"Every Scribe which is instructed into the Kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old" - Matthew 13:52

GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005 (KNOWING THE OBJECTIVE OF GOD) -PART 3

This message was preached by Brother Amos, on two consecutive service days, Sunday 28th and Tuesday 30th September, 2014, at Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. It is a mind blowing, electric, and most accurate account and expose of the various unseen moves of God within this Laodicean age. A lot of research and facts, coupled with a huge touch of God, has gone into the making of this Scribe. God bless Brother Amos, for his continued commitment to the work of God, and for the giving over of himself to the complete rulership of the Spirit of God, who indeed shows us, not only things that have been, and the things that are to come, but also the things that are presently.

I greet you all in Jesus' name. It is good to be together again, and I trust that last week was a blessed one for each and every one. We are believing God that this week will be more blessed, for each week draws us closer to the return of the Lord, and it therefore leads us deeper into the things of the Spirit of Christ. It is our humble prayer that God will bless our week, and meet with us in a wonderful way. I want to take a message this morning, just to fill a gap we left, in our message titled, GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005. I am doing this in order to update the understanding of the saints of God, about how God has moved generally in the earth, in this last age, strictly in terms of the Moving of the Spirit of God, from a sensational standpoint. As bride saints, we must know how to look at these things, and also to understand precisely what some things were used to accomplish, what purpose they served, in God's plan of Gentile salvation. For this part of the message, I have added on our chart, an extension to what God set in motion in 1906, when the fire fell at Azusa Street California, which gave us the Pentecostal Movement. Hence, on our chart, we have drawn a Move of God, which branches off from the Oil Movement; it branches off from the Pentecostal Movement, and it is this branch that we want to lay out today. There is no doubt, that a lot of the things we will be laying out, some of you already have an understanding of. But in the main, a lot of us do not. I must point out, however, that even if we already know about these Spirit Moves, my honest desire and main objective in filling this gap, is to show you precisely what these Moves of the Spirit have served, particularly in relation to the bride plot, so that we can see something.

Of a truth, it is one thing to know about a Spirit Move; but it is quite another thing to know precisely what that Move has served, in God's revealed plan of salvation, for they are two different things. Knowing God's divine objective for these Moves, is the very focus and essence of this message. I pray therefore that you will have an open heart, and pay close attention, so that you can see something, strictly in the light of the Scriptures. Shall we bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

Brothers and sisters, look at it. When we took the message titled, GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE: THE YEAR 2005, we left out certain things God also did in this last age. I am not going to re-preach that message. But like I told you, I need to fill in something; I want to fill in a blank or a gap, a blank that was left out on purpose, and a blank you also need to have an understanding of. But we left out those things on purpose, because at the end of the day, when we look at the Plot of God in this Laodicean age, that blank is not material, for it is inconsequential to the revealed plot of God for the elect bride, even though it also has its place, for it serves a divine purpose as well. But with respect to the bride of Jesus Christ, it is absolutely inconsequential, and hence the reason we left it out of the original message. The blank we are going to fill in this morning, takes us back to 1901. But first come with me to the Book of Revelation, Chapter 3, for our Bible text for this message. I pray God will help me. Verse 14 states: “And unto THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans write...” Church, there is an angel to this last age who we must hear, a human angel; for an angel simply means messenger. And in this particular case, it refers strictly to a human messenger, the star messenger to this age, and not a spirit messenger, for both classes of beings are God's messengers. I know that the Organised religious world do not care about these things, because they are not interested in the truth, and neither are they following Jesus in a true divine revelation of the Scriptures. And if all you want to do is just go to church on a Sunday, and observe a holy day, thinking you are doing God a favour by attending church, as some actually think they are doing God a service by it, then, what we are talking about today will mean nothing to you. But for the bride of Jesus Christ, it means something very crucial, for we heard a very important Word on Mount Tabor, as recorded in Matthew Chapter 17, verse 5, when God admonished Saint Peter and the two other core apostles, declaring: “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; HEAR YE HIM.” Consequently, we log on to the truths of Jesus Christ of the Bible, and we lay our whole lives on it, and we care not for anything else, because we know that our eternal destiny hangs on hearing him. Therefore, we do not care for signs and wonders, and for those kinds of manifestations, being mere sensations, lacking in redeeming power; even though we also believe in signs and wonders, for our God is a God of signs and wonders. Brothers and sisters, above all else, WE WATCH THE WORD. We believe in signs and wonders; but above signs and wonders, above all sensational manifestations of the Spirit, we believe the Word, for that is what it means to hear him, who is Jesus the Christ. We hear him because he has the secret of life, and he has given us the secret of life: Following his divine revelation is what gives us that life, which is eternal. As such, we cannot lift anything higher than his voice, for we must hear him above any and everything else, for as I said, to hear him is life eternal. Period! Coming back to Revelation Chapter 3, verse 14, it is written: “And unto THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans write...” Church, Saint John was asked to write to the star messenger to this last age, the Laodicean church age. This undoubtedly shows that the Laodicean age opens up with a message from Jesus Christ our Lord, to the star messenger to this age, for and on behalf of the bride of Jesus Christ. It means in essence, that from the star messenger, the message of Jesus is conveyed to the entire universal bride of Christ. And the star messenger to this age is none other than William Marrion Branham, the “Elijah” of Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B, and the star “angel” of Revelation Chapter 10, verse 7. However, in closing out his admonition to the age in verse 22, Jesus Christ warned: “He that hath an ear, let him hear WHAT THE SPIRIT SAITH unto the churches.” This was stated, and is absolutely so, because by the time this age closes out, that angel will no longer be here, and he is no longer here today as we speak, but the Spirit of the Lord Jesus is here, and as such, it is very important that we continue to hear him, that we may keep following him in his divine revelation of life. Hence, God instructed Apostle Peter: Do not build three tabernacles: “HEAR YE HIM!” It is most important that we hear the voice of the Spirit of Christ, and the Spirit is still speaking this morning; the spirit is still speaking: Because the Christ that we serve is not a dead one, but a risen one! He was dead, but on the third day he rose to life, and he lives for evermore, and as it is written, he has the Keys of hell and of death. So, because he is alive, because he lives, he continues to reveal himself to his elect bride. That is precisely why this age did not end with the admonition which declares: “He that hath an ear, let him hear WHAT THE ANGEL SAITH unto the churches.” No, it did not end that way! But it declares: “He that hath an ear, let him hear WHAT THE SPIRIT SAITH unto the churches.” The admonition to this age, even though it starts with hearing the angel, ends with hearing the Spirit. This is so, because every age has outlived its star messenger, and yet, the dealing of God in each age has never stopped with the star messenger, for the revelation of God is inherently progressive, and not static or stagnant. The revelation of God moves on! For instance, the first church age outlived its star messenger, the first star messenger, who is none other than Apostle Paul. Yet, after Saint Paul, there was a Saint John. And Apostle John was the one whom the Lord Jesus used to finish the record of written Scripture, for he gave us the last Book of the Bible, which is the Book of Revelation. Is that right? Yes! It means in essence, and it is an incontestable scriptural fact, that more light of truth came after Apostle Paul, the star messenger to that age, had left the scene. Therefore, you not only had to listen to the “angel” of that age, you also had to hear what the Spirit was saying in that age thereafter, because every age has outlived its star messenger. The very same truth applies to this age. Absolutely! The Laodicean age is what Jesus Christ addressed in Revelation Chapter 3, verses 14-22. And when you look at our chart, showing precisely what God has done in Laodicea, although our emphasis was on the Year 2005, nevertheless, it lays out the material Moves of God in this age. But this morning, our focus is not on Year 2005, because we want to fill in a gap that we left out in that message. Brothers and sisters, when we look at our chart, and we consider the Christian religious world, there are only two periods of time they can relate to, that we have on the entire chart. (Brother Amos points to the chart). They can only relate to 1901 and 1906. Period! Brother Amos, what happened in 1901 and in 1906? That is exactly what we want to see. But first, look at what God said in His Word, as recorded in the Book of Proverbs Chapter 29, verse 18. It says: “Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he”, (or blessed is he). Where there is no vision, the people perish. Saints, let me say this morning, it is very important that we know the objective of God for the things He does, because that is what will help us to keep vision. And as it is written: “Where there is no VISION, the people perish...” I have to warn that the vision referred to in this Scripture, has nothing to do with seeing open visions, for it is not one which you get when you go to the Synagogue Church of all Nations, when they tell you of an open vision about certain conditions of your life. No! And even if we have to consider open visions and dreams, a so-called Prophet, T.B. Joshua, who has all the open visions he can get, yet, he could not see a great disaster befalling his ministry, wherein 115 people would die, including 84 South African visitors, not to talk of the number of injured! He could not see that a multi-story building housing visiting foreigners to his ministry would collapse, killing tens of people coming to worship “God” from foreign lands! What a shame that their “God” could not keep them! I do not say that to be mean or sacrilegious. I say it to make a serious point, for we feel compassion for the many lives lost, and for the pain which families who have lost their loved ones in this unnecessary disaster, have to bear. It is terrible and very sad, and may God comfort their hearts. However, this just shows, brothers and sisters, that that man is nothing but a first class sorcerer, even though you are not going to get his followers to see that, for men love deception rather than truth; they love darkness rather than light. But there is no doubt that the man is a false prophet, first class, which is why he has no revelation of truth to give anyone, for the man, just cannot preach! And may I also say that preaching is not about the English language, but strictly about a divine enablement which God gives the preachers He sends. For even if a man cannot speak English properly, nevertheless, his thought projections will still be deep, showing plainly that he is carrying a perfect understanding of the truth of Jesus Christ, which is being limited in conveyance by his poor grasp of the English language! Exactly! It is a fact that a man can be struggling with the English language, and yet be laying forth perfect statements of scriptural truth! That is what is lacking in the ministries of men like T.B. Joshua, which is why he just cannot preach, pure and simple, for he is not a preacher. Full stop! Hence the reason he cannot take John 3:16, and preach for five minutes on a straight line, keeping a scriptural thought, even if his life depended on it! No wonder he preaches like a little boy who is just learning to speak, making senseless statements about the Spirit that mean nothing, for he simply cannot preach! And regardless of the fold of ministry you occupy, whether an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, or teacher, you are first a preacher, or you are nothing but a false minister: for every man in the ministry have been raised up strictly to convey the message of Jesus Christ of the Bible to the people! Precisely! That is the primary purpose of God sending men! They are not sent to chase after demons! Now the man in the Synagogue has so-called "wise men", and they do nothing but run after demons all day long, asking demons for their names, being completely devoid of the revelation of life! It is written that "the wise SHALL UNDERSTAND", but the "wise ones" under T.B. Joshua obviously do not! None of the so-called "wise men" could see the destruction and death that was to befall their organization, with all the prophetic insight they profess to have! Moreover, it is a scriptural fact that you have never heard, and neither have you ever read, anywhere in the Scriptures, where people were coming on pilgrimage to Jerusalem in order to worship God, or to observe the Feast of Tabernacles, or the Passover, and they died, because a building fell on them! You do not hear such things! You only hear of such when God judges a people! Exactly! It happens only in divine judgment! And in this instance, I am not saying that God judged the people, for it is not God judging the people; it is God exposing the spirit behind this false ministry, for he is nothing but a sorcerer! No wonder then that the man does not really care for the dead, but for his empty image, an image that is none existent; which was why his church members barred the Nigerian Emergency operatives from gaining access to the site when the disaster struck, so as to cover up! And to add insult to injury, he, T.B. Joshua, had the godless audacity to say that he saw the disaster beforehand! Can you believe that? The man even blamed a mysterious airplane for the disaster, like it is an act of sabotage or terrorism! My, oh my! Yet, the truth is, that the man added many floors to an already existing building, housing foreign visitors, without any additional or adequate fortification of its foundational structure! Hell is waiting for a lot of men in the ministry, for their utter godlessness! Their pay day is coming! But first, the cup of the Amorites must be full, before God will judge it.

Brothers and sisters, the vision God spoke about in Proverbs Chapter 29, verse 18, is strictly a revelation, a divine revelation, which makes us wise, spiritually, for it gives us a perfect understanding of the mind of the Spirit, and of the plan of God. The true vision of God is what shows us the right way, thereby keeping us from the paths of destruction, which is the wrong way, for there is a right way and a wrong way.

