RAYMOND JACKSON:

WHEN GOD LIFTS UP A STANDARD

The Scripture readings in this brochure are taken from the Authorized King James version of the Holy Bible.

The brochure is distributed free of charge and should not in any way be used in the soliciting of funds and shall be made available upon request as stock lasts. Responses are welcome from readers wishing to know more about the PRESENT TRUTH.

PREAMBLE :

When the Prophet to this Laodicean age was on the scene, the Mal.4:5,6B Elijah, the Rev.10:7 star angel (messenger), William Branham, he was asked: "Would the bride of Christ have a ministry before the rapture?" His reply was: "Sure... apostles, prophets, teachers, evangelists, and pastors." Bro. Branham brought a message that called out an element of people, out of the world of organised religion, into the glorious light of Christ, prophetically ordained for this evening time, for the predestinated bride. Through his message, the bride was restored back to the full and pure Gospel of Jesus Christ, given to the early Church, by the apostolic ministry, which is the five fold ministry, of Eph. 4:11-12. It is a ministry strictly for the bride of Christ. No denominational preacher therefore holds any office, of the five fold ministry, for it is strictly the ministry of "the called out" bride. Hence, the prophet often stated: Mal. 4:5,6B ministry, produces Eph. 4:11-12 ministry, as Moses' ministry produced Joshua's ministry, and as Elijah's ministry produced Elisha's ministry. It ensures revelatory continuity.

In many of his messages, like "Sirs, Is this the time", the name of Raymond Jackson, whom he called Junior Jackson, often came up. He shared Bro. Jackson's "rock of revealed truth" dream with the saints. Bro. Jackson also told us, he also shared his "white horse" dream with the prophet, and the prophet authoritatively told him, God has a work for him to do, and further, that the white horse he (Bro. Jackson) rode, represents the "Power of the Word" (i e. authority to unveil Scriptures; unveil truth). That in itself lets us know, the Lord would use Bro. Jackson in a major way, for the bride, after the death of the prophet. It therefore shows, the authority of leadership of the bride universal, which was placed upon Bro. Branham, would be conferred upon Bro. Jackson, as it was also conferred on Joshua, after the death of Moses, and as it was conferred on Elisha, after the death of Elijah of old, and as John the beloved bore the mantle of leadership, after Paul passed away, as Jesus Christ used him also, to deal with the ministry of the early Church. This is so, in order to ensure there is no leadership (headship) vacuum for the bride of Christ, and her ministry, as you cannot have a sheep (a flock) without a shepherd. This leadership authority has to be linked with the authority to break (unveil) the Word, because they go together; because true leadership is strictly leadership by the Word.

Raymond Jackson's life and ministry, which would be touched upon in this book, evidently characterises and therefore vindicates this scriptural projection. The fruits of his ministry is there for all to see, and no man today on God's green earth, has the kind of ministry he has in the light, that scripturally touches and affects the universal bride, in such positive and glorious proportion, as he is used of God to unveil the Scriptures, with so much depth and grace and clarity, at this closing hour of time, and particularly to ensure true unity in the body of Christ. It is strictly an hour of perfection of the bride of Christ, by the "washing of water by the Word," applied by the five fold ministry, which is the ministry of Christ on earth today, of which Raymond Jackson is head, under Jesus Christ our Saviour. His life and position in the ministry of Christ, the five fold ministry, is the focus of this book. As it is written, so do I throw this challenge: "The ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat" - Job 34:3 : Test this message with the measuring yardstick of the Scriptures of truth. I guarantee you, the message would stand the judgment of the Word.

X - RAY :

God at different times and in diverse ways has always inspired men to give the revelation of His Word. Other times He simply moves men to speak or write on specific issues affecting the body of Christ in their hour of time, as it borders upon the Scriptures. Such issues, conditions and developments therefore dictate the kind of inspirational dealing God's people would have at that particular time. It all depends on what the condition is, and what the time is saying. As it is written: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven... a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing... A time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; A time of war, and a time of peace" (Eccl. 3:1-8). What is the day saying, particularly in the light of the unveiling of God's prophetic yard stick of time of 2000 years of prophetic time for the Gentiles, concealed in Hosea 6:2 ? What time is it? What is the day saying? Please saints of God, make no mistake about this, for the day itself tells us, and the sad and troubling developments within the bride following tells us, it is a time to speak, and speak we must, for it is a time of war!!! God forbid that we keep quiet. We must join forces against error. God's army cannot chicken out or be neutral. You cannot sit on the fence! And the war is on , if you only can recognise it, raging in the vineyard of God. It is a battle for truth, a battle for life.

Truth is once again in conflict. God requires workers brave and true. What would you do ? Run from the fight, or look to God for grace and hold your ground, putting to flight the army of the enemy by the power of truth, that the elected bride can cross safely over ? In this war, and at this closing time, there is no neutrality; no discharge: You are either for Jesus the Christ, as He is unveiled in the revelation of the Scriptures, or you are against Him! The choice is yours. If you doubt this obvious fact, then listen to the x-ray of the staggering condition the bride is faced with at this time: At a time when preachers in the bride following are preaching what they like unchecked from their platforms; At a time when preachers are doing what they like, and seem to have no restraint or remorse for it, but instead, exhibit an amazing display of audacity, and not an audacity which is godly, which would therefore exalt, but that which is ungodly, and therefore irritates; At a time preachers have become like chickens, exemplifying sheer lack of discernment and sense of true spiritual responsibility, allowing their platforms to be used to peddle all sorts of wares fit only for the dunghill; At a time, when preachers so-called defy authority, “despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities”, and flagrantly rebuff scriptural correction; At a time when preachers seek only personal recognition and honour, not really caring for the good of the flock, as if the ministry is all about ego; At a time, when preachers are taken over by unbridled ambition and secret agenda, and selfish ulterior motives deeply buried in the recesses of their hearts, known only to the Almighty God, the Unseen Eye; At a time when secret pride and arrogance, rather than true godly humility and meekness, has taken over the heart of so-called men of God; At a time when men are not grateful for their state in grace, enough to abide in their calling, humbly and reverently, appreciating the grace of God and their position, but rather they must outshine everyone else and be the main attraction; At a time when men are not thankful that God has once again, in His infinite mercy and grace, given accessibility to truth at this end-time to the elect lady and her children, but would rather they rule this plan of salvation; At a time when the will of man is being lifted up above the will of God, though He makes His will very plain; At a time when men deliberately lift up error and carnal ideas over and above the true revelation of life, thereby seeking to destroy the very foundation of truth of the bride ministry, dare you say it is a time of peace? How louder must the trumpet sound for you to get out of your cosy nest and take a firm stand for the Gospel of life ?

“Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?... Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid?... The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord hath spoken, who can but prophesy?” (Amos 3: 4-8). “For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ”- Gal. 1:10. Surely there is an offence to the preaching of the true Gospel of Jesus Christ. Who would take a stand for the truth of Christ? Hear, if you can hear, and forbear from hearing, if that is the way you would go. “And when this cometh to pass (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them”- Eze. 33:33. I am merely quoting Scriptures. Take heed how you hear, for I am not a prophet.

The current development in the bride following highlighted above, though it gives one a very serious cause for concern, nevertheless is serving God's divine purpose, for He is in it all, for He is sovereign. It is an hour of the shaking of all things, prophesied in God's Holy Book (Hab. 2:6; Heb. 12:25-29), for judgment must begin in the House of God, and must certainly begin with the ministry placed over the bride, if perfection is ever to be attained. It is the hour of the proving of men as in Gideon's army. The Five fold ministry have not been called to a tea - party, but to war, that the bride may be free, and truly free, of all traditions, creeds and dogmas, and carnal ideas of men, being clothed solely with nothing but the true and pure revelation of Jesus Christ, the son of the Living God. Hence we have the shaking that is on, as shocking as it may be. Watch, it is coming your way. It is coming to every bride assembly (Psalm 1:5). Perfection is in motion, and can be attained only when total separation has been accomplished by God (Matt. 13:41 & 43). May God therefore shake all shakeables! We want to go home. The bride must, and would end up, with a true and faithful living ministry, who would in turn work perfection in the bride, that the Seven Thunders may come on the scene.

I am forced by circumstances, and the attitude of some, to pick up my pen to write this small but serious brochure, as I am moved in my heart. I was in my Church office (in Lagos) talking to a brother, when the unction to write suddenly came, and the title was dropped immediately into my heart. I asked the brother to excuse me, while I quickly noted it down on paper. I must do the bidding of my Maker. I owe my life and salvation to Him. But first, I have to lay a background, to clear the air.

APOSTOLIC MISSIONS WORKER :

Our Norwegian brother, is a man I looked upon as an apostle, aside of our precious Bro. Jackson, because of the kind of powerful ministry he has in the bride, in the light of truth. I saw him as one who would most likely be used of God to undertake apostolic missionary journeys, where and when necessary, to physically deal with the bride universal in their local settings, as an “apostolic missions worker”, under God, where Bro. Jackson is not able to go. And that does not take away from the leadership role and position Bro. Jackson occupies in the bride, in the light of truth, as the plumbline holder, because God does not place His voice on a shelf, nor does He put him in retirement. Never! A voice remains a voice, until he is called home. As long as he is alive, he is an absolute, on account of the truth he bears. Simple! Moreover, you must see the new platform God has built for him, via the internet hook-up. It is just marvellous. By it, he is able to address the universal bride, live. And I must add, Lord, please spare him for our sakes, and give strength and grace to his dear wife, for he is of tremendous blessing to us.

As I earlier stated, I saw our brother as one who would most likely take over the undergoing of missionary journeys which Bro. Jackson used to undertake. I would have been most glad and greatly honoured and content to go around the world with him, if all I could do for him was just to carry his Bible. I hope you understand what I mean by that. And if you doubt that, I would have to say this: During my only visit to Norway with my precious wife in October, 2002, (and the saints in his assembly can bear me witness), I left him in no doubt, as to my utmost love, respect and total submission to his ministry. That was the value I placed upon his ministry! But that was all on account of the truth he stood for, and his position in the bride following. That was the basis, for I do not follow flesh. I just cannot! I follow truth: The revelation of my Saviour, Jesus the Christ. Period! Afterall, are we not supposed to subject ourselves to the headship of Christ flowing through His earthly ministry? You know we are, if you have any basic understanding of the Scriptures. I believe in submitting completely to headship, all on account of truth, and strictly on the basis of truth. Pathetically, our dearly beloved and greatly respected brother went off on an incredible tangent, by projecting Jehu ministry, and he still expected me to follow, even though Bro. Jackson had clearly shown him his error. Then I knew he did not really understand the true basis of my submission to, and followership of his ministry. I follow only truth. That is what Christ expects of us! My allegiance is solely to God and to His truth. Period! And that should be, and must be every bride saint's stand. If not, be assured, your shaking, your proving, is coming. It must come! For we are not called to follow flesh (i.e. man). We are called by God to follow truth! Truth is Christ, and Christ is life! It is too late in the day.

If a man, particularly at this very late hour, goes into error, and defies scriptural correction, no matter who he is, you are under scriptural obligation to leave him. You do not have to fall with him! Unbelief is deadly! It is a killer! Read Hebrews 3: 7-19! Read Heb. 6: 4-8! Get away from it as far as possible, for God is not a respecter of persons. We are not here to play a game of Snake and ladder! Yes, God can restore; but that is left to God!

