GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005 - PART 1

The following message was preached by Brother Amos on Sunday 23rd March, 2014, at Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. It is the first part of a message showing just what God did in 2005, and why it is so relevant to the universal bride of Jesus Christ, as we close out the grace age of Gentile salvation.

I greet everyone in Jesus' name. May the Lord bless you all. It is good to be back home. I want to thank God for travelling mercies, and for the lovely time He gave me during the short time of my isolation, as I worked on the Scribe. Just like the song our brother took, we want to send the light across the nations of the earth, because God is doing something wonderful in the tabernacle of Ham, for the Bride of Christ universal. We just want to send the light, that it may shine from coast to coast, from nation to nation, and from continent to continent, wherever the Bride of Christ may be stationed. It is a Continuing light, because the Message of Jesus Christ is one. May the Lord bless you all. On behalf of the church, I want to appreciate our sister, Sister Ifeoma Nwaeze, for the great sacrifice she has been making in fighting for the cause of the church gratuitously, as our Solicitor and Advocate, in the matter of our church land. May the Lord bless you, my sister. May God bless our sister in a special way. It is good to have a Lawyer in the house. I also appreciate Brother Johnson Ekunola, who has been running up and down as well over our land issue. God is the one that fights for His people. He is the Help of the helpless. He is the one that can deliver the prey from the mouth of the predator, and say, "Give it up, for that belongs to me." So, we are just trusting God to fight our battle, and to recover our land from those who are using the police to encroach on the church land, simply because since we got it, we do not have the money to develop it. It is obvious that the police are in league with these people, because as we went to make official reports that certain people are building on our land, and that they are using thugs wielding machetes to keep us away, what were we told by the police? We were told to keep away from the land. We were told not to go there for anything; not to even take photographs of the building, except from far away, whilst the culprits are busy building on it, working hard and fast at it! We are not to go there: But the people are building! They said we should apply to the Police Force Headquarters in the Federal Capital, Abuja, and we did. Our petition was approved, and they still did nothing. They also asked us to get an injunction in court, and we did, and they still did nothing! And you would expect the police to intervene and stop the encroachment from the very first instance, for the sake of peace, and ask both parties to settle the matter in court. Is it because we are Christians, and will not fight back also with the use of thugs? That is exactly why! If it was the people of this world, blood would already be flowing in the Gbagada land, and the police would have had to do something to keep the peace! But in everything, brothers and sisters, it is well, for God sees everything. It is really well. May God have His way in this matter, for He is our great and exceeding portion. However, as I have been saying to you all along, I will not let any land matter divert my focus, for I have not been sent to develop lands, even though it is for the church, and we need it dearly, particularly as this present site can no longer contain us, and brethren have to stand up during the Sunday services, for lack of space. But still, I have not been sent to build houses, but to carry the saving light of Jesus Christ, for the universal body of God's elect saints. That divine purpose, God helping me, will remain my only focus and goal. I leave the rest to God, for He knows just what we need, and it is He who can supply all that is needful, including fighting our battles. He is Jehovah-Nissi, for the Lord is our banner. But He makes things beautiful in His own time. We therefore leave everything in His most able hands. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

We will turn our Bibles to the Book of Revelation, Chapter 3, and take verse 14, and then we will skip to verse 20. Verse 14 reads: "And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen."

Apostle Paul prophesied of this end time in his Second Epistle to Timothy, Chapter 3, these present day church goers are "highminded, LOVERS OF PLEASURES MORE THAN LOVERS OF GOD; having only a form of Godliness, but denying the power thereof", which is the power of truth, which is the power of God unto salvation; having more love for carnal earthly things, for that is where their zeal is expressed, things that do not and will not profit their souls, than for God. They can travel miles, wasting endless time, and spend so much money, just to gratify the flesh; but they have no real time for things of the Spirit, and neither will they make any meaningful sacrifice for it, except to pay lip service to God and to truth. This shows the true state of their hearts, and the premium or the value they place on issues of life eternal, for it written, where your treasure is, there lies your heart also. Jesus in his prophetic revelation continued, saying): "So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."

(That is total rejection of any lukewarm fellowship anyone offers the Lord. He expects us to be on fire for him. He expects us to be on fire for the truth. After all, he is offering us life eternal, and we must therefore know the value of it. As such, it will also cost us our total dedication and absolute commitment. But Jesus states to Laodicea): "Because thou sayest, I AM RICH" (SPIRITUALLY), "and increased WITH GOODS", (MATERIAL GOODS), "and HAVE NEED OF NOTHING." (What an extremely proud and arrogant age! We are looking at the spirit of the age that is motivating people! You cannot tell them anything, for they know everything! They are a people so full of themselves. They think they have everything and know everything, and yet, they are totally empty and bankrupt, for they have nothing, and they know nothing! How they hate those that rebuke at the gates! Saints, there is no age like this age. And there is no nation that characterises Laodicea like the United States of America. Listen to me brethren: There is no age as rich, and there is no age as materialistic and as worldly as this age. No age has ever had it so good! It is an age where they have an overabundance of goods, and have become stupid with it! And how they waste it, being an age of wasters; b e c a u s e o f t h e overabundance of the things they have. They have so much, and still, they are never satisfied, and neither are they thankful. They think because of their material and technological advancement, that they have everything, and lack absolutely nothing; but the Spirit of Christ declares): “and knowest not that THOU ART WRETCHED, and MISERABLE, and POOR, and BLIND, and NAKED.” (What a horrible state of spiritual amnesia: wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked, AND DO NOT KNOW IT! This is Laodicea for you! This shows nothing but complete spiritual bankruptcy! Yet, they think they are very spiritual! Laodicea! And what exactly is the meaning of Laodicea? It simply means “RIGHTS”, “equal rights.” How perfect and infallible the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ is, concerning this most apostate and utterly degenerate age; an age of moral perverts! The Civil Rights Movement spearheaded by Martin Luther King, a Movement which was also closely followed by the Human Rights Movement, opened up the door for the devil to come with every right from the pit of hell, until now, it is the rights of gays and lesbians, and of all moral perverts of every description possible or imaginable. And their rights supersede that of every right thinking and morally upright person. Now we have the LGBT community, a community made up of Lesbians, Gays, Bisexual, and Transgender people. What a community from hell! What does it give us? It gives us a degenerate social and spiritual condition that is unsurpassed in all human history, for today, gays and lesbians not only have a civil partnership right of marriage, they also now marry legally in churches, and that is done with full social and economic government benefits, backed by the full force of the law. What an abomination; but an abomination that is highly celebrated in Laodicea, and you cannot speak against it! Yes, it is an age of rights: Laodicea! WHAT AN AGE!!! The Master pleaded with this age, in verse 18, saying): “I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire”, (which is the revealed faith of Jesus Christ, tried in the fiery furnace of the trials and persecution a believer goes through), “that thou mayest be RICH (INDEED); “and WHITE RAIMENT”, (which the revealed faith of the Lord gives, which is God's righteousness), “that thou mayest be CLOTHED” (with the salvation of God), “and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with EYESALVE” (of the Holy Spirit, by which your eyes of revelation will be opened), “that THOU MAYEST SEE.” (The Lord further pleads): “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.”

In other words, the only zeal God expects of Laodicea is the zeal to acknowledge wrong, and make right. Unfortunately, the passionate plea of the Lord only falls on deaf ears, for the “PALE HORSE” RIDER of Revelation Chapter 6, verses 7-8, whose name is “DEATH”, is ruling this age with iron fists, galloping on in the earth, pulling all of hell along with him straight to the Lake of fire, as he rides out the last mile in this last age. Who will argue with the truth that we are in Laodicea, when the facts are staring us right in the face? Which age is like this age? In the entire Dispensation of grace, to which age can you compare this? Come on! Which other age qualifies to be Laodicea, other than this age of Sodom and Gomorrah, and an age unparalleled in materialism? Make no mistake about it: This is Laodicea, the seventh and final Gentile church age, the age that ends the Dispensation of grace.

Brothers and sisters, to this age, which is the age of closure, our Lord writes in the prophecy recorded in verse 14, declaring: “And unto THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God.” Now, please pay attention. Brothers and sisters, if there is an angel to this age, and John was asked to write to him, surely that angel cannot possibly be a spirit angel, but a human being; because John, who was asked to write him, is himself a man! Common sense will tell you that, even though today, I know that sense is no longer common. And that is a fact! However, the truth remains that John could not have been asked by a spirit being to write to another spirit being, IF the angel of Laodicea was himself a spirit. Exactly! This is where the religious world goofed; for whenever they read this prophetic verse, they assume that the angel of Laodicea is a spirit. Yet, in his resurrection revelation to John on the Isle of Patmos, Jesus Christ conveyed the prophetic revelation of things that the Bride of Christ of this end time would need to pay attention to; because we are the ones facing the reality of this serious prophetic projection, which was conveyed to John in that day by the angel of Christ. That lets us know that the angel of the church of Laodicea simply means messenger, and is referring to the star messenger to Laodicea, who is none other than William Marrion Branham, the end time Elijah of Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B. We will take verse 14 again: “And unto THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith THE AMEN, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God.” Saints, the description of Jesus Christ here, as “the Amen, the faithful and true witness,” The SO-BE-IT of God, is giving us nothing other than that of closure. And this is the only age where Jesus reveals himself as “THE AMEN.” It is an expression of the closure of God's plan of universal salvation which we have in Christ Jesus, which is why he is revealing himself to this age as THE AMEN, speaking of Christ's end revelation, when God is bringing the plan of Gentile redemption to a literal close. However, and more importantly, please note that in verse 14, Jesus addresses this age, THROUGH the angel to the age, for the letter is addressed strictly to the star messenger of the Laodicean age, which is none other than William Branham, laying out the mind of the Spirit concerning this age. But then, when we come to verse 20, Jesus says: "Behold, I STAND AT THE DOOR, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Church, there is controversy over this verse. Around the globe, people in the religious world fight one another over the door Jesus is referring to in this verse. The question is, which door is Jesus talking of? Is it the door of the church, or the door to your heart? Which door is it? All kinds of revelations so-called are going forth on this issue, and really, there is no need to split hairs, because the verse itself is very plain. So, I do not know why they are breaking their heads over it. Jesus says: "Behold, I" (Jesus) "stand at the door, and knock: IF ANY MAN hear my voice, and open the door, I WILL COME IN TO HIM, and will sup with him, and he with me." So, it is the door of the heart! If you open up your heart to the voice of Jesus Christ, he will come in, and fellowship with you; and what blessed and Holy Communion you will have! However, in relation to a church body, any church body, that verse also refers to the pastor, the shepherd, who is responsible for letting Jesus in, for he is the guard of the local assembly, and as such, he determines what goes and what does not go, what that local body is to stand for, and what they are not to stand for: He controls the door into that assembly. I say that only because we also cannot take a truth into extremes. So, if any pastor man hears the voice of Christ, and opens the door of his assembly, Jesus will certainly come into that assembly. That is also the truth, even though that verse is referring more to the individual, than to any local body of saints; because God deals with us Gentiles as individuals, and not collectively, as He deals with the Jews! Whatever the case, the fact remains that you first have to hear his knock! You must first be able to hear his knock! But how does he knock? How exactly does Jesus knock? I have to ask that because the knock of Jesus is certainly not a big bang. He does not bang on your door like a person that is seeking to break it down. It is a gentle knock he gives; not a rude one, because it is the working of the Spirit. It is a knock that is conveyed by the Spirit of Christ, and the Spirit of God works in very humble and gentle ways. God's ways are very gentle, humble, and simple. So, how does the Spirit knock? How is Jesus knocking? He is knocking strictly by the conviction of the Spirit, through the Message of Truth that goes forth, the Message of Truth that you hear. When you hear the Truth of Jesus Christ, when the Truth of the Scriptures is ringing before you, when a scriptural voice is going forth to your hearing, it is Jesus knocking on the door of your heart. You are at liberty to let him in, and you are also at liberty to keep him out of your heart, because the voice of the Spirit of Christ is conveyed through men, in a divine revelation. The essence of God sending forth the Truth, which rings forth through men, is to get Jesus into your heart, if you will only let him in! So the choice is yours; it is your responsibility. What people do with the Truth is between them and God. But the Truth goes forth anyway, because God never ever leaves Himself without A TRUE WITNESS. Never! However, stepping up the means of the conveyance of the Truth, FROM the general body of local ministries standing for the Truth, TO the universal vessel of Truth, brothers and sisters, you must also understand as bride saints, God's elect eagles, that the Lord always has A VESSEL he can relate to, a chosen vessel through whom the true revelation of Jesus Christ is conveyed to the general body of ministry, and through the general body of ministry, it is in turn now conveyed to the entire body of saints. This is the established Bible pattern, and the unchanging scriptural pattern of God; and the Book of Revelation confirms it. Hence, at the very opening of the Book of Revelation, specifically in Chapter 1, verse 1, it is written: “THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST, which God gave unto him, to shew unto HIS SERVANTS things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel UNTO HIS SERVANT JOHN.” Church, God gave His resurrected Son Jesus Christ, a prophetic revelation of things within His plan of redemption, things which make up the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ. They are the revelation of things which must come to pass, for they are absolutely infallible, and most important. And they are meant to be shown specifically to the many plural servants of Jesus Christ, just as the verse declares. However, when Jesus was going to send it to his plural servants, acting through his angel, he did not send it directly to them, for it was not shown directly to them. He sent it and showed it to only one man, John the beloved apostle, and that singular man was in turn to give it to the other plural servants, through whom the message would then be disseminated or given to the general body of saints. This confirms the truth that God always has “a chosen vessel”, through whom the true revelation message of Jesus is conveyed to the general body of ministry, for each servant does not receive it direct, but receives it only through Christ's chosen vessel of light; although he also has to receive it by revelation from the Spirit of God, if he is to possess it! Hence, the very reason the revelation of Jesus was conveyed in that day to John, for and on behalf of the other plural servants of Christ, whoever they were, and wherever they were located in the earth! Yet, John was not the star messenger to that first age. Think about it! Yet, all the other servants of Christ, being true servants, were under a divine obligation in that day to listen to John, on account of the Continuing light of Christ he bore for them, even though he was not the star messenger! Exactly! None of them could reject the truths of Christ which John bore, simply because they did not like his face, or the colour of his skin, or his race, or his manner of ministry! Of course not! They could not dare, for to reject him was to reject Jesus Christ who was speaking through him by his Spirit, for the voice of Jesus is always borne by a divinely chosen vessel! Absolutely! Brothers and sisters, John was carrying the pure and rich prophetic truths of Jesus Christ in that day, and to hear the voice of Christ was simply to hear the voice of John! Period! I repeat: To hear the voice or the message of John was to hear the voice of the Spirit, for it is a still small voice, conveying the revelation of life! May I also add that those truths of John are applicable in this very hour, for it points to this very day, the Laodicean age, being the age the prophecy of Jesus Christ points to in the main! Consequently, saints, at this very junction of time in the grace age, No man can reject any of the prophetic truths of Christ which John laid out in the Book of Revelation, and still make it as bride. It is absolutely impossicant; meaning that it is impossible and cannot be! It is that serious, and I say that on the full and infallible authority of Revelation Chapter 22, verses 18 and 19! It is Thus saith the Lord in His prophetic Word, and it cannot fail, because Thus saith the Lord cannot fail! I repeat: God never leaves himself without a true witness, particularly now that we are at the end in Laodicea, a completely bankrupt and degenerate age, an age filled with gross spiritual darkness and mass confusion, an age of unparalleled apostasy, and where all voices imaginable and unimaginable are calling for recognition! God has to have a chosen vessel, and he does! And let me also warn, that God alone determines that vessel, for the choice is strictly His, for He is sovereign, and He alone rules His kingdom! Period!