As a matter of fact, there are many wrong ways, but there is only one right way! You did not hear me. There are many ways within Christendom, but there is only one right way, which is the way of life eternal; and this way of life is called, the STRAIT GATE and NARROW WAY. And as Jesus himself declared, only few find it, for you have to have a heavenly vision in order to find it, that you may log on to God, having the revelation of His perfect will. You cannot find this way without God. Look at what David also said in Psalm 25, verses 4-5: “SHEW ME THY WAYS, O LORD; TEACH ME THY PATHS. LEAD ME IN THY TRUTH, AND TEACH ME: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.” What was David asking God? He was asking for a divine vision, a true vision; he was asking for a holy vision; he was asking for true understanding that would put him in the strait and narrow way of life, so he could walk with God in the paths of truth: for as Isaiah Chapter 65, verse 16 reveals, our God is the “GOD OF TRUTH.” And we all need to log on to the light of the truth of Jesus Christ that is shining so bright at this evening time, for there is no rock of salvation save our God. I am using all that to say this: Without a true divine revelation of God, you cannot find your way through this great religious wilderness. Hence, it is one thing to see a Move of God and to log on to that Move; but it is quite a different kettle of fish altogether, to have a true understanding of the objective of God for that Move, and to cling to that objective. It is a fact, though a sad one, that many people will log on to a Move, and many people log on to Moves; but not many people have a perfect understanding, a true revelation, of the very objective of God for that Move. And because they lack that vital vision, though they are in the lighthouse, though they follow a Move, and though they follow this Move, they will perish nonetheless, for sheer lack of vision, true divine vision. That is why Proverbs warns, “Where there is no vision, the people perish...” Because you are supposed to follow God in a divine revelation, not carnally, so that you can align yourself with God's objective, letting that Move accomplish the perfect will of God for your life! That is why I am reiterating the crucial fact that it is not enough to see a Move, you must also have a divine understanding of exactly why God is making that Move, what God wants to accomplish by that Move, because then you will be able to log on to God, and follow His paths, thereby allowing God's perfect will to take hold in your life: Because the vision you have will move you to align yourself with God in His perfect will, and not derail! Therefore, brothers and sisters, we need to take heed to the truth, because Apostle Peter warned us in 2 Peter Chapter 1, verse 19: "... Take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star" (Jesus Christ) "arise in your hearts." He said that because the true light has been shone into our hearts in this way. Therefore, what you do with the light that has been shone into your hearts, is between you and God. It is enough that God gave you accessibility to truth. Let me cry out loud this morning, for I have to warn you as a faithful shepherd, that many people who follow a Move, usually get lost in that Move, because only a few followers ever really have a true revelation, a true vision, of that Move, and thus, only an elect remnant ever log on to God's divine objective in that Move. I repeat: Only a few people ever log on, and align themselves with the objective of God in any Move. And unless you log on to the objective of God, brothers and sisters, you are sure to fail, for you are sure to err, eventually, even though you have followed a Move! That makes this issue very serious! Saints of God, I do not preach this this morning in order to make you afraid: I preach it because it is an absolute truth, and a reality we are also facing today at this very junction of time. We are not immune to it, for it is before you and me. It is a fact that you can hear a lot of truths, and still not take heed. And that is why God warned Saint Peter, for whilst Peter was speaking, God cut him short on the mountain of transfiguration, for it is not about your sacrifices; it is about hearing him! You can make a lot of sacrifices and not hear him! It is to hear him that is life eternal! I repeat: You can make a lot of sacrifices and still not hear him. It is to hear him that counts! It is not about your ministry either; it is about hearing him! It is not about any church; it is about hearing him! If you do not hear him, you are lost! Unfortunately, a lot of men in the ministry are not hearing him. They are following the Move, but they are not hearing him! It is between them and God. But God told Peter, "Do not build tabernacles: HEAR YE HIM." And to truly hear him is to have the vision of life! And where there is no vision, the people must perish! They cannot but perish! We therefore need the vision of life; for where there is no true vision, a divine vision, a God given vision, the people perish! There is no other way! God expects us to make sacrifices in this way if we truly value it, and God also expects us to be dedicated and committed; but above all, you had better hear him; because your commitment, and your dedication, and your sacrifices, may be outside the vision. I repeat: You can be outside the loop of God with all your sacrifices and dedication, and that is a very serious issue. You can be a preacher of this Continuing Message and still miss out! And how much more serious it is for those who fellowship in the lighthouse, that you can be here, right where the fountain of truth is flowing, and still miss it. I do not say this to be mean, but I say it for a fact. There are many here that will miss it, unfortunately! Because it is not about the crowd! There are many here that will miss it. I am not singling out anybody, but it is a fact, and nobody can change that. So, pray that you may be among the elected few, the chosen remnant, for as it is written: “For many are called, but FEW ARE CHOSEN.” There is a vision you must log on to! It is not about association; it is about hearing him! Are you hearing him this morning? You need to hear him this morning! I am sounding this serious warning, because I want to show you the terrible and costly mistakes which many people that follow the Move of God make. Many that followed the Move of God through Moses perished in the wilderness, following that Move, and they perished right under Moses, following the Message of the hour! Think about it! What a costly lesson! We should be able to learn from the mistakes of others, without necessarily falling into the gutter ourselves, in order to learn the lesson God is trying to teach others, because some lessons carry an eternal cost! They do! Do not forget that we are trying to fill a gap in our message, and there is a reason why we left it out, being inconsequential to the bride. However, we must know precisely where the religious world failed, which is why there are only two years on our chart they can relate to, or identify with, and it is precisely the years 1901 and 1906. They failed because they could not see the objective of God, for they lacked the vision of life, and hence, they could not move on with God in His revealed plan of salvation. Consequently, we must see the objective of God; we must have a divine vision, if we are not to also fall by the way side, or if we are not to be blown away. I am only showing you the way of life. You will later appreciate why I am taking this route.

Brothers and sisters, as we laid out in our original message, the Move of God for this age started in 1906, when the fire fell at Azusa Street, California, igniting the Pentecostal Movement, a people who bore the Oil Message, whereby God restored the gifts of the Spirit. It was not a Move ordained to get the bride, and it had nothing to do with the bride, for it was still an extension of the REFORMATION; and by it, God was slowly restoring that which was lost in the body. However, in 1901, God laid a foundation for the Pentecostal Movement, which was ignited in 1906, in Azusa Street, California. That was the beginning of God's Move for this age. In other words, the Move of God for this age did not start in 1946; it started in 1906. But the Move of God for the elect bride, the Move which was ordained of God to get a bride for Jesus Christ, started precisely in 1946, when, as we can see on our chart, God commissioned William Branham, the Elijah of this end time. This Move brings us to the Book of Revelation Chapter 18, for something was set in motion in that day, a very material thing was ignited, which gives us a serious scriptural reality that people are not even considering. Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4, gives us a serious prophetic end time reality. Starting from verse 1, and speaking of spiritual Babylon, the Bible declares: “And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

What a mighty Angel this is! “And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, BABYLON THE GREAT IS FALLEN, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.”

What is Babylon, the mother of harlots? You know that that is the Roman Catholic Church, including all her harlot daughters, which takes in the entire world of Organized Religion. Verse 3 records: “For all nations have drunk of THE WINE OF THE WRATH OF HER FORNICATION, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.” The wine of her fornication is nothing but her filthy doctrines, her creeds and dogma, her carnal ceremonies and traditions, which she gives over a billion people to drink, thereby doping them to hell by her spiritual wine of fornication, giving them only a cloak of religion, totally devoid of any salvational value, which Christ alone gives, in his true divine scriptural revelation. Are you with me? Although verse 4 is where I am going, we will take it up to verse 5, where it records: “And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.” So, here, in verse 4, we have a sure prophetic promise, a promise of A CALLING OUT at this evening time, through William Branham, the calling out of seeds, for the separation of seeds was started through him. God began to call out of all organized systems of religion, whatever the name is, including Pentecostal XYZ, Evangelical PQC, Denominational ABC, Non-Denominational, Inter-Denominational, Independent Assembly FTC, or House Fellowship A-Z: Because they are all organized! Listen carefully, saints. For as long as people are not ruled EXCLUSIVELY by the Word of God, the Holy Bible; (as long as they are Not Subject to the absolute rulership of the Scriptures, letting God's Holy Writ ALONE determine everything, and judge everything, and be the ONLY BASIS for anything and everything they Believe, and Teach, and Do); regardless of what they call themselves and think of themselves, they are definitely ruled by the spirit that is behind organized systems of religion, that is the spirit of Satan, the spirit of the Anti-Christ, which birthed the first organized church ever, which is the Roman Catholic church, who is the Mother of all organized religious systems, (the Mother of all harlots), the Great Whore of Revelation Chapters 17 and 18! Period! And they are all going to wind up in the same place ordained for all man-made systems of religion, and that is precisely in the Lake of Fire. Period! Make no mistake about it: There is certainly a calling out for all God's predestinated children. May I say this, and please take notice: Contrary to what any preacher may teach, a calling out simply means calling out, for to come out is to come out. Period! It is literal! Do not tell me that it is figurative, or I will tell you that you are a fool! When God called the children of Israel out of Egypt, it was not figurative. There is no calling out that is figurative! A call out is a calling out unto separation, so it cannot be figurative. It demands a stand, a firm and categorical stand against something, and for something! You have to literally come out of something, in order to make a stand for something else, and as such, it is literal. There is no other way you are going to put it. I remember when I got disenchanted with the religious world, for I could see that Christendom was in gross apostasy, having gotten away completely from the Word of God. I knew that the situation was extremely bad, for I could see that all tables were full of vomit, but I did not know where to go. However, I travelled to Gboko, Benue State of Nigeria, to see a preacher named Gbile Akanni, whom I thought should be able to help me. He is a very nice man, and I stayed with him in his house, and he and his wife took very good care of me during my short stay of about a week. But subsequently, on returning to Lagos, God later led me into the End Time Message of Elijah, and I wrote Gbile Akanni concerning the calling out of God's elect seeds from all organized systems of religion, he wrote back to say that the calling out in Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4, does not mean that we literally have to come out of a church. My! I can understand why he said that, because he attends any church that pleases him on a Sunday morning, which in itself is incredible, for as it is written: Two cannot walk together unless they be agreed on the strict basis of the Word! We have not been called into spiritual prostitution, which is why we cannot eat on every table! We cannot! The truth remains, however, that Jesus proclaimed clearly and categorically, in his prophetic revelation: "COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE!" "Come out" does not need anyone's interpretation! Come out means COME OUT OF BABYLON! Full stop! This is the calling out of all God's elect seeds ordained as bride, from all forms of organized systems of religion, at this evening time, setting in motion an important parable Jesus Christ gave, concerning the separation of seeds, in this last age of harvest.

Remember the second parable of Matthew Chapter 13, the parable of the wheat and tares, recorded in verses 24-30. The second age ministry saw an ugly development within the body of saints, and they ran to the Master in prayer, because they saw the fruits of the enemy. They said, "Master, did you not sow good seeds in your field? How come then that it hath tares?" Then they asked Him, "Bid we go and pull up the tares?" But the Master said, "No, do not weed them out yet; I have a plan: Let both grow together UNTIL THE HARVEST..." So, the fellowshipping together of both seed and non-seed, that is, of wheat and tares, though it has taken a long time, is not ordained forever, for there is an appointed time of definite separation of seeds, which is specifically at the time of the harvesting of seeds. It is a Bible issue! But unfortunately, nobody in the religious world was even considering the separation of seeds which Jesus spoke about, or the prophetic application of Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4. Consequently, in 1946, God set Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4 in motion, and we heard a loud and scriptural voice proclaiming: “Come out of Babylon! COME OUT! Stay with the Word! Reject all creeds and dogma, and follow only the light of the Bible! It is Thus saith the Lord! For the Scripture of truth is the absolute of a true believer!” When we heard that scriptural voice, we came out of all man-made systems of religion. We dropped all man-made programmes and traditions of men, to follow Jesus Christ strictly in his true divine scriptural revelation! Some of us came out of the Baptist organization; some of us came out from the Lutheran organization; some came out of the Methodist organization; some of us came out of the Anglican Communion; some of us came out of the Presbyterian organization; some of us came out of the Roman Catholic organization, and so many of us came out of the Pentecostal and Evangelical organizations. Is that right? Yes! Some of us even came out of so-called “Spiritual churches”, which are white garment churches, because we all heard a voice, and came out in order to follow that voice. I am showing you what God set in motion in 1946, from a scriptural standpoint! Brothers and sisters, the Move of God through William Branham in 1946, was the beginning Move of God to get a bride for His Son, Jesus the Christ, which was why there was a calling out of the elect bride seeds, giving us the “ecclesia” of this end time, which is the called out church, a called out body of people, God's called out assembly. But we must understand today, that this calling out Move was not the end of it. Because in every move, in every call, you always have a mixed multitude! But the truth, nonetheless, was that the main masses of people in Christendom had been sheared off, and a tiny nucleus of people had been attracted to follow that light, out of which the Lord will eventually get his bride. Are you listening to me? So that Move was a Major Move, for by the calling out, a great separation had been accomplished by the Master of the harvest, through this ministry. In other words: The great separation which Jesus promised way back there in Matthew Chapter 13, was started at this evening time, through the ministry of William Branham. The religious world does not have a clue to this, but you do, because you are following the light of the Word. The ministry of William Branham was precisely where Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4, was activated, and in turn, it activated the parable of the separation of seeds in this last age. Because Jesus Christ declared infallibly in that parable, that at harvest time, there will be the separation of wheat from tares; because only then shall the righteous shine forth as the brightness of the firmament, on the full authority of verse 41, taken together with verse 43! So, there had to be a Move of Separation, but it was only the beginning point of that separation, though a major one, for that was the Move that cut off billions of so-called Christians, from the way of life! Right here was where this began, for right here is its beginning point. (Brother Amos points to the chart). 1946 was the year the Lord set the ministry that was used to bring that separation in motion. Saints, the separation process of God only continued on, through the successive standard bearing ministry of Raymond Jackson, the chief apostle of today, for through that second Move, a small element of people were further separated away from within the Branham Movement, to the truth, by the Continuing light of Christ which the chief apostle bore, thereby setting them apart from the main body of people within the Branham Movement. It was a Move within a Move, and the number of seeds were quietly, discreetly, and slowly, being wilted down. Finally, with the passing away of Raymond Jackson, God anointed the end time John, to carry the light of Christ, for the universal body of saints, thereby further wilting down the number of seeds, for it also brought a definite separation of seeds, within the Jackson Movement, which was in turn, an integral part and parcel of the Branham Movement. Consequently, God's Move through John, was a Move within a Move within a Move! And God is perfect in three, for three in God's numerology, is the number of perfection. It means in essence, brothers and sisters, that with the third separating Move of God through John, we are now facing the final phase of separation, for there is going to come a push of the Spirit, a certain wave of separation, a final and perpetual separation of seeds, in this last Move, on the full authority of Matthew Chapter 13, verses 41 and 43. And although God will be doing separation, and has been doing separation, as we go along in this Move, nevertheless, there is going to come a time when God is going to move sovereignly in this Continuity following, to weed out all that are not ordained to follow the light of Christ, for they are non-seeds. And that is all in God's hand. But remember, the church started pure, for it started in the upper room, and in the Ephesian church age, with nothing but pure seeds, and it will also end up with nothing but pure seeds. God is going to accomplish it, for He is God. We therefore leave that to Him. But you have to see the separation of seeds. For when we consider the nucleus of people that followed Brother Branham, God still wilted them down by a Move in 1966, when God set the ministry of Raymond Jackson in motion, for only few of the people that followed Brother Branham also followed Brother Jackson. So, it was God causing further separation, bringing about a separation within an already separated element of people making up the Branham Movement. And then, of course, by the time we came to our hour of time, to this day, it is another Move of separation, one through the end time John, God using it to cause further separation, creating A MOVE within A MOVE. It is God further separating an element of people out of a separated element of people, who came out of an originally separated element of people in the Branham Movement. Brothers and sisters, the crowd is definitely and continuously getting thinner. But in this hour of John, God is going to take out every speck of seed from this final Move, that has no life of God invested in it, for a push of separation is coming; it is coming, a final push of separation. As it is written in Matthew Chapter 15, verses 12-13: “Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? But he answered and said, EVERY PLANT, WHICH

HATH NOT PLANTED, SHALL BE ROOTED UP.

