LUKE 17:30 -PART 2

The following message was preached by Brother Amos, on the morning of Saturday, 15th November, 2014, at the 2014 November Convention of Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. In this second instalment of a very exploratory expose of the hidden nugget in Luke 17:30, we can clearly see just how bright our portion is, as the elected bride of Christ, getting ready to leave this dark world.

Good morning church. I greet everyone in the name of Jesus Christ. We appreciate each and every one, and we thank God for what the Lord is doing for us and through us, for the bride of Christ universal. We thank God for His grace upon our lives, for the light of His Son Jesus Christ that is shining so brightly at this evening time. One more time, I welcome each and every one. May God bless our meeting today, and may the hand of God's mercy rest mightily upon you. Pray for us that God will help myself and the interpreter, this morning.

We want to continue the message we started yesterday, so let us just turn our Bibles to the Gospel of Saint Luke Chapter 17, and take verses 26-30: "And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed." We have already shown yesterday that the "DAY" in verse 30 is a collective noun, for it speaks of DAYS, plural, just as verse 26 states, DAYS "when the Son of man is revealed." And as we saw yesterday, Jesus was speaking about the manifestation of his earthly prophetic ministry in the earth at the end time, for it gives us the re-expression of it, when we have the conditions of the days of Noah and Lot existing on earth, being a prophecy that has an end time application. It applies strictly in this Laodicean church age, and it cannot be applied at any other period of time within the grace age. And in case anybody has a problem with that, and wants to think that you can apply it to the days of Saint Paul, I will tell you straight that you are wrong! Brothers and sisters, we cannot apply this passage of Scripture to the days of Apostle Paul, for the simple reason that he was not used to fulfil the prophecy. In the first instance, the social, moral, and spiritual conditions that we see here, of Noah and Lot's day, did not exist in the days of Saint Paul. That is number one. Secondly, and most importantly, Apostle Paul was not used to express Jesus Christ in his earthly prophetic ministry. He was used to express the earthly ministry of Jesus Christ, but not in its prophetic content. He was only used to characterise and express the apostolic ministry attribute of the earthly ministry of Jesus Christ, as "The apostle of the Gentiles", because Jesus Christ is "THE Apostle" of all apostles, the Chief Apostle of all apostles. And Saint Paul, being "The apostle", a man characterising the unseen apostolic headship of Jesus Christ over the body of ministry, not only carried the full light of Jesus Christ for the salvation of us Gentiles, a Message which had the prophetic revelatory insights of the truths of Jesus Christ richly laced into it, he also bore the miraculous side of the earthly apostolic ministry of Jesus Christ, for Jesus Christ was a miracle worker. However, when it comes to the prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ, the office of the Son of man, Apostle Paul did not characterise that ministry attribute, for he did not function or operate in the office of a prophet, or in the capacity of a prophet. He did not! May God help us this morning. (At this point in the message, there were some technical problems with the microphone). You know, one day Brother Branham was preaching, and children were crying here and there. He said, "You who are spiritual, that is the devil just trying to distract the people, throwing a spanner in the works." In the same vein, I do not believe that there is anything really wrong with the microphones. It is just the enemy trying to throw off inspiration, but I just look to God to help me this morning. Brothers and sisters, the fact remains that Apostle Paul did not operate as a prophet, knowing the thoughts in the hearts of men, and as such, he was never used to fulfil Luke 17:26-30! Period! He was just never used to characterise and express Jesus Christ in his "Son of man" office, which is strictly a prophetic office, whereby he would function as a full prophet. Saint Paul never did that, even though he had prophetic insights which enabled him to carry the revelation of Jesus Christ for the entire body; but he did not exercise the ministry of a prophet, and hence, he was not able to read the thoughts in the hearts of men. He never did! Consequently, this prophetic passage of Scripture has no application to Saint Paul. And as such, it has no application to the first church age; it also has no application to the second, third, or fourth church ages, because the fourth age brings us to the Dark Ages. It also has no application to the fifth and sixth church ages, because that brings us to the Reformation Era. It applies only in this seventh and final church age, called the Laodicean church age. And it is in this last age that the Almighty God reached way back to the Old Testament, precisely to the Book of Malachi, and anointed William Branham as Elijah, empowering him to carry a prophetic ministry equal to that of John the Baptist. But he was also anointed to characterise and express the earthly prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ, in his the Son of man office, which also had the open miraculous content to it, strictly from the standpoint of Luke 17:30, for he was A son of man, characterising The Son of man. So we know with scriptural certainty, that the prophetic utterance Jesus gave way back there in 33AD, could not be applied at any period of time in this grace age, except today, in this last church age, the Laodicean age. And that is precisely why we had a man that God gave us at this evening time, a man with an unusual ministry, a ministry that stands him out in the entire grace age, since God has been sending men, beginning from the days of Apostles Peter, James, John, and Paul, and even to date! It took a son of man at this end time, a prophet, to characterise and express Jesus Christ the Son of man, in his earthly prophetic ministry, all by the Spirit of Christ. That is a fact, for Jesus Christ is not coming back to earth a second time to express and fulfil this passage of Scripture! He is not coming back a second time in order to express this prophecy, for it was fulfilled through a man, William Branham, the Elijah prophet of Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B. And that is why, when he was here, he placed a lot of emphasis on this passage of Scripture. He would quote it, and he would take us back to the scenario in Genesis Chapter 18, which gives us the manifestation of Elohim to Abraham in a Theophany body, when He sent His two angels to Sodom and Gomorrah. And whilst the two blinding angels went to Sodom to blind the people, two angels who typed the blinding ministries of Billy Graham and Oral Robert, the Lord of host Himself was with Abraham, typing the prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ to the elect bride, and Elohim was dealing prophetically with Abraham concerning events at hand, posting him ahead. In that day, Elohim began to discern the thoughts of Sarah who laughed in her heart behind the tent door, even though Elohim was outside with Abraham, right under the tree! Sarah was in the tent, standing right behind the door, and she laughed, not out loud, but in her heart; and Elohim caught her laughter, and said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah your wife laugh?" Out of fear, and because she was not expecting that, Sarah said, "I did not laugh." The Master said, "Nay, but you laughed." The Lord then confirmed His Word of promise to them concerning the birth of Isaac. Brothers and sisters, it was Elohim foreshadowing the prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ, the Son of man. Church, that same prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ was what William Branham characterised, and by the divine empowerment of the Lord God, a prophecy of Jesus Christ was fulfilled through him. It is just like the prophecy of Jesus Christ recorded in Isaiah Chapter 42, which states in verses 6-7: "I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house." This is a prophecy concerning Jesus Christ the Messiah, but it was fulfilled through the ministry of Apostle Paul, as confirmed in the Book of Acts Chapter 13, verses 46-47, which records: "Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I HAVE SET THEE TO BE A LIGHT OF THE GENTILES, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth." What was Paul saying? He was simply saying: "Isaiah Chapter 42, verses 6 and 7, is being fulfilled through me." Halleluia! But yet, Paul is not the Messiah. But that prophecy concerning the Messiah, a prophecy which the Messiah did not fulfil himself, was fulfilled by the Spirit of the Messiah, working through Saint Paul. Period! In the same vein, Luke Chapter 17, verse 30, a prophecy concerning the Messiah, the office of "The Son of man", was also fulfilled through William Branham. That was why Brother Branham put a lot of emphasis on Genesis Chapters 18 and 19, and he also quoted Luke 17:30 a lot of times, in order to let the bride of Christ understand his peculiar ministry, and that he was used of the Lord to fulfil this prophecy. However, it took Raymond Jackson, the chief apostle of this end time, the man the Movement love to hate, under God, to take Luke 17:30, and put it in its proper scriptural parlance, to enable us to perfectly see, how God used William Branham to fulfil this prophecy, as a man who characterised two major Biblical ministries at this end time, that of John the Baptist, as Elijah, and also that of Jesus the Christ, strictly from the viewpoint of Luke 17:30. But I am here to let you know this morning, that the revelation God gave Brother Jackson concerning this truth, is only on one level, for there is more to the prophecy; there is more to this prophecy. Please come with me, and stay close. We are on holy ground. It is a shame though, that the Christian religious world can see the prophetic x-ray Jesus gave concerning the conditions of this age, and they are quick to point out that we are now living in the days of Noah, just as Jesus said it would be, but they cannot see the promise. Likewise, they also cannot see that there is supposed to be the manifestation of the Son of man at this end time, which is none other than the earthly prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ re-expressed on earth, for they are as blind as bats to the promise. This is so, only because they are not following Jesus Christ in a true divine revelation of his Word. Therefore, we thank God that we are able to see these things, for it is the grace of God that we have not been left in darkness. Now come with me.