One morning, around the 7th of March, 2003, I had only just arrived in the Church office (in Nigeria) from my house, when my mobile phone rang. It was our brother calling. He told me he had been trying my other numbers unsuccessfully, before trying my wife's London number. She then gave him my Nigeria mobile number. He was calling over the issue of Bro. Jackson's message titled, "Scribes, Watch Out", and over the issue of "Jehu Ministry", as well as on "the Young Prophet's Ministry". We spoke at length (for about one hour) on these matters. In clear terms, I gave him my very candid opinion, but in the spirit of humility and love, recognising his position in the bride following, taking him through the Scriptures, to let him know why Jehu or the Young Prophet Ministry idea was off truth. Out of pure sincerity and love, I even told him what he is expected to do, to make right, on account of truth, and on account of his exalted position in the bride following, as well as for the sake of true exampleship. All these I shared with him on phone, because I do not believe in hypocrisy, or in deceiving anybody's ear, nor in playing diplomacy, which amounts to deceit and compromise: I do not play politics. All I care for is the truth of my God. And it is by the grace of God I am able to do this, for without Him, I can do nothing, for I am nothing in myself.

Going back to the discussion we had on phone, he wanted to know if I had listened to the message, "Scribes Watch Out", and I said, No. I did not at that time even know there was any such message. He had problem with the way Bro. Jackson used his letter. He alleged that Bro. Jackson was pulling statements here and there from it out of context. Although I had not listened to the message, I could not believe such an allegation because I know the man (Jackson), and I also know him in the light of truth. I know his wonderful God given level of understanding. Hence I simply and plainly told him I could not comment on it, because I had not heard anything. You and I know it is foolish to judge, hearing only one side. But I told him, if he would send me a copy of the letter he wrote Bro. Jackson (the letter in question), I would reply him on those issues. He promised to send it, and he did. I also contacted Bro. Jackson for the materials in question, and he was gracious to send them to me. Acting true to my promise, and armed with facts, I wrote him my assessment of the whole scenario, strictly in the light of the Scriptures, sending a copy also to Bro. Jackson, that he might also know my stand on the matter. I cannot be a secret believer of the truth of Christ. I never heard again from our brother. Never! And when I received a copy of the very commendable letter the East - Chicago Church wrote to Bro. Jackson, to make their gallant stand known on these matters, I was challenged to send a copy of my letter to them as well, and also to a few other brethren, that they also might know where we in Nigeria stand in this Jehu matter, having only recently visited Norway. You would therefore see it was our brother's phone call, and the long discussion we had that initiated and necessitated the letter I wrote to him. Period! Moreover, what I wrote, I also shared with him on phone. So what am I being crucified for? And it is not that I expect a pat on the back. And I would even dare to say: It does not take 20 years before a man with such a great standing in the bride ministry, would make amends for his obvious error, and for the disaffection and division he has caused within the bride, if he is really seeking to please God, particularly when his error has been made plain to him by Bro. Jackson, as well as by other witnesses, in the light of truth. What more does he need? What more does he want? What would it take for him to see it and make amends? How long would it take him to see truth and make right? What time do we even have left? Is he a 30 fold Christian? Are we to condone his error because we love him, and because he is nice? An error that has brought so much pain, so much sadness, so much heartache and division to the bride following. By it, the devil sought to cast an air of uncertainty over the bride. That was what later prompted me under God to take a message during this year's Spring Convention at Faith Assembly titled, "Guarding the Standard".

The focus of that message is essentially this: We must know what God is doing; And what God is doing would hold, no matter what comes and goes, and no matter the odds, for this plan of salvation is supreme in God's mind. It would not be derailed in these last days. You must be certain of that. Hence, God must, and He would keep the Standard, by keeping the Standard bearer. When every tree around the Standard is being shaken, it is God's way of proving men for faithfulness to truth, and to His will. But the Standard must hold. God must see to that! So, what are we afraid of? The Standard of God must hold! It would hold! It cannot fall ! God cannot defeat His own purpose! Listen to me: Heaven would watch over it! God would keep it! God would vindicate it! Nothing, and no man shall stand, or can stand, before the Standard bearer (Joshua 1:5). Whoever tries it without repenting, would come down! You or your ministry cannot come of age, until you defy headship. You would be dispossessed (stripped) of all you ever had, if you do not humble yourself, and repent. It is the law of elimination God built into truth (Luke 8:18). God is not playing a game. And I believe serious issues should be addressed seriously. We are not playing dominoes here. This is life! We are in a race for life! God is in a serious soul saving business, authored with the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Wake-up saints, and walk in the light! It is too late in the day, or sentiment would kill you. When God lifts up a Standard as He has always done, the whole of heaven guards it. This Standard is always entrusted to a man at any given time. Confront it, and you confront God! It is not the man. It is what he represents. It is who he is in the plan of God, in the light of truth. It is the authority of God invested in him to unveil truth for the hour. It is the revelation of truth he has that makes the difference. By this revelation, he becomes the voice of God to all seeds in his day and hour. He is an absolute himself, because of the revelation he bears. Because the revelation he bears, is the absolute. And that is why, every revelation bearer has always had his revelation named after him, right from Genesis ( the book of Moses) to the book of Revelation (the prophecy of John the beloved). Hence we read, the books of: Moses, Joshua, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Malachi, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, James, Jude, etc. Every revelation bears the name of its revealer ! That makes the man and his revelation one! Never forget that. Even God told Malachi “Remember ye the Law of (Who?) Moses”!!! (Mal. 4:4). You cannot get out of it, no matter where you go in the Scriptures. We better get this thing of headship straightened out first, or we do not yet know what we are doing. Understanding headship is most crucial. We must be leadable as sheep, except we are goats! I say this to jolt you.