Apostle Paul carried the light of Christ for the first church age, as the first star messenger to the age. And when he passed away in 66 AD., here we see Jesus Christ anointing John to step into his shoes in 67 AD., as the “candlestick” of that day, a move which is vindicated by Revelation Chapter 2, verse 5, where Jesus declared to the Ephesian church age: “Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove THY CANDLESTICK out of his place, except thou repent.” Who was this “CANDLESTICK”? It was Apostle John. As I often say, Jesus could not be threatening the Ephesians in 96 AD., with the removal of their candlestick, if it was Apostle Paul, because Paul had already been long dead! He had been dead for about thirty years prior to this warning, and as such, making that candlestick to be Apostle Paul, renders the warning given in 96 AD., totally useless! Saint Paul was only the star messenger to that age, and not the candlestick of verse 5! Therefore, that verse gives us a candlestick that was on the ground in that day, in 96 AD., a current candlestick in that precise hour of time, and that gives us nobody but Saint John. And because John was the candlestick in that day, is precisely why now in 96 AD., Jesus came to give him his prophetic revelation, which is to be made known to all the other servants of Christ, even as Revelation Chapter 1, verse 1, vindicates: “The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto HIS SERVANT JOHN.” (Did you hear that? Jesus sent his angel unto his servant John, thereby confirming the truth that John was already the Servant of God, the “Candlestick” of the Lord, which was why Jesus sent his angel to him in 96 AD.! Come on! And that is precisely why verse 2 also witnesses of John: “Who BARE RECORD of the Word of God,” (meaning that he carried the true witness of the Torah), “and of the testimony of Jesus Christ,” (meaning that he also carried the true revelation of Jesus Christ), “and of all things that he saw”, (which is the prophetic revelation recorded in the Book of Revelation, for John carried this as well, being the candlestick of Jesus Christ to that age). This absolutely vindicates the truth we have been emphasising, that John was a MINOR Messenger of Jesus Christ to that first age, after Paul passed away in 66 AD., for Paul did not bear every detail of truth which Christ has for his kingdom, even though he was the star messenger to the Ephesian church age! Who can deny these things, if you are not spiritually sick? The first age did not only give us a major messenger, which is the star messenger to that age, which was that of Saint Paul, it also gave us a minor messenger to that age, in the ministry of Saint John! And when we come to this last age, Jesus repeats the very same ministry pattern, for he is the same yesterday, today, and forever! I am showing you the application of the voice of Jesus Christ, for in Revelation Chapter 3, verse 20, he declared: “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man HEAR MY VOICE, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he will be with me.” The Billion Dollar question now is this: How is Jesus speaking today in Laodicea to the entire body of saints? It is in the very same way he spoke to them back there in the first church age as recorded in Chapter 1, verse 1! It is! That is exactly why in his opening address, or in his opening revelation to Laodicea, Jesus Christ also speaks to ONE MAN, for the entire church body universal, declaring: “And UNTO THE ANGEL” (who is the star messenger) “of the church of the Laodiceans WRITE...” (Rev. 3:14). This verse settles the truth that the star messenger to this age, speaks to the universal body of ministry, on behalf of Jesus Christ, because the revelation of Jesus Christ to this last age, is given to him, for the entire body of saints. Let us move on, for we must now step up a notch. Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22 records: “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith UNTO THE CHURCHES” (PLURAL: churches around the world. This therefore gives the Message of Christ a universal application). Brothers and sisters, I repeat: In verse 14, in addressing the age, Jesus addressed “THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans...” Consequently, we are all expected to hear the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ, sounding forth from the star messenger to this age, the man who is “the angel of the church of the Laodiceans.” Yes, we are! We must listen to the truths of Christ he bore, for and on our behalf, from the pages of the Bible, because the prophetic revelation of Christ was conveyed to him by the angel of Christ, for our instruction. In true spiritual essence, the Spirit of Christ is speaking through him. That is the implication, for we must hear what the Spirit is saying, through the “angel of the church of the Laodiceans”! Now pay attention to this, for I want you to get it, and it is a truth I have been setting before you repeatedly over the years, and it is precisely this: On the other hand, in closing out the Chapter, in closing out his Message to Laodicea, Christ closes his prophetic address to this age in verse 22, by saying: “He that hath an ear, let him HEAR WHAT THE SPIRIT SAITH unto the churches.” He did not say, “Let him hear what the ANGEL saith unto the churches.” He did not say that! He said: “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the SPIRIT SAITH...” Saints of God, the word “saith” is an archaic (or an old) word; and it simply means “SAYING”, for it is a Present-Continuous tense. Remember, Jesus says: “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit SAITH unto the churches.” He did not say, “Let him hear what the Spirit has SAID”, as in a strictly past tense revelation, but “Let him hear what the Spirit of God is SAYING”, PRESENTLY AND CONTINUOUSLY UNTO THE CHURCHES. It is absolutely so, because the revelation of Jesus the Christ, being the revelation of Almighty God, is inherently progressive, not stagnant, but continuous. The truth of God is progressively given. I repeat: Jesus Christ did not say, “Let him hear what the Spirit has SAID”, as in a past tense revelation, but “Let him hear what the Spirit is SAYING”, PRESENTLY AND CONTINUOUSLY UNTO THE CHURCHES. Why is this so? And what is the implication? It is absolutely and infallibly so, because the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ goes way beyond the total body of truths the angel or star messenger to Laodicea carries in his voice, for the general body of saints! Because the age outlives him, and God who is Omniscient, (for He is all knowing), knows that! In other words, the prophet-star messenger to this age is gone, but the bride of Christ is still here. And more importantly, Jesus Christ is here, for he is alive, and he lives forevermore! Yes! Therefore, the Spirit of Christ must keep on dealing with the bride in the light of the truth, in order to move the bride on, so that as each passing day draws us closer to his coming, his revelation being continuously and progressively given, will make us know him better and better, with each passing day, until we are just like him, in readiness for the rapture! Hence it is written: “He that hath an ear, LET HIM HEAR WHAT THE SPIRIT SAITH unto the churches.” It is so, because THE SPIRIT IS STILL TALKING. And we have received the Spirit or the Anointing of “A FLYING EAGLE”, because THE SPIRIT IS STILL TALKING. He is still talking in Laodicea! Hear what the Spirit is SAYING TODAY IN 2014! This closing pattern runs throughout the revelation of Christ to the seven church ages, for each and every age outlived its star messenger, just as each age opened before the star messenger is set in motion; but Christ remains the same, and his dealing with the body of saints must move on, irrespective of the fact that the star messenger is gone, for it is not about any star messenger: It is all about the revelation of Jesus Christ, which is a continuous one, his revelation being inherently progressive! You cannot dethrone Christ, and make this plan of salvation about the star messenger to Laodicea, for it is not about any star messenger: IT IS ABOUT JESUS THE CHRIST, WHO IS IN THE MIDST OF THE SEVEN GOLDEN CANDLESTICKS, as the principal being controlling, directing, keeping, and nurturing her! Precisely! Halleluiah! Amen! That is absolutely why, Proverbs Chapter 4, verse 18, declares: “But the path of the just is as the SHINING LIGHT, that shineth MORE AND MORE unto the perfect day.” And he that hath an ear, must therefore hear what the Spirit is saying. I re-affirm: The closing pattern we read in Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, runs throughout the revelation of Jesus Christ to the seven church ages, for each and every age outlived its star messenger; and yet, each and every age is required to hear what the Spirit IS SAYING TO THE AGE! And if we may zero in on the first church age, the Ephesian age, in the day the Spirit of Christ was giving this prophetic revelation, Paul was gone; but the saints still needed to listen to the revelation of Christ which John bore in 96 AD. They needed to! Hence, the warning in Revelation Chapter 2, verse 7: “HE THAT HATH AN EAR, LET HIM HEAR WHAT THE SPIRIT SAITH UNTO THE CHURCHES; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.” Brothers and sisters, transposing that warning to this present age, the issue therefore is this: How is the Spirit talking when the angel messenger to Laodicea is gone? That is the point! How is Christ talking, knocking on “the door” today? How is his true voice conveyed? The answer to that is very simple. He is doing it the very same way he did it in first church age! The way he did it in the first age, is the very way he is doing it in this last age: For as he had a vessel, a John ministry in that day, after the passing away of Paul,

(the star messenger to the Ephesian age), and to whom the revelation of Jesus came, for and on behalf of all other plural servants, so does he also have a John ministry today, the man to whom Jesus gives the entire scroll of redemption to eat, on the full and unquestionable authority of Revelation Chapter 10, verses 8-11, and whose ministry was also set in motion, after the death of our Paul, Raymond Jackson, who in turn was anointed to carry the light of Christ, following the death of the star messenger to this age. Brothers and sisters, the Spirit talked through John the beloved apostle in the early church, and the Spirit of Christ is also now talking through John the lead apostle in this last age, for as it is written in Hebrews Chapter 13, verse 8: “JESUS CHRIST THE SAME YESTERDAY, AND TO DAY, AND FOR EVER.” In other words: THE SPIRIT IS STILL TALKING, and as such, YOU MUST HEAR what the Spirit is saying! Church, in Revelation Chapter 3, we see the angel to this age in verse 14, and we also see the Spirit continuing to unveil the things of Christ in verse 22. Consequently, we have to realize that Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, goes way beyond the prophet-star messenger to this age; it goes beyond the angel to Laodicea. However, it is very important to note that the voice of the Spirit to this age started with the angel in verse 14. And the angel of verse 14 is gone, but Jesus the Christ is still here, and as such, his light moves on, particularly as the bride of Christ is still here. Therefore, brothers and sisters, verse 22 gives us, Not just the angel to this age, for it certainly takes in the voice of the angel to Laodicea; it also gives us what God is doing today, as per year 2014, as it also gives us a continuing and concluding voice, because Jesus is still speaking to his bride, and will continue to speak to her, until he comes to take her home in the resurrection morning. Period!

This morning we want to ask ourselves a question, which will form the basis and the focus of my message today, and it is this: What happened in Year 2005? What took place in that year? What did God do? I therefore title my message: GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005. That is the title of my message. I know this is the chart used in times past, a chart we made just before Brother Jackson passed away, for we used it during the 2004 November Convention in Lagos, and we simply titled it: GOD IN LAODICEA. And in that Convention, when we took that message, (and this shows just how awesome God is), we placed Year 2005 on the chart, with a question mark to that year. Brother Jackson passed away about two weeks thereafter, exactly on the 4th December, 2004, and my wife and I went for his burial. After the burial, whilst we were visiting the church in Montgomery, Illinois, I took the same message with them, GOD IN LAODICEA, using the chart, a sister, Sister Highsmith, made a statement whilst we were having fellowship at the pastor, Mike Hefner's home. She said words which amount to this: “It is wonderful, Brother Amos, that you put a question mark on Year 2005 before Brother Jackson passed away. It is as if you knew that Brother Jackson was going to pass away."