That is all in God's hand, for it is not our business; it is God's business, and as such, we leave it to God, for He knows just how to give a "sop" to the men in the ministry who are not His, as the devil enters into them, and they will go their way, regardless of how they stand today, and regardless of any ability they may have. That is serious food for thought.

Church, we are saying something, and that is that the Move of God to get a bride started in 1946, because the Lord first had to call out a people, and establish them in the truth, as He began to deal with them strictly in the light. Moreover, it takes a long period of time before they can get in shape, in true readiness for the rapture. Are you with me? It takes time for them to get in shape, which is why as we speak today, the bride is still in the making. However, there is nothing in all these things we have laid out that the religious world see, or that they can relate to. Look at all the dates we have on the chart. As we consider 1909, 1933, 1946, 1960, 1963, 1965, 1966, 2004, 2005, they will just be looking at you, thinking: "What are all these years about? What happened in them? Are these years in the Bible?" Because all they know, and all they see, is 1901 and 1906! There is nothing else on this chart that makes sense to them. There is no other date on it that they can relate to in any positive way. Because they see nothing, and they know nothing, other than 1901 and 1906! All they see, and all they will accept and identify with on our chart, is 1901 and 1906. Period! But of all these other dates, they will ask you: "Where in the Bible did God state these years?" In turn, I will also ask them: Where exactly in the Bible is 1901 written, and where also do we have a written record of 1906? Exactly! Because you should be able to see God in something, on account of what He has done in reality in the earth, in furtherance of His plan of salvation! Exactly! After all, you cannot deny the Moves of God! No one can! You should therefore be able to see precisely what God has used something to serve, in relation to His plan of salvation, that you may know precisely when God did something, for these are crucial years in the plan of God. Yet, we also identify with 1901 and 1906, for we see those years as well, as they also serve a divine purpose of God. But why can they not see the rest? That is the question! And I will show you why, for they were overthrown; which is why right here in 1906, of all the Moves of God which we have laid out in Laodicea, is where their knowledge stops. (Brother Amos points to the chart). So, now, let us fill in the gap. Let us go back in time where the Move of God started for this age; not the Move for the bride, but where God's Move in this last age started. It started right here in 1901 in Topeka, Kansas. We are talking of the Topeka outpouring, or better still, we are talking about the Topeka Experience, because it is really an experience, rather than an outpouring. Topeka is a town in Kansas, in the United States of America, and on the 31st of December, 1900, which was the eve of 1901, Charles Parham, an American Itinerant preacher, (an evangelist), a man whom God used to lay the foundation for the Pentecostal Revival Fire that later broke out in 1906, called for a Night Watch prayer meeting, to lead the students of his newly formed Bible Institute, Bethel Bible College, into the New Year. Prior to this event, he had seen that on the Day of Pentecost, everyone spoke in tongues, after the Holy Ghost came on them, as recorded in the Book of Acts Chapter 2. He shared this occurrence with his 40 students, and asked them to study the Scriptures on this experience, and also to pray about it. So, on New Year's Eve, which was on the 31st December, 1900, Charles Fox Parham conducted a Night Watch prayer meeting with his students, and with a number of other people also in attendance. And something happened in that night vigil, for they were looking to God to pour out His Spirit, as on the Day of Pentecost. Just past midnight, as they were waiting on God with prayer, a sister named Agnes M. Ozman, came out and asked Charles Parham to pray for her to receive the Spirit, because she desired to go on the mission field. This was at the beginning hours of 1st January, 1901, and as he laid hands on her, the anointing came upon her, and the sister, who was American, started speaking in pure Chinese, and for three whole days, she could not speak English but Chinese! That is serious, is it not? But I will also show you something much greater. Now listen to the words of Charles Parham concerning that experience: "I had scarcely repeated three dozen sentences when a glory fell upon her. A halo seemed to surround her head and face, and she began speaking in Chinese language, and was unable to speak English for three days. When she tried to write in English to tell us of her experience, she wrote in Chinese, copies of which we still have in newspapers printed at that time." Did you hear that? She not only spoke Chinese, she could not speak English for three whole days, and when she even wanted to tell the brethren of her experience in writing, thinking she would be able to convey it in English, God changed her writing: She wrote in Chinese! What a mighty God we serve! And yet, we have a more sure word of prophecy. Brothers and sisters, they continued the prayer meeting for another two days, which means for three nights. And by the time it was all over, every last one of them was speaking in tongues, including Charles Parham, who went into that Night Watch service, without having had the experience himself! Church, this move had its problems, but nevertheless God prospered it. And although he suffered reverses in his ministry, nonetheless, God turned things around for him, and within a few years later, he extended his ministry to Houston, Texas, where he began to teach and preach about this experience. That was where he met William Joseph Seymour, an African-American, who was blind in one eye, and William Seymour became one of his students, and also his co-worker, for both he and Charles preached in Houston. The point is this: When William Seymour heard of this experience, as Charles Parham laid it out to the brethren from the Book of Acts, he believed it! This made him search the Bible, and he saw in the Book of Acts, that something like this had happened. The truth of it set his heart on fire, and even though he had not yet received the experience himself, brothers and sisters, a year later, in 1906, he took the message from Houston-Texas, to Los Angeles, California, starting in the home of a sister, who had received the Spirit baptism under Charles Parham in Houston. This was where the Move started, until they had to move out on account of space, particularly when the foundation of the house collapsed, due to the throng of worshippers, and the moving of the Spirit. They secured an old dilapidated building, and in the month of April, 1906, the fire fell, and this started the Pentecostal Movement. However, let me tell you this, church: This is where you need to follow this Move by the eye of the Spirit. And when I say that you need to follow by the eye of the Spirit, I am talking about the eye of faith, which is the eye of divine revelation, for this is where people miss the mark. Initially, some of the leaders of this Movement taught that what the tongues people were receiving, would enable them to preach the Bible in different languages to the whole world, as an end time Move of God, because it is written that the Gospel will be preached to all nations, and then the end will come. So, they actually thought that the gift of tongues they received was to enable them to preach in different languages. However, they later realized it was erroneous, and they corrected themselves. But nevertheless, they also taught erroneously, and still do, and it is a fundamental doctrine to the Pentecostals, that speaking in tongues is an evidence of the infilling of the Holy Ghost. This untruth would be the means that the devil would later use to box them into a corner. However, in reality, what God did in that day was merely to restore the gifts of the Spirit, back in accessibility, to the body of saints, and this is what God used that Pentecostal Move to accomplish, for they carried the Oil message. And in that day, people not only spoke in tongues, they also prophesied! William Seymour even prophesied on people about God's Move, and about things God was going to do. And it is a fact that God did wonderful things, and fulfilled those prophecies. So, the gift of prophecy was undeniably in operation, just as the gift of healing was also in operation, with a lot of sensational manifestations, where people were falling under the anointing, singing in the Spirit, and dancing in the Spirit. Halleluiah! They even had an experience of a person who had never played the piano before, but when she was anointed to sing, and she was singing in a foreign language, the Spirit led her to the piano, and she began to play the piano perfectly! Wonderful things God did in those meetings, all on a sensational level. Church, but when you look critically at those meetings, there were no true revelation of the Word of God to them. They were strictly meetings of sensations! God needed that move, and God used it; because through it, God restored the gifts of the Spirit. However, the bride of Christ is not meant to follow sensations! We believe in the gifts of the Spirit, but we do not run after gifts of the Spirit; we run after Christ, for we follow Christ, not gifts! We follow Christ, not gifts, although we also believe in gifts, when they are genuine God-given gifts of the Spirit. Church, when people lift up gifts above the Word of God, then they have to err; because God does not place gifts or signs and sensations above the Word! Every gift, every sensation, every sign, every wonder or manifestation, must be scriptural. And not only must they be scriptural signs and wonders, they must also be manifested in conformity with the Word of God. In other words, it is not enough to have a gift, it is not enough to have a manifestation, however wonderful and sensational it may be, the manifestation must also be a scriptural manifestation, for God does not place signs ahead of His Word! Period! That is why, I do not care how much a man can pray and be under the anointing, if you have oil and blood on your hands, it is a demonic sign! In the days when the evangelistic ministry of men like the late Rev. Robert Schambach was burning the world, particularly through his global telecasts, he was having oil on his fingers, under anointing. He would cry many times in excitement: “Oh, I've got oil on my fingers!” Men were having oil and blood on their hands and fingers under anointing. But if I may ask: How is that different to the stigmatics, who during Easter, at the time of the passion of Christ, have literal blood coming out of their hands and feet? Come on! How different are they,

when we know that stigmatism is utterly demonic? Jesus declared in Mark Chapter 16, verses 17-18: “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they CAST OUT DEVILS; they shall SPEAK WITH NEW TONGUES; They shall TAKE UP SERPENTS; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall LAY HANDS ON THE SICK, and they shall recover.” He did not say that oil will be flowing from our fingers, and blood from the palm of our hands. Exactly! So, having blood and oil on one's fingers, are not scriptural signs. We will not accept any man who is having blood flowing from his palms, or oil from his fingers. That is outright demonic! Such men need deliverance! But we live in a religious world where all they need are sensations. As long as they have the miraculous, they do not care whether it is God or Satan. And that is why throngs of people will always flock to men like T.B. Joshua! He will always have a huge crowd, regardless of how many died in the recent building disaster which just plagued his ministry, simply because people are not looking for the God of truth! They are looking for miracles, and signs, and sensations, as solutions to their problems, and they will follow that, whether it is God or Satan, for they do not care for truth! They are only Sign seekers, but we are Truth seekers, and WORD FOLLOWERS. Hence, we do not follow signs, but the Word; we follow the truth, knowing undoubtedly that signs ultimately follow truth. And indeed, a true sign is established to back up the truth. That is why at the Commission of Moses, when he said that the children of Israel would not believe that God spoke to him, God asked him: “What do you have in your hand?” He said it was a rod. God told him to throw it down, and it turned into a snake. Then again, he asked him to put his hand into his bosom, and when he pulled it out, it turned as leprous as snow. But when he put it back in his bosom and pulled it out again, his hand turned back to normal. The Lord now told him, having given him these two signs or wonders: “If they do not believe the Voice of the first sign, they will believe the Voice of the second sign.” The Book of Exodus

Chapter 4, verse 8, plainly declares: “And it shall come to pass, IF they will not believe thee, neither hearken to THE VOICE OF THE FIRST SIGN, that they will believe THE VOICE OF THE LATTER SIGN.” This is absolutely so, because THERE IS A VOICE TO A SIGN! I repeat: To every sign, there is a voice, and there must be a voice! A sign is not sent to entertain the people, so that people can trample on the Word of God, which is why it does not stand on its own, for God is not an entertainer: Signs and wonders are manifested in order to back up the truth, for it is to point to the Word of God, that the people may by such signs believe the Word of God, and stand for truth, and live God's Word. Period! That is precisely why signs and wonders cannot be lifted up above the Word! However, it must also be pointed out that it is not enough for a sign to have a voice or a message: It must be a scriptural voice; otherwise, as the prophet to this age taught, it is an “Uncertain Sound”! The voice or message must be vindicated by the written Scriptures, for it must be Word based. But when a sign does not have a voice, for there is no message that that sign is backing up, or even if it has a message, but the message is unscriptural, then, such a sign is a blinding sign! That is why the Gospel of Saint Mark Chapter 16, ends with this absolute truth: “And they went forth, and P R E A C H E D EVERYWHERE, the Lord working with them, and CONFIRMING THE WORD with signs FOLLOWING”; because signs follow the Word, and not the other way round! Signs are sent to confirm the Word of life! Therefore, when you see ministries lifting signs above the Word, they are blind guides; they are false prophets, false ministers ordained to derail unrevelated souls from the way of life! Period! On the full and unquestionable authority of Mark Chapter 16, verse 19, SIGNS FOLLOW THE WORD; the Word does not follow signs, for signs cannot go ahead of the Word: THE WORD GOES AHEAD OF SIGNS, being placed above all signs, however fantastic the signs may be, for eternal life is in the revelation of the Word of Christ! Full stop!

Brothers and sisters, in 1906, at Azusa, it was all about sensations. But God used the Move, nonetheless, because God was in that Move, giving them those experiences, that by it He may restore the gifts of the Spirit. That was the beginning of the manifestation of the reality of God in the midst of His people at this end time, giving us a semblance of true Pentecost, having led us out of the Dark ages. But that was only a beginning, which was why in that day, the Word of God was not the focus of the meetings. Listen to me church. When the fire fell at Azusa in 1906, the focus of that Move, and of the meetings, was not the Word of God; it was mere sensations. People were there at all times, from morning till night, midnight till morning, praying, and a wave of the Spirit would fall, and people would be slain in the Spirit, whilst others would be speaking in tongues, and you would see people begin to sing in the Spirit, and dance in the Spirit, and prophecies would also begin to go forth. There was no order to the meetings, for the meetings centered mainly around prayer, and worship, and the Moving of the Spirit, mere sensations. William Seymour would then rise up at an impromptu time, and give a little exhortation, and then the praying and worship session continued, with an endless stream of people coming in and out, because in that day, the pre-eminence was on sensations, prayer, and worship. The Word of God Literally TOOK BACKSTAGE! Church, God allowed it, nonetheless, for all that served His purpose, because that was a Move God used to restore the gifts of the Spirit, like He used other Reformers to restore truths back in accessibility, one after the other. Also in that Move, there was a breakdown of the barrier of race, a breakdown of racial segregation, for the Move was Inter-racial, even though there was a law, called the Jim Crow law, still in force, separating the whites from fellowshiping with the blacks in the same room. In that Move, both men and women were allowed to minister, and they were also sent out as missionaries. So, in essence, that was when women preachers started, for you do not find women preachers in the Dark ages, and neither do you find them in the days of John Wesley.