We have been able to establish by the Scriptures, precisely why and how William Branham fulfilled Luke 17:30. However, what I want you all to realise this morning, is that that is not all the truth of God that is concealed in this prophetic passage of Scripture, for we have only seen and understood that prophecy in a measure, and now we want to lay out the other measures, which makes the full balance of this prophecy. This is absolutely so, because truth comes in folds, for the revelation of God is continuous, which is why truth is given in revelatory progression, being ever progressive. The day you think that you have all of God, and that you know all of God, you make yourself a first class fool: Because with all our knowing, and with all that we will know as we go in the rapture, as it is written, we know only in part! With all that we will know, even when we get into the unwritten revelation, a prophetic message which carries us right into the rapture, a message which the seven thunders will carry, we will still only know in part! So you would be a fool to think that you have all of God, and that you do not need any further light, because the revelation of Elohim is inherently progressive; because God gives His light in folds, in order to ensure His revelatory relevance in the lives of His children, at any and every junction of time! By the progressive light of God is how the Lord leads His children, and it is fundamental that you understand this fact this morning, because it is what shows the relevance of God in present tense terms, in the lives of ALL His children, for it shows that our God is not dead; that we serve the only living God, one who still speaks! He is THE WALKING VOICE, who walked in the Garden of Eden, and also on the Isle of Patmos. Halleluia! On the Isle of Patmos, John heard the walking voice. He said, "I turned to see the voice", because our God in His revelation is a walking voice, walking with His people IN TIME, in the light of His divine revelation. That is precisely why in Ezekiel Chapter 1, the Spirit of the Lord is revealed as "a Wheel in the middle of a wheel", showing that the revelation of the Almighty God is continuous, ever moving on, gathering the pieces of truth, as conditions in the earth develop in the light of God's prophetic will. Saints, it is a fact that the revelation of God moves on, and as such, you must also move on with God in the light, or you will be left behind! What I am saying in essence is this: The revelation to lay out the prophetic application of Luke 17:30, that God gave Brother Jackson, was given to him only to a measure. Until recently, until sometime this year, we also saw it only to that extent that God had opened it up through the chief apostle. But I am here to share the balance of the truth of Luke 17:30 with the body of saints, who have a pure love for truth, and an absolute respect for the Scriptures, and who understand that the revelation of God is not static or stagnant, but ever progressive. And because God moves on with His children in His light, is exactly why we are going into what we are going into this morning, and I pray that the Lord will help me to present it perfectly. But I confess this morning, that I too saw this prophecy only to a measure, until God shed more light on this passage of Scripture. We will not be ashamed, and neither will we be afraid to stand before the body of saints, and declare from the roof tops, the truth of Scripture which God gave us in the secret chamber. The only thing I will ask you to do is to prove it by the Word of God, the Holy Scriptures. But please, do not give me quotes, for I also have my own quotes for what I am going to preach this morning. And more than quotes, much more than quotes, I have the Bible, the infallible Word of God, and that settles it! So what are you going to say? I have the quotes of the prophet on this matter. But more than quotes, I also have the Bible. Consequently, you are under a divine obligation to sit quietly and listen with the eye of faith, and listen to the Word of God! Brothers and sisters, I want to show you this morning that LUKE 17:30 HAS A DUAL APPLICATION. Dual application simply means double application. But let me warn you: I did not say that it has a dual interpretation, for any prophetic Word of God can never have a dual interpretation, except a dual application, because God is not Yea and Nay. As it is written in 2 Corinthians Chapter 1, verse 20: "For all the promises of God in Him are Yea, and in Him Amen." Consequently, there cannot be a double interpretation of Scripture, because the prophetic utterance of Elohim can only mean one thing, and one thing only; because the revelation of God is one, and that is the standard of truth. Therefore, brothers and sisters, the interpretation of Luke 17:30 cannot also give us a double interpretation. But I am saying this morning that it has a dual application, and that is what I want to prove to you by the Scriptures, so that you may understand that Luke 17:30 does not only apply to William Branham, it also applies to somebody else, because it has a dual application. This is the truth that we now want to lay out.

Brothers and sisters, let me start by saying this, and please pay attention, because I am now entering the very reason why I am taking this message. The first thing I want you to get is that when we look at Luke 17:30, it is not about William Branham. The first thing you must understand about Luke 17:30, is that it is not about William Branham. Luke 17:30 is not speaking about William Branham. It is like the prophecy of Isaiah 42: 6-7, which is not about Apostle Paul, but is strictly about the Messiah. Yet, Apostle Paul was used to fulfil it, but that prophecy in Isaiah is not about Apostle Paul. There is a difference in that, and you have to see that. The fact that a man is used to fulfil something, does not mean that that prophecy is about him; it is not the same as the prophecy pertaining to him, or speaking about him. I am simply saying this morning, that Luke 17:30 does not pertain to William Branham! It pertains strictly to Jesus Christ the Son of man! It is about the Son of man, Jesus Christ in his earthly prophetic ministry, and not about William Branham, and that makes a very big difference! Just as Isaiah 42:6-7 is not about Apostle Paul, but is a promise of Jesus Christ, even though God used Apostle Paul to fulfil it, so is Luke 17:30. Saints, it is an undeniable fact that the prophecy of Isaiah is not talking about Saint Paul, but about the Messiah. And although God chose to fulfil that prophecy using Apostle Paul as the instrument of its fulfilment, nevertheless, it was not spoken about him, but about the Messiah. In the same vein, Luke 17:30 is not about William Branham; Luke 17:30 is not about Elijah; Luke 17:30 is strictly about Jesus Christ "the Son of man", the promised Messiah, one who has come and has gone, and this morning as we speak, one who is our great Intercessor! Yes, the Lord used Brother Branham to fulfil it partially, but yet, it is not about him. Brothers and sisters, on the other hand, when we look at Malachi 4:6B, it is not about Jesus Christ, it is strictly about Elijah; it is about William Branham. When you also come to Revelation 10:7, it is not about Jesus Christ; it is about the seventh star messenger, the star messenger to Laodicea. So, Revelation 10:7 does not give us the ministry of Christ, but of his servant, for it pertains to a man, and his name is William Branham. But Luke 17:30, on the other hand, is not about William Branham; it is about Jesus the Christ, and you must understand that! I am making this warning, because people