Saints, that is what is called divine inspiration! That is the difference true inspiration makes! And I myself did not know why I even put a question mark there in that day, because Brother Jackson was still on ground when we took the message, and he was in good health! He even called me on phone after our Convention to know how it went! So, after he passed away and he was buried, I had to remove the question mark I had placed against Year 2005, and filled in the dots, and I re-preached it here at Bible Faith Tabernacle. Mike Hefner also took the same chart after we left the United States, and filled in the dots, and preached it to his people, after we were gone. I know that because he wrote me a letter to this effect, where he asked me if it was okay that he did so, and I said that that was fine. But the man later changed tune. Today, however, and by the grace of God, we are going to focus on Year 2005. What exactly did God do in that year? The reason for this message is this: I got an email a few days ago from the United States, whilst I was working on the Scribe. It was written by Brother Richard Ofori, a fine Ghanaian brother we met at Faith Assembly in Year 2001, during the September Fall Convention, where in that Convention, Brother Jackson asked me, as well as Brother Richard, and another visiting brother, an Indian brother, Israel Rajamani, to give our testimony before the saints, which we have on DVD. He also came to the next Convention in April 2002, along with his wife, and his grown up son and daughter. Brother Bola and Sister Joy Omooba met them at that time. We had a lovely time of fellowship with him, but we have not seen each other after that Convention. Out of the blues, I just got an email from him a few days ago, precisely on 19th March, and he is now based in the United States. I want you to know that I have corrected the typographical mistakes in his mail, and I have also highlighted material parts of the mail, simply for emphasis, without adding or taking away from what he wrote. His email reads: "Dear Sir, Greetings to you and your beloved wife in the name which is above every name, even our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. May the grace of God be abundantly and continuously rained on you wherever you are, and wherever you go. I am planning if God permits, I will be in Lagos to visit you and "gossip" about the Lord and His Word. You may ask, but who is this? My name is Richard Ofori. Maybe it will ring a bell, maybe not. Yes, great things came out of Nazareth, and great things will come out of Nigeria, the bosom of Africa, in the tabernacle of Ham. It took John the Baptist to lift the Scriptures pertaining to himself, to show Israel who he is. It is Jesus who proclaimed "The Spirit of God is upon me and He has anointed me to preach...", from the Scriptures. William Marrion Branham brought Malachi 4:5B to the fore, to show the people his scriptural position. And it will be John who will reveal the Spirit and power of John to the bride of Jesus Christ. It is an undeniable fact of Scripture: We know who Rev. 10:7 is; we know what Rev. 10:1-6 pertains to; and Rev. 10:8-11 is a distinct mission to be accomplished by "thou" "you" (singular), not (plural). And since the departure of Raymond Jackson to be with the Lord, none of the preachers on ground are being used by God to feed the Eagles with FRESH CARCASE. I have heard a few of them: What I see is that YOU ARE NOT FROM THE "RIGHT RACE"; and not from the right country. Jealousy; Envy; Sheer anger: This is what is driving most of them. Now my only question is: WHAT HAPPENED IN THE YEAR 2005? Is it written somewhere in one of the Scribes? If it is, direct me to that, or if not, just give me a small outline: For a few words will be enough to the wise. My email... I look forward to corresponding regularly with you. Thank you and God bless. Say hi to the children for me. I remember Mark, but I have forgotten the name of the other. Richard Ofori." May God bless Brother Richard. Brothers and sisters, you have to agree with me this morning that this letter shows that the brother is carrying a perfect scriptural understanding of the moves of God, and he has also made a perfect assessment of the horrible attitudes that men are bearing towards this move. Honestly speaking, when I read the email, it really lifted my spirit. It is just nice to hear from him, the things that he has written, and the wisdom with which he wrote it. His email request is precisely why I am taking this message this morning. When I am done, by the grace of God, I hope to send this message to Brother Richard in the United States. So, the main focus of my message today is: What did the Lord do in Year 2005? What happened in Year 2005? Hence the title, GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005. I pray God will help me.

We x-rayed a text from the Book of Revelation, Chapter 3, where the resurrected Christ in his prophetic revelation addressed this last age, called the Laodicean age, warning in verse 22: "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit SAITH unto the churches." We have established the truth, and it is therefore settled, that that verse speaks of the PRESENT AND CONTINUOUS unveiling of the scriptural truths of Jesus the Christ, particularly his prophetic truths, showing evidently that the revealing of the truths of Christ goes beyond the era of the hour of time when the angel of Laodicea was on the ground, even though the dealing of Jesus Christ with the bride in this age started with him, as the star messenger. Nevertheless, the unveiling of Christ goes on in this age in its ever continuous essence, after the death of the star messenger to Laodicea, on 24th December, 1965, because the revelation of Christ is progressive, and not stagnant, but continuous, because the Message of Jesus Christ is one. Therefore, whatever truths are added after the death of the angel to Laodicea, (the star messenger to Laodicea), all together make up what the Spirit is saying to this age, for they all together make up the Voice or the Message of Jesus Christ to Laodicea, for the Message of Christ is one; the Message of the Bible is one, Not two, Not three. God's revelation just keeps unfolding continuously, because it is progressive, ever progressive. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we must realize that God is still speaking. The Spirit is still talking! William Branham is gone, but Jesus is here, and he is still speaking. So what saith the Spirit today? Brothers and sisters, come with me to the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 16, to take the second text for this message, and it states in verse 7: “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter”, (which is the Spirit of Truth; the Spirit of the Word), “will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.” (Now let us go to verses 12-15, where Jesus declares): “I have yet MANY THINGS”, (MANY TRUTHS), “TO SAY UNTO YOU, but ye cannot bear them now”, (for every truth has its divinely appointed season and precise hour). “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of Truth”, (the Comforter, the Spirit of the Word), “is come, he will guide you into ALL TRUTH”, (as it is being progressively given with the passage of time): “for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME”, (which gives us prophetic insights or prophetic revelations into the things of Christ, an infallible promise which holds true for all ages. Saints of God, this promise takes in the various Moves of Christ in all the church ages, and also includes his truths, prophetic truths, making up the progressive revelations of Jesus Christ, at each and every junction of time in the grace age, as God deals with His kingdom through time.

Jesus re-affirmed his promise, declaring): “He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, AND SHALL SHEW IT UNTO YOU, (for he shall post God's children ahead prophetically, thereby taking away from the elect seeds of God, ignorance of the revelations of Jesus Christ, and of the Moves of God, as is applicable in one's day and junction of time. Jesus concludes, reiterating this truth): “All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall TAKE OF MINE, and shall SHEW IT UNTO YOU.” Brothers and sisters, when we take that thought, and take it to Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, we see nothing but Jesus Christ in his Present-Continuous revelation. How many see the point? Yes! I repeat: When we take that thought, the truth Jesus expressed here in John Chapter 16, and take it to Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, it gives us nothing but Jesus in his Present AND Continuous revelation! It is so, because Jesus gave his sure word of promise, that when the Comforter comes, the Spirit of Truth, he will guide us into ALL Truth, and HE WILL SHEW US THINGS TO COME, in the light of God's plan of redemption, whatever the hour or junction of time we have in the grace age. This lets us see that he is also going to give us the revelation of things that are yet ahead; things that are yet to be revealed, whether it relates to divine prophetic truths, or as to the intended moves of God. We are looking at prophetic insights to the things of Christ that applies in our own day and junction of time. Why is it so? It is so because the Lord Jesus promised in John Chapter 8, verse 12, that whoever follows him shall not walk in darkness, but that HE “SHALL HAVE THE LIGHT OF LIFE.” In other words, you are not going to be ignorant of what Jesus is doing in your day and hour, which is your junction of time. Think about it this morning! The Master gave his unfailing Word of promise: When the Spirit of Truth is come, he will guide you into ALL TRUTH, and he will show you “THINGS TO COME.” This refers to those things which God has apportioned in His sovereign mind to have application in our day, so that by the prophetic dealership of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, we may be posted ahead, and also know how to look at what is confronting us in our day: Because God will never leave His children in darkness, as to the things that are material for their spiritual growth and security. So, whatever conditions we are facing in the earth, as the bride of Christ, brothers and sisters, you must know the Spirit of God will show us just how to look at it, posting us ahead of the realities we are to face, that will affect our security, and hence, affect our eternal destiny. Consequently, the Holy Spirit of God will take the things of Christ, and show it to us. And how exactly does the Spirit show us things to come? How does he show the universal body of saints the prophetic things of Christ for our day? In other words: How do we hear the voice of the Spirit? It is through the ministry Christ has established in the earth, to carry his truth for the entire body! You are looking at the chosen vessel of God! It is precisely because of this promise, and in partial fulfillment of this promise, a promise Christ made in John Chapter 16, verse 13, and in furtherance of this promise, that in 1 Corinthians Chapter 15, verses 51-52, Apostle Paul declared: “BEHOLD, I SHEW YOU A MYSTERY; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” That is the Spirit showing us what is to come! Saint Paul bore these wonderful and deep prophetic truths by the inspiration of the Spirit of Jesus Christ! So, it takes the ministry that God has ordained to carry the light. These are basic things that you understand in here, in this continuity Movement, because you are following this revealed way; but this understanding, as basic as it is to you, is simply not out there, and it therefore looks to them like you are speaking "Greek." Out there, brothers and sisters, they are just doing all sorts, because they do not have the knowledge of THE PLOT, The Ministry Plot of God in Laodicea. And so, they do not have a clue as to what God is doing in this age in essence. However, coming back to the truth of the promise Jesus made in John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, what does it tell us? It tells us that everything is not laid out in black and white in written Scripture! It is not possible for everything to be written in black and white, for there is no book that can contain it all, which is why we need the Continuous leadership of the Spirit of God! However, and please take note of it; however, everything God does and will do, takes its root and basis in the written Scriptures, for the foundation of anything and everything God does is the inspired Scriptures. As such, whatever the Spirit shows us, whatever the Spirit does, and whatever truths the Spirit leads us into, will definitely have a Bible base. Absolutely! I am simply saying that whatever God does will most certainly be vindicated by the Scriptures, because it must have a Bible base, if it is God doing it! Exactly! But the fact remains, that the details, the nitty-gritty details of all God will do, and when He will do them, and how He will do them, the prophetic things to come, are not necessarily and specifically laid out in Scriptures for all to see in black and white. And as such, we walk with God by faith, which is also precisely why it is a walk "from faith TO FAITH", being a progressive, and hence, a continuous walk! We know according to Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B, that God will send Elijah, but we did not know the specific details of that ministry, such as the man who will fulfil it. These details were left out for the Spirit to fill in, during the currency of Elijah's ministry, which God established for the end time bride. Come on! It is enough for us to know that there is going to be such a ministry; God does not have to spell out the details of all that the end time Elijah will teach and do, in the written Word. God giving us a scriptural promise and a gist of his ministry is enough. But as I pointed out, whatever God does, and whatever God will do, must have its basis in the Word of God. That is exactly why the seven thunders, seven men who will come with an unwritten message, will still have their basis in the Scriptures, which is why their ministry is spoken of in the written record, for nothing will offend the Scriptures! Everything must have its anchor in the Word of God in order to be true! So, I am making a serious point, as we consider the two Bible texts that form the foundation for this message, and that point is that the Book of Revelation, Chapter 3, verse 22, and John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, synchronize perfectly, giving us THE PRESENT-CONTINUOUS UNVEILING OF JESUS CHRIST IN LAODICEA. Because we are looking at the mind of the Spirit of God for Laodicea, and we are asking: What is Jesus doing in Laodicea? Exactly! What is the Spirit of Jesus Christ showing us concerning Laodicea, in the light of God's plan of redemption? What is Christ doing today precisely? That is why I am taking this message this morning: GOD IN THE LAODICEAN AGE - THE YEAR 2005. Look at it this morning: During our last Convention or so, we took John Chapter 3, verse 16, which states: “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” We said that that verse of Scripture is all that the religious world sees, and that is all they want to see. And that is so true, although it is most pathetic, for it is very sad. For them, it is everything. But it is not everything! John Chapter 3, verse 16, only gives you the beginning of salvation, for that is where salvation starts. It does not unveil to you, for instance, the details of God's dealing in this Laodicean age, nor does it show you the dealings of God in the various ages of time that make up the Dispensation of Grace, called the seven church ages! It does not! Yet, we can trace the journey of the church right from her beginning to the end, strictly from the pages of the Bible! Consequently, you must realize that following Jesus is much more than just believing John Chapter 3, verse 16, for as I stated in that Convention, you must see the bigger picture! And that was the title of that message: See The Bigger Picture. This plan of salvation is much deeper and much more than just John Chapter 3, verse 16. Which is why, if you do not go beyond John Chapter 3, verse 16, you are certainly not going to know “the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven”, because it is utterly and absolutely impossible for you to understand the mysteries of the kingdom, unless you move on with the Spirit of Jesus Christ in the unveiling of His Word. Now my challenge is this: If you believe John Chapter 3, verse 16, what are you going to do with John Chapter 16, verse 12? If you believe John Chapter 3, verse 16, what are you also going to do with the PRESENT TRUTHS of the resurrected Christ buried in Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22? How are you going to use John Chapter 3, verse 16, to know precisely WHAT JESUS CHRIST IS SAYING AND DOING IN LAODICEA? Exactly! What are you going to do with these two crucial and fundamental texts of the Word of God? I pray God will give me the wisdom to share this message in a way that it will be plain to everybody. Brothers and sisters, this is the problem we have today in the Christian religious world, for all they see is John Chapter 3, verse 16, and on that basis, they are trying their possible best to live for God, and hopefully make it in the rapture. They have no understanding of the exact logistics that God has laid out in His Word for getting the bride ready for the rapture event. They do not know that there is a human angel messenger to Laodicea. So, how exactly are they going to know what the Spirit is saying presently and continuously to the church? How can they know anything, when they are not being led progressively into the truth of the Word of God? How can they know anything when they are totally ignorant of the prophetic dealings of Christ for this day and hour, strictly in the light of God's Holy Bible? That is why when you come to the deep things of the Spirit of God, the deep waters, they look at you like, "Where are you from?" And some who are even touched in their hearts by what they hear, for it rings a bell of truth deep in their hearts, are surprised; and they ask: "Where did you learn all that from? Are you a preacher?" Because they are impressed! Because for the past thirty-something years they have been going to church, all they see and know is John Chapter 3, verse 16! That is also the reason these men are building all sorts of ministries, however ridiculous it may be, for they have no clue to anything. I say that with respect and with humility; but it is the truth that they have no clue! Hence, they have no clue whatsoever to what God is doing in this age, for they do not even know that we are in an age called Laodicea, and neither do they have a clue about "THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans"! So, what can they tell us about Year 2005? Nothing! Absolutely nothing, except their false and carnal prophetic car sticker declarations describing what a year holds: "2014: The Year of Multiple Promotion"! Nonsense! And that is the sad condition of the religious world, wherever you look around the globe, for as it is written in Isaiah Chapter 28, verse 8: "For ALL TABLES ARE FULL OF VOMIT AND FILTHINESS, so that there is no place clean"! What happened in Year 2005? That is exactly what I want to project in this message, but I am taking my time on purpose. Church, it is very easy for me just to show you what God did in Year 2005; but I am first taking you on a journey, so everyone can appreciate where we are in time, within God's revealed plan of salvation, strictly in the light of the Word of God, which is the Holy Bible. You first have to see what God has mapped out for this very day, according to the record of the Scriptures; what God wants to accomplish. So, just bear with me. I must first show you the mind of the Spirit of Christ; what he wants to accomplish in this day, and how the religious world have taken a detour from it completely, and are following the wrong way, that you may truly appreciate what is ordained for this day and hour. I am taking the long route; but it is with a purpose. Please bear with me.