It started with the Pentecostal Movement; because as long as you danced in the Spirit and spoke in tongues, you were anointed. And since they saw it as an anointing for preaching, an anointing enabling people to carry the Gospel to the nations of the earth, prior to the return of Christ, women who were anointed were also allowed to preach, for they spoke in tongues and prophesied, which to them was evidence of the infilling of the Holy Ghost. And that was why Agnes M. Ozman, on 1st January, 1901, came forward to be prayed for, that she might receive the anointing, because she wanted to go to the mission field. Are you with me? God allowed all these things, because what God was doing at that very time, was not to straighten out their doctrine; it was to restore the gifts of the Spirit. Unfortunately, they did not understand what God was doing, for they did not see God's objective, and they went to seed with what they had, for this was where the people failed; it was to be their undoing. And as I have been emphasizing, it is one thing to see what God is doing, and to stand with it; and it is quite another thing to know precisely why God is doing that thing, what it is meant to serve exactly, in God's plan of salvation, and logging on to that divine objective, allowing it to have its true application, for that is what shows you have a true vision! How can you tell me that you know the objective of God, and yet, you are not aligned with God in that objective? Just how can you know God's objective and walk contrary to it? Think about it! Coming back to the Oil Movement, brothers and sisters, that Move only lasted for about three years or so. But church, within two years of the outpouring of the Spirit, the Pentecostal Movement had already covered over fifty countries around this globe, so much so, that by 1908, the Move had spread all over the world, from Canada, to Iceland, to Tanzania, to South Africa, in Africa, all the way to India, and as far away as China. All over this globe, the Pentecostal Movement had set the world on fire. It was a true Move of God, and the key man was William Seymour, an African-American, for he was the man God used to spearhead that Spirit Move. But we must not forget that the foundation for that Move was laid in 1901, at the Topeka Experience, in Kansas, under the ministry of Charles Parham. Consequently, Charles Parham was to the Pentecostal Movement, what both John Wycliffe of England and John Huss of Bohemia, were to the Reformation: Because God used John Wycliffe and John Huss, to lay the foundation for the Reformation fire that broke out in the days of Martin Luther, who became the father of the Reformation, for God used Martin Luther to ignite the Reformation Fire. However, when we consider this Oil Movement, the Pentecostal Movement, God had not yet touched certain fundamental doctrines of the early church, which needed to be restored. For instance, they still believed in a Trinity, a false doctrine which breaks God into three Gods, and a falsehood which was established way back since the Nicene Council of 325 AD, under the chairmanship of Emperor Constantine. Are you listening to me? So, brothers and sisters, the Godhead had not yet been touched; water baptism in titles of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, had not yet been dealt with. They themselves added more leaven by bringing in women preachers, and teaching that speaking in tongues is the evidence of the Holy Ghost, which is a blatant lie. Much still needed to be done, in order to bring the church in shape, for the return of the Lord. However, by the time we come to 1914, (Brother Amos points to the chart), the Pentecostal Movement had been broken into smithereens, with everybody doing his own thing. Everyone wanted to speak in tongues, and everybody went around preaching his own thing, being a missionary, whether at home or abroad, somewhere around this globe. This resulted in independent movements, where everybody did his own thing, and preached whatever came to his fancy, thereby creating chaos within the Pentecostal Movement, for it was a mess! They then realized that something urgent had to be done to co-ordinate this Move, and to bring some sanity to it. So, from the 2nd-12th of April, 1914, in the Grand Opera House in Hot Springs, Arkansas, a great array of Pentecostal leaders all came together. They had put out an advertisement calling on all their leaders, together all the folks within the Pentecostal Movement, who would love to work in harmony together for the return of the Lord, and for the peace and advancement of the course of Christ in the Movement, to attend this meeting, in order to find a way forward for the Movement, and they all gathered together in that Grand Opera House, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in order to accomplish this. This meeting became the first general council meeting of the Pentecostal Movement. And in that meeting were men, leaders like John G. Lake, and F.F. Bosworth, for F.F. Bosworth was one of the leaders of the Pentecostal Movement, when the fire fell in 1906. He much later became the Campaign manager for William Branham's Evangelistic Ministry. Church, it was in 1914, when they held their first General Council of the Pentecostal Movement, and they decided to come together, that they reshaped things for the sake of unity. Leaders were put in place, and the various factions came together, for they now harmonized and coordinated themselves. It was out of that meeting, that what is called Assemblies of God, was formed. The meeting went on for 11 days in April, 1914, and because of the level of distrust existing amongst them at that time, the first three days were declared days of prayer and testimonies, in order to break down that barrier of mistrust on doctrinal and other issues, before facing the main challenge they needed to deliberate upon, which was the proliferation of so many doctrines and churches within the Movement. Many of the factions merged, and out of that amalgamation came the Assemblies of God, which was born at the Grand Opera House, in April 1914. Brother Branham preached many messages in Hot springs, Arkansas.

I also need to point out, that on 15th April, 1913, a year before the Grand Opera House Meeting, R.E. McAlister, a Canadian evangelist, baptizing converts in Los Angeles in the name of Jesus only, and not in the Trinitarian formula of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, shocked many people at the meetings. Evangelist Frank Ewart was converted at this meeting to this doctrine. After much study of the Scriptures, and being convicted of the truth of it, as laid out in the Book of Acts, Frank Ewart also began to preach the truth of Water baptism in the name of Jesus Christ. He gave his first sermon on the need to be baptized in the name of Jesus, on the authority of Acts Chapter 2, verse 38, and on 15th April, 1915, the re-baptism of Pentecostal believers thereafter started to gain momentum by the thousands. The revelation of the Oneness of God, that God is one, soon followed, and in 1916, the Assemblies of God, in their second General Council meeting, demanded a return to the Trinity doctrine. Out of 585 ministers in that meeting, 156 ministers pulled out of the Assemblies of God to form independent assemblies, in order to stand for the truth they had seen in the Scriptures. And by this Doctrinal Move, still within the Pentecostal Movement, two major doctrines of the early church of Jesus Christ were restored, namely, Water baptism in the name of Jesus Christ, and that of the Oneness of God, for God is one, not two, or three. Brothers and sisters, in order for the people to stand for this truth, they had to break away, and they formed other organizations, namely, The Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, and The United Pentecostal Church, and later, both groups merged into one, forming the Oneness Pentecostals. I am just showing you the history and development of the Pentecostal Movement. So, between 1913 and 1916, God had added to the restoration of the gifts of the Spirit, the revelation of Water baptism in Jesus' name, and the revelation of the Oneness of God, that God is one. In September 1922, William J. Seymour passed away, and by the time we come to 1929, a lot of the old guards had already passed away, leaving the Movement, in the main, with a second generation of Pentecostal ministers, who were now coming into the limelight. And you know how the story goes, when the original guards pass off the scene. Now, brothers and sisters, although the proliferation of the Pentecostals continued, as they went round the world establishing the Pentecostal message, nevertheless, the Move had now served God's purpose, and God was now going to move on. And this is where the picture changes. Church, please pay attention. As far as God was concerned, the Pentecostal Move had served its purpose. It had carried some things, and it had been used by God to restore some things. What was it used to restore? It had been used to restore the gifts of the Spirit, and the Doctrines of Water baptism in Jesus' name, and the Oneness of God. So, we must all see that the divine purpose of God had been served by the Pentecostal Movement, right under the hour of the Original Pentecostal leaders. This is precisely what the Move which God ignited in 1906 served, in God's plan of salvation, although they were still far from the true and original church of the Lord Jesus that we see projected in the Book of Acts. I will remind you though, that in that day, the Pentecostals were hated; they were loathed; they were shunned; they were called names, "holy rollers"; rotten eggs were thrown at them, and nobody in the denominational world wanted to fellowship with them, for they were totally ostracized, totally condemned, and rejected. They were called all sorts of names, and they were blacklisted by the newspapers, for they thought that they were maniacs and insane, people behaving like lunatics, on account of the Spirit manifestations. The newspapers were cruel to them, and they were referred to as "that Pentecostal trash." You will remember when Brother Branham married his first wife, Sister Hope Brumback, her parents totally refused Brother Branham taking their daughter to the Pentecostals, following the many invitations he received to preach in their circles! Brother Branham listened to his mother-in-law, a decision he was to regret the rest of his life. God decided to take Sister Hope away, by sending the 1937 Ohio River Flood, which was quite apart from the serious lung infection she contracted just before the flood came. And with the adverse effect of the flood, tuberculosis took over her lungs, and the end result was that she passed away in that period of time. However, the prophet called her spirit back from paradise, and on that fateful day, 22nd July, 1937, which was only about one month after their third wedding anniversary, she told her husband: "We should have never listened to Mama. Them people were right. Promise me that you'll go to them people and raise my children like that." Brother Branham made the promise, and Sister Hope passed away quietly in his arms. The rest is history. The Pentecostals were that much hated, and yet, in that day, they lived a holy consecrated life, for they were very prayerful, and they were filled with the Spirit, which was why they were called "holy rollers." But nevertheless, that was where God was in that hour of time, in relation to His plan of redemption, and we must see its place as children of light; for no one can nullify a present tense accomplishment of God, in the light of God's plan of redemption. You will pay a serious price.

Church, by the time we come around to the year 1960, the Pentecostal Movement had gone through a lot of phases, coming to this hour of time; but I do not need to bother you with every detail, for it is not necessary. However, we will now consider a Move of God, which stems out from the Pentecostal Movement, for it is a Move which branched off from it. As I stated much earlier, the Pentecostals had boxed themselves into a corner by their erroneous teaching, that Speaking in Tongues is the evidence of the Holy Ghost, for it is definitely not! Their total lack of understanding of their Move, against the overall plan of salvation, and their lifting up of signs above the Word of God, was now going to be their undoing. So, now we come to 1960, to pick up something, a Spirit Move, which I purposely omitted in my original chart, when we took GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE: THE YEAR 2005, because it is inconsequential to The Plot of God for the elect bride of this last age, although I have now added that Spirit Move in question, on our present chart. That is what branches off from the 1960 Pentecostal Movement, and it gives us the Charismatic Movement. (Brother Amos points to the chart). You will understand shortly why I left it out originally. But in 1960, brothers and sisters, there was the Charismatic Movement, which we have right here on our chart, branching off from the Oil

Movement. And what is the Charismatic Movement? It is the moving of the Spirit strictly within the borders of the daughters of Rome. Better still, it is the moving of the Spirit within the confines of the organized systems of religion, and a move which also later found its way into the Roman Catholic Church. So, in essence, the Charismatic Movement is nothing other than the moving of the Spirit working strictly within the denominational realm. In other words, it is not a move that torched the entire religious world, but was one which confined itself strictly to the denominational churches, from 1960. But how did this happen, and what was the objective for this move? This is where the Pentecostals bound themselves, where they shot themselves in the foot. The Pentecostals have one major doctrine they hold to, which is actually nothing but a dogma, for it is an untruth. And what is that dogma? They saw the gifts of the Spirit, the move of God in sensations; they saw all those things, and they latched onto it, receiving the blessings it gave, but they did not really know what God was doing, and what it was meant to serve, for they had no clue to the divine objective! Looking at the Book of Acts, they really thought that they were it; they thought that they were truly back to Pentecost, but they were not yet there; for as a matter of fact, they were still a long way off from the original pure seed church depicted in the Book of Acts! So, saints of God, in that day, they just thought they had arrived, but they certainly had not arrived! God still had a long way to go, before the original pure seed bride church of Christ would emerge! In 1906, time and conditions in the world had not yet evolved to the hour when the Plot of God for the elect bride would be activated, for it is by this plot that the end time bride would be gotten; for God has a plot for the bride, as laid out in the Scriptures of Truth. So, it can be said that in 1906, and by 1916, the gifts of the Spirit had been restored by the Pentecostal Movement, along with two major fundamental doctrines of the early church. But here in 1960, there was a move where the Spirit began to fall, as God began to introduce the moving of the Spirit to the organized churches. God began to anoint priests and leaders of the Orthodox churches with the Spirit, and they began to speak in tongues and to prophesy, along with the healing that had taken place in this move. The anointing began to fall in the Lutheran church, in the Baptist church, in the Methodist church, in the Anglican church (or church of England), as well as in the Presbyterian church. In all these churches, brothers and sisters, priests and pastors began to speak in tongues, and they began to pray for healing. This gave rise to what is called the Charismatic Movement. They call it a Movement, but in reality, it was not a Movement. I say that simply because a Movement leads you out, and leads you further, positively into the plan of God. However, this Spirit move led no one out of any system of religion, but rather, it made them stay put within their religious systems, whatever name it is, and whatever it is that they believed! That is why I agree with those who referred to the same Charismatic Movement as the Charismatic Renewal. Why did some call it a renewal? It is because it was not a Move; it was only an experience people had had within their denominational borders, an experience which did not lead them out. It kept them inside their systems, still holding to their creeds, their dogma, their traditions, and their carnal ceremonies, which lacked any ounce of redeeming value! Are you with me? So, it looked like God was moving by His Spirit in order to renew them. But I ask: How can God renew the daughters of Babylon? How on earth can God renew the harlot daughters of the Great Whore, the Church of Rome? Think about it! The truth is that God was not renewing these dead organized churches: God was only giving life to the foolish virgins out there within the organized churches! He was only renewing His seeds, who are foolish virgins, scattered within the organized systems of religion. Full stop! That was what God was renewing! God was not renewing dead systems of religion, for there is nothing to renew in what is dead! What is dead stays dead! You cannot renew the dead! Nevertheless, this move is what gives us the Charismatic Renewal, for that was how they looked at it, even though there was no speck of divine revelation of truth that they bore. Which is precisely why they danced in the Spirit, got slain in the Spirit, and spoke in tongues, and yet, the Roman Catholic children still carried their chaplets in their hands, praying with their rosaries: “Hail Mary, full of grace, blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Hail Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of our death!” My! They were speaking in tongues, and at the same time, they could still pray through Mary the so-called “mother of God”, thereby nullifying every Word of Scripture! Church, this is how the devil hit the Pentecostal Movement, for although God gave them wonderful Spirit experiences by which the gifts of the Spirit were restored, God did not inspire them to make a doctrine out of speaking in tongues! God did not inspire them to make the Word of God take a back seat in their Movement! That was their doing, for pure lack of divine revelation! They should have learnt from Martin Luther, John Huss, and William Tyndale, from their stand, as reformers, for the Scriptures! When they started, they could see God moving in gifts, and in the supernatural, and then they added a doctrine to that move, which is really a dogma, and is a major Pentecostal teaching, one which all of them believe, being fundamental to their faith, and that is that speaking in tongues is the evidence of the baptism of the Holy Ghost. It simply means, that it is the evidence that someone has been filled with the Holy Ghost. Some Pentecostals have changed their stand on this though, realizing that it cannot be scripturally sustained, and they call Tongues the “Initial Evidence”, which is still a lie! Tongues are not an initial evidence of the infilling of the Holy Ghost, and neither are they the evidence of the Holy Ghost infilling. For tongues to be evidence of the infilling of the Holy Ghost, whether initial or permanent, every tongue would have to be of God. But we know that demons also speak in tongues! So, how do we know which spirit it is? So, if all spirits speak in tongues, then tongues cannot be evidence of the Holy Ghost, because demons too speak in tongues! Simple! We agree that speaking in tongues, is evidence of a spirit working, but it is not evidence that that is the Holy Ghost. Secondly, even if the tongue is of the Holy Ghost, it is still not evidence that the person speaking in tongues is filled with the Spirit: Because you can speak in tongues without the infilling of the Holy Ghost! Absolutely! That is precisely why Apostle Paul warned in 1 Corinthians Chapter 13, verse 1, declaring: “Though I speak with the TONGUES of men and of angels, and have not charity”, (which is the Holy Ghost, which is Divine Love), “I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.” It is an absolute fact that you can do all these things without the Holy Ghost indwelling. Yes! On the authority of the infallible and unquestionable words of the Master, you can have a true prophetic gift operating in your life, and still be lost, eternally! Yes, you can! In the Gospel of Saint Matthew Chapter 7, verses 22-23, Jesus declared: “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not PROPHESIED in thy name? and in thy name have CAST OUT DEVILS? and in thy name done many WONDERFUL