HEADSHIP AS KEY FOR UNITY :

Headship comes before unity. That is why you cannot even talk of true unity, if we do not understand headship. We cannot! Headship has to be settled first! So, let us do that ! Let us start there! There must be a recognised and accepted rallying ministry for the bride ministry, or there can be no true unity. The five fold ministry cannot speak with one indivisible voice unless and until they recognise and totally accept revelatory headship. You must see that! They must know where the unveiling of Scriptural revelation is coming from, and accept it, and sing along! They must see the one bearing Scriptural revelatory authority! True unity starts here! It takes away arguments! They all recognise and accept the authority of Jesus Christ invested in the leader. Period! A man must know his leader (feeder) ! Because I would have to ask: How are we to be rallied together if we have no particular head? Answer me! How can we, if every man in the ministry deems or sees himself as the leader, or potential leader, and each is calling the bride to fall in line behind him. Even birds in migrating, have more sense than to do such foolishness! They follow only one leader, or the storm would overtake and overcome them. They would perish! Men created in the image of God, are doing at this late hour, what birds have sense enough not to do. And headship comes only from God. But the vessel exemplifying or characterising it would be known by the plumbline of the Word of God he bears. Truth he possesses and dishes out to all seeds, is what identifies him. You must see that! It is as plain as day. Why stand against truth? Why will ye perish?

JACKSON THE STANDARD BEARER :

Moses was the rallying point in his day (the rallying Ministry); Joshua was in his hour; Isaiah was in his day; Jeremiah was; Elijah was in his hour; Elisha was in his day; John the baptist was as well; Jesus the Christ was and is the rallying point of all time; Paul the Apostle was in his day, and his truth still is; John the beloved was in his hour, after the death of Paul, as God used him as guard for truth, and to deal with the ministry of the early Church, and also to give the last book of the Bible; Luther was in his day; Wesley was in his hour; And so was Bro. Branham, the Elijah of Malachi 4:5, 6B. And if I may say, Raymond Jackson is the man of the hour, the rallying ministry for today, following the death of the Prophet to this age, William Branham. He is undoubtedly the Standard bearer, the voice of God for today. Just see the rich flow of scriptural revelation proceeding from his lips (his ministry), and tell me he is not. I would tell you, the bat is not as blind as you, and may God have mercy on your miserable, wretched soul!

The revelation of the Pre-Historic World; the revelation of the Two Trees in the Garden of Eden; the revelation of the Woman of Revelation 12; the revelation of the Everlasting Gospel; the revelation of the New Jerusalem; the revelation of the symbolic representation of the Seven Thunders; the revelation of Ezekiel 38 & 39 Battle, before the 70th week of Daniel; the revelation of the Jewish hour of The Miraculous, just in front of us; the revelation of the Two Prophetic Days of Hos. 6:2; the revelation of the prophetic time application of the whole of Matthew 24 & 25 Events; the revelation of the Martyrdom of the Saints, amongst myriads of other truths, were given by no one, other than Raymond Jackson, as given by the Spirit of our God. Through him under God, we are posted to know the plan and the dealing of God for our very day and hour, as concealed in the Scriptures. Let every man in the ministry, who has an ear to hear, hear truth. He is the plumbline holder, by the grace of God, and under God. Truth vindicates him! We all, without exception, must fall in line behind him, or we fall out of "The Way"! We must rally round him, for we must rally round the truth he has. He is the Apostle of Jesus Christ to the gentiles, in this very day and hour. Take it or leave it. Elijah's message has handed us back into the hands of the original handlers of the bride of Jesus Christ, as it was in the early Church. It is the Apostolic ministry. And even the early apostles knew who was chief among them! (Gal. 2:7-8; Rom. 11:13; 1Cor.4:14-16). Think about that. It is still the truth, even though they are men "subject to like passion".

THE MAN AND HIS MINISTRY :

Raymond Jackson is a man I know personally, having faithfully followed his ministry for the past 12 years, by the grace of God. I have also been very privileged to sit under his ministry over the years, and observe him from very close quarters. I am therefore in a position to say at least one or two things about him and his ministry, and I intend to do just that.

I say this to the glory of God, for we are what we are, only by the grace and mercy of God: He is an extremely humble man, with a very meek spirit about him. God has also given him a very large heart: A heart of love for God's people. He is very understanding, and very patient, and he has a way of handling situations with a great measure of wisdom. He is therefore able to bear a lot with people in their short comings. These attributes I saw in open display in his life, worked wonders in my own life. God used it to turn my life completely around. I would never forget that first meeting I had with him in the United States, in December, 1993, and what the Lord used it to accomplish in my life. It was as if the Lord said, I will take you to the United States to meet my Servant, and that meeting would bring the much desired change in your life, and in your walk with Me. It was indeed a major turning point in my spiritual life, and in my walk with God, and I bless the Name of the Lord for it. It has never been the same with me since then. His life is indeed a model for God's people, because of the virtuous exemplary christian life he lives. It is God's doing, for it is Him that worketh righteousness in men, that they in turn might be a true light of Christ to the world.

Being a black man myself from Nigeria, and one born and bred in Africa, I can say with factual authority and confidence that he is not a racist. He is very much like Bro. Branham and Paul of old in this respect, and in many other respects, being also an apostle and a light to the gentiles himself. You cannot therefore accuse him of racism, nor does he inspire racism in his messages. Moreover, a racist would not be a voice to the gentiles. That is for sure!

Bro. Jackson loves the brotherhood, irrespective of race, colour, language, physical stature, or position in life. He is a kind hearted man, who wants to help in any way possible. He shares his platform with “everybody”, and is desirous of helping, and has helped, to lift up countless many in the ministry. He is certainly not a selfish man, nor does he run a one man show. That is true. It is the grace of God working in his life.