Brothers and sisters, William Kumuyi, the Founder and General Superintendent of Deeper Life Bible Church, is believed by members of his church as holding the entire fivefold ministry: He is the apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and teacher, put together. So that makes him Jesus the Christ by implication, which is heresy. And that is why all around the globe, when his branches hold service, they slot in his tape to listen to his sermons. And in Nigeria at least, whatever message is to be preached on Sunday, for instance, he makes the tape for it, and distributes it to all his branches. So, all his branches in Nigeria sit together, to listen to that same message on tape, wherever they are located.

That is the height of apostasy, for you deny the Spirit of inspiration which God gives to every man He calls into the ministry. It is the height of idolatry! But you cannot tell them that though. Yet, the truth of the matter is that the fivefold ministry is the ministry of Jesus Christ, for they are five ministerial attributes of God invested in Jesus by God the Father, for the salvation of Adam's lost race. But after Jesus died and rose from the dead, he divested himself of these five ministerial attributes, and invested them in men. And on the full and unquestionable authority of the Book of Ephesians, there is No one Man, and No one else, who has the fivefold ministry invested in him, for Jesus alone is the fivefold ministry rolled into one! Hence, it is written in Ephesians Chapter 4, verses 7-16: "But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore He" (God) "saith, When he" (who is Jesus Christ) "ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.(Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave SOME, apostles; and SOME, prophets; and SOME, evangelists; and SOME, pastors and" (SOME) "teachers." (And what exactly are these ministries for?) "FOR THE PERFECTING OF THE SAINTS, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the UNITY OF THE FAITH, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the FULNESS OF CHRIST. That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: From whom the whole body fitly joined together* and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

Consequently, on the authority of this passage of Scripture, which sets the fivefold ministry and its objectives, it is scripturally settled that the fivefold ministry are established strictly for the purpose of building up the universal body of saints, spiritually, until there is UNITY OF THE FAITH among the universal body of saints, and the bride body also attain PERFECTION, which is spiritual maturity. There is therefore none of them that peddle error, creeds and dogma, traditions and carnal ideas of men, nor will they peddle any Organizational ceremonies, or carry man-made programs, all of which are untruths, and all of which are spiritual leaven, for such is contrary to the very essence of their calling and ministry objective, as it will create nothing but confusion, and disunity of faith. They are ordained and anointed specifically to bring about Unity of spiritual understanding of the things of Christ, and Perfection to the universal bride church, until the bride universal become a complete and full embodiment of the FULNESS OF JESUS CHRIST. This simply means that by their guaranteed working, the universal body of Christ will come to the stature of the fullness of all that Christ is and has! Precisely! This is the fundamental purpose of their calling, and this is what they will accomplish, for it will be Christ working through them by his Spirit, because it is Christ in them, continuing the ministry work he started when he was here in the days of his flesh, when all these ministerial attributes were still in him. Therefore, Unity of faith AND Perfection are two fundamental and immutable requirements the bride of Christ must attain, in order for her to be ready for the return of Christ for the marriage in heaven. I repeat: The preparatory dealing of the bride and her readiness, demands two main things: Unity AND Perfection. Firstly, it requires Unity of the faith amongst a universal body of believers, that wherever we are located around the globe, whether in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, South Africa, Togo, India, the Philippines, Uganda, Nigeria, Ghana, or in Australia, wherever, we all believe the same thing, we all see the same picture, we are all standing for the same truth, and we are all upholding the same light, because we can see EYE TO EYE ON ISSUES OF FAITH, on issues of the Scriptures. This is so, because the Spirit of God draws only one picture, for the revelation of God is one; not two, and not three, but absolutely one. For there is revelatory harmony in God! But the vessels for the accomplishment of this, is the fivefold ministry. However, obtaining Unity and Perfection among a universal body of people takes time, which is why Paul said, "TILL WE ALL COME in the Unity of the faith"! But church, there is a beginning point for everything, and there is also an ending point for everything. Therefore, where is the beginning point for obtaining this Unity, and where is the ending point for it? Ephesians Chapter 4 gives us the Blueprint for Unity and Perfection. But it does not give us the Blueprint for how God gets the men, and how God puts them together, an issue that is most vital, most fundamental, for the men hold the key to true Unity and Perfection, within the universal body of elect seeds of God ordained as bride. Therefore, talking about the Blueprint for the men to occupy the Ephesian ministry is all a different kettle of fish. Here in Ephesians Chapter 4, we have the Blueprint for Unity and Perfection; but where is the Blueprint for the men? This issue borders on the infallible spiritual image-standard which is required of the bride of Christ, in order for her to be in a ready position at Christ's return. That is exactly why you have to look away from Denominations and Organized systems of religion, for they are leading nowhere. They have no clue! You have to look away from Organized systems of religion, because when we look at this thing called the Unity of faith and Perfection, you cannot apply it to Denominations, for they are dead, spiritually speaking. Every man in a Denomination is raised up and taught to teach the creeds and dogma of their organization. A Catholic priest teaches Catholic dogma; a Baptist priest preaches Baptist dogma; a Methodist priest preaches Methodist dogma; a Presbyterian priest preaches Presbyterian dogma. On and on it goes, right down to the Pentecostal preacher, who preaches Pentecostal creeds and dogma: Each one teaches the creeds and dogma of their organization, depending on the carnal vision of the man who set it up! But tell me how that affects a universal body of people, so as to bring a Unity of faith and Perfection, based strictly upon their knowledge of the Scriptures? It cannot be done! That lets you see that all they are building is away from God. Every last one of them are building away from God, because they do not have a clue to the Blueprint. But the question now is: How are you going to achieve Unity of faith amongst a universal body of people, without a global ministry body who see and teach the same thing? Because a disunited body of ministry cannot bring unity among the body of believers! And the next question is: How do you get the ministry body that is universal to see eye to eye? That is the issue! However, I must state that now, you are coming into the deep waters. This is not for the Denominational religious world, for they lost the way a long time ago; and have no clue about this, though they love to come to Ephesians Chapter 4, to take titles. They take big titles of ministries they do not understand, making themselves apostles without an ounce of divine revelation. They have their own Seminaries and Bible schools where they hatch out their ministers, certificated in the knowledge of their creeds and dogma and tradition, polished in their physical way of dressing and in pronouncing words, but completely empty of the divine revelation of the Word. They know how to solemnize marriages and bury the dead, for they are seasoned in holding burial services, and in all those carnal fleshly things of men. But when it comes to the things of the Spirit of Christ, particularly when you are going into the deep things of the Word, you lose them completely, for they are as ignorant as bats concerning things of the Spirit! What clue do they have to the Unity and Perfection of the bride of Christ? They are totally outside of the loop of God! There is not one of them that is thinking or preaching about the Unity of THE FAITH OF THE BIBLE, and PERFECTION of the universal bride body, which is spiritual maturity: The ability to know just how to look at things in the right way, and to have the right attitude towards it, regardless of what comes or goes! They are all about their individual programs and church creeds and dogma. They have no idea of the serious preparatory dealing the bride of Christ universal is having and must have, revelation-wise, by which she is to attain the Unity of the faith, and Perfection, in readiness for the return of Christ. That is why the entire religious world, as it stands today, is a mess, a complete mess, and it is nothing but Babylon, which is confusion! All you see is not a Unity of beliefs, but a Multiplicity of faiths. The Anglicans (or the Church of England) believe differently from the Presbyterians; the Presbyterians believe differently from the Baptists; the Baptists believe differently from the Methodists; the Methodists believe differently from the Catholics; the Catholics believe differently from the Lutherans; and the Lutherans believe differently from the Pentecostals. It is mass confusion! And when you come to the Pentecostal Organizational realm, brothers and sisters, every man in the ministry is simply doing their own thing. Morris Cerullo is doing his own. Is that right? Yes! Joel Osteen is doing his own thing; Kenneth Hagin is doing his own; Kenneth Copeland is doing his own; T. D. Jakes is doing his own thing; John Hagee is doing his own thing; Creflo Dollar is doing his own; Paul Crouch is doing his own thing with his wife; Joyce Meyer is doing her own; T. B. Joshua is doing his own thing; Chris Oyakhilome is doing his own thing; Matthew Ashimolowo is doing his own thing; D. K. Olukoya is doing his own thing; even the Caiaphas of the Pentecostals, Benny Hinn, is also doing his own thing. Are you with me? Everyone is doing their own thing! And none of these men see eye to eye. Listen to me: There is not any two of these men that believe the same thing, for they all do not see eye to eye on issues of faith, though they may co-operate with one another once in a while in holding meetings and crusades! And although some of them believe somehow in A fivefold ministry, they still believe pathetically, that it is one man here and one man there, each doing their own thing, that make up the Ephesians fivefold ministry. My, oh my! But yet, even if we accept their carnal way of looking at the fivefold ministry, (which we certainly do not accept), the truth is that their members do not sit under any other ministry, for it to even give a semblance that they are feeding under different men making up the fivefold ministry, except once in a while, when their pastor decides to hold a Convention of sorts, and he invites other men, whom they are merely co-operating with, for there is no unity of faith in any of it. Exactly! That is the truth! And as it is written in the Book of Amos Chapter 3, verse 3: Can two walk together unless they be agreed ON THE STRICT BASIS OF THE TRUTH? No! It is an absolute and emphatic No! So, tell me just how the Lord will accomplish the Unity of the faith and Perfection in that conglomeration of all these different voices? How will Ephesians Chapter 4, verses 11-16 be fulfilled? In these organizations, when the pastor dies, his son takes over the ministry. And if he has no son, his wife takes over, for it is strictly a family business! Morris Cerullo's son, David, has already taken over; John Hagee's son, Matthew, is already taking over, for he is being primed for that;