WORKS? And then will I profess unto them, I NEVER KNEW YOU: DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY.”

This Scripture is absolute proof that you can speak in tongues, perform miracles, cast out devils by the power of God, and still end up in the lake of fire! Exactly! This is so, because you can have a gift of the Spirit, without having the Giver of the gift, which is the Holy Ghost, which is the Spirit of Jesus Christ believers possess at infilling! Come on! We are now in the deep waters of the Spirit. Let us even take more verses from that passage of Scripture. I am talking about Matthew Chapter 7, verses 21-27, for the Master says: “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven”, (as recorded in the Holy Word of God). “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I NEVER KNEW YOU: DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY.”

depart from me, ye that work iniquity"; (ye that work untruth; ye that preach anti-truth). "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it." It means in absolute terms that to build your faith, or your ministry, or your assembly, on erroneous teachings, teachings that are anti-Bible, regardless of whatever Spirit manifestations you may have, not only makes you a spiritual fool, it also makes you a sure candidate of hell! Absolutely! This should let you know, without any shadow of doubt, that you cannot sustain the manifestations of the Spirit without the rulership of the Word of God! Note that! There is no Spirit manifestation you can sustain without the rulership of the Word! It will not work, for you must fail! Spirit manifestations, though good, can only be meaningfully rewarding, when they are had with recourse to the Scriptures of truth! This is precisely where the Pentecostal Movement failed, for no one can lift up signs and wonders over and above the revelation of the truth which Jesus gives, and not end up like the Quaker and Shaker Movements, for it is totally unsustainable! If you do, just like a seed sown on rocky grounds, you must eventually dry out and die, for you will have no root! Exactly! The Pentecostal Movement was destined to crash, spiritually speaking, having negated the rulership of the Word of God! It was just a matter of time, for no people can survive on mere sensations, for sensations cannot feed men or their souls! It is the Word of God that can feed and sustain our souls! Consequently, their divestment was long coming, and it did come, which is why today, the Pentecostal Movement is riddled with incredible scandals, heart wrenching scandals, from sexual promiscuity of ministers, (ranging from fornication, to adultery, to homosexuality, and pedophilia), right up to financial embezzlement, as well as to extravagant, very flashy opulent lifestyles, which totally violates any exemplarship that the ministry must have, for the devil struck that Movement, big time! You cannot trample truth and survive! Look at this ignorant man in the ministry, Roberts Liardon, who wrote God's Generals. In that series, he opened his mouth wide to condemn and ridicule William Branham, the star messenger of Jesus Christ to this age, calling him a false prophet, and one who wanted acclaim, and one who derailed on that account. He talked shabbily in his book of things that were too wonderful for him to understand. I knew his day of judgment was coming. Lo and behold: In 2002, he confessed to homosexuality! That is nothing but demon possession! Those same homosexuality acts was what brought down Ted Haggard of Colorado Springs, Colorado; and Bishop Eddie Long, a two times divorcee, who coerced four young men under his ministry into homosexual relationships with himself, and there was even a fifth man involved, but Long settled out of court for undisclosed sums! David Yonggi Cho of South Korea, who has the biggest congregation in this world, running to about 830,000 as at 2007, in February 2014, was convicted of tax evasion, and fined $5 Million USD, with a three year suspended prison sentence, whilst his eldest son, Cho Hee-jun, was given a three year prison sentence. Shall we speak of Jim Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, Earl Paulk, Douglas Goodman of Britain's Victory Christian Centre, who sexually assaulted four female church members, and was sentenced and jailed for three and a half years; Albert Odulele of Glory House, also in Britain, who was convicted and jailed of two counts of sexual assault on young men in 2011, but he only served a few months of his sentence, was released, and is now back at Glory House; Paul Crouch of Trinity Broadcast, Juanita Bynum, Paula White, Benny Hinn? On and on the list goes! The devil has hit the Pentecostal Movement with a mega tornado, all because they have NO FOUNDATION OF TRUTH! And may I say this: There is no redemption for that organization, only divine judgment; for God is not redeeming any religious organization! It is God's seeds within these systems of religion that will have to run for their lives, out of them into truth! Period! That is why I am warning you earnestly, that it is not enough to follow a Move; it is not enough to follow this Move: You must see precisely the divine objective of God for the Move, and align yourself perfectly with it, or you may still lose out! Absolutely!

Coming back to the junction of time in 1960, to continue our consideration of the Charismatic Renewal, because although the Pentecostals had nothing to do with the Denominations of the world PRIOR to the Charismatic Renewal Move, for the Denominational world despised them, and looked upon them as "Holly Rollers"; but now with the Charismatic Renewal, the people in the Orthodox churches were now speaking in tongues, and with the Pentecostals teaching that tongues are the evidence of the Holy Ghost, the Pentecostals had no choice but to agree, that the Denominational folks had now been filled with the Holy Ghost, for they were speaking in tongues also! They could not say that they did not have the Holy Ghost! And to make matters worse for them, in 1967, a white South African preacher, by the name of David duPlessis, a man who had then become one of the leading figures in the Pentecostal circles, was introduced to the Vatican, and he took Tongues to the Vatican. He taught the Pope and the priests of Rome to speak in tongues. This opened the door for the Great Whore of Revelation Chapter 17, the Roman Catholic Organization, to speak in tongues! The Pentecostals could not deny the experience, for their doctrinal standard says that you are filled with the Holy Ghost, once you speak in tongues! Church, the children of the church of Rome could speak in tongues, but they could still pray through dead saints, which is nothing but spiritism, which is idolatry! Yet, the Bible, in 1 Timothy Chapter 2, verse 5, declares plainly and categorically, that there is only one Intercessor between God and men, which is Jesus Christ, even as it is written: “For there is one God, and ONE MEDIATOR between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.” Again, it is written in 1 John Chapter 2, verses 1-2: “My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, WE HAVE AN ADVOCATE WITH THE FATHER, JESUS CHRIST THE RIGHTEOUS: And he” (ALONE), “is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.” Is that right? Yes! But the Roman Catholics do not believe that, and have never believed that to date! The Catholic priests bless the wafer in the place of unleavened bread, and when it is blessed, it becomes the Holy Eucharist. Do you know what that means? It means that when it is blessed, that that thin round wafer changes its physical constitution, and becomes, not a symbol, but the literal body and blood of Jesus Christ; and you all know that that is a blatant lie! It is outright blasphemy! The Catholic Charismatics spoke in tongues, but they still believed in the so-called Holy Eucharist! Are you listening to me? They spoke in tongues, but they still communed with dead saints, for they prayed through Saint Mary, Saint Cecilia, Saint Antonio, and Saint Peter! They still make saints out of dead people, even as we speak, for in the Roman Catholic Church, you cannot be a saint unless and until you die! Yet, the absolute and immutable truth of the Scriptures is that as Gentiles, if you are not a sanctified one, meaning a saint, before you die, you will never be a saint! Exactly! The Anglicans were speaking in tongues, but they still believed the 32 articles of the Anglican Communion! The Baptists, the Presbyterians, the Methodists, and the Lutherans, all spoke in tongues, but still believed the creeds and dogma of their establishments! Brothers and sisters, the whole of Babylon was now a tongue speaking kingdom, which is why this Movement was also called the Tongue or Glossolalia Movement! My, oh my! What an end time sign that was! And alongside speaking in tongues, priests were also praying for healing, and all sorts of spirits also joined the bandwagon, for the “New Age Movement”, where ministers infused demonic and occultic practices like exorcism, rode on the back of the Charismatic Movement, into the healing and deliverance drive! Satan joined the train! Saints of God, I present to you the Charismatic Movement! Consequently, by this Movement, the Pentecostals were joined to the Great Whore! The barrier between the Denominational world and the Pentecostals was completely broken down, as the Pentecostals were now sucked into the borders of “Babylon the Great”, which covers the entire world of organized religion, by the Tongue explosion! This new friendship opened up the way of acceptability for them to become part and parcel of the World Council of Churches, which is the Image of the Beast! So tell me, what was the use of the tongues in this Charismatic Move? It was a blinding sign, AND a binding sign! That is the truth! Come with me to the Scriptures, for I want to show you something. Church, there was nothing in that Charismatic Move that made them see God's truth; nothing in that Move that made them follow God in His light, for there was absolutely no truth about that Move. It carried no truth whatsoever, and restored absolutely nothing to the body! But you know what? God used it to serve a very serious purpose. Come with me to Matthew Chapter 13, where, in a parable, Jesus was talking about the wheat and tares, recorded in verses 24-30: “Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed TARES among the WHEAT, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.”

(God told the ministry of the second church age not to initiate separation, for He, the Lord, has a plan, and He has a set time for that separation. The Lord then stated in verse 30): “Let both grow together until the HARVEST: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers”; (I will say to the gatherers; I will say to the harvesters), “Gather ye together FIRST THE TARES, and bind them in BUNDLES to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.” Now pay attention. The burning, however, is delayed, for it is suspended until after the White Throne Judgment, when the tares are then thrown straight into the lake of fire; but the bundling has been done, for all the bundles are here, although there are still individuals here and there who will still be thrown into one bundle or the other out there. Saints, on the full authority of this Scripture, there had to first come the binding of tares in bundles, before the gathering of wheat into the barn. Wake up! There had to come first the ministry of tare bundlers, men binding tares together, a move which God initiates, before that which gathers the elect bride seeds into God's “BARN”! Glory to God!

Amen! And what is a barn? I have always looked at gathering “the wheat into my BARN” as going in the rapture, but it is not, even though it eventually leads to that. In reality, a barn is actually a farm building for storing grain, or for storing animal feed, although it is also used to house farm animals. But in this parable, a barn speaks strictly of divine grain storage, for it speaks of divine accessibility to the deep things of the Spirit of Christ, ordained to lift up the bride in her preparation for the return of the Lord. This is precisely what happened in 1963, at the opening of the Seals, when “The THIRD PULL” was set in motion, and we were brought into the Inner Chamber, in fulfilment the “DOOR” of Matthew Chapter 25, verse 10, which is the DOOR INTO GOD'S “BARN.” For the first time, we had accessibility to the deep and most precious things of Christ, locked up in God's barn, thereby conveying to us an unparalleled light at the breaking of the Seals! Saints, we are looking at the door to the rock of revealed truth which God opened up in March 1963, for that is when the barn was opened up! Remember that the gathering process for the two seeds, wheat and tare, is going on right here on earth, for this is where the two seeds are! As such, the application of the bundling and of the barn has to be here on earth. And as it is written: It is “FIRST THE TARES”, BEFORE THE WHEAT! Consequently, there had to first come a Move in 1960, of the Spirit of God, at this harvest time, in this Laodicean church age, setting this binding Move in motion, thereby paving the way for the Move in 1963, of the Spirit of God, to also get the elect bride seeds into God's “barn”, God's treasure store! The Message Movement bundling which is ongoing, will come to its head somewhere down the road, in this Third and final junction for the bride, for they also are ALL going to unite together against the Truth, at the end of the day. It gives us various bundles, all within a giant end time Message bundle. Saints, this is precisely what the Charismatic Movement served, for it was a binding move. I am showing you the divine objective for the Charismatic Renewal, and the purpose it served, for thus saith the Word of God: Gather ye together FIRST

THE TARES, binding them in bundles, before gathering the wheat into my barn! That is why the Oil Movement or the Pentecostal Movement, is what later gave rise to the Charismatic Movement, for the latter is an offshoot of the former. It was all about sensations, and with David duPlessis taking Tongues to the Vatican, the Pentecostals were bound with the Orthodox churches, through the Tongue Movement, or what is known theologically as the “Glossolalia Movement.” Hence now, we have the Roman Catholic Church, the Protestant Churches, (who are the harlot daughters), and the Pentecostal-Evangelical bundle, which some called “the third force.” And when we consider the role of David duPlessis, whom the Pope called “Mr Pentecost”, we have to see a man functioning in the office of a tare bundler. I will still come back to pick a thought relating to him much later. However, as the Charismatic Movement broke out, and they were praying and rejoicing in the Spirit, thanking God for a new Move of the Holy Ghost, thinking that they were enjoying the Latter

Rain, little did they realize that the Charismatic Movement was God's way of bundling them all up together, as well as a means of giving the foolish virgins access to Oil. We must not forget that the foolish virgins are all out there within the borders of organized religion! Consequently, through this Move, God also gave accessibility to the foolish virgins still out there in the Denominational world, to have access to Oil, for the preservation of their lives. Hence in 1960, when the Charismatic Movement broke out, William Branham was quick to point out that that was the foolish virgins getting Oil!