are taking things personal, as if we are taking away a Scripture that belongs to Brother Branham, when the Scripture is not about him! But they want to make it his Scripture, when it is definitely not. No one can change the testimony of the Scripture, for it is plain and sure, and the prophecy is certainly not about Elijah: It speaks strictly about the Son of man, Jesus Christ our Lord! So if you understand this fact, then, please cool down and hear me out, for I am here to show you that Luke 17:30 has a dual application; not a dual interpretation, but a dual application. We did not know this fact before, but now the light has come, and we can certainly see the light. That is why I am preaching this message, because I want all the eagles of God to see it as well. Halleluiah! Open your eyes and hearts, and let the light of Christ illumine your souls. Brothers and sisters, as I said before, Luke 17:30 has a double application, not a double interpretation, but strictly a double application. And if you understand the ways of God, you will already know this morning that certain prophecies of God have been applied in dual ways by the Lord. And if God has done it before, then it should not be strange to you that God is doing it again. The God of the Old Testament is the God of the New Testament. If He has done it in the Old Testament, then all I ask you to do is just look in the mirror of the Word of God, and prove everything by the Bible. What is difficult to do in that? Come with me to Matthew Chapter 2, where the Magi, (the three wise men), were led by the Spirit of God to the land of Israel to pay homage to the Messiah after his birth. They came all the way from the East to worship him, and to give him gifts. But when they came to town, they first paid homage to Herod, the king of Judea at that time, and they told him, "We have come to worship he that is born king of the Jews. We have seen his star in the East, and we have come to worship him." Herod was very troubled by this statement, thinking: "What do you mean by another King God promised?" So he felt threatened in his own office, and decided he needed to get rid of that child, in order to secure his own kingship. So, after the Magi found the Messiah and paid homage to him and left, the angel of the Lord appeared to them in a dream, instructing them not to return to Herod, but to go back to their own country via another way, and they did just that. We will now pick up the account from verse 13: "And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child" (Jesus) "and his mother, and flee into Egypt" (in Africa), "and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt" (in Africa). But the question is, why did the Lord send His Son to be kept in Egypt? Why was it Egypt in particular? Verse 15 now gives us the specific reason, as it is written: “And” (Jesus the Son of God) “was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, OUT OF EGYPT HAVE I CALLED MY SON.” In other words, the Lord did this in order to fulfil His prophetic Word. As inspired by the Spirit of God, Apostle Matthew went straight to the Old Testament writings, and picked a prophetic utterance of Prophet Hosea, which applied to Jesus Christ, and set it forth as the reason the Lord asked that Jesus be taken to Egypt in that day. The issue now is that that prophecy in the Book of Hosea has a double application; it has a dual application. Hosea Chapter 11, verse 1 says: “When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.” Brothers and sisters, in the day when this prophecy was given by Hosea, it was applied to the calling out of the Nation of Israel from Egypt. As a matter of fact, the prophecy had its first application in the calling out of Israel from Egypt. I repeat: The prophecy had its first application to the Nation of Israel, because Israel stands for the Nation of Israel, and “When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.” But now came the hour of Jesus Christ, and according to the inspired record of Saint Matthew, that prophecy also applied to the Messiah, for he took the same Scripture, and applied it to Jesus Christ, who was similarly called out of Egypt, thereby letting us realise, that the prophecy in Hosea Chapter 11, verse 1, has a dual application. It not only applied to the Nation of Israel, when God called Israel out of Egypt, it also applied to Jesus Christ the Son of God. And that is why I said yesterday, that the message of my brother, Brother Hope Nnaji, laid the foundation for something I am sharing today. Yet, none of us knew what the other would preach, for I do not determine that, God does. I do not tell people what to preach, for that prerogative belongs to God alone. But you can see God at work in the ministry, causing the messages to synchronise. I want to show you something this evening just to dispel the clouds, and establish the truth. And I pray that God will help me, for without Him, I can do nothing. Brothers and sisters, the truth is that the prophetic Scripture which speaks of God calling His Son out from Egypt had its first application to the Nation of Israel, before it applied to the Messiah, for Hosea already applied it to the Nation of Israel. Yet, the principal focus of that prophecy is the Messiah himself. The principal focus of that prophecy is the Messiah, but yet, it had its first application in the calling out of Israel from Egypt. Who can deny that? Who will deny that, except one who is a chronic unbeliever? And that is the truth, because we live in an unbelieving world, and some are stark unrepentant unbelievers, and you will never change them! You can show them as many Scriptures as you want, they will look at it and say, “I still do not believe it!” What can you do? Brothers and sisters, please pay attention. The prophecy of Hosea first had application to the Nation of Israel, before it had application to Jesus the Christ. However, in each instance, the truth remained the same, for the interpretation remained one, and that is that God called his Son out of Egypt. Period! This clearly proves that a prophecy can have a dual application, even though there is no prophecy of God that can have a dual interpretation, for the revelation of God is one, and hence, the interpretation of God's prophetic Word can only mean one thing and one thing alone, regardless of its dual application. Amen. Please also note that although Israel is not one person, for Israel is a nation, a multitude of people, but yet, together as a nation, they are called by the name of their progenitor, Israel, who is Jacob, which is why God applied it to them as well. Halleluiah! So, if Hosea 11:1 has dual application, applying to the Messiah, as well as to a nation of people, and it is the absolute truth, why are you arguing with Luke 17:30, when, by the grace of God, I am trying to let you see it on a level we have never seen before, that you may also understand that it has a dual application? Why would any person be annoyed for that statement? Why take offence at truth? All you need to do is say, "Brother Amos, prove it by the Scriptures." That is what I expect you to do in your hearts, is to say, "Well, let me see you prove it by the Word." And if I were afraid, I would not be here declaring what I am now declaring.

That should let you know that I must know precisely where I am standing, for me to have come to lay this before you today. It is by the grace of God, and I give Him all the glory. All I am asking you to do is simply to have an open heart, and follow me with the eye of faith. Brothers and sisters, let us now go back to pick up Luke Chapter 17, because we want to break it down, and bring our message to a close.