Frederick Price's son, Frederick Jr, has already taken over; John Osteen's son, Joel, has taken over. When Ben Idahosa died, his wife took over; when Anayo Iloputaife died, his wife took over; when Bimbo Odukoya died, her husband took over; and when Joyce Meyer dies, her husband will most likely take over, except they have children who can. Brothers and sisters, ask me: Who takes over the church of the living God? Whatever successor ministry God establishes on the ground is what takes over. It has nothing to do with family. If time tarries, and this was not the last move, you know Brother Victor will take over this local church; Not my apostolic ministry, but the Shepherdry of this local assembly. You know that! I say that because there is no Jason or Mark that I will be grooming to take over anything. I love my sons though, but this is not about family, but strictly about the ministry of God's people. This is God's terrain! But as a responsible father, I will give them every support they need in their academics, to make them have something to become responsible men, so they can stand on their own two feet, if time tarries. But when it comes to the ministry, there is nothing Jason or Mark has to do with it. And that is the truth! But all these men groom their own sons to take over, because it is a family business. They have invested so much in it; it is their empire. And as such, no stranger is coming to take over. And that just lets you see, brothers and sisters, that God is not in any of these things. "Oh, Brother Amos, how can you talk like that?" I am not saying that it is not serving a purpose of God, because God will use it. God uses everything! But God USING something is not the same as God being IN something. They are two different things, for Almighty God will use everything! So, I am not saying that these ministries are not a blessing in one way or the other, for they certainly have their good uses. Yes, alongside the material gospel of prosperity they carry around the globe, they also believe in good works. So, what do they do? They come to Africa from the United States: The poor women that do not have bras, they give them bras, because they cannot afford a bra. I have watched the advertisement of these ministries on cable network! Look at the smile they put upon the faces of poor African ladies who do not have bras, because they cannot afford it. They bring second hand bras. Here, schools are being built in some villages. And for the first time, water is also coming out of the taps piped to bore holes they have sunk, in place of the dirty and muddy water the people have been drinking. This is apart from the blankets, the mosquito nets, and the medication they send to help the poor. It is the work of these ministries. And who can condemn these things? They are certainly impacting people in various ways, however carnal it may be, because God is using it. However, the point is: What has that got to do with the plan of salvation? That is not what they are sent to do! That is not what they have been called to do, but to carry the full Gospel of Jesus Christ! And there is nothing they are doing that is going to prepare anybody for the return of Jesus Christ, because they are not set up for that! They are established far away from what God is doing; they are far removed from what God is doing today in Laodicea. Each man is doing his own thing, carrying a carnal material message! And if we look at it from that point, how will the Scriptures be fulfilled? So, God must be doing something different, away from all these things. God must be doing something somewhere. I am speaking to you this morning. God has to be doing something somewhere, away from all these things, a place where the fountain of truth is flowing, to show the right way to the elect seeds of God, God's true eagles. And you cannot know what God is doing, except you follow Christ in his revealed Word. What has God been doing in this last age, so that we can trace it up to Year 2005? What is God doing now? And where did it start? Saints, you will agree with me this morning, when you look out there in the religious world, everybody is doing his own thing; everybody has his own programs, what they tell us God has called them to do. This one says, "God told me to teach my people faith." So, all he is doing is teaching people his so-called faith, which is leading nowhere, because it is all outside the loop. Moreover, the faith he is talking about is not the revealed faith of the Word, which gives God's people a true understanding of the Scriptures, but rather, it is one for appropriating material blessings for the flesh, like healing, prosperity, and the security of his carnal life and material goods! It does not have anything to do with "the unity of THE FAITH" OF THE BIBLE! That is the testimony of Kenneth Hagin! He said God told him to teach His people faith, and that is all he does. All he is doing is teaching them faith for healing and miracles. That is all. They do not bother themselves about the deep things of the Spirit of God. The prophetic insight Jesus Christ said that the Spirit will show us in our day, the prophetic things of Christ, have no bearing or application to their ministries, and hence, it has no application to their members. This one comes, and he says: "My ministry is Love, God told me to show love. So my ministry is based on love." Oh, my goodness! Another one says: "My ministry is for Singles and Married." So, here goes another ministry, which is all about singles and married, dealing with marital issues, and people who are looking for husbands or wives flock there. There also goes another ministry, which is strictly for deliverance, fleshly deliverance, deliverance they do every day, and yet, their soul is as bound as bound can be, for only the truth of the Word of Christ can set the souls of men free! Another one's ministry is to give barren women children, for his commission is to give a million babies; he is a potential father of a million babies. My! Gentiles are a foolish people indeed! And when you look at the picture of the man on his billboard, with the many babies he is carrying in his two arms, he looks miserable. The man looks sick! He looks sick in the body; sick in the spirit; sick in his soul: Very sick looking! Have you not seen the advert on the Lagos - Ibadan expressway? Another one comes, and his ministry is to raise up “champions”, whatever that means. On and on the story goes around the globe, from Africa to the United States, to Brazil, to Europe, to Korea, to India! But tell me, who will preach the Full Gospel which preachers are called to preach? And what has all they are doing got to do with the plan of salvation, and with the mind of the Spirit of Jesus Christ concerning this age? Because you have to look at it prophetically in the light of the Scriptures: Because Revelation Chapter 3, verses 14 and 22 are staring this age in the face, for it is a prophetic picture applicable strictly in this Laodicean age! How do you apply it? Every last one of these men has their ministry established on carnal visions, which is why they are just doing their own thing. They go round the world though, holding crusades, but it is still their own thing they are doing!

Because what they do does not affect a universal body of people, as to bring about Unity of understanding of the Scriptures! You all know that that is the truth! Yet, there is a glorious spiritual state the bride must attain, in order to be acceptable to Jesus Christ, as the Book of Ephesians Chapter 5, verse 27 declares, beginning from verse 26, which states: “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he” (Jesus Christ) “might sanctify and cleanse it with THE WASHING OF WATER BY THE WORD, That he might present it to himself A GLORIOUS CHURCH, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.” Where are we going to put this infallible and immutable standard of acceptability for the true bride, the bride of the end time? And just how do we accomplish it in a religious world that has lost the way completely; a world filled with palpable unbelief of the Scriptures; an apostate world, who have thrown away the Word of God, for it no longer has any relevance, having been relegated to become just an historical book? Think about it! Ephesians Chapter 5 gives us the condition she MUST attain, and it is a condition she WILL attain, a spiritual condition which synchronizes perfectly with the divine objective for the establishment of the fivefold ministry, recorded in Ephesians Chapter 4, verse 11-13, which is the “perfection of the saints”, for she is going to be THE BEAUTIFUL BRIDE; a most glorious one indeed, such as the world has never seen, for she is the crème de la crème of God. Church, I ask: Where are you going to apply the washing of water by the Word, through which she gets in perfect spiritual shape? Where are you going to apply it? You cannot apply it in the Denominational and Organizational world! You have to apply it only where the unveiling of the truths of Jesus Christ of the Bible is f l o w i n g CONTINUOUSLY without any restraints, a place where the Word of God is The ABSOLUTE; a place where Truth Reigns Supreme, thereby bringing about the washing of water by the Word of God! This now brings us to the very beginning of this Laodicean church age. We want to see the opening of the age, as we now consider the Moves of God in Laodicea, strictly in the light of the written Word of God, bringing it up to Year 2005, that we may see precisely what God did in that Year of 2005, and by so doing, that we see what God is doing right now in the earth, for God is doing something in furtherance of His plan of Gentile salvation, for the elect bride church, in her readiness for the rapture. But please note that, Whatever God does in this last age, MUST BE IN FURTHERANCE of His revealed plan of getting a bride in perfect readiness for the rapture, which is why we looked at the demands of God in Ephesians Chapters 4 and 5! This is the infallible and unchanging yardstick by which to determine and measure what God does in Laodicea. You must note that. Please, now come with me.

Brothers and sisters, in his resurrection revelation, Jesus Christ addressed this age prophetically in Revelation Chapter 3, verses 14-22. But in that prophetic address, he started with one man's ministry, "THE ANGEL of the church of the Laodiceans", a man who was born on the 6th of April, 1909, in Cumberland County, Kentucky, USA, and who was commissioned in a cave in 1946, to carry a healing campaign around the globe. By this Commission, God used him to set in motion the dragnet parable of Matthew Chapter 13, which is the seventh parable, a parable applicable strictly in the seventh and final age, and immediately after the Second World War, a war which ended in 1945. However, prior to this event, in 1933, as he was baptizing hundreds of people in the Ohio River, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in broad day light. My wife and I have been privileged to visit that very site on the Ohio River a few times. We even had lunch and dinner there, because they have a number of restaurants right there on that riverside now, which did not exist in the prophet's day. But in that divine angelic manifestation in the form of a bright star, which suddenly descended from heaven, and was visible to everyone there present, the angel spoke out of that light, declaring: "As John the Baptist forerun the first coming of Christ, so you will carry A MESSAGE that will forerun his second coming." Please note that at this material time, he was still a local Baptist preacher, but he bluntly refused against all pressure to baptize as the Baptists do, because he knew the truth that water baptism is strictly by full immersion in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, which proves in spiritual reality, that indeed, he was not asleep. And he was the only man in Laodicea, who in that day was wide awake, being the Midnight Crier of Matthew Chapter 25, verse 6. And truly, if he had to give the Midnight Cry, which is the A w a k e n i n g a n d

Preparatory Message for the bride of Christ, he could not be sleeping as well. Whilst all the virgins were sleeping, both wise and foolish, the Midnight Crier was wide awake and watching, in order to give the Midnight Cry. And that lets you see, that even though a Baptist, he did not preach or teach Baptist creeds or dogma, for he knew truth from error. Exactly! He was the man ordained of God to carry the light for this age, as its star messenger. It was after this angelic manifestation on Ohio River in 1933, that the Lord met with him in a cave in May 1946, giving him a Commission to carry a healing message around the world, a move by which all the virgins would be awakened, although the main objective of that move was to get the elect bride. Brothers and sisters, 1946 is exactly where the Move of God started FOR THE BRIDE of Jesus Christ, in this last age. And right here is where the ministry of the star messenger of Revelation Chapter 3, verse 14, was set in motion. However, I must point out that this is not where the Move of God started in Laodicea, for as a matter of fact, the age began some years before he was born. This age was opened up in 1901, when men began to pray for the Spirit, men like Charles Parham, men who laid the foundation for the Spirit that later fell in 1906, for they had seen something in the Scriptures. They saw the moving of the Spirit in the Book of Acts, Spirit manifestations and gifts, and God began to stir their hearts to the reality of it, which caused them to begin to seek the face of God in prayers, for the experience. Finally, On 31st December, 1900, in Topeka, Kansas, USA, Charles Parham held a Night Watch Prayer Meeting in the chapel of his Bible School, at the Bethel Bible Institute, where 75 people were assembled, including the 40 students who attended the school. After midnight, that is on 1st January, 1901, one of the students, Agnes N. Ozman, asked that hands be laid on her to receive the Spirit, as she desired to do missionary work abroad. And when Charles Parham laid hands on her, the anointing fell on her; she began to speak in a Chinese tongue, and was unable to speak English for 3 days! According to Parham: “I had scarcely repeated three dozen sentences when a glory fell upon her, a halo seemed to surround her head and face, and she began speaking in Chinese language, and was unable to speak English for three days. When she tried to write in English to tell us of her experience, she wrote in Chinese, copies of which we still have in newspapers printed at that time.” They continued the prayer meeting for two more days, and God blessed the people with the gift of diverse tongues. Charles Parham’s ministry was extended a few years later to Houston, Texas, with the message of this experience, where it caught the attention of William J. Seymour, an African-American, who then became one of his students and co-worker. This laid the foundation for the Pentecostal Revival fire that later fell, as William Seymour took the message to Los Angeles, California. For finally, in 1906, the fire fell in Azusa Street California, the year God restored the gifts of the Spirit. This is the Move that produced the Pentecostal Movement, or the Oil Movement, a people who carried the Oil message, which is that you must be filled with the Holy Spirit. This Oil Move in 1906, is what kick started the parable of the wise and foolish virgins of Matthew Chapter 25. 1906 is therefore a key year in God's revealed program, because that was the year the fire of the Spirit fell, in a dilapidated building in Azusa Street, California, when the Lord restored the gifts of the Spirit, thereby activating the parable of the wise and foolish virgins of Matthew Chapter 25, a parable which was jump started by the Oil Message which the Pentecostals bore. I have been privileged to visit that very location with my wife, where the building once stood. But unfortunately, as we speak this morning, the building no longer exists. It has been torn down, and a car garage is now standing right there where that building used to be. The sad thing is that although many saw the move and rejoiced in it, and also appropriated the blessings of it, however, not many knew what God was doing, and why. They did not see the objective. They just loved the blessings, and that was all they saw and wanted, for there was no revelatory move to it, except the move of the Spirit. Church, the Pentecostal Movement enjoyed that move, and tonight, the world speaks glowingly of that Move, and books upon books and endless magazines, are being written on that Move. But the pathetic thing as I earlier stated, is that they do not know what the Spirit was doing. They do not know the mind of the Spirit concerning that Move. They just saw the Move, appropriated the Move, received its blessing, seeing the power side, without an understanding of what the Spirit was doing; why it happened; and what it was meant to accomplish. And that is why they never moved on! And till this very day, they never did. Therefore, it is one thing seeing a Move, it is quite another thing understanding what God is seeking to establish, what God is doing, in and through that Move. And you can receive the blessings of a Move, and still lose out. Because there is a revelation, there is a mind of the Spirit of Christ that the bride of Christ is supposed to have, of what the Lord is doing, and precisely why! It is to know God's objective for making the Move! And if truly we are his, and we have his mind, then his Spirit that is in us, will give us a revelation of the mind of Jesus, of his plan, and of his Move, so that we not only follow the Move, but we know exactly why the Master is doing it, and what exactly it is supposed to accomplish, that we may be in tune with God in His perfect will. That is a person who has a hearing ear, for it is a revealed ear! So, as I stated, they enjoyed that Move, and how they speak glowingly of it till this day. When the Pentecostal Movement was a hundred years old in 2006, they printed a lovely magazine with a glossy finish to celebrate it, of which I have a copy. In that magazine, they barely mentioned Brother Branham. They gave more glory to Kathryn Kuhlman than to the prophet. Yet, this was a woman who was used by the devil to blind the people, for there was no ounce of divine revelation in her message, other than to carry mere sensations, mere manifestations of the Spirit, lacking in redeeming power! It is very important that I make this point at this particular junction in this message, that the Charismatic Movement, which grew out of the Pentecostal Movement in 1960, was a Movement which took the gift of tongues (or glossolalia), in the main, along with that of healing and the gift of prophecy, into the Denominational world. And regardless of their beliefs, the Move thrived within the Orthodox systems of religion, namely: the Episcopal Church (or the Anglican Communion), the Lutheran Church, the Baptist Church, the Methodist Organization, and even the Roman Catholic Church. It was