Most importantly, the anointing of truth is mighty in his life, and he does not compromise truth for anybody, though he bears long with people. This is a true Servant of God, who teaches us the Way of Christ perfectly. And it is his voice and also his platform, God used , and is using, to pull the bride and her ministry together, from around the whole world. That implicitly makes him a parent of the bride ministry, under God, at this end time. Let every man in the ministry therefore take heed, and hear what the Spirit is saying at this closing hour of time, within the grace age. Without controversy, he is the Standard bearer, to the glory of God, and his messages all these years have been most consistent. It has to be! This would however lead me to share something here I feel is very important, bordering on his ministry and message, to give enlightenment to the saints of God, in the face of sceptics, and critics, and chronic fault finders, and to help us better understand and appreciate his ministry and message, in the light of truth, and hence help us better understand the truth of Christ, which is life eternal.

BOXED REVELATION, AND REVELATION UPDATING :

Boxed revelation, and revelation updating, are two principles and facts, underlining God's dealing with His people in the light, which we must understand, if we are to follow continuity of light. It stems from the fact that the revelation of God is dynamic, not static: It is continuous. God is ever revealing Himself to His elected seeds. But remember, the two terms I use, are just my words, to describe two main principles entrenched in the unveiling of truth.

Boxed Revelation : Boxed revelation is a revelation, or a truth, that is concealed by God until a specific time, when He would make it known to man. Until that hour comes, preachers may go into it, giving it the best interpretation the human (carnal) mind can grasp. It is at this time a boxed (i.e. concealed or sealed) revelation. Man would interpret it in a carnal way, however good it may seem. But God only winks at it. He does not judge it, for He does not judge man for a revelation He has not yet given. When the time comes however, for Him to reveal it, and He unveils it for His servant, to give the true understanding of that truth to His bride saints, that revelation then becomes a yardstick of judgment, if you do not walk in the light of it. The days of ignorance is over from that point. But this would no doubt cause the ministry to take this truth in a way they have never taken it before, which way would obviously be contrary to how they previously taught it. This is what untutored (unrevealed) minds run wild with, accusing God's servant of inconsistency. What a shame! I would give you a solid example.

Prior to the hour of time when God ordained Christ in heaven would break the first six seals, contained in Rev. 6, and subsequently give the end time bride the understanding, men had probed into the seals, giving divergent interpretations of what they think the seals mean and hold. When the prophet to this age, William Branham, also first took it, he preached it the way Dr. Smith of the Seven Day Adventist taught it. It was man's best but traditional (carnal) way of interpreting a boxed truth. God did not reprove Bro. Branham for it, because it was still boxed! The time of its unveiling had not come. But in 1963, when it was the hour God ordained to give the revelation of seals 1-6, God who already had His eagle (prophet) on earth, gave him the revelation, one seal per day, for six consecutive days, that the bride may receive the wonderful truths buried for centuries of time. And only the "Message" following, have a true understanding of what these seals hold. I ask you, would you accuse Bro. Branham of inconsistency because of this? No! Neither can you accuse Bro. Jackson of any inconsistency, because he has also been consistent with truths God has revealed, and has stood for the same truths, consistently and faithfully all these years, without changing tune.

Revelation Updating : Revelation updating is simply how God, after having given an understanding of a truth, but only to a measure, now removes the remaining veil, to give us a deeper and better understanding of the truth, to the depth in which it was concealed. It does not take away the basic understanding of it you have, it only lifts you higher in your perception of that truth, because you see it in a deeper or higher light. So, it entails that you see a truth, or some truths, in the Scriptures, but what you see is not enough (ie. up to date).

Then God comes and opens it all up, and you have to take a second look, a better look at the picture, giving you a revelatory brightness you did not before behold, and you have no choice but to rejoice and bless the Name of the Lord, for such wonderful and gracious dealing. Why? Because He has updated your revelation! Acts 19:1-7 scenario of Paul with the disciples of Apollos, gives us a perfect understanding of revelation updating. Paul did not condemn or take away what John the Baptist gave them. He simply lifted them higher, because God had moved on beyond what John gave.

Saints, with a true understanding of these two principles and facts of God's dealing with the saints in the light, you cannot accuse Bro. Jackson of any inconsistency in his teachings, if you can see right, for I can assure you, he is simply consistent, and to God be all the glory. Please stay with the truth. There lies your true prosperity: "Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe His Prophets (Servants), so shall ye prosper" - 2Chron. 20:20.

I would therefore say as in Gideon's army, which I would liken to the five-fold ministry for mere illustration, when he blows the trumpet, the ministry must do likewise, or there would be confusion and chaos in the camp! When he sees the enemy of truth, which is error, and he blows an alarm, every man in the army of God must do likewise. It is war time! It is time to keep the rank (time to keep guard). You must likewise blow your trumpet! Unfortunately, and most pathetically, when he blew an alarm recently on "Jehu ministry", and on a ministering brother in the U.S., who was allowing himself to be influenced by an enticing spirit, what did the ministry do? The various reactions I would now touch on, lets you see that recognition of headship is the key to true unity, because not everybody fell in line! This in itself brings out their opposing thoughts.

TRUTH IN ADVERSITY :

To some, it was as if Bro. Jackson was trying to kill other people's ministry. Men who are supposed to be watchmen of the bride were too drowsy to see any need for the alarm! They could not see the vital need for open judgment of peddled error, nor could they see the seriousness of Rev. 2:20 - 23 spirit of Jezebel in its subtle but deadly projection. They could not see why he had to do what he did. Others judged him for how he did it, though they openly read of Peter's denial of Christ, and of the open rebuke Paul gave Peter, which rebuke and its scenario he also penned down for the saints, and for all time. Other men decided to play the perfect diplomat (the hypocrite). How? By their silent attitude. They implicitly said: be diplomatic; ruffle no feathers; step on no toes. But the true Church of Jesus Christ was born in adversity! The opposition from Judaism was concerted, stiff and deadly! Truth ruffles feathers! Truth puts in opposition to any and everything false! And who knows whose ministry was born for such a time as this? You cannot help but step on toes, if you are a true servant of the Living God. Not that you would do it deliberately. But when truth is being trampled upon, and is therefore in conflict, you are obliged by the Almighty God to stand in its defence!!! That is why God Almighty put you in the ministry! And may God have mercy on your soul if you play politics (diplomacy) with the issue of life - the Word of truth. God would hold you accountable for loving man above His interest. If Bro. Branham had done that, he would not have had the kind of ministry he had. And we would not have been restored! And you cannot take away from the truth he brought. If Bro. Jackson had done that, he would not have had the kind of ministry he has today, nor would we have had the glorious light we now possess. He is the Standard bearer for this hour, whether you recognise and accept it or not. Truth is truth. Look in the mirror of the Word of God, and fall in line! Mal.4:5,6B Elijah's ministry, produced Eph.4:11-12 Apostolic ministry, placing Raymond Jackson as chief apostle.