Luke Chapter 17, beginning from verse 26 reads: "And as it was in the days of Noe", (exactly as it was in the days of Noah), "so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man." Brothers and sisters, what actually happened in the days of Noah? We need to ask, because if Jesus prophesied of a repeat of the social, moral, and spiritual conditions of Noah's day; if Jesus by his prophetic insight says that as it was in the days of Noah, it is also going to be repeated in the days when the Son of man is revealed on earth at this end time, then it is very crucial that we take a close look at the breakdown of the social, moral, and spiritual conditions which existed in the days of Noah, way back there in Genesis, to help us appreciate the prophetic utterance the Lord gave right here concerning our day. What happened in the days of Noah? Jesus laid it out in verse 27, declaring: "They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all." What condition does this give us? Essentially, what it gives us is a people wholly given to merry making, wining and dining, people just enjoying themselves, not caring or even thinking about their walk with God. All they know to do is to lay out on the beach like lizards, sun tanning, for they are people who are given over to a life of pleasure. Jesus is painting the picture of people who are just given to fleshly living, for they are simply living large, following the American dream, without any thought of God, or of their need for salvation. Hence they are marrying and given in marriage, attending ceremonies all over the place, with God being totally pushed out of the picture, for they were preoccupied with living life! These are the conditions the Lord spoke about, merely giving us an insight to the reality of the things that went on in the days of Noah. However, since we know that the conditions in Noah's day was much more than this, for it was far more serious than what Jesus laid out here, then, we need to go back to Genesis. The Lord Jesus did not intend giving us the details of Noah's day, for it was enough that he threw light on it. Therefore, he expects the children of God, the children of light, to take that thought and go back to Genesis, and fill in the details, in order to see the gravity of the condition he has set forth in this prophecy. The conditions recorded in Genesis have been incorporated into the prophetic statement of Jesus Christ by reference. The mere reference to it incorporates the conditions laid out in the Book of Genesis, for he does not have to give us the details. But in order to see the details, the seriousness of that day, we will now go to Genesis. Please come with me to Chapter 6, because we need to prove something by the Scriptures. As I stated earlier, I will prove this truth first by the Scriptures, because the Scriptures give us the seal of truth, before I also give you quotes. Genesis Chapter 6, from verse 1 records: "And it came to pass, when men", (Cainite men), "began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them" (who are Cainites), "That the sons of God"(the Sethites), "saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they",(the Sethite men), "took them wives of all which they chose." This lets us know that there were two categories of men: One class was referred to as "the sons of God", who saw daughters " o f M E N " , a n d these "MEN" who had daughters born unto them, made up another class of humanity. Please note that the sons of God are not angels. Nowhere has angels ever been referred to as sons of God. The sons of God are the human family of God, God's redeemed family. Period! We are the only ones with that privilege, for it is a title reserved for God's human family. Brothers and sisters, the "sons of God" lineage gives us nothing but the lineage of Seth, the Sethites, who were the offspring of Adam, and Adam, who was the son of God. Consequently, the Sethite lineage is what gives us the lineage of the sons of God. That is why in Saint Luke Chapter 3, the genealogy of Jesus Christ was traced back through Seth to Adam, and Adam was traced back to God, for that lineage is what gives us the lineage of the sons of God. However, there is another lineage, the lineage simply referred to as "MEN", for they were carnal men, who gave birth to daughters. It gives us nothing other than the Cainite lineage, the lineage of Cain, who was the son of the serpent, Satan's vicarious or indirect son. I say that only because Lucifer got him to himself, using the serpent. We must understand, as such, that the sons of God here are not angels, because angels cannot have carnal knowledge of human beings; they cannot have any sexual relationships with women. If they could have such carnal knowledge, seeing that we now live in the most perverse age ever, angels would have been having carnal knowledge of women today as well, because fallen angels have not repented, and neither have they changed their evil ways, for they cannot change; and neither can they repent, for their eternal destiny is sealed! So if the sons of God were angels, like the denominational folks teach, what exactly is stopping them from continuing to have carnal knowledge of women today? Furthermore, I have to ask you: Show me just one woman that has been impregnated by an angel! Come and show me one, for such does not exist! Brothers and sisters, Genesis Chapter 6 opens up with two classes of men: The Sethite lineage, which gives us the lineage of the sons of God, and the lineage of Cain, which also gives us the lineage of the sons of Lucifer. Having identified the two classes of humanity, let us now consider what actually took place in that day, beginning from verse 1: “And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.” Brothers and sisters, mixed marriages started, as the sons of God began to take the daughters of men as wives. What was the result? Verse 3: “And the Lord said, My Spirit shall not always strive with MAN, for that he also is flesh...” Now the sons of God had fallen in nature, and they had been reduced to the same carnal level with the Cainite Men, and as such, God also changed His terminology concerning them, reducing them to the same general terminology of “MAN”, for as the Bible reveals, it is because “he is also flesh”, meaning fleshly. And as a result, the Lord reduced the life span of men, as verse 3B now states: “yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.” But now look at the genetic result of the mixed marriages from verse 4: “THERE WERE GIANTS IN THE EARTH IN THOSE DAYS; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And God saw that THE WICKEDNESS OF MAN WAS GREAT in the earth, and that EVERY IMAGINATION OF THE THOUGHTS OF HIS HEART WAS ONLY EVIL CONTINUALLY. And it repented the Lord that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart.” Please note that what grieved God was not the Cainite lineage, for they could not have done otherwise as serpent seeds; what grieved Him were His own children who went into iniquitous relationships with the Cainites, thereby bringing down the pure genetic state of the Sethite lineage, for now the sons of God fell in their genetic purity! Verse

7: “And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.” Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. That was what made the difference, for the Lord had His eyes on him. Let us skip to verses 11-13: “The earth also WAS CORRUPT before God, and the earth was FILLED WITH VIOLENCE. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.” Saints of God, when we come to the days of Noah, there are certain things we see recorded in Genesis, certain things that stand out. Do not forget that Moses was not there to witness the events, for it was given to him in a divine revelation when he was called to the mount to the presence of Elohim for forty days and forty nights. And in God's divine presence, he was shown the things that had gone on in eras gone by, for the Lord gave him a deep prophetic insight to what had happened, as far back as events in the Garden of Eden; what also happened outside the Garden of Eden, right down to Noah's day, and way beyond that era. And in the day of Noah, according to the record of Moses in Genesis, the earth was filled with violence through and through. And as we have portrayed on our chart, all they did was to fight and kill one another, for there was so much violence! And there were giants in the earth in those days, men of renown, not only as a result of the mixed marriages going on between the sons of God and the daughters of men, for the sons of God failed to stay with their kind, just as we have portrayed on our chart; but also, there were giants as a result of the mark which the Lord put on Cain in order to preserve his life, for by this mark he was turned into a giant. However, please note that some were figurative giants as well, for they were giants in their mental ability, which made them excel in their carnal earthly fields of endeavour, thereby making them men of renown. In that day, the sons of God were taking wives as many as they pleased from among the daughters of men, the Cainite daughters, who presented themselves seductively, in order to break down the moral resistance of the Sethite lineage, the lineage of the sons of God. Polygamy was introduced, which is evidence of sexual promiscuity, for they could not have enough of women. Hence on our chart, in Noah's day, we have a photo of a marriage ceremony between a son and a daughter of God, both who are of the lineage of Seth, and right under them, we also have a photo of a son of God taking two daughters of men in his arms, two scantily dressed Noddywood (Hollywood) women; women from the land of Nod, where the Cainites lived, as Genesis Chapter 4, verse 16 records. It was mixed marriages galore, as polygamy became