David Du-Plessis, a South African Pentecostal preacher, who took speaking in tongues to the Pope in the Vatican, and taught the priests of Rome to speak in tongues! Thus, because of the Charismatic Movement, and in particular, with the use of glossolalia (tongues), the Pentecostals were binded with the Denominational world. This therefore opened up the door for the Pentecostals to join the World Council of Churches, or WCC, which is the "Image of the Beast", in the great Ecumenical push, for before this time, they had been loathed and shunned by the Denominational world. This was a pathetic and most deceptive move of Satan: For it is an absolute certainty that God does not place signs ahead of His Word, for the Word of God supersedes all spirit manifestation! All gifts and spirit manifestations must not only be expressed according to the Scriptures, they must also be subject to the rulership of the written Word of God, for the Word of God is the Absolute standard of Truth and true spirituality!

However, according to the word of the Master recorded in the Gospel of Saint Matthew Chapter 13, verse 30, "the TARES" must be bound together, to be burnt later in the lake of fire, after the White Throne Judgment, just as it is written: "...Gather ye together FIRST the tares, and BIND THEM IN BUNDLES to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn", (in the rapture). Therefore, the tongue (or Glossolalia) Movement played a key role in the process of binding tares together at this end time. The present day lone-ranger ministries of Organizational preachers like Benny Hinn, which we have around us today, evolved out of the Charismatic Movement, which is exactly why they carry no revelation of truth, except money and materialism, which is idolatry. This is precisely why we watch the Word, and hence the reason we are yoked firmly and solely to the Word; for we esteem it above any spirit manifestation, however fantastic or spectacular it may be, even though we also believe in true Holy Ghost manifestations. Furthermore, still talking about Kathryn Kuhlman, she peddled an idolatrous version of the Godhead, cutting God into three, and placing serious emphasis on the so-called "Third Person", making the Holy Spirit God into the third person of the so-called "Trinity", when there is only ONE GOD, Elohim, the Lord God of Israel, who incarnated His Son at the Jordan River, in order to empower him for the work of redemption! As it is written in 2 Corinthians Chapter 5, verse 19: "To wit, that God was IN CHRIST, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation." Hence, Colossians Chapter 2, verse 9, states concerning Jesus Christ, declaring: "For IN HIM dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily", showing plainly that the Son is not IN the Godhead, but that the Godhead is IN HIM, for God is IN him, in all of His divine attributes, by virtue of the incarnation! Moreover, God is not even a person, (for He is not flesh and blood), has never been a person, and will never be a person, but a Spirit, the Holy Spirit, an invisible omnipresent Spirit. For as Jesus plainly declared in John Chapter 4, verse 24: "GOD IS A SPIRIT: and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in Truth." Brothers and sisters, even the glory that should be given to Brother Branham, the man who spearheaded the Post World War 2 Healing Revival that broke out around the globe, was given to Gordon Lindsay, as they presented it like it was Gordon Lindsay, his campaign manager for a period of time, that made him what he was! This pack of hypocrites! This pack of unbelievers! How foolish men can be! You know, they forget the Scripture which declares in Proverbs Chapter 18, verse 16: "A MAN'S GIFT MAKETH ROOM FOR HIM, AND BRINGETH HIM BEFORE GREAT MEN." You can organize all the crusades you want; if there is nothing in your ministry, you will accomplish nothing. The rare power of the resurrected Christ he packed, was what drew the untold multitudes to his ministry, for he made the Bible live! The Pentecostals did not understand the Move they had; for it was still an extension of the Reformation, wherein God was slowly but steadily restoring things back to the body that was lost, and she still had a long way to go, for she was still far from the church we see revealed in the Book of Acts. Hence I keep emphasizing the fact that you can follow something, and receive the blessing of something, without revelation. Revelation is what you must log onto, for that is what lets you see precisely what God is doing, and the very objective for it, that you may get yourself in tune with the perfect will of God. Brothers and sisters, 1906 is precisely where God's dealing with this age starts, and as such, that year forms an important marker of God in this Laodicean church age. However, brothers and sisters, you have to see that the details we laid out this morning, is not so plainly written anywhere in the Scriptures. You will have to follow the Spirit of Christ, in order to know precisely what he is doing in establishing God's plan of salvation in this age. Hence, Jesus declared in John Chapter 16, verses 12-13: "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO ALL TRUTH: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: AND HE WILL SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME", which are the things of Christ applicable in our day and hour of time. In that day, God used an African-American, William Seymour, to spearhead the Pentecostal Movement. And that racial move in itself was a pointer that as God started this age with a black man, so He is also going to end the age with another black man; not one from America, but from Africa, which is the continent of Ham. Saints, please note therefore, that although the age began in 1901, nevertheless, the Move of God for the Age, Not for the bride, but for the age, started in 1906. And William Seymour was the chosen vessel God used to open up the age. And if God had a man to open it up, surely He also has to have a man to close it: Because the Lord is Alpha and Omega; He is the beginning and the end; He is the same yesterday, the same today, and the same forever. So if God used a man to open it up, He has to use another man to close it as well, for God is perfect in all His ways, and His ways are immutable or unchangeable. That is a settled spiritual fact, for indeed, God has such a chosen vessel to close out this last age, and we shall lay out this truth in this message, from the pages of the Word of God. However, after the Pentecostal Movement had accomplished God's purpose, for the Doctrines of the Oneness of God and Water Baptism by full immersion, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, had also been restored to this age through them, the First World War broke out in July 1914, and it lasted until November 1918, leaving many dead, and many injured. Then later came the Second World War of 1939-1945, leaving the whole of Europe in utter ruins, and with several millions dead, and many more injured. With the devastating, demoralizing, and most terrible effects the Second World War, which ended in 1945, had on the religious world, Christendom was now completely sound asleep, spiritually, in dire need of the dealing of God by His Spirit. This brings us to 1946, a pivotal year when God ignited a Move that would awaken all of Christendom, which gives us the Midnight Cry, by the Commission William Branham received in the cave, a Move that would also catch the bride of Jesus Christ, who at that material time were all scattered in Christendom.

In 1946, as I stated earlier, God anointed His chosen vessel, the Elijah-Star Messenger to this Laodicean age, William Branham, and the Lord used him to spearhead the Post World War 2 Healing and Deliverance Revival that broke out in the world, in fulfilment of the Dragnet parable of Matthew Chapter 13, whereby God raised up healing evangelists around the globe, burning the world with a healing campaign. But that move came to a close around the late fifties, and his ministry changed into that of the principal householder "SCRIBE" of Matthew Chapter 13, verse 52, a move by which the living Word of God was opened up to the bride of Christ, on an unparalleled scale, giving us the activation of the "Third Pull" of his ministry, the third and highest phase of his ministry, which is divine revelation: The unveiling of the written Word. But it is very important that we also know that the Third Pull did not stop, once it was set in motion, for it gives the bride unhindered and unparalleled accessibility to the divine revelation of Jesus Christ; it gives us the deep things of the Spirit of Christ, buried in the pages of the Holy Bible, things which in other ages were not made known to the sons of men. Consequently, we must realize that the Third Pull is A REVELATORY MOVE that is ongoing, through the apostolic ministry, for it is progressive and hence continuous, and it ends only in the prophetic ministry of the seven thunders. Also note that although the Move through William Branham was the second Move of God in this age, following the Pentecostal Move; but with regards to the bride of Christ, it was the very first move; for it was this move that God used to CALL OUT a people from the Organized systems of religion, as the bride of Christ, by the Message of the Bible he bore as the Elijah-star messenger, that we may walk with God strictly in the light of the Scriptures. This great calling out, or this great exodus, was on a spiritual plane from spiritual Egypt, the religious world bearing creeds and dogma, and hand-me-down traditions, which bind the souls of men to death. The truth of the Word he bore began to break yokes, setting the elect seeds of God free, from all broken systems of religion in which they were bound. In 1960, God raised the stakes, focusing mainly on truth, the unveiling of the Word, and the Lord used him to give us An Exposition of The Seven Church Ages, The Seventy Weeks of Daniel, The Original Sin, and The Serpent Seed Doctrine, as the rich and deep light of Jesus Christ began to break forth for the bride. And in 1963, here came the Revelation of the Seals, the icing on the cake. For the first time, we saw Revelation Chapters 1, 2, 3, and 6, on a level and a depth we never could have imagined, in its perfect light. What a difference it made! Brothers and sisters, the totality of his message gives us the "SHOUT" of 1 Thessalonians Chapter 4, verse 16, which is none other than Jesus IN a man, BY HIS SPIRIT, GIVING FORTH THE SHOUT; just as it was Jehovah God IN Moses, BY HIS SPIRIT, BRINGING OUT THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL from Egyptian bondage. The shout is a message Jesus sent to the earth at this evening time, to get a bride, thereby setting in motion the re-establishment of the true church, which is strictly a called out CHURCH, AND also to prepare her to get in the right spiritual shape, in readiness for the rapture. The shout, therefore, is the first step into the rapture, and it is a prophetic step, being a prophetic move. However, please note that what Apostle Paul referred to as "A Shout", is what Jesus had earlier referred to in 33 AD., as The Midnight Cry. Both prophecies synchronize, for they relate to the same awakening AND preparatory message Christ sends to the earth at this evening time, which is a prophetic message, a message which gives us the FIRST STEP into the rapture event. Period! And all of us have been affected by the shout, which is his message, whether we heard it directly from reading his message, or we heard it from the mouths of those who have been affected by it. This is so, because by this message, we were all called out of the dead systems of religion, that we may follow Jesus Christ strictly by the light of the written Word, so that from the pages of the Bible, Jesus can begin to deal directly and intimately with us, being his bride, giving us the deep and precious revelations of himself, that by this, we may grow up into his divine image. For this most crucial purpose, God used the prophet to lay the foundation of truth, for the re-establishment of the Ephesian fivefold ministry, just as He had used John the Baptist, the Elijah of that day, to influence the twelve original Jewish apostles, to recognize and also to walk with Jesus Christ. And as such, he that hath an ear in this day, he that is truly an elect seed of God ordained as bride, has to hear his voice, for it is the voice of Jesus of the Bible sounding forth through him. However, by the time he gave the totality of the messages that would make up his voice, as the star messenger to Laodicea, God called him home on 24th December, 1965. But before he was called home, because he was the principal vessel of God to his age, and the man whom was used of God to lay the foundation for the re-establishment of the original fivefold ministry, beginning with the end time apostolic fathers of faith, and starting precisely with the beginning office of it all, which is the office of Saint Paul, the chief apostle, God used Brother

Branham to post the bride forward prophetically, concerning the last two consecutive moves of Christ, which will close out God's dealing in Laodicea. Brothers and sisters, as the star messenger to this age, and particularly, being the last star messenger to the grace age, the man whose message forms a scaffold around the true revelation of Jesus Christ at this end time, therefore, his message had to lay out fundamental truths that would constitute the foundation for all other truths to come, for all continuity revelations which were and are to come, would all come within the parameters of his message, for they would all fall within the structure of his message, because the message of Jesus Christ of the Bible is one, though progressive. This is so, because he is the principal vessel of God for the carriage of the true light of Jesus Christ in this last age! Furthermore, and for the same reason, he also had to touch on every major subsequent move God will make in this last age called the Laodicean church age! Consequently, coming back to pick up the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ to this age, recorded in the Book of Revelation Chapter 3, verse 14, please remember that Brother Branham was the man carrying the principal voice of Jesus Christ to this age, within the structure of verse 22, a verse which gives us the progressive and continuous revelation of the Lord. The issue, however, is this: Whilst the religious world do not see his ministry or message, on the other hand, and most pathetically, his message is all that the Branham Movement see, and that is all they will accept, and that is all they want to hear, for they do not see or understand the progressive application of Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, which clearly warns: “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit SAITH UNTO THE CHURCHES”, (PRESENTLY AND CONTINUOUSLY, until the age is over, and the Lord comes)! As such, every eagle of God must understand, that we cannot put a full stop to the revelation of Christ Jesus, because his revelation is never stationary or stagnant, but is inherently progressive, God's revelation being continuous. His revelation is the living water, which is the water of life, and therefore, it is ever flowing, for it is an ever flowing stream of life. You just cannot put a stop to the revelation of Jesus Christ, which is why Revelation Chapter 3, verse 22, gives us a present AND continuous unveiling of the mind of the Spirit of Jesus Christ to the age. Therefore, and please note what I am about to say, therefore, whichever vessel God ordains to carry on the light of Jesus for the body of Christ, from the pages of the Bible, will be a man whose ministry testimony has to be found within the pages of the revelation of the truth the angel star messenger to this age brought. There has to be a testimony concerning his move in the Message, for the Message is one, and the Spirit of Christ always points forward, bearing a testimony of that which is to come. Do not forget that the Lord has promised in

John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, that when the Spirit of Truth is come, he will lead us into all Truth, and SHOW US THINGS TO COME. He does this, Not by heaven opening up for everybody to see and hear Jesus Christ speaking directly from heaven, but strictly through the chosen vessel of light he has established in the earth for the body of saints. The Spirit will show us plural things to come, things which Jesus said were “many things” he still had to tell us, but which things the Spirit will give to us. That is a key text, showing that whatever junction of time the Bride is here, God has to be dealing with her in the light, in prophetic revelation, showing her precisely the things the Lord has in mind for that very day and junction of time.