I say this not to condemn, but to awaken: What a shame, men who have been employed by God as labourers in His vineyard to bear the burden of the day, are resting at the peak of harvest. Rather than lend their voice to truth, men who have been enlisted in the army of God ( the five-fold ministry), left the battle to just one man in Jeffersonville, as if it is his battle alone. Others want to appear nice, so they can still enjoy the love and admiration of the other camp. So they do nothing; they say nothing. No one wants to stick out his neck for truth, in order to be in the good books of everybody and every side. So, what do we have? Silent stand, known only to them, in their heart. What if the U.S. Marines left the Gulf war to the Army General alone? You know Saddam Hussein would have won the desert storm operation before it ever started. You know that! How would he have recognised he was wrong in taking Kuwait? We all have a part to play in the fight for truth, or we are playing games: We are playing lip service, and consequently hypocrisy with the Word of truth. And that is why I have to say, and you do not have to like it: As in Gideon's army in Judges 7, God is seriously proving and would prove this present day ministry, for unreserved faithfulness. He would shuffle cards, removing and putting in place, as He deems fit, whether you like it or not. At the end, men would bow their head in utter shame, because when it mattered, they sold out truth; others “deserted” their battle post, because of their love for men. And you do not determine who He puts in what place, or who does what. Your opinion, wish, or choice is immaterial. Listen to me! God alone determines who gets or does what! And He would not take permission from you before He moves somebody to do something. He alone drew up this plan of salvation. He alone rules this plan of salvation. And in this plan of salvation, He alone ordains what goes and what does not go, what gives and what does not give. No man, and I repeat, No man does!!! There lies my confidence. Ultimate judgment does not belong to man, but to the Most High God: The God who judges not by appearance, nor by lovely enticing words of men, but by the secret motivation buried deep in the heart of man, known only to the Eternal Spirit. Hence, the on-going shaking, meant not necessarily or only to separate, but also to purify.

A NEW DAY DAWNS :

We are not here to play games. The day is almost over. God would no longer tolerate the foolishness of man getting in the way of His redemption plan. Man has had his say and way, in the bride following, for far too long. From now on, it is a brand new era. It is a brand new day. The gauntlet is back in God’s hand. Let every man beware. This is God’s charge to every preacher: When God lifts up a Standard, you must fall in line, or you fall out! And when he blows an alarm, for he cannot blow an alarm senselessly, your platform cannot be used in opposition, or you would pay dearly for it. Note that.

I say as Elihu said: “Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom. But there is a spirit in man:

and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment. Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion... For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me. Behold my belly is as wine which hath no vent: it is ready to burst like new bottles. I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer. Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man... My word shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly. The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life. If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up" (Job 32:7-10, 18-21; Job 33: 3-5). There is no counsel against truth. And you know it!

I have gone into the book of Job to remind you that God moves in mysterious ways: Who can tell it? And He is sovereign! Rather than see truth, and use the Bible as the sole basis of what to receive or reject, men given to pride, in arrogance often question: But who does he think he is? What has that got to do with truth? It is either what is being ministered is true or not. The Almighty God does not ask any man if it is alright for Him to inspire any of His sons to do a particular work, or say a particular thing. You have the Bible as your measuring rod. Use it ! With truth in my mouth, borne out of a pure heart, I am free from the judgment of men. The vessel is irrelevant: Consider truth. Yet I would dare to say, men sometimes feel it is only them God is dealing with, not even for once considering that the bride of Christ is Universal, and God would as such be dealing with His instruments in other lands, and in diverse ways. Have you not heard the emphasis Bro. Jackson consistently makes on the universality of the Scribes of God at this end time? Do you know the training God has given His men in other places? Can you tell the experiences they have gone through? Do you know how God has been dealing with them? Can you tell exactly what God has for each and every individual in the ministry? Do you determine when they start and what they do? Did God ask the Branham movement if it was okay for Him to lift up Raymond Jackson? Did He announce the starting of his ministry ahead of time? That is not to suggest I am anything. I am just your brother. That is all I am! I pose these questions simply to keep you humble, and to make you have an open heart, because God is not on our level. He is the Most High God, the Lord God Almighty. Man must know his place, and let God be God.

Let me therefore say this clearly, and I want every one to take note: I am nobody's friend. And I do not say this to be irritable, arrogant, nasty, or different. It is to let everybody know just where I stand. I am a friend only to truth. Period! With truth I make friends, or foes, if need be. It is too late in the day. Otherwise I would ask you: Where is your zeal for God and His Christ? We are not called to make friends with the world, but with Jesus Christ, the one who died for us. And it is not for nothing when our Saviour declared: “I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's Name, and ye receive me not... How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?” (John 5:41-44). Think about that.