the order of the day! Moreover, in Noah's day, the earth was not just filled with violence, but the Bible also records that the imagination of the hearts of men was "only evil CONTINUALLY"! Further more, it also states that there was much wickedness in this earth, for as it is written in verse 5: "And God saw that the wickedness of man WAS GREAT in the earth"! God had to wipe them out literally with the flood, and fire is coming for this day, to purge the earth of the wickedness and extreme violence we see expressed in the earth today, around the globe! Brothers and sisters, so in Genesis, we see three evil conditions in the main: Wickedness, Violence, and Mixed marriages. How many see the point? Those were the main conditions in that day in the earth. But in all that, people were also eating and drinking, wining and dining, as people were contracting marriages on a wholesale scale, every day, like it was running out of style, particularly with one man marrying many wives as "they chose", and without any thought for God, as they were preoccupied with it! That is what we see in the infallible record of Genesis in the days of Noah! Therefore, God had to commission Noah to build an ark of salvation. And when the ark was finished, and the eight human souls making up Noah's family, along with all the animals and birds that were divinely elected for salvation, had safely entered into the ark, God came and wiped out everything moving on the face of this planet, in that first world, with the great deluge, the flood, and started afresh! Now, brothers and sisters, we are at the end of this second world, a world which the Lord used Noah and his three sons to procreate! In 33 AD., here came the Lord Jesus, as recorded in Luke Chapter 17, verses 26-30, declaring: “And as it was IN THE DAYS OF NOE, so shall it be also in the DAYS of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was IN THE DAYS OF LOT; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.” Brothers and sisters, I am here to let you know that when we look closely at the breakdown of the prophetic picture the Lord gave in Luke Chapter 17, that Brother Branham only lived to see Noah's Day, because the conditions which existed in the Days of Lot had not yet arisen when he was here with us, in the days of his ministry. He only lived to see the conditions expressed in Genesis Chapter 6, in Noah's Day; and the Lord God knew that he would not live to see the setting of Lot's Day in the earth! That is precisely why the two conditions were not lumped together in one sentence! The two conditions were not lumped together in the same sentence, and neither were the two days lumped together! They were not lumped together in this prophecy, even though both days apply in this Laodicean age! Please come back with me to Luke Chapter 17. In verse 26, the Master stated: “And as it was in the DAYS OF NOAH, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.” It is most certain by this that verse 26 gives us Noah's day in its re-enactment in the earth at this end time. That is settled, and is not disputed. In verse 27, the Lord just laid out the conditions in Noah's day to a measure, incorporating the rest of the conditions by reference, for we get the balance of the conditions in Genesis Chapter 6, which we have already done. However, regarding the application of the days of Noah at this end time, the pre-eminent verse is verse 26, not verse 27, because it is in verse 26 that we have a promise, that “as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man”, meaning that WHEN THE SON OF MAN IS REVEALED (or MANIFESTED)! Consequently, even if the Lord had not spelt out the conditions stated in verse 27, verse 26 holds, being the main verse, because we would simply have gone back to Genesis Chapter 6, to see the true conditions in the earth in the days of Noah. Period! That is why I said that verse 26 is the pre-eminent verse, for that is the verse that holds the promise. Nevertheless, putting the two verses together, verses 26-27, shows that in the earth at this end time, the social, moral, and spiritual conditions which existed back then in the days of Noah, will first be re-introduced by Satan, right in this seventh and final church age! That is why the conditions of Noah's day was first set forth in this prophecy, for they were not lumped together with that of Lot's day! It is proof that in the earth, in Laodicea, things will start with the conditions of Noah's day. I repeat: It is proof that in the earth, in this Laodicean age, things will start with the conditions of Noah's day, before it progresses to that of Lot's day! We already know, and have proven yesterday by the Scriptures, that William Branham, a son of man, a prophet, was used to characterise Jesus Christ the Son of man, the Prophet of all prophets. However, the seal of the truth concerning the separation of the two days, that of NOAH'S DAY, and that of LOT'S DAY, is the inarguable fact that Brother Branham is dead, and he did not live to see the evil and abominable conditions expressed in the days of Lot, and hence, he is not here to Manifest or reveal the earthly prophetic ministry of "the Son of man", in the days of Lot! That is a fact which no man can deny! Yet, as it is written in verses 28-30, and we all know that "the Scripture cannot be broken": "Likewise also as it was in THE DAYS OF LOT...Even THUS SHALL IT BE IN THE DAY WHEN THE SON OF MAN IS REVEALED"! The Son of man also has to be revealed in the days of Lot! Come on! He has to be manifested in the days of Lot! If the Son of man was manifested in Noah's day, what will you do with Lot's day? Will he not also be revealed in Lot's day? Is that not the promised prophetic Word the Master gave in verses 28-30? Yes, it most certainly is! Let us come closer, for we must see this clearly.

In ending the application of the conditions of Lot's day in this end time, the Master gave a promise we now want to break down, for he declared from verse 28: "Likewise ALSO..." That is an addition! That is a p r o g r e s s i v e addition! "Likewise also..." In other words, just as it was in the days of Noah when the son of man will be revealed, so also in the days of Lot, the Son of man will likewise be revealed! Saints, Lot's day is now being spoken of in the very same vein as in the days of Noah, being another day! "Likewise also...", gives us another day, on top of the days of Noah, ALL in this last age! It is so, because the conditions of Noah's day and Lot's day do not start at the same time! Laodicea would start with the conditions of Noah's day, before things deteriorate to that of Lot's day, for we are looking at a degeneration. As such, it is not that the conditions in Noah's day are taken away in the day or hour of Lot, for the conditions do not go away, but remain; it is that things progress to a higher scale of evil, so much so, that in the earth, the most horrible social, moral, and spiritual conditions of Lot's day are also introduced, compounding the sad spiritual state of planet earth, for they are visibly expressed in the earth! Verse 28 declares: "L I K E W I S E ALSO", (giving us an additional prophetic setting, following the setting of Noah's Day), "as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when THE SON OF MAN IS REVEALED." Church, right here is the Dual Application of the Manifestation of "the Son of man", for his manifestation not only applies to Noah's day, it is also applies to Lot's day: Because the Master applied the revelation of the Son of man also to the days of Lot! Verse 30 gives us the conclusion of what the Lord will do in Noah's day at this end time, and it also concludes what the Lord will also do in the days of Lot, for this verse, verse 30, has a Dual Application. Not only is it a conclusion of the prophetic thought projected in verses 26-27, it also concludes the prophetic thought projection the Master gave in verses 28-29! That is scripturally undeniable, for both prophetic thought projections End in verse 30: Noah's Day and Lot's day! Noah's Day ends in verse 30, and Lot's Day also ends in verse 30, for verse 30 has a Dual Application, and is the concluding verse! Remember that we are speaking about LUKE 17:30, for that is the focus and title of our message. When Jesus Christ spoke of the conditions existing in the days of Lot, just as he spoke of the days of Noah, he also spoke of it only in a measure, and the rest are incorporated by reference. We therefore have to go to the record of Genesis, in order to find out the details of the evils that went on in that day, the evils that went on in Sodom and Gomorrah, for which reason God destroyed it with fire, for these specific conditions were not expressed in 33AD; but it was incorporated by the reference Jesus made to it. Therefore, all we need to do is go back to Genesis Chapter 19, and fill in the other details. However, before we do that, we must first give a breakdown of Luke Chapter 17, verse 28, in order to make a true, complete, and perfect application, of the prophetic statement Jesus made in LUKE 17:30. Brothers and sisters, what exactly happened in the days of Lot? We must ask, and we must know, because if Jesus is prophesying of a repeat of the social, moral, and spiritual conditions of Lot's day; if Jesus by his prophetic insight says that the days of Lot is going to be repeated in the days when the Son of man is revealed on earth at this end time, then, it is most crucial that we look deeply and seriously at the breakdown of the social, moral, and spiritual conditions which existed in the days of Lot, not only as recorded in the Book of Genesis, but as Jesus also laid it out. So, what happened in the days of Lot? Jesus warned in Luke Chapter 17, verse 28: "Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did EAT, they DRANK, they BOUGHT, they