As I said earlier, the prophet to this age passed away in December 1965. But before he passed away, the Lord inspired him to point the way forward, prophetically, just as Jesus said that the Comforter will do; for he said that the Spirit of Truth will take the things of Christ and show us things to come. Therefore, being prophetically inspired by the Spirit of Christ, Brother Branham spoke in various messages of a take-over ministry; a successor torch bearer, which is none other than the starting office of the apostolic fold of the fivefold ministry, the office of "The apostle" or the chief apostle, which is the office Paul bore, which is THE FIRST FRUIT OF ELIJAH'S MINISTRY. First, William Branham said in January, 1963, in his message titled, Spirit of Truth: "It may be my home going-time. It looks very much that way. If it is, THERE WILL RISE SOMEBODY AFTER ME THAT'LL TAKE THE MESSAGE ON. He'll be an odd person, but he'll rise after this and TAKE THE MESSAGE ON. AND YOU LISTEN TO IT. AS LONG AS IT'S SCRIPTURE, STAY WITH IT." Then about two months later, in March, 1963, when he was preaching on The Seventh Seal, he also declared: "It may be time, it may be the hour now, that THIS GREAT PERSON THAT WE'RE EXPECTING TO

RISE ON THE SCENE may arise on the scene. Maybe this ministry, that I have tried to take people back to the Word, has laid a foundation; and if it has, I'll be leaving you, for good. THERE WON'T BE TWO OF US HERE THE SAME TIME. See? If it is, he'll increase; I'll decrease. I don't know. But I have been privileged, by God, to look and see what It was, see, see unfold to that much. Now that is the Truth." He made this prophetic and most crucial declaration, simply because God does not set two men in the earth at the same time, to carry the standard of His Word. Therefore, one standard bearer goes another comes, to move the children of God on in the light of God. Saints of God, these two testimonies point to just one man, Raymond Jackson, the chief apostle of this end time in Laodicea, the man who occupied the starting office of the apostolic fold of the original Ephesian fivefold ministry! For with his ministry being set in motion in 1966, the fivefold ministry was now on, potentially, only because there is a divine scriptural order for its establishment! This set the Second Great Thing of THE THIRD PULL in motion, for it is the apostolic ministry's revelation Input, carrying on The Third Pull. Brothers and sisters, this brings us to the 1966 junction of time, when God initiated His third move in this age through Raymond Jackson, whom He anointed to carry the light for the bride universal, a move which is actually His second move for the bride of Christ. Yes, other men were also rising up in the Organized religious world; but none of them carried the light of the Word that could impact the universal elect bride, in her readiness for the rapture, for their ministries had absolutely nothing to do with Ephesians fivefold ministry, and God's fundamental objective for the Unity of faith AND Perfection! Brothers and sisters, when that man was set in motion, God used him to carry on the Third Pull, because it gives us the divine revelation of the Word of God, in its progressive and continuous light. Hence, he went into the deep things of the Spirit of God for thirty nine solid years, unveiling the Word of life, taking us deeper than what we received from the prophet to this age! Saints, that man opened up the Scriptures, and laid it bare, for in fulfilment of Brother Branham's prayer at the end of his message on The Seventh Seal, RAYMOND JACKSON PACKED THE TRUTH! Read the Contender with your Bible! Read it! It took that man to take the Message of Brother Branham, a man that spoke in duality on virtually every subject of the Bible; it took that man to take his dual statements, and put it together in proper scriptural parlance, to give us a true understanding of his Message and ministry, explaining to us scripturally, why he spoke in duality, what it was meant to accomplish, and what we are to do with the dual statements: We bring everything back to the Word of God, take that which flushes perfectly with the Bible, and leave on the shelf what does not flush with the written Word, because that is for tares to run with. It is God's separating process at this end time, a process God built into the message. This is so, because God knows tares have no love for truth; but they can only see the supernatural ministry of a man, and they will run after that man, for they love sensations, but have no respect or value for the Word of life. Hence, God also decided to give them "winds" or a "FAN" of doctrine, which He built into the Message of the end time Elijah, as a means of blowing them away from the grounds of truth: for according to Matthew Chapter 13, verses 41-43, there must be separation of seeds, in order for there to be perfection at this end time. Whilst tares take the statements of a man above the Word of God, and run with it, in gross disregard for the Holy Bible, the bride elects on the other hand, take only that which is the truth of the Scriptures, and reject anything and everything contrary to the Scriptures. Brothers and sisters, that is why Brother Jackson took a message titled, The Fan In Christ's Hand, opening up the "fan" in Matthew Chapter 3, verse 12, in order to explain the unusual ministry of the end time Elijah. For in his ministry, the promise of the separation of the two seeds, which God made in the parable of the wheat and tares in Matthew Chapter 13, was set in motion! Brother Jackson was used to tie up a lot of loose ends of the Message of Elijah, and he was also used to fortify the foundation of the truth that had already been established, being a man that occupied the office of the principal foundation layer for the entire church body, in the early church. For thirty nine solid years, he bore an astounding light, opening up the Scriptures on a level that highly lifted up the Message we received, beginning from the Book of Genesis to the Book of Revelation. Indeed, under his ministry, the fountain of truth was simply gushing out, and we were established in the Word solid like a rock! Yes! It is the Lord's doing. But he was the vessel that the Lord used to open up the truth concerning the Ephesian fivefold ministry, and to place serious emphasis on that ministry, its order of establishment, its working, and its objective, laying it all out scripturally, that we may see the fivefold ministry in its true light; for the prophet only pointed us to it, as the bride ministry to come. Therefore, I am not ashamed, and neither am I afraid to confess, that I know what I know today, only because I followed William Branham, AND the Continuity Message which Raymond Jackson bore, for the bride of Christ universal, from the pages of the Scriptures, all under the leadership of Jesus Christ the Son of God. And eventually, on the 4th December, 2004, he also passed away. 1966 is therefore a crucial year in the calendar of the bride, for it set in motion the apostolic ministry of the end time bride, showing that the original fivefold ministry was now on its way, and shall be established in its precise scriptural order. This now brings us to the Year 2005. So what happened in 2005? Brothers and sisters, before Brother Jackson passed away, like Brother Branham, Jesus Christ also used him to show us the way forward, for he also showed us the things that Christ will do subsequently in this same age, in moving the bride of Christ on in the light, according to God's revealed plan of Gentile salvation. It is so, because the Spirit of Christ is still talking! And he that hath an ear, Must hear what THE SPIRIT IS SAYING! This brings us time-wise, to the third junction of time in Laodicea, for the bride, although it is the fourth junction of time in this last age, beginning with the Move of God through William Seymour. But the Move of God was essentially to restore the gifts of the Spirit, and not to get the bride. Consequently, with regards to the bride, the passing away of Brother Jackson brings us to THE THIRD AND FINAL MOVE OF GOD, the third and final phase of God's dealing with the Gentile bride, and three is the number of perfection, for God is perfect in three. And concerning this third move of God, in the Contender message titled, The Great Mystery, Part 2, page 3, columns 3-4, talking of the voice or the message of the angel of Revelation Chapter 10, verse 7, Raymond Jackson plainly declared: “(The message,” (which is the message of the star messenger to Laodicea), “began to be sounded to this age, and a short time later God took the physical man from us, but He did not take THE VOICE, because that pertains to the things that had been spoken”, (for they constitute his voice, as the seventh angel, a voice which is to go round the world to catch the bride. Therefore, “the mystery of God”, which is the grafting in of the Gentiles into the commonwealth of Israel, “should” be completed in the days of his voice). “Should”: The word should is a progressive word; that does not mean instantly: it means progressively. It literally means all that the man brought, has to be understood by the elect people that will be the Bride of Christ in the end time. They have to see clearly what it all points to. Also within that time frame, GOD WILL RAISE UP A MINISTRY WHICH WILL BE THE THIRD PHASE of what He is starting to do in restoring the Bride to originality.

(Did you hear that? He said that God will raise up a singular ministry, which will be the third phase of what He started through the star messenger to this age. But he added concerning this third Move): “That is the part, I have to say, that the overall Movement does not want anyone else to do or even have any part in. You can say that God sent a prophet, but then if God was to say He was going to raise up other men, you deny that fact and refuse to listen to anyone else. THAT IS TO YOUR OWN HURT.” How and when do we apply this third move? This is where I have to point out, (for it is most important for us to realize), that the testimony of Raymond Jackson and that of William Branham, with respect to the third and final Move of God in this last age is one, and their time application is also one, for they are perfectly synchronized in their prophetic projection, because the Spirit of the Lord is one, and He only draws one perfect and infallible picture. He is not the author of confusion, but of peace, and of perfect revelatory harmony.

Now, talking squarely of Year 2005, I will start with the testimony of Brother Jackson, and link it with that of Brother Branham, and marry them together, for they are one. We all know that the true ministry of Jesus Christ is one, and also that the true body of Jesus Christ is also one, for God is absolutely and unchangeably one. In starting with Brother Jackson's testimony, I will first give the witness his wife gave to Sister Ivba Onyebuoha, concerning Year 2005. Sister Ivba's written testimony states: “We had just received the news of Brother Jackson's death. It had left us very sad and worried about what next to do, and where next to look, for scriptural leadership. So I decided to place a call to Faith Assembly through a number I had used in the past to contact them. The phone had never been answered the couple of times I had called in the past, maybe because of the time difference, which I was not aware of at that time, till my elder Sister, who lives in the United States with her husband, explained it to me. Because of this, I waited till 6pm that day in the office, long after closing hours, to be able to place the call, for a convenient USA time. I do not remember exactly the day, but I do know that I had stayed back at the office till 6pm in the evening, to place my call. The phone rang and I asked to speak with Brother Jackson's wife, after introducing myself to the person that had picked up the phone. She came on the line, and wanted to know if I was from Bro Segun's church, which is Brother Amos, since I mentioned that I was calling from Nigeria. She said he was the only one she knew from Nigeria. I said no, but that we were also followers of the ministry of Brother Jackson, and that I wanted to confirm if truly Brother Jackson had passed away. [At that time we were not yet following Brother Amos' Ministry]. She confirmed that Brother Jackson had passed away. In the course of the conversation, which went on for a while, I noticed with some surprise that she was not downcast, because she was even the one encouraging me; and she began to say quite a few things I can't recall today, because I was frankly awed by the fact that she was speaking with me. I didn't expect a long conversation, since she didn't know me, and talking to her was the closest I came in physical contact with the ministry of my precious Brother Jackson. So I was so awed and afraid, I didn't catch a lot of things she said, but I clearly heard her say that BRO. JACKSON HAD TOLD HER THAT SOMETHING WAS FIXING TO HAPPEN IN YEAR 2005, FOR THE BRIDE UNIVERSAL. HE HAD TOLD HER TO WATCH THE YEAR 2005. Since I didn't understand what she meant, I told it to no one, and didn't remember any of it, until I came to Bible Faith Tabernacle, in Bajulaye, Shomolu, Lagos, in Year 2008, where I heard Bro. Amos making some comments about the Year 2005 in his office, as he discussed with my husband. There and then I remembered my conversation with Sis Opal Jackson three years back, and I told it to them right there in the office, for the very first time. A lot of things she said then didn't hold the meaning they should have had for me, for I did not know the much I do today, by God's grace. My only goal was to confirm that Bro. Jackson was dead, as we had heard here in Nigeria. Today I know and understand a whole lot of things I did not know back then. God bless you." So, I ask: What happened in Year 2005? What did Brother Jackson say would take place in 2005? What were we to watch for? I will say it this way: Whatever God did in Year 2005, is precisely what God has used to bring us to the very junction of time we are now in, in 2014. I repeat: Whatever happened back there in 2005, is the means by which we are precisely where we are today in the bride of Jesus Christ. During the September, 2003 Fall Convention at Faith Assembly, on the night I was to preach on, The Position of The Bride Ministry, a message went forth in tongues by a sister during worship, and the interpretation came forth by Raymond Jackson, who prophesied thus: "My children, this is another occasion that I the living God have provided and set for thee, the establishment of my purpose. I HAVE SAID IN FORMER TIMES, THAT AS THE DAYS DRAW NEAR, I WILL DO A STRANGE THING AMONGST MY PEOPLE; THINGS THAT WILL BEGIN TO TEAR AWAY, THE OLD TRADITIONS OF MAN'S THINKING. For I say to you my little children, This is the way thou hast never walked before. For I have afforded the opportunity of unity. There is none of thee that has seen this pathway. I alone, I'm the one that has ordained it. For this way would be THE WAY, that I will lead thee through TO