I find it needful to warn, however, having earlier stated in the beginning how I was inspired to pen this write-up, it should not be said that Bro. Jackson asked me to defend him. He never did! He would not do that! I am defending him as I am moved to do, strictly in the light of the Scriptures. I would defend him because of who he is to the bride of Christ, in the light of truth. I would defend his ministry, for I must defend the Standard: I must defend God's chosen instrument; I must defend the plan of God; I must defend the pattern of old established by God in my day; I must defend the truth Christ gives through him. I am obligated to do that. And woe is me if I defend not the truth of my God and of His Christ. Truth alone shall stand. Let us join hands together with truth. Truth alone shall be vindicated, for all else shall fail. The end is in sight. Can you see it ?

A MINISTRY OF PLURAL MEN :

Time is not on our side to continue in our set ways. Although age is not the issue, yet it has its place, and it gives us an instruction I would like to give: If old soldiers, gallant faithful souls like Bro. Roy Mimms, a man with a powerful evangelistic ministry, at his age, would be so humble to recognise and openly submit himself to headship consistently all these years, we younger ones have no excuse. Can you hear me? He becomes a judgment rod in God's hand, if we do not follow the same route. That should let you know there are other men, many faithful men in the ministry. Yes, there are, for the five fold ministry is not made up of only one man, but of a plurality of men, filling a plurality of offices. But my focus is not on them, but on headship, and not just headship of the bride Universal, but particularly of her ministry, because it is with the ministry the problem lies, they being the ones having influence over God's people. As such, I would also say, I would not only stand for the Standard bearer in the light of the truth of my God, I would also stand for any man, and every man, who is an instrument of God, in the same untainted light of Jesus Christ. I can mention loads of gallant faithful men in this regard, standing faithfully for truth, for this man Jackson is not standing alone. He is not! You must know that, for the ministry of the bride is made up of many men scattered around the world. It is God's doing, and blessed be His name. I make this clarification, in case this book also falls into the hands of someone who is not in the bride following.

Let it be known therefore, and I say this with pride, I am a fruit of his ministry in the Gospel of Christ. I know the impact his ministry has had and is having on my life. God used his ministry (the revelation he bears), to straighten out my life, and beat out all the foolishness I was given to, and plant my feet upon the solid rock of Christ, that I may have a sure footing for my soul salvation. That is why many times when I cast my mind back, I wish I had known him aforetime. His message would have delivered me from a lot of foolishness, and snares, and unnecessary heartache I went through, for sheer lack of understanding. I know God ordained the road to be that way for me, that I might have those experiences, which no doubt today bear upon my appreciation of the truth God has shed on the earth at this end time, for the bride of Christ, as well as bear on my walk with Him. I give God all the glory, for His marvellous grace. He surely is a good God, and there is none like Him: None that keepeth covenant; None loves as much. He is my All in All, and may His Name be praised forever and ever, Amen. I am so grateful that God gave us such a man, to bear the torch of Jesus Christ, to brighten the path of God's predestinated bride saints, living in a world enshrouded completely in gross spiritual darkness and confusion.

CONCLUDING THOUGHT :

In conclusion, when God lifts up a Standard, let every man in the five fold ministry recognise it, and fall in line. This is headship in the bride ministry. Unity starts here. And unity is not a maybe so. Unity is a must, and would be attained, for it is not the promise of a man. It is the promise of Jehovah, and the zeal of the Most High shall perform it. True unity starts with a sincere recognition of headship. The Standard bearer is the rallying point for the ministry. If you would not accept this, be rest assured, you would not minister to the bride in this last move for perfection. Although we may not always, and would not always understand at the very on-set, what the Standard bearer does or says at a particular time, but if we can only recognise his position, and the authority invested in him, and his calling, and the grace of God upon his life, as it was upon Moses, and on Joshua, and on Paul, and on John the beloved in his hour, having proved his ministry over time by the Word, it should give us enough confidence to fall in line behind him, knowing that in due course, God would make such action or thought plain. That would also be God's way of challenging us at times. We have to be on the side of the Standard. And as you must know , Dathan, Korah and Abiram are not the ones that would be vindicated by God. It is Moses, or Joshua, the Standard bearer God Himself puts in place, at any given time. Thus Saith the Scriptures. And I say, Amen. What do you say? And if it is still hard for you to see, maybe on account of the fact that like the Jews, you have to see a sign, then listen to the wonderful testimony I would give you in closing. But first I would like to share a dream, and please listen closely.

ADREAM :

Around 1993, one of the brothers set over my Church, Bible Faith Tabernacle, when all we had as ministry, were brothers merely standing in the gap, had a dream which he related to the Church. He dreamt he was coming for Church service as usual, at a time when the Church met in my old apartment at 108, Bajulaye Road, Shomolu, Lagos. As he got to my apartment door, and was about to open, he could hear the voice of Bro. Jackson ringing out loud and clear from within the apartment. Bro. Jackson was preaching. He started to wonder how and when Bro. Jackson got to be there. Then a woman appeared out of the blues, and strictly warned him not to enter or come again to the assembly. This dream repeated another day. It was at a time we had problems on ground in the Church. This eventually caused the brother to leave the assembly. His spiritual life went down hill after that. He left because we stood against the errors of Richard Gan he received and was trying unsuccessfully to feed the Church with, and for which we had to step him down. The scenario was what forced me to write a book titled: "They shall see Eye to Eye - The Watchmen." But notice, you and I know Bro. Jackson has never been to Nigeria, apart from when he was in transit through the airport! It simply shows that the Church is standing solidly for the same revelation of truth the Spirit of Jesus Christ is giving through him, as God uses him to unveil the Scriptures for His bride saints at this end time. We are united with him in the truth he gives. That was why it was his voice (his revelation), sounding forth. Because we do not come together in Church service to listen to his tapes. We do that individually. But I try my utmost best as God enables me, to break down the revelation God gives us through him, for my brethren, in the light of the Scriptures. Note that, for this understanding relates to the wonderful testimony I would now give in closing, and please hear me well.