SOLD, they PLANTED, they BUILDED..." All these conditions we have laid out in various photos on the right side of our chart. (Brother Amos points to the chart). What does it give us: Building construction projects going on around the globe on an unprecedented scale! And may I say that there has never been a day given to building projects like this hour of time, and that is all over the globe! Brother Branham did not witness such colossal building structures and skyscrapers rising all over the cities of the world! Building projects in his day were a lot smaller and simpler in comparison. We are also warned that people will be buying and selling, making the Almighty Dollar, just as is laid out on our chart, showing that money will be the god of people. And how they love and worship the god of "mammom" (money)! To this generation of people, money is everything, and hence, that is all they care about. We are also told that agriculture will boom like never before, for now we even have the Greenhouse (or In-house) agricultural programmes, creating surplus foods which are being wasted in the Western world. This has produced a general population of people that are obese, as gluttony and junk food has become the lifestyle of the people, creating mass obesity. (Brother Amos points to the chart). Just look at the incredible amount of food this couple are having at one go! My! How do you preach temperance to such people? Church, today, it is all about food, food, and food! That is the reality of the world we now live in! Many Television stations are devoted to food programmes, with wineries, restaurants, and fast food joints opening up all over creation, like no man's business. The world is churning out chefs by their dozens every day, and new cuisines are being developed every day, for it is a world completely given to eating and drinking, enjoyment and merrymaking, sports, and entertainment of all sorts. But what was God's response to this earthly minded, earth bound, carnal bunch of humanity? In verse 29, Jesus gives it to us, declaring): "But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, AND DESTROYED THEM ALL." Brothers and sisters, as I said earlier, Jesus pointed to the days of Lot, expressing conditions of people who, essentially, are just living large, enjoying life, and are making a lot of money; but, are a people WITHOUT GOD! Consequently, I want you all to see that the conditions our Lord Jesus Christ outlined right here, gives us nothing but a most prosperous era of time, and just how true this prophetic projection concerning this day is! Brother Branham never saw such great prosperity in his days, for there was even an economic depression in his days, following World War 1, and World War 2, and his first wife died in the depression! But the picture the Lord painted of the Days of Lot, is one of great material prosperity, and just how perfect and true the prophetic projection the Lord gave in 33 AD is! I will remind you that the prosperity of Sodom was what attracted Lot to that city in the first place, as recorded in Genesis Chapter 13, verses 10-11, for he saw their material prosperity, without taking into consideration the iniquity of the place! Saints, everything has its price or value, and spiritual considerations must outweigh material and carnal considerations! Lot chose Sodom because of its prosperity. And when we also consider this age, truly, Laodicea is the most materialistic, and the most prosperous age of all ages, since God put Adam and Eve here, for there is no age as materially prosperous! We have everything in this age, and yet, we have nothing of value, just as Jesus Christ revealed in the Book of revelation Chapter 3, verses 14-18: "And unto the angel of the church of THE LAODICEANS write; These things saith the AMEN, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God; I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."(Now watch verse 17): "Because thou sayest, I AM RICH, and increased WITH GOODS, AND HAVE NEED OF NOTHING; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked."(Just think about it! What a chronic state of spiritual amnesia! The Master pleads in verse 18): "I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich", (truly rich); "and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed", (truly clothed), "and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see", (truly see). Of a truth, William Branham did not live to see the prosperous days of Lot, with the Technological and Scientific breakthroughs in crop production! What a pleasure seeking, fun loving, earthly minded, God hating class of humanity, people who are just living for the flesh: Merry making; partying; wining and dining, enjoying all sorts of cuisines (foods); just enjoying themselves, crawling all over creation for any beach they can find to surf and sun bathe! My! However, brothers and sisters, we know that the conditions of the days of Lot are much more seriously evil, than what has been presented here, even though the conditions that were outlined are also absolutely true. Nevertheless, the Lord did not touch upon the very lifestyle that caused God to destroy it, and it is most important that we consider it, for that is what makes Sodom and Gomorrah stand out! In other words, the conditions we now want to see in the Book of Genesis, is precisely what makes the days of Lot stand out, for that is what it is known for, for they were globally notorious for this iniquity! I am here to let you know, brothers and sisters, that when we look at the breakdown of Luke Chapter 17, as I stated before, Brother Branham only lived to see Noah's Day, because the conditions of the days of Lot had not yet arisen. He only lived to see the condition that gives us Genesis Chapter 6, in its re-enactment, and not that of Genesis Chapter 19. And that is exactly why the two conditions, and the two days, were not lumped together in one verse. The two conditions were not lumped together in the same verse of Scripture. Now come with me to Genesis. Let us go back in time to the real setting recorded in the Seed Chapter.

Church, in Genesis Chapter 18, Elohim sent two of His angels to Sodom and Gomorrah, whilst He stayed back with Abraham, and the two angels came to Sodom at the evening time, according to the record of Chapter 19, verse 1. They met Lot at the gate of Sodom, and Lot begged them to come into his house. He did not know that they were angels, for it was only Abraham that knew that they were angels. The two angels who appeared as men agreed to pass the night with him in his house. We will take the Bible reading from verse 4, and it states: "But before they lay down, the MEN of the city, even the MEN of Sodom, compassed the house round, both OLD and YOUNG, all the people from every quarter: And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? BRING THEM OUT UNTO US, THAT WE MAY KNOW THEM." (Brothers and sisters, the whole city of Sodom was given over to the abominable lifestyle of homosexuality, for they were gays and lesbians. Verse 6): "And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, And said, I pray you, brethren, DO NOT SO WICKEDLY. Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof." Saints of God, righteous Lot was ready to give his two virgin daughters to these depraved people, to satisfy their evil lust. Why would he do that? Saints, Lot was ready to sacrifice his two virgin daughters on account of integrity and honour! Let me tell you this morning, when you, as a so-called believer, lack honour and integrity, you have nothing! When you do not have honour and integrity, you do not have anything! When you can lie without batting an eyelid, and without any prick of conscience, you lack everything! If you cannot be truthful in simple matters, it is not in serious matters that you will be truthful. And let me tell you now, brothers and sisters, honour and integrity means a lot. When you lack honour, when you lack integrity, you are nothing, for your Christianity is absolutely worthless! Like our brother was preaching the other day, you are like salt that has lost its saltiness, and as such, even maggots can play in it, for you have lost all value! Brothers and sisters, we are looking right here at what honour and integrity made a man do in that day. Lot took these two men into his own home, offering them the security, comfort, and prosperity of his home; not at their insistence or solicitation, but strictly at his own bidding, and they obliged. He did not even know that the men were angels! But having made them come under the shelter of his roof, he knew that he was totally responsible for their security and welfare, whilst under his roof. The very fact that he brought them under his roof, placed a divine obligation upon him to secure their welfare. I will remind you that the two men did not ask or beg him for accommodation: He asked them, and he begged them to come under his roof, and they obliged him. Then he was under bond to ensure their security and welfare, as vindicated by the Law of Moses which was given much later in time! He was under bond, the bond of honour, for he had to ensure that no evil or harm came to them! And it is likewise the responsibility of every ministry to make sure that under their roof, and right under their watch, no harm or evil comes to the bride of Christ placed under their care! Halleluiah! Honour and integrity made Lot stand up to those moral perverts in that day, with an offer which, no doubt, was very hard for him to make, but one which he had to make, in order to stand true to the invaluable principles of honour, integrity, responsibility, and to the security which his guests deserved! He was ready to sacrifice the virginity of his two daughters, for the sake of the security and the dignity of the two visitors he received under his roof!

