD THUNDER". To the right of these portraits is a painting of a man in a white robe with a halo, labeled "PROPHETIC REALITY 20..?". Below the painting are several images of biblical figures: a man in a white robe labeled "PAUL", a group of men in robes labeled "EPHESIAN MINISTRY UNDER PAUL", a man in a white robe labeled "JESUS", a group of men in robes labeled "JESUS AND THE 12 APOSTLES", a man in a red and brown robe with a staff labeled "MOSES", and two men in white and blue robes.