A TESTIMONY:

As I was taking a series of teachings with the aid of a diagram I drew up, on a number of revelations of the Scriptures God has given us at this end time, starting with the true essence of the Ministry and Message of Elijah for our day, bringing it to our time, and dwelling more particularly on the revelatory unveiling of Matthew 24 & 25, amongst other revelations we recently received through a series of messages Bro. Jackson took, when he preached on: "The Last 100 Years Plus", God did something unusual, to vindicate the truth, and we bless the Name of our God for it. I share it, not to lift up my flesh, but to testify of God's gracious dealing. At any rate, you would never be able to take away the testimony of what God has done or is doing for His people. God would do these things, to bless and encourage His people in their lowly estate, and to boost their confidence in His Word, in their walk with Him. And wonderful things would He do for the elected bride at this closing hour of time. The testimony now given below, goes to confirm that when God lifts up a Standard, and you stay faithfully with truth, God would bless you. That is not to suggest that we would all be seeing angels, or that we would be catching angels on camera. You must realise God has one hundred and one million ways of blessing His people. And the fact that God gave such a wonderful manifestation in my ministry does not make me anything, other than just your brother. Because it is the truth God is vindicating (MK. 16:20). You must see that. And that is what I am trying to emphasise, because there is no greater vindication, than the vindication of truth. You can have all the supernatural manifestations of God, and still be out of “The Way”. Note that. May God be glorified in the bride, for we live in a glorious hour, and God has given us a marvellous light.

During the 17th – 20th December, 2002 Convention at Bible Faith Tabernacle, Shomolu, Lagos – Nigeria, one of the visiting sisters at the Convention, Sis. Adeniran from Ipokia, saw the angel of the Lord come in during the morning teaching service. The occasion was the first and only time the Sister would visit Bible Faith Tabernacle. According to her testimony, a ball of fire appeared on the white teaching board when I was teaching. The ball of light appeared on the left hand side of the board, and moved to the middle of the board, positioning itself where the 2000 years (of Hosea 6:2) mark was written on the diagram I was using to illustrate my message. The sight seemed too incredible for her to believe it was real. To make sure she was seeing reality, she rubbed her eyes, and when she opened them again, she still saw the supernatural at the same spot for almost five minutes, before he moved away, and vanished from the right hand side of the platform. This testimony was later shared with the whole Church.

During the Convention, the Church did not make provision for photos to be taken. But Bro. Bola Omooba personally felt like taking photo shots of the Convention, simply to capture on camera the event of the first Convention of Bible Faith Tabernacle. To our utter amazement, when the film was developed much later, exactly four months later, it had amongst it, four clear photo shots bearing the supernatural, vindicating the testimony of the angel of the Lord the Sister saw, and exactly in the sequential way she saw the angel move, when he appeared from the left hand side of the board, and disappeared from the right hand side of the platform. See photos 1-3, in particular for the vindication of this manifestation, placing them side by side.

Photo 1

As the angel of the Lord, dazzling like a star, makes his first entrance into the meeting, from the left hand side of the white board, on 18th December, 2002, during the morning teaching service.
Notice the brightness of the mural (wall painting) behind the board.

Photo 2

The supernatural has moved closer to the side of the 2000 years mark on the board, radiating even to the mural on the wall behind the board, as I was taking my message that day.

Photo 3

As the angel of the Lord makes his exit from the right hand side of the platform, before vanishing out of sight, on this eventful day.

Please note that the only electric light the Church has, are flourescent tubes, as the ceiling in Photo 4 reveals.

This was the last morning teaching service of the Convention, held on 20th December, 2002. Notice the supernatural ball of light radiating from the board behind me, radiating even to overshadow the bright inscription of “JESUS THE LIGHT” painted on the platform wall behind the board itself, giving the mural (wall painting), a hazy look. Compare the haziness of this background wall painting, to the brightness of that of Photo 1, where the angel of the Lord was just making his first entrance into the meeting, on 18th December, 2002. On this last teaching service day, no one but the eye of the camera was given to see this second appearance of the supernatural. And the mechanical eye of a camera does not take psychology or imagination. It takes only reality.

Above: The Diagram I made a rough sketch of on the board, and used throughout the convention.

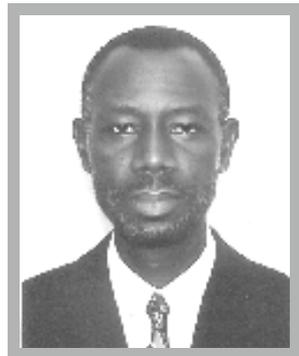

I ask you in all sincerity: Are you not happy that the continuity of revelation the bride is standing for, is what is receiving divine blessing and heaven's approval? We surely are! Let us therefore remain humble, and stay with the truth of Christ we have received, with a pure heart, and let us sincerely appreciate the precious invaluable instrument God has so graciously given to us at this end time, to give us continuity of light, knowing that a Standard is not set for himself, but for God's people, to give true light to the bride of Christ. Thank God for Bro. Jackson! For the five fold ministry is like an orchestra; every man knows and follows the conductor: oh what singing; oh what harmony; oh what melody; with one voice together they sing; for they see eye to eye, following just one conductor, under God. Thank God for truth! And if, inspite of all that has been laid, you still cannot see the need for this message, or you think this write-up is a scheme, just stick around: There is going to be a serious “showdown at sundown” (1Kgs. 18:36-40). Here lies my comfort, and my confidence. We shall see. But I would ask you: How come we have so much books and materials written on men whom God used in the light of truth, for His elected seeds through all ages of time in the grace age: John Wycliffe, John Huss of Bohemia, Martin Luther, John Wesley, John Knox, John Calvin, William Tyndale, William Branham? What would make that of Raymond Jackson wrong upon the same basis of truth? Truth shall be thy judge. I would have to say, truth would vindicate itself. We shall see. Truth indeed would have the last say, and the elected bride would have the last laugh.

May the Lord bless each and every one of you who love the truth. Shalom.