What a man of honour! And what a man of integrity! That is partly why the Bible referred to Lot in 2 Peter Chapter 2, verse 8, as “that RIGHTEOUS MAN dwelling among them”! And let me tell you this morning, Almighty God would not have judged him, if the Sodomites had taken his daughters, but rather, the Lord would have still judged the Sodomites for their wickedness! I repeat: If the men of Sodom had taken his daughters and defiled them, the Almighty God would not have censored Lot for it, because he did it for honour and integrity, for he did it to honour his bond, for he was under a divine obligation! I have to help you to understand this scenario, for there is a right way to look at something, and there is a wrong way. Let me tell you this, when the children of Israel were coming to the Promised Land, as recorded in Joshua Chapter 9, there was a nation close by, the Gibeonites, the people of Gibeon. They knew that the Israelites were bound to take over their land, having heard what Joshua did to the cities of Jericho and Ai. They knew there was no stopping Israel, for they had conquered all enemies around them. They became wise and took instruction, and said to themselves: "Let us go to the children of Israel and submit ourselves to them, so that we can be spared. This is what we are going to do. We cannot afford to let them know that we are living nearby. So whoever has stale bread should bring it." They went to look for old worn out shoes, and clothes that were worn out. They also took wine that had spoilt in storage, and they loaded them on their camels and donkeys, and came to meet the children of Israel. When they met Joshua, they said to him: "We are your servants. We have come from so far away, until the bread we brought for you has gone stale. The wine we brought, was very sweet and strong when we were leaving home, but because of the distance and time, it has gone stale. Please take it from the hands of thy servants. We just want to come and make peace with you, for we have heard of your fame that God is with you." Saints, the children of Israel made a covenant with them, "to let them LIVE." Three days later, they found out that they had been deceived, for they were actually neighbours. The children of Israel were mad, but they could not touch them to kill them, because they had given them their oath, their bond! You would think, as the law of man provides, that on discovering that they were lied to, for they were actually deceived into making the covenant, that that covenant should have been vitiated or nullified, on account of that deception, and that the Gibeonites should have been killed; but No! The deception notwithstanding, the children of Israel could not touch the Gibeonites, because they had sworn in the name of the Lord not to kill them! Brothers and sisters, it was not about the deception, it was about their Word of Promise; it was about their Oath, their bond, as men of honour and integrity! Church, God wants His children to be people of honour and integrity! Read Joshua Chapter 9! A carnal man's thoughts in such a situation is this: "No, we will kill them, for they deceived us! Because they deceived us, then we have a right to kill them, for our promise no longer holds!" But it does! It is not the fact that you were deceived that is material, it is the fact that YOU GAVE YOUR WORD! AND A MAN IS ONLY AS GOOD AS HIS WORD! And that is the truth, for YOUR WORD

IS YOUR BOND! It is called honour and integrity, a very rare precious commodity today! Think about it! Everything is not about having money, but about having a good standing before the Lord God! Your word means everything, for as it is written, even God magnifies His Word above all His Name! Therefore, let me warn you this morning, if you will be anything, you must be a man of your word! If you are not a man of your word, your Christianity is worthless! Honour and integrity means a lot! God magnifies His Word above His own name, because on it hangs the honour and integrity of God, the fact that He keeps His Word! The leadership of the children of Israel understood this truth in that day, and they forbade the children of Israel from touching the Gibeonites. It is called integrity; it is called honour. Did it pain the children of Israel? Yes! Did they feel the pain? Yes, very much so, for they were bitter and in anguish! But could they do anything to change their word? No! Because if they had changed their word, God would have judged them! Because our God is a God of honour and integrity! That is why I told you this morning, that even if the moral perverts in Sodom and Gomorrah had taken the daughters of Lot, and defiled his two virgins, Lot would have been blameless, because he did what he did on account of honour and integrity: The obligation he owed to the strangers he himself brought under his roof! Brethren, as I said before, there is a right way to look at things, and there is a wrong way. We are the bride of Jesus Christ, people with understanding, for we have the mind of Christ, who is the wisdom of God. And as such, we should know how to look at things. Coming back to the days of Lot, unknown to the people in that day, and unknown to Lot himself, the two men he entertained were not ordinary men but angels, for he entertained angels unaware. The Sodomites did not want the daughters of Lot; they wanted to have the two men he had in his house! Let us read the rest of the story. Genesis Chapter 19, verse 9: “And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.”In other words: “We will rape you so bad, that by the time we finish with you, you are dead.” The men of Sodom wanted to rape Lot in the open! They were hell bent on terrorising Lot into accepting their warped sexual practice, these sexual deviants! They were actually going to make Lot pay for not allowing them to have a homosexual relationship with the two men! Saints, they were bent on persecuting Lot for standing against their iniquitous ways! It was now a matter of using force on the righteous, to make him submit to their abominable and most shameful lifestyle! For they decided: “We will deal worse with you, than we meant to deal with those two men you are hiding in your house!” Brothers and sisters, the whole town was full of homosexuals, for young and old had given themselves over to this evil and perverted lifestyle! What if they had had the force of the law on their side in that day, as these Sodomites have it today, you can only imagine what they would have done to Lot! My! What a day! And they began to press forcefully to take Lot against his will, and the angels then had to intervene, having no choice. Verse 10 recounts): “But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.” Look at the end of matter, for the next verse gives us the conclusion of the whole matter, one which also gives us a prophetic end to the troubling developments we see out there today, around the globe, for the gates of hell has now been opened up to humanity. Thanks to the Japhetic Western world: The United States and Europe! Verse 24: “Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah BRIMSTONE AND FIRE from the Lord out of heaven; And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.”The unchanging God did that, because their wickedness was very great, and because the end of such perverted and abominable behaviour is destruction. Halleluiah! And if God did that in that day; if God judged Sodom and Gomorrah for the SIN of homosexuality, then He is honour bound to judge this modern day Sodom and Gomorrah, for this age is even worse! Otherwise, He will have to resurrect the people of Sodom and Gomorrah and apologise to them, for they are "saints" in comparison to the levels which the INIQUITY OF HOMOSEXUALITY has been taken today! That is a fact! In Genesis Chapter 18, verse 20, God called homosexuality a "very grievous" SIN, for it is grievous SIN, pure and simple! In the Book of 2 Peter, Chapter 2, verses 4-9, the Holy Bible has this to say: "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of S O D O M and GOMORRHA into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, MAKING THEM AN ENSAMPLE UNTO THOSE THAT AFTER SHOULD LIVE UNGODLY; And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation" (or the filthy conduct) "of the wicked: (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished."