Saints, one of the major leaders of the Charismatic Movement in that day was Katherine Kuhlman. She was a preacher who carried nothing but sensations, and signs of the Spirit, like healing. She was highly anointed, for she had a powerful way of projecting untruth! She had a very carnal and warped projection of the Godhead, and she took idolatry to a higher level, breaking God into three, and lifting up the so-called third person of the Trinity before the people! Her main focus was to place emphasis, and hence, put pre-eminence on the Holy Ghost, as the third person of the so-called Trinity, and sell it to the world, when in fact, the Holy Ghost is none other than God Himself, the Holy Spirit, the Sole Creator and Ruler of the Universe! She packed sensations without a true message, lifting signs above the Word! Church, you know what Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24 says? Brother Branham placed much emphasis on that prophetic picture, laying out the truth revealed therein for the understanding of the end time bride. In that passage of Scripture, which talks about the conditions of the end time, Jesus said: “For there shall arise false CHRISTS...” We all know that Christ means the anointed one. Therefore, “false Christs” simply means false anointed ones. It is not that the anointing is false, please note that; it is that the vessel itself is false. Take for instance Judas Iscariot, a man who received the gift or authority of casting out demons, along with the other apostles; and when they went about preaching, and demons were subject to them, as expressed in Matthew Chapter 10, yet, Judas himself was nothing but a seed of the evil one. I take Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24 again: “For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, IF IT WERE POSSIBLE”, (by virtue of the explosion of the miraculous manifestations in their ministry), “they shall deceive the very elect”, (if it were possible). That definitely means that they will not be able to deceive the elects by their great genuine signs and wonders. Period! Hence Jesus declared: “... IF IT WERE POSSIBLE, they shall deceive the very elect.” That just lets us see that it is utterly impossible for this calibre of highly anointed miracle working preachers, to deceive God's very elect bride seeds. The question therefore is this: If men, who have ministries which carry the explosion of the visible miraculous of God, cannot deceive the elect seeds of God, what standard do the seeds of God use, and what does this tell you? It simply shows that the predestinated children of God do not use signs and wonders or sensational manifestations, to judge ministries; rather, they use the Plumb-line of the infallible Word of God, because it is never about signs, it is about the voice, which is the message. Let that sink in. This is absolutely so, because God considers and magnifies His Word above any Spirit manifestation; higher than signs and wonders; higher than miracles; higher than gifts of the Spirit. The Word of God towers higher, and supersedes any Spirit manifestation whatsoever, however astounding or spectacular it may be. Hence the Book of Prophet Isaiah declares in Chapter 8, verse 20: “To the law and to the testimony”, (and however great and miraculous the testimony may be): “IF they speak not according to this Word, (which is the Holy Bible), “it is because there is NO LIGHT IN THEM”; (NO HOLY GHOST IN THEM, WHICH IS THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH). Period! In Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24, Jesus is simply saying that there is a higher wisdom which the bride of Christ latch onto, which anchors them solidly and immovably upon the solid rock of the revealed truths of Jesus Christ our Lord, and which lifts them higher than any storm of deception packed by miraculous ministries, who are the FALSE ANOINTED ONES, "FALSE CHRISTS." Full stop! That is precisely why we do not use miracles to judge men in the ministry either: We use the written Scriptures. We judge them strictly by their message, based upon the litmus test of the Word of God, which is the higher wisdom that the bride of Christ bows to, for we do not bow our knee to Baal! This higher wisdom is what enables the bride of Christ to tower higher than the demonstrations of the miraculous which men carry, however spectacular it may be, for IF they do not carry a scriptural voice, they are certainly false Christs. And that is precisely why we do not follow men like T.B. Joshua of the Synagogue of All Nations, for we can see them for what they are. They are like the modern day Bar-Jesus of those days, and like Simon the sorcerer in Acts Chapter 8! Brothers and sisters, God does not place signs ahead of His Word. And the Message is not about signs and wonders; it is not about casting out demons: the Message is about Jesus Christ in his resurrection revelation! The Message of salvation is not about signs; but the Message has signs following it, to confirm it, thus enabling God's children to believe the truth. So, what goes ahead? The Word! What follows? Signs! And even if signs do not follow, TRUTH STILL REMAINS THE TRUTH! I repeat: If signs do not follow, the truth still remains the truth! And as an elect seed of God, you cannot say: "I will not believe the Word of God if there is no sign following it." Because truth remains the truth, regardless of the absence of signs, for signs do not make truth to be truth: They only confirm or vindicate the truth, for the truth still remains the truth! This is absolutely so, because the greatest vindication any man can have, is the vindication of the Word of God! There is no vindication like the vindication of the Word! It stands on its own, and it is inviolate, for truth does not fail and cannot fail, and it conquers all, being the sovereign Word of the sovereign God! Hence, Apostle Paul proclaimed under divine inspiration, as recorded in the Book of Romans Chapter 3, verse 4: "... LET GOD BE TRUE, but every man a liar, (regardless of the supernatural manifestation, or the lack of a supernatural manifestation); "as it is written, THAT THOU MIGHTEST BE JUSTIFIED IN THY SAYINGS, and mightest overcome when thou art judged", (when God's Word is called to question)! I repeat: The greatest vindication any man can have is the vindication of the Word of God, for as Jesus declared in the Gospel of Saint Luke Chapter 21, verse 33: "Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my Words shall not pass away", (whether it has signs backing it or not). Furthermore, it is not men that give signs; it is God Himself who gives signs, according to His sovereign will. So, if God does not give signs to back His Word, we will still believe the Word, because the Word of God will ever remain the Word of God. Let me remind you of a material scenario in the Bible relating to this crucial issue. As recorded in 1 Kings Chapter 18, Elijah brought the children of Israel to Mount Carmel, with 450 prophets of Baal. He called on the children of Israel, saying: "Choose this day whom you will serve. If it be God, then follow him; and if it be Baal, then follow him." The Bible records that Israel answered him not a word, for Israel, in her apostate state, did not know who God was anymore; Israel did not remember Elohim. Then Elijah made a challenge: "Let the God that answereth by fire be God." Brothers and sisters, as recorded in verses 38-39, it was only when fire came down from heaven at the command of Elijah, that they remembered and cried that God is God, as it is written: "Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The Lord, He is the God; the Lord, He is the God." My, oh my! It took a sign for Israel to realize that God is God. What a shame! What an apostate spiritual condition! So, I ask: What if fire did not come down that day to vindicate the stand of Elijah, would Elohim have ceased being Elohim? Would the truth of God have been a lie? And was it the fire that made Him God? Absolutely not! That is precisely why a believer remains a believer in all seasons, regardless of signs or not. For fire or no fire, God is God, and sign or no sign, truth is truth! Amen! For it is written: "THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH!"

Saints, we are talking about the Charismatic Movement and its leadership, who carried not an ounce of truth, but rather, they trampled flagrantly upon the Scriptures of truth. The Move did not make them drop their creeds and dogma, their traditions, or their carnal ceremonies, and their erroneous teachings; it did not make them stop peddling their falsehood. But they took that anointing and rejoiced in it, as if God was blessing them for their gross disobedience to His Word! And in a way which we shall lay out shortly, He was blessing them indeed for their disobedience! Nevertheless, the Charismatic Movement, whose main manifestation was tongues, and which was why it was called the Glossolalia Movement, was used to bind the tares together in Christendom. It is pathetic that a lot of church goers, religious people, including preachers, read the parable of the Wheat and Tares, without realizing the seriousness of the parable, and that it has a certain period of application at this end time, for the separating of the seeds, the wheat from the tares, for the separation is not in heaven, but right here on earth! To think that tares will be going up to heaven, and then God will then throw them back down to earth, is utterly preposterous! Do you see how ridiculous such a thought is? So, if tares are not going in the rapture, then, commonsense should let you know that separation has to be set in motion on the earth, somewhere in the grace age, precisely in this seventh and final age, before the rapture season! Exactly! Moreover, do not forget that the church started pure, and as it is written, No man dared joined himself to them, but only the Lord added, as many as were ordained for eternal life, as recorded in the Book of Acts. So, the truth is that the church started pure, and it will also end up pure. That is the bottom-line! That is why when the second age ministry noticed the presence of the seeds of the enemy in their midst, by the fruits they saw, they went to the Lord in prayer, asking: “Master, did you not sow good seeds?” That is the children of the kingdom, who are wheat seeds. They asked: “How come it has tares? Bid we go and pull them up?” And God told them, “No, let them grow together.” And from that time on in Christendom, it has been wheat and tares growing together, side by side, in the Christian religious world. However, it is not meant to be like that forever, because they did not start together, and so, they are not going to end up together either! God is Alpha, and He is Omega. It is an unchangeable and infallible law of reproduction, that every seed brings forth after his kind! And since they did not start together in the Upper room on the Day of Pentecost, they are not ending together either, and as such, there has to come a specific time for the separation of seeds. The introduction of tares was towards the ending of the first church age, after the original apostolic guardians of our faith had passed away, the last being Saint John. That was when tares were sown. But it was at the beginning of the second church age, that the ministry of that age realized that the enemy had sown tares in their midst. They realized something had gone on, for the fruits proved it. So, the Lord instructed them, saying: “Let them grow together till the time of the harvest.” Harvest of what? Harvest of seeds! And we are in that day of harvest, for everything is now coming to maturity, what God started, and what the devil also started. Church, the separation of seeds started at this end time, when God sent a man, William Branham, to carry a message to call out the bride from all organized systems of religion, that we may walk with God in the absolute truth of the Word of Christ. He picked up Revelation Chapter 18, verse 4, and began to bellow: “Come out of all man-made systems! Come back to the Scriptures! Come back to the Word of God! Drop every creed and dogma, and hold only to Truth! Stay with the Scriptures, for all other ground is sinking sand!” He began to gather the truths of the daughters of Rome, one by one, for every last one of them was founded off of a Move of God. He took the truth of Martin Luther, Justification by Faith, which the Lutherans bore, and gave it back to the church. He took the truth of John Knox, Eternal Security of a Holy Ghost filled believer, which the Baptists bore; he took the truth of John Calvin, Election and Predestination, which the Presbyterians bore; he took the truth of John Wesley, Sanctification or Holy Christian Living, which the Methodists bore; he gathered all the truths from the daughters of the Church of Rome. Are you with me? The Church of Rome, being the first organized church that ever has been, and ever will be, and being the greatest machine of deceit that the devil has ever invented, to dope billions of souls to hell, by her idolatrous doctrines, in the wine of her fornication. That is why she is the mother of all harlots! William Branham also took the truths of William Seymour, the Holy Ghost Baptism, including Water Baptism by immersion in the name of Jesus Christ, and the Doctrine of the Oneness of God, the One God Doctrine, which the Pentecostals bore, for they are all Bible truths, and all should have been received as fundamental truths of the Bible. William Branham added other Bible truths to all he took, built a message around them, and handed them back to the body of saints, as Bible truths which we must stand for, in order to be acceptable to Jesus Christ at this evening time. However, the Anglican Church, or the Church of England, which in the United States of America, is known as the Episcopal Church, was left out of this loop, for the prophet did not take anything from them. Why? Saints, I want you all to understand that the Anglican Communion or the Church of England, has nothing to do with God's Move, for it was not founded off of any Move of God, instead, it was established strictly upon the fleshly desires of a king, and as such, it did not carry any truth, for it restored nothing. Come on! That is one organization that is totally different in its founding, although it also served God's purpose, for God uses everything. Let me talk a little bit tonight about the Church of England, the Anglican Communion, or the Episcopal Church, for it has become one of the daughters of Rome, having separated from the Church of Rome. We must all realise that it was not an organization that was formed based upon a Move of God, for it never was! It was the fleshly will of a man, Henry Tudor, King Henry VIII, the second son of King Henry VII and Elizabeth of York. He was born on 28th June, 1491, at Greenwich, London, England. King Henry VIII was a moral pervert. And when I say that, I mean that he lived a very lewd life, particularly in his desperate bid to have a son as an heir to the throne of England. He married six times, one after the other, and he had the heads of two of his wives cut off; he had them literally beheaded. The first lady he married, Katherine of Aragon, a devout Catholic, and a princess, the daughter of the Spanish King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, was at first married to Henry's senior brother, Arthur, who was the heir to the English throne. Arthur died about four months after their wedding, without having a child. However, because the marriage was not consummated with a seed, the Pope gave permission for Henry to be engaged to his dead brother's wife, at the age of 12, whilst Katherine was at that material time, 17 years of age. Six years later, in 1509, Henry became king, which was at the age of 18, and he then married the 23 year old Katherine. After successive miscarriages and two still births, she gave birth to a prince, who lived for only 52 days, and died. The only surviving child she had was a girl, named Mary Tudor, but Henry would not accept a daughter. He wanted an heir to the throne. He started messing around with women, going to bed with any lady his eyes fell upon in his court. He lived a very lewd life. A lewd life is a rotten life. After having had illicit relationships with Mary Boleyn, then later sighting her sister, Anne Boleyn, he ditched Mary Boleyn, and went after Anne Boleyn, and was desperate to marry her, even though Katherine was still his legal wife. He devised every means possible to divorce Katherine, so that he could marry Anne Boleyn, but Katherine would not accept divorce, and neither would the Pope allow him to divorce her and re-marry. Moreover, Anne Boleyn was a Protestant, whilst Katherine was a Catholic. Brothers and sisters, although the whole country was against his marrying Anne Boleyn, whom they thought was too wayward and unrefined, Henry, on the other hand, felt that as a king, he could do whatever he liked. Therefore, in order to get out of his first marriage, particularly because the Pope of Rome would not allow him to divorce Katherine and re-marry, even though he had been a loyal subject of the Pope, and had written books in defense of the Catholic faith, against the people calling for reform, he decided to part ways with the Roman Catholic church entirely, and create his own church, under his supreme authority as the king of England, just in order to marry Anne Boleyn, and he annulled his marriage to Katherine. Although he had opposed the Reformation Move, he now used the writings of the Reformers to make himself the Supreme Head on earth, of the new Protestant Church he had created, which is the Church of England. He took his subjects away from the Roman Catholic system entirely, destroying monasteries and many Catholic churches in England, along with their relics and statues. He killed many Catholic priests, including his Chancellor, Sir Thomas More, for refusing to accept the Act of Supremacy which the Parliament passed. He freed his people from their subservience to the Pope of Rome, and he made himself the Supreme Head of the Church of England which he had constituted. That is why the Queen of England today is the head of the Anglican Communion. And because he believes the King is the sovereign head, so therefore, the king of England is the head of the Anglican Communion. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we must realize that it was a church founded purely on account of the fleshly desires of a man to marry a woman that he should not have married. The irony of it all is that, when he married Anne Boleyn, she still could not give him a male child, the heir he wanted so badly, and eventually, he had Anne Boleyn killed! They cut off her head! Of course they raised up false witnesses against her in order to do this, calling her a witch, and accusing her of engaging in extra marital affairs, for she just had to die in order for to give legitimacy to his marriage to another woman! However, Anne Boleyn gave him a female child, named Elizabeth. The male child she conceived thereafter died prematurely, and was even deformed. And right after Anne Boleyn was beheaded, he married another girl, Jane Seymour, whom he had been sleeping with, and she gave him the heir he had always wanted. However, after giving birth, Jane passed away 12 days later. Having gotten an heir to the throne, named, Edward, he declared the two daughters he had by Katherine and Anne Boleyn, illegitimate. I am speaking of Mary and Elizabeth! Then he married a fourth wife, a German Princess, Anne of Cleves, a Protestant; but he also threw her aside in a divorce, and then married another one, a fifth wife, a pretty young girl, Catherine Howard, the first cousin of Anne Boleyn. Catherine, being young, and desiring men of her age, started having illicit relationships with young men, and on this account, she was beheaded, and Henry VIII married his sixth and final wife, Catherine Parr, who survived him when he died in 1547. It was just a mess! There is even a famous rhyme which describes the fate of his six wives:

Divorced, Beheaded, Survived”

When King Henry died, his son, Edward, became King Edward VI. Church, the irony of it all is that the two daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, whom he got from his first two wives, Katherine of Aragon and Anne Boleyn, two girls he did not want, two girls he made illegitimate, but who were later reconciled and brought back to the succession, through the intervention of Catherine Parr, his sixth wife, both also later became Queens of England, though at different times. Mary, the daughter of Katherine, became Queen Mary I, and Elizabeth, the daughter of Anne Boleyn, also later became Queen Elizabeth I. Brothers and sisters, I am going into history just to show you why, when you look on the Bride tree, the Anglican Communion (the Church of England) is not there. It is not there, because it was never conceived out of a Move of God; it was conceived by the carnal desires of a king. Nevertheless, they broke away from the Church of Rome, but they are one of the daughters of Rome, for they joined the ranks of the Protestants, even though it was not formed out of a Move of God. And as God uses everything, He also used this new system of religion, for this was how the Protestant Movement started in England, even though in the United Kingdom today, their services have been fused with that of the Catholic Church. This is how the Anglican Church was born, and they make up one of the major Denominations of the world, and they were also affected by the Charismatic Movement.

Saints of God, I want to say this, and it is a very serious point I am making, and it is this: The Charismatic Movement was a deceptive and deluding Move, for by it, God was blinding these religious unbelievers, sealing their eternal destiny by it, for no one can add to or take away from the written Scriptures, and not suffer eternal consequences! I also said earlier, that looking at their stinking attitude towards the Word of God, the Charismatic Movement took the anointing as a blessing from God, despite their unbelief of the truth of God's Word, and I also said that indeed, it was a sort of blessing. Now, I have a scriptural reason for saying that, and I will explain why I made that statement; but before I lay that out, let me first make this point, and please pay close attention. If the Charismatic Movement did not bear one ounce of truth, then it is most certain that there is nothing that will come out of it later in time, which will carry any ounce of truth either, for as we all know, every seed produces after its kind. Is that right? Yes! Consequently, the byproduct or the offshoot of the Charismatic Movement can only carry further deception. The deception can only increase with the passing of time, and the degeneration can also only increase, for you reap in multiplied proportion, and not in the measure in which you sow. After all, we are in the harvest age. Absolutely! In the early seventies, there was a Move in the earth, which was an offshoot of the Charismatic Movement, and it is called the Charismatic-Evangelical Movement. The leaders of this Movement were ministers who were inspired by the leaders of the Charismatic Movement, like Katherine Kuhlman, for she inspired men like the American Evangelist Billy Burke, and Benny Hinn, a man whom I refer to as the “Caiaphas” of the Pentecostal-Evangelicals today. Each and every one of these men are just doing their own thing, and are going their own way, being Independents. That is why I just call all of them Lone Ranger ministries. (Brothers Amos points to the chart). They can call themselves and their ministries any name they want to, be it, Power Centre, Tornado ministry, Word of Life ministry, Rapture vision ministry, this and that ministry, brothers and sisters, they are leading nowhere, because not one of them is doing anything that touches on what God has for today, what God has for the bride of Christ, in getting her in shape for the return of Christ, at the last trump; none of them is bringing any Unity of revelation and Perfection to the universal body of Christ; but instead, they are peddling a material gospel of fleshly healing and carnal prosperity. And that is where we are going to close. Because you must be able to see exactly where we are in time, in the light of Scripture! It is all about the Bible Plot! You must be able to see where we are in time, in God's revealed plan of salvation, and why we are there, and precisely how we got there, because we are children of light. But I made a point earlier that the Charismatic Movement is a blinding move. Now come with me. Look at what Jesus Christ our Lord laid out in Saint John's Gospel, Chapter 14. For a background, we will start from verse 15, where Jesus stated: “If ye love me, keep my COMMANDMENTS.” The declaration Jesus Christ made right here, lays down The True TEST of LOVE FOR THE MASTER, and that love is one which is exemplified or expressed by our love for his divine revelation; it is strictly to stand firmly and faithfully for his revealed Word. Period! Any other claim of love for Jesus Christ is absolutely carnal, being mere lip service, and is, as such, totally empty, absolutely baseless, and completely useless (valueless) to the Lord! Never forget that; for God is not interested in empty confessions of love for Jesus, love which is devoid of the truth of Jesus Christ of the Holy Scriptures. It means in true divine essence, that true love flows from the fountain of divine revelation of the Word of God, for the Invisible God, our Creator, is revealed exclusively in His Word, and hence, from that fountain of truth, true love flows. Let that soak in! Verse 21: “He that hath my COMMANDMENTS, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.” How will he manifest to us? By infilling us with the Holy Spirit; by giving us the Comforter! Verse 23: “Jesus answered and said unto him” (who is Judas, not Judas Iscariot, but another disciple also named Judas): “If a man love me, he will keep my WORDS...” So, what he called commandments in verses 15 and 21, is what he now refers to as his Word in verse 23. In verse 24, Jesus now states: “He that loveth me not keepeth not my SAYINGS: and the Word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.” It means in essence that when he talked about his commandments being kept, he was talking about his sayings; he was talking about his words; he was talking about his revelations, which are his teachings. Consequently, we must see that his commandments here, are not talking about the Ten Commandments, but about the entire body of revealed truths of Jesus Christ! Exactly! I say this because when the Seventh Day Adventist folks read this, they go straight to the Ten Commandments, and zero in on the Sabbath, as if that was what Jesus was talking about! But he was strictly speaking about the revelation of the New Testament which he bore! Period! Now, let us go back to verse 15, which lays out the true test of love for Jesus Christ: “IF YE LOVE ME, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever”, as your eternal possession. That is why he had to first go. And that is why it was not possible for Almighty God, to hear the plea of Saint Peter on the mount of transfiguration, as recorded in Matthew Chapter 17, when he said: “It is good that we are here. Let us build three tabernacles, one for you, one for Moses, and one for

Elijah”, and God shut him up, declaring, “HEAR YE HIM”! Because the divine presence of God is not meant to rest eternally upon one rock somewhere, with just the three disciples enjoying it. God wants to inhabit the hearts and lives of His own children around the earth, and the price for that had to be paid first. Now with his resurrection, the Comforter is ours, for the Comforter has come! And who is this comforter? Verse 17 tells us exactly who He is: “Even the SPIRIT OF TRUTH”, (the Spirit of the Word; the Spirit of the Bible; the Spirit of true divine revelation); “whom the world cannot receive”, (on account of unbelief; on account of the lack of revelation), “because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.” (Now watch verse 26): “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, HE SHALL TEACH YOU ALL THINGS, and bring ALL THINGS to your remembrance”, (including Chemistry, Biology, Physics, and Internet Technology? Of course not! But what will he t e a c h u s ? )

“WHATSOEVER I HAVE SAID UNTO YOU.” In other words, when the Comforter comes into our lives, He will teach us all the truths of Jesus Christ. Period! I make this emphasis because I once heard Chris Oyakhilome preaching on the telecast, telling students that the Comforter will teach them their school subjects! And the people were jumping up and jubilating. People love deception! Okay, do not study, and expect that the Holy Ghost will teach you Chemistry. You will fail woefully! Do not study, but simply go on your knees and pray: “Oh Lord, let the Comforter teach me Physics”, and let us see how you will fare at the end of that session. Silly people! The Comforter does not come to teach you Chemistry and Biology, for those are carnal knowledge, and as such, they are temporal! He came to give us divine knowledge, which is the true knowledge of God that is in Christ Jesus! That is why in John Chapter 14, verse 6, Jesus declared categorically and exclusively: “I AM THE WAY” to God, “THE TRUTH” of God, “and THE LIFE” of God. The bottom-line, brothers and sisters, is that the Comforter, who is the Spirit of the Word, the Spirit of truth, when we receive Him into our lives, at the Infilling, He will teach us the revelation of Jesus Christ, which is true Bible faith. He has nothing to do with Mathematics, Algebra, Botany and Business Administration. That just lets you see that you will NOT be ignorant of the revelation of life, because He will teach you, keeping you perfectly informed, spiritually. Period! It is not that you will have everything in one day; it is that He will be giving it to you as Christ is unveiling his Word, and to the measure that Christ unveils it in your day, thereby enriching your soul with the revelation of life, and thereby keeping you from spiritual ignorance, which is darkness. And as you keep walking with God in the light of truth, you will know Jesus better with each passing day, for as it is written: “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.” Open with me to John Chapter 15, verse 26: “But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, EVEN THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH”, (the Spirit of the Word), “which proceedeth from the Father, HE SHALL TESTIFY OF ME”, (who is Jesus Christ, the light of the world). In this passage of Scripture, Jesus is basically saying the very same thing he said in Chapter 14, for the Holy Spirit will convey the revelation of the things of Christ to its possessor, for as Jesus promised, He shall testify of HIM. It is a re-affirmation and a re-confirmation of the promise he made earlier in Chapter 14, that we may know with absolute certainty, the infallibility of his promise, and the specific workings of the Holy Spirit in the lives of those who possess Him. Period! Then, to crown it all, again in Chapter 16, a Chapter which gives us the third Chapter in a row, and the third witness, conveying the infallibility of the workings of the Holy Spirit, a working which constitutes an immutable and an infallible evidence of the infilling of the Holy Ghost, Jesus proclaimed from verse 12: “I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now”, because all the revelation of truth is not given in one day, and it was not all given when Jesus was here in his body of flesh, thus enabling us to know assuredly, that the revelation of God is progressive, for it comes in folds, being progressively given: “Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will shew you things to come.” Hold it there. Did you hear what he just said? He said: “Howbeit when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO ALL TRUTH.” Church of the living God, divine leadership into the scriptural truths of Jesus Christ is an infallible evidence of the infilling of the Holy Spirit! So, I ask: Just how can people speak in tongues, dance in the spirit, sing in the spirit, fall under anointing, and the only thing that the Spirit of God is supposed to do in their lives, at infilling, according to the infallible testimony of our Master Jesus Christ, is exactly what that spirit is not doing in their lives? Think about it! He is doing everything, except the only thing

Jesus said He will do! He makes them dance in the spirit; he makes them fall under the anointing; he makes them stagger in the spirit; he makes them run in the spirit; he makes them sing in the spirit; he makes them speak in tongues; he even makes them play piano in the spirit; but the revelation of eternal life which He is supposed to give the recipient, that is the only thing that this Spirit is not doing in the Charismatic Movement! My!