PERFECTION, and I will lead thee IN THE WAY OF UNITY; and in the remains of time, that my body would become a healthy body. Every gift that I have placed within her, will be expressed, through my will, my leadings, and the way that I designed for thee to walk... THIS IS MY PLAN, saith the Lord. Church, there is absolutely nothing that can tear down the tradition of man's thinking other than the ministry of truth which God sets in place. This is the only means by which the traditions of men, and their carnal ideas, can be torn down. The pure revelation of the truth in projection is the only thing that can tear down falsehood. Consequently, if you have a problem with the manner of the ministry expressed by such a vessel of truth, one ordained to be God's battle axe, a vessel with which to tear down “the old traditions of man's thinking”, that is your problem: Because you should be able to see the objective of the Spirit of God! You should be able to see what the evil spirit of Laodicea is saying, and hence, what the age demands, spiritually speaking! Because the spirit of this age is most stubborn and extremely godless! You cannot tell them anything! They know it all, they have it all, and yet they are totally bankrupt, morally and spiritually! It is an age where base (immoral) and abominable lifestyles of homosexuality and trans-sexuality is celebrated and rewarded; and you dare not say anything against it! What a totally decadent and most rotten age, with nothing sound in it at all! To call evil evil, or to call iniquity iniquity, is to offend their warped and godless sensibilities! They call it hate preaching; for preachers are no longer allowed to call sin sin! My! They must really think that the ministry derives their authority to preach from them, and not from God! Laodicea: An age where pastors so-called are also marrying gays and lesbians, moral perverts, and yet they still claim to be serving God; an age where churches are voting for homosexual marriages, and still claim to be churches of the living God!

What utter blasphemy! What a height of iniquity, an iniquity that stinks to high heavens! Let me warn you today: There is no age AS LOW DOWN and AS ROTTEN as this age: It makes the dark ages seem a righteous age, for even the dark ages still upheld moral values! So, you have to understand that God has to lift up a standard against the abominations going on in Laodicea, for the storms of hell have overthrown the world. The “strange thing” Raymond Jackson prophesied about, therefore, gives us nothing but A PECULIAR MINISTRY MOVE OF GOD in this last age. It is a very strange Move, Firstly, because of its manner of ministry; and Secondly, and most importantly, because of its racial content, for by it, God is turning to Africa, thereby enabling the race of Ham to carry the continuing and concluding light of the Lord, for the bride of Christ universal. That is what is strange about it: The strangeness concerns THE RACE of the chosen vessel, and THE MANNER of Ministry.

Remember, it is God's prophetic utterance, and as such, it can never fail. Do not also forget that Jesus promised that the Comforter will show us the things of Christ "TO COME." But how and when do we apply this prophetic utterance which the Spirit of God gave in September 2003? That is the question!

Again, in the Contender titled, The Great Mystery, Part 2, page 3, column 4, Brother Jackson stated emphatically: "I say this morning, I do not want to sound foolish, but I have to say, When God BEGINS TO DEAL WITH A HUMAN BEING, to show some revelation of things, He is not GOING TO DO IT", (future tense), "in a way that the old crowd is going to run and jump in his lap. They never have and they never will." This is referring to his successor apostolic lead ministry. And before you tell me as Mike Hefner of Montgomery, Illinois, erroneously stated, that that statement is not referring to another lead ministry, then, you need to listen again to what Brother Jackson stated, just before he made the statement in question. In column 3, a quote we saw earlier, he declared: "(The message," (which is the voice of the star messenger to Laodicea, as laid out in Revelation Chapter 10, verse 7), "began to be sounded to this age, and a short time later God took the physical man from us, but He did not take THE VOICE, because that pertains to the things that had been spoken. "Should": The word should is a progressive word; that does not mean instantly: it means progressively. It literally means all that the man brought, has to be understood by the elect people that will be the Bride of Christ in the end time. They have to see clearly what it all points to. Also within that time frame, GOD WILL RAISE UP A MINISTRY WHICH WILL BE THE THIRD P H A S E of what He is starting to do in restoring the Bride to originality." Hence, he now added in column 4: "I say this morning, I do not want to sound foolish, but I have to say, When God BEGINS TO DEAL WITH

A HUMAN BEING, to show some revelation of things, He is not GOING TO DO IT in a way that the old crowd is going to run and jump in his lap. They never have and they never will." It certainly shows that there will be a new Move of God following his own, the third Move, and the Jackson Movement, just like the Branham Movement, will not follow the Lord in His PRESENT TRUTH! However, the question now is this: When does this third phase commence? When do we apply it, seeing that the two quotes synchronize perfectly? The quote concerning "the third phase" IN THIS AGE, and the one concerning "a strange thing" God will do AMONG HIS PEOPLE, a strange thing that will begin to tear down the traditions of man's thinking, both synchronize, for they relate to the same ministry Move of God. So, we ask again: When do we apply these quotes? Let us hold it and first consider the testimony of Brother Branham on the matter. Talking of the racial change of God in the carriage of the torch of Truth for the bride universal, on 15th January, 1963, here came William Branham in his message titled, Accepting God's Provided Way At The End Time, page 37, paragraphs 279-281. He declared: "Now, in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, I take this audience under my control, but for the Holy Spirit, by the Holy Spirit, in the Name of Jesus Christ. I ask you, as believers, don't you move. Set still. And you believe that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever, THAT I'M HERE TO MAKE KNOWN HIS WORKS AND HIS WAYS! I been very reluctant on these things, the fifteen, sixteen years I been on the field. BUT THERE'S AN HOUR COMING NOW WHEN SOMETHING IS FIXING TO TAKE PLACE. THE MESSAGE WILL GO TO ANOTHER NATION, ANOTHER PEOPLE!" Saints of God, when exactly do we apply this prophetic statement? When will the carriage of the Gospel move to another race? Do not tell me though, that that quote means that Brother Branham was to go to another nation to preach, for that was exactly what he had been doing for those fifteen sixteen years he was on the evangelical field! For he had carried the message to the nations and races of the world! Brother Branham had gone all over the world, and had preached to many nations and races of people all over this globe, and as such, that could not be what he meant! Saints, his message was ordained to go round the globe, and the prophet emphasized this fact throughout his ministry: He never kept this truth from the body of saints! Therefore, we are looking strictly at a change in the racial logistics of God, IN THE CARRIAGE OF THE GOSPEL OF LIFE! Full stop! We are looking at a change in the racial carriage of the torch of truth! I will remind you now, that God has not always dealt with the whole world from a global standpoint all at the same time. He has always dealt with the world from a particular region, or from a specific region of the earth, and the people whom God has ordained for that light and for that move, simply log on to it from their various regions of the earth, as they are dealt with by the Spirit of Jesus Christ. Period! But the issue is: When exactly is the Gospel Message going to pass on to another nation of people, from another race, other than the Japhetic race? Before we answer all these questions, all which synchronize in their fulfilment, WITH regards to the vessel, and IN the year of their fulfilment, we must understand that the Lord is looking strictly at the Hamitic race, for the race of Ham is the race in projection in the prophecy Brother Jackson gave, as well as in the prophetic statement Brother Branham made. The truth concerning the change in the race that is to carry the Gospel light of Jesus Christ, for the universal body of Christ, in its final leg, is the Truth William Branham kept to himself for the fifteen sixteen years he was on the evangelistic field. Saints, when God began the move of universal salvation with the resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the church was born on the Day of Pentecost in Jerusalem, God began right there in the Middle East, right there from Jerusalem, to deal with the world. He began specifically in the city of Jerusalem, for that was where it all started. God later moved to Ephesus in Asia Minor, as God turned to us Gentiles in pre-eminence. It is written in Acts Chapter 19 that whilst Apostle Paul was in Ephesus, “all they which dwelt in Asia heard the Word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.” Yet, Paul did not go everywhere! The predestinated seeds of God came to have their candles lit, elect seeds whose hearts God had stirred up came, hearing about the revival that fell in the upper coasts of Ephesus, as recorded in Acts Chapter 19! Brothers and sisters, the light of the truth of Jesus Christ is the attraction FOR ALL SEEDS! Thus, we see in that day, that God moved away from the Middle East, for He moved away from Jerusalem and Samaria, and He moved into Europe.

He was in Europe for so many centuries of time, right from the second church age in Smyrna, until God crossed the Atlantic and went to America. Now that made America carry the light for the body of Christ universal, particularly with the outbreak of the Pentecostal Movement. The fact remains, however, that when God later raised up William Branham, and subsequently Raymond Jackson, making the elect bride seeds of God around the world log on to the pure revelation of Jesus Christ sounding forth from the United States of America, and from America, the universal bride of Christ were being dealt with. God was no longer dealing with the world from Europe, or from the Middle East! Who will deny that? Brothers and sisters, I am making a serious point. When Brother Branham said that he had kept something for the past fifteen-sixteen years, which is that “THE MESSAGE WILL GO TO ANOTHER NATION, ANOTHER PEOPLE”, (ANOTHER RACE), we all know that his message is supposed to go around the world to catch the bride, and he had been going round the globe for this very specific purpose. He did not keep that fact from us, for that is not what he kept for a decade and a half! What he kept and could not tell his people, is the final Move of God for the Gentile bride, for it required that he put them on notice of the new way God had mapped out before the foundation of the world, for bringing His plan of Gentile salvation to a close. The prophetic insight God gave him into this end move of Jesus Christ, required that he told the white race, who are the Japhetic race, that they would have to follow the black race in the ending move of Jesus Christ, in this final hours of Gentile time, IF they are to walk in the true light, and IF they are to be a part of the bride of Christ. Full stop! But eventually, he had to give this truth to the bride, regardless of the racial sentiments of the white race, who have this superiority complex, a complex which has No spiritual virtue WHATSOEVER. Brother Branham had to spell it out, because it has to come, according to God's revealed plan of salvation. It was therefore imperative that he gave us that prophetic insight, in order to fulfill the promise Jesus gave us in John Chapter 16, verses 12-15, where the Master declared: "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO ALL TRUTH: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: AND HE WILL SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that HE SHALL TAKE OF MINE, AND SHALL SHEW IT UNTO YOU." Therefore, it is imperative that you open your eyes!

Consequently, brothers and sisters, you have to see that that promise of the prophetic insight that God's elect children are to have, also applies in our day, and more particularly so, because this is where it all ends for us Gentiles, for there is no age after this. As such, it is absolutely impossible for the Lord to leave His elect bride seeds in darkness, in this final hour of Gentile time. That is why I said much earlier, that the nitty-gritty details of God's move through time in the grace age is not written. Therefore, you have to follow God in the light of His Word, in order to see what God is doing precisely in your day, according to the written plan of redemption. You will have to follow God in the light of the Scriptures to see that! But please be certain that whatever God does, and whatever Move He makes, it will be in the light of the written Word; it will not offend the Word of God; but rather, it will be in fulfilment of the Scriptures of truth, particularly as there are written Scriptures that lay out the end time Moves of the Spirit of Christ. Exactly! Come with me. Church, there has to be a people around this world that the Spirit of God is dealing with, in a revelatory way, to give them a perfect scriptural understanding of the plan of salvation, and the very junction of time we are in, according to the Scriptures, within that glorious plan, particularly today when everything is now coming to a close, and perilous times are here. I want to take a message on that serious thought one of these days titled, PERILOUS TIMES ARE HERE. It has never been as perilous as now, for no hour of human time is as dark; none is as base (or immoral); none is as lewd (or morally loose and obscene); none is as satanic; and none is as shameless. I want to take a message on that, God helping me.

Saints of God, the issue is this: Where do we apply the quote which gives us a change in the racial carriage of the Gospel Torch? Where do we apply it? Before we apply all these quotes, I will give you just one more quote of William Branham, in order to give us two witnesses from the star messenger to this Laodicean age. However, I will reserve that quote for the next part of this message. May God bless you all. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

May the Lord bless you.