Brothers and sister, open your ears to what I now say, and to how exactly I say it, and take heed: When a spirit move is set in motion, even when it is a genuine one, Not a false one, but a genuine one, and however fantastic the manifestation may be, and however powerful and astounding, IF it lacks the essential ingredient of life, which is the revelation of truth, you better run from it! I repeat myself: When a spirit move is ignited, however great it may be, and even though it is true, IF it lacks the essential ingredient of divine revelation, which is the revelation of life, please run from it! Do you know what that move is? It is a blinding move of God, IF it is God moving! We all know that Satan moves a lot more, for he is only an impersonator and a mass deceiver. And we also know for a fact, that a lot of the men on the scene today in the ministry, are anointed and are operating by the Spirit of sorcery. We know that! You remember the case of “Elymas the sorcerer”, who Apostle Paul met on the Isle of Paphos, a sorcerer who was also called “Bar-jesus”, as recorded in Acts Chapter 13, verses 6-11. It is therefore not a new development. There was also a sorcerer in Samaria by the name of Simon, as recorded in Acts Chapter 8, whom the people called “the great power of God”, and whom the people revered, from the Mayor of the city to the street sweeper. They all ran after him! Brothers and sisters, he had the ears of the king and of the city leaders. But it was all by satanic power, for as it is written: “... Simon, which beforetime in the same city USED SORCERY, AND BEWITCHED THE PEOPLE OF SAMARIA, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because that OF LONG TIME HE HAD BEWITCHED THEM WITH SORCERIES.” Saints, we are not talking about phony ministries like this, men who use demonic power to bewitch the people, even though this also abounds today, and we see it expressed in many ministries around the world. Look at the case of one pastor in Opebi, Lagos. His name is Chigbo Ndukwe, and he is a grade one sorcerer. He casts spells on his female subjects, making them totally abandon their h u s b a n d s A N D CHILDREN, and devote their entire lives to him and his church, becoming his slaves, and his foot soldiers; they falsely think they are working for God. He twists the Scriptures, using them in a very smart way to achieve his evil objectives, thereby deceiving the people into a false and warped sense of spirituality. It is simply pathetic! Once he is able to take them on a so-called spiritual trip to Kenya, they never come back the same, for they lose all self-control. The devotion that they have for that man, whom they also worship, is such that any attempt to stop them from even phoning him, or from relating to him, makes them become paranoid; their reaction literally borders on schizophrenia, further confirming the truth that they are under the influence of demonic forces. The spell he casts on the people, by which he has such an incredibly strong satanic hold, makes the female members of his church officially adopt his name, and add it to their last names, as a compound name, and they claim it is the Holy Spirit that led them to do so, as if the Spirit of God, which is "THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH", can lead anyone contrary to the written Word of God. The truth is that once you leave the true foundation of the Scriptures, you will believe anything. These people do whatever Pastor Ndukwe tells them to do, and they run all over creation looking for people to fund this evil man's ministry, helping earnestly and slavishly to build his empire, whilst on the other hand, they run away from their own family members, who are deeply and genuinely concerned for the downward trend of their lives. For instance, a married sister that is named Janet Wilson, will now officially become, Janet Ndukwe-Wilson. Things are happening in this world in the name of religion, and hell is waiting for a lot of men! Saints, since the foundation of the world, from the Book of Genesis, right up to the Book of Revelation, God has anointed and used an array of great men, for they are countless. However, it is very pertinent to point out that Not one of these men have Ever made their followers adopt their names, AND neither have they Ever allowed their followers to adopt their names either, just because they believe their message, or just because they are their followers! It is never done! This is so, because their message is not about them, but about the Lord Jesus Christ! Before Christ came, they all pointed to the Cross; and now that Christ has come and gone, they all point back to the Cross, for it is all about Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour! The great men of God I am referring to are mere servants of the Lord, and consequently, as servants, true servants, they must point people to the Lord Jesus, and they all did, and still do! Moreover, whatever the measure of anointing they bear, and the impact of their ministries, saints are not being married to them, but to Jesus Christ, whose name the men bear, and whose name the Entire family of God is also named after, for it is by the name of Jesus Christ that we are saved, just as it is written in the Book of Ephesians Chapter 3, verses 14-15: "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, OF WHOM THE WHOLE FAMILY IN HEAVEN AND EARTH IS NAMED." This absolute truth certainly does not have any place in Chigbo Ndukwe's church, which is called Jordan Ministries, for the man is nothing but a religious charlatan, deceiving people in a grand way, and doing unspeakable things to the female members of his church, who make up the greatest percentage of his church membership, a great number of whom are divorcees. Brothers and sisters, there is no scriptural basis for church members to adopt the name of their pastor, whoever he may be! Such moves can only be perpetuated through the spirit and power of sorcery, for it is absolutely demon inspired. Saints, when church going people begin to adopt the name of their pastor, just know that another spirit is involved; and it is called the spirit of sorcery, and it is done for total and unrestrainable control of the people. For the so-called pastor is only bewitching the people, casting spells on them to do these things! This evil invocation or conjuration can cause their members to have dreams or even hear audible voices, telling them to do precisely these things, or any other thing the pastor desires, which they, in turn, take as the voice of the Holy Spirit. It is a contrary spirit at work, and it is none other than the spirit of Satan, for certain. However, brothers and sisters, please note that the situation I am speaking about in this message, is not about these false spirits, these false anointings, although they also have their application: for you can also be deceived and ensnared by them, IF you do not give your heart to the truth of the Word of God, which alone is able to keep your soul. I am, however, actually speaking about when the anointing is of God, when the anointing is genuine. When the moving of the spirit is genuine, because it is of God, IF it lacks the essential ingredient of life, which is the scriptural revelation of Jesus Christ, you have to run away from it as fast as you can, because it is a blinding move! There must of necessity be a scriptural voice to a sign, IF you are not to be ensnared. Follow me to the Word of God to seal this issue. Our Master Jesus Christ revealed something by his Spirit through Apostle Paul. Come with me to the Book of 2 Thessalonians Chapter 2, where Saint Paul was talking about the Antichrist to come, and we will take it from verse 7, for a background: “For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he”, (which is the Holy Spirit, working in and through the bride), “who now letteth” (or who now hinders), “will let” (or will hinder the Anti-Christ's manifestation), “until he” (The Holy Ghost in the bride), “be taken out of the way. And then shall THAT WICKED” (ANTICHRIST) “BE REVEALED, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.” Verse 11 is where I am going, and it clearly declares: “And for this cause GOD” (Almighty, Not another god; but Elohim Himself), “SHALL SEND THEM STRONG DELUSION...” (What is the objective for this potent or serious delusion? It is for this specific reason): “THAT THEY SHOULD BELIEVE A LIE: THAT THEY ALL MIGHT BE DAMNED” (ETERNALLY), “who believed not the Truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness”, (which is untruth). There you are! But the question now is this: How exactly does God send this overpowering delusion on people? Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24, is what gives it to us, for it gives us a malignant and irreversible blinding move of God! How does He blind them? What kind of delusion does God give them in order to make them believe a damning lie, without the possibility of recovery? Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24, carries the revelation of the logistics for this dreadful move of God, and it declares: “For there shall arise FALSE CHRISTS”, (FALSE ANOINTED ONES, WHOSE ANOINTING IS GENUINE), “and false prophets, and SHALL SHEW GREAT SIGNS AND WONDERS; INSOMUCH that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.” Hold it right there. We have considered this Scripture earlier, and we have given its breakdown. False anointed ones are nothing but false seeds, modern day Judases and Balaams, men who are bearing God's genuine anointing. I repeat: The anointing is genuine, but the recipients are modern day Judases. The recipients are ministers, but they are false seeds, because they are not of God; they are of the evil one. However, they “follow” Jesus Christ, and go about preaching, declaring the kingdom, and they bear wonderful testimonies of the miraculous workings of the Spirit of God, for demons are subject to them, but nevertheless, they are still sons of perdition! How then do we apply this verse to the delusion Saint Paul prophesied about? It is simply this: When God begins to move in the open visible miraculous, healing the sick, raising the dead, opening the eyes of the blind, doing “many wonderful works” of the Spirit which Jesus also spoke about in Matthew Chapter 7, verses 21-23, in support of the ministry of a man that is totally devoid of the truth of the Bible, a ministry that has gone out of The Way, being Anti-Word in his stand, therein lies the delusion. Because you cannot tell such a ministry or his followers that they have gone out of the way of God! You cannot tell them that they have derailed! You cannot tell them that God is not in that ministry! They will be quick to tell you that you are insane, for as far as they are concerned, IF GOD IS NOT WITH THEM, WHY THEN WILL ALL THE MIRACLES BE TAKING PLACE?! The supernatural backing God gives the men becomes the means of their delusion, for they will never see nor accept that they are out of the way! You can quote Galatians Chapter 1, verses 8-9, for as long as you want, there is no getting out of that delusion for them, for it is God invested, and it is completely irreversible! They are bound for damnation at the end of the road, for their fate is eternally sealed by God! Think about that seriously, for God Himself becomes the means of their delusion! It is a very serious issue, for this is not a game! It simply means this, for this is what it really boils down to: If you miss the revelation of Jesus Christ of the Bible, you miss eternal life! Full stop! Because eternal life comes strictly through the revelation of Jesus Christ of the Bible! Therefore, God simply removes a very vital ingredient from the anointing they carry, the ingredient that can give them life, which is the revelation of the truths of Jesus Christ of the Scriptures, and He allows them to enjoy the miraculous, in their flagrant rebellion. Hence, in John Chapter 6, verse 63, Jesus warned his disciples, declaring: “It is the Spirit that quickeneth” (or giveth life eternal); “the flesh” (or material and temporal things) “profiteth nothing: THE WORDS that I speak unto you, THEY ARE SPIRIT, AND THEY ARE LIFE” (ETERNAL). Herein lays the vital need to hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Brothers and sisters, when a genuine Spirit move lacks the revelation of the Word, it is nothing but a strong deluding move of God, for God expects us to have absolute respect for His Word, if we truly value the eternal life which Jesus Christ offers! There is absolutely no manifestation that is powerful enough to make us nullify one jot of revealed truth: We will pay an eternal price for that, on the full authority of Revelation Chapter 22, verses 18-19! It is that simple. The choice is ours. And that is why using signs and miracles to judge a ministry is a very dangerous yardstick to use, because false anointed ones of the end time display great signs and wonders. And we must realise that God is not an entertainer, for He is in the serious soul saving business, and this salvation comes strictly by the revelation of the truths of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, and for which sole reason, God sends preachers to carry His Word, so that the people can hear and believe the truth, and be saved! Consequently, we must use the Word as our infallible yardstick for the men in the ministry, and not signs and wonders. Period! As I stated earlier, the greatest vindication any man can have, is the vindication of the Scriptures. There is no vindication like the vindication of Scripture, because the vindication of Scripture is higher than any miraculous vindication any man can have! Matthew Chapter 24, verse 24, shows undoubtedly, that God's pre-eminence is not in miracles, but it is in the revelation of life which Jesus Christ gives. That is settled.

Brothers and sisters, I cannot close without highlighting the various serious issues that I pointed out. Remember, the subtitle of my message is, KNOWING THE OBJECTIVE OF GOD. Finally, the objective of God is to get a bride in a particular shape, in readiness for the rapture. That is the truth. And we know the logistics God has laid out in Ephesians Chapters 4 and 5. We know all that. So if we know all that, then brothers and sisters, it is not enough just to see a move, just to follow a move; you must also make sure you log on to the objective. Because God is not sending anybody just to tickle your flesh and make you feel good. Brothers and sisters, it is a serious Message. Christ is getting a bride ready, and he is doing it through the revelation of his Word. It is by the washing of water by the Word. Please open your hearts to the truth. Let the truth enter your hearts. Let it anchor in your souls. Like Peter warned and pleaded, I too plead: “Take heed, as unto a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day stars arise in your hearts.” We have a promise, and God is going to move. God is going to open the fountain like never before. Brothers and sisters, when Pentecost opened up, the lives of the saints changed! And we are expecting a greater Pentecost. Are you listening to me? Because we are talking of the Latter Rain! It is not a time to be discouraged; it is a time to awaken out of slumber, and to log on to God. The devil will want you to be discouraged; but it is a time to latch on to God and say: “I have the blueprint. I am on the right road. I may not be what I am supposed to be, but I know I will get there, for I am not what I used to be. The Lord has helped me, and He will continue to help me. He has brought me thus far, and He will surely see me through, because He is Alpha and He is Omega; He is the Beginning and He is the End, for salvation is of the Lord!" Halleluiah! Whatever He starts, He finishes, because He is the Author, and He is also the Finisher of our faith. He will finish everything concerning us! But you owe yourself a duty to anchor your soul in the light of truth, and stay with it. Have a hearing ear! Hear what the Spirit is saying! That is why God Almighty silenced Saint Peter whilst he yet spake, by saying: Do not build three tabernacles: HEAR YE HIM! For you can hear your pastor and not hear him! You can hear your church and not hear him!

Saints of God, hearing Jesus Christ in his true scriptural revelation is what matters, for therein is life eternal! Once you take away the truth of Christ,

ANY truth of Christ, the bread is leavened, and it will only produce death, as it did for Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. It shows you are not hearing him, for to hear him is life eternal! This is not a game, and as such, you must understand what God is doing. God is not entertaining people, so that they can preach just to make people feel good. It is more than that! Neither is God seeking to anoint men so that they can preach what they like, thereby creating confusion in the camp of God's people, for the Lord is not the author of confusion, but of peace; for there is perfect peace, and harmony, and revelatory consistency to His ways. Brothers and sisters, there is a divine objective to everything, and we must see this objective. Please pay attention to it! Give heed to the Voice of the Spirit! Log on to truth: Let it anchor in your soul! God wants the bride to be in a particular spiritual shape, with Unity of faith and spiritual Maturity, which is perfection, in readiness for the rapture. The Lord is doing it strictly by the Word of Truth. Therefore, log on to the Word! Stay with the Word, regardless of what comes or goes; and do not let any pastor or assembly stand between you and that Word, because it is about your eternal destiny. If you do this faithfully and sincerely, you will see the glory of God. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

May the Lord bless you.