Brothers and sisters, now we see the serious conditions in the days of Lot, horrible and abominable conditions which Jesus Christ set before us in prophecy by reference. The society of Sodom was not only given to a life of Riley, wining and dining, buying and selling, building lovely homes, living the life, and enjoying themselves, without a care for the salvation of their souls, or for their eternal destiny; but much more than that, they were a people also given to grievous SIN, and they had not the slightest conviction or shame for their horrible ways. Saints, in the days of Lot, a great evil was going on in Sodom and Gomorrah, a horrible abomination in the earth, men having intimate relationships with men, and women with women, doing things that are perverse and unnatural. These are the conditions we find in the days of Lot! And may I say this, brothers and sisters, in the days of William Branham, homosexuals, gays and lesbians, were in the closet. In December 1965 when he died, the world was not bombarded by gays and lesbians. In fact, every gay or lesbian that existed then, existed only in secrecy, and they made sure that they were married, gave birth to children, and maintained a respectable image in the society. They used their marriage to a woman, their children, and their family, to cover what they were doing in secret, for they knew that it was highly iniquitous and despicable! As a matter of fact, the general public did not even know that such conduct was going on, for marriages and intimate relationships had always been between man and woman! So, in the days of Brother Branham, the condition we had in reality in the earth, was that of the days of Noah. We did not see the days of Lot, as at December 1965. You know why? It was because the Lord kept that spirit at bay, totally under check, and it was going to take a few more decades before that evil spirit would come forth into the open, manifesting itself in the earth, creating the days of Lot; which in itself, is an absolute sign, the evidence that the Spirit of conviction has left the Gentiles. But now today, gays are out in the open, and they are everywhere, terrorising people who are straight, forcing Christian bakers to bake for their iniquitous weddings, against Christian rights and principles, when they will never dare ask a Muslim baker to do so, because they are afraid of reprisals by the Islamic fundamentalists! They are gays, and proud! I said they are gays, and are proud of it! Now today, they are marrying one another, men marrying men, and women marrying women, kissing and hugging passionately in public, openly rejoicing and celebrating their iniquity, and the world is hailing them on! Church, in the days of Lot, there was no gay that married another gay, and neither was there any lesbian that married another lesbian, for there were no gay marriages, and neither was homosexuality legalised, even though that perverted lifestyle was predominant in Sodom. They even dared to force themselves on straight people, when they were hindered from committing homosexual acts with the visitors of Lot, but the issue of gay marriage did not come in! In that day, men burned with lust for men, doing that which Apostle Paul called "unseemly", and women also burned for women, for they were given over to "vile affections", having depraved minds, being "REPROBATES"! That was why God wiped them out at the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah! We thought that we had seen it all! Saints, it is mind boggling to think that any age could outclass the Sodomites in this "grievous" iniquity; but without a doubt, the Laodicean age have surpassed the evil and wickedness of the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. As abominable as they were in Lot's day, in Sodom and Gomorrah, at least they were not marrying one another, for it was not even legalized! But today, not only have they given themselves over to this grievous SIN; not only do they practice this perverted way of life, they also hold civil weddings for it, for sordid iniquity has been legalized! They go to the registry to be married, a man marrying another man, and a woman marrying another woman, committing abominations in the earth, causing the world to SIN! Here is a picture of a woman marrying another woman before a priest so-called. (Brother Amos points to the chart). Beside them we have the photo of a man in a dark suit marrying another man before a lady registrar. Below them we have two different gay couples who have just been married, kissing one another in marriage, whilst the couple on the left are holding out their marriage certificate for the world to see. Look at the gay couple at the very top of our chart. Obviously they have just been married, and they are hugging and kissing passionately, as the guests are clapping for them, celebrating their marriage, rejoicing over a sacrilegious event! Right under them we have the photo of three married lesbians in white wedding gowns, the World's First Married Lesbian Threesome. They are even expecting their first child. My, oh my! Many strange things are happening in this world today. What a world we now live in! Starting from the right to the left, Doll, who is 30, Brynn, who is 34, and Kitten, who is 27, all from Massachusetts, in the United States, were joined together in a marriage-like ceremony in August 2013, and they must have had their daughter by now. Kitten, who is on the extreme left, got pregnant through In vitro fertilisation treatment (IVF), using sperm from an anonymous donor. The IVF procedure involves the fertilisation of an egg with sperm outside the body, in a laboratory dish, and then replanting it into a woman's uterus. The three of them plan to have a child for each of them, all to be carried by Kitten; but they will need a man's sperm to be able to do that though. What a world! And what an age! Brothers and sisters, this abominable lifestyle, this grievous SIN for which God literally wiped out Sodom and Gomorrah, has been re-introduced by Satan today. Let me say this morning, church: There is nothing in all the prophecy of Jesus Christ that has prepared us for the horrible reality we are now facing! No one could have ever imagined that humanity would have degenerated to the state it is now in. No one could have ever imagined that the prophetic utterance of Jesus in Luke Chapter 17, would have had such an extensive application that it now has, at least not to this measure. How perfect the revelation of Jesus is! How perfectly he saw this day! How perfectly Jesus saw Laodicea! Because today, the world is not only filled with senseless violence and sheer wickedness as in Noah's day, it has now even graduated beyond what took place in the days of Lot. Now, men and men marry, and women and women marry. It is not even enough for them to have civil marriages, but now they are having marriage vows, holding gay and lesbian marriages in churches. Now it is being "solemnized"! It is utter abomination, and an extreme evil, for it is a great SIN! It is a sacrilege that a so-called man of God anywhere would marry two men or two women! Brothers and sisters, it amounts to blasphemy for any man to purport to bless a homosexual marriage in the name of the Lord! It is blasphemy for any man to call himself a man of God, and be instituting gay marriages right in church! How can a man of God, any true man of God bless same-sex marriages, or same-sex unions? Even the people of Sodom did not do that, for in their wickedness, they knew better than to do that! The Presbyterian Church of America have thrown their weight behind gay marriages, along with a long list of churches all over the globe: Lutheran; Anglican; Baptist; Methodist; Church of Sweden and Denmark, Church of Norway, on and on their list goes! A lot of Pentecostal ministers are gay people. It is not just the priests of Rome and of the Denominations that are gay, but a lot of Pentecostal preachers are also gay. And today, around the world, behind the pulpits, we have gays and lesbians. It is nothing but blasphemy that such moral perverts, people with such a horrible and abominable lifestyle, will have the audacity to stand behind the pulpit to preach a gospel of God, rather than to cry to God for deliverance! It is utter blasphemy, for this is SIN, one which the God of the Bible says "is very GRIEVOUS", as recorded in Genesis Chapter 18, verse 20! It is written in the Book of Prophet Isaiah Chapter 5, verse 20: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Verse 24 therefore declares: “Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.” Let me tell you now: There is no law of man, however great and powerful the nation may be, that can overturn the law of God. Let us get that straight! And as we all know, the general acceptance of something does not make it good or right. This generation has far exceeded Sodom and Gomorrah in iniquity. At least in Sodom and Gomorrah, they were not marrying one another as homosexuals, and neither did their governments make laws legalising it, and neither were they receiving government benefits for it! But today, brothers and sisters, they are marrying openly, and they are exceedingly proud of it, backed by the full force of the law, and with full government benefits! They are bombarding the world with wholesale iniquity. Brothers and sisters, the Prince of the Gays, the Leader of Gays, is that moral pervert in America, called by the name of Barack Obama, the President of the greatest nation on earth! He, along with David Cameron, the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, are the ones pushing the gay marriage agenda, big time, around the globe! Hence we have the two of them on the chart, bearing the gay wedding cake, leading the gay parade. Now the West are using Money; they are using Financial Aid, to force African Nations to legalize gay marriage. And if they do not allow for gay marriages, billions of aid are withdrawn. That is one of the reasons why Sierra Leone is still affected by Ebola, because the billions of dollars that should have been given to them was withheld from them, because of their stance against same-sex marriages. Now today, you cannot speak against homosexuality. If you do, you are called “homophobic”, which is an irrational fear of, or an irrational discrimination against homosexuals or homosexuality. They can call us anything they want to, but I will tell them now that their days are numbered. And let me say this to Barack Obama and David Cameron: Before you were born, and before your great grandparents came to this earth, Elohim, the God of Israel, created this planet. And let me also tell the two of you: The Lord God Almighty created the earth in righteousness and in true holiness, and He decreed that in the earth, men will be just and righteous, particularly those who are placed as rulers over men. He also expects that all men will walk humbly before their Maker, the Maker, which obviously, the two of you have no clue about, and certainly, the Maker you have no regard for. Otherwise, you would have considered the Holy Bible, and the messages of the servants of God all through time, denouncing the evil conduct you have now helped to establish and glorify in the earth, backed with the force of the law, your iniquitous laws! It was the prophet of God, Prophet Isaiah, who declared in Chapter 10, verse 1, taken together with verse 3: “WOE UNTO THEM THAT DECREE U N R I G H T E O U S DECREES, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed.” “And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?" But I will tell you now, your Presidency and Prime Ministership is not going to last forever. There is coming a day that the God of heaven and earth will withhold the breath of life from you, as is the manner of all men, and you will stand before His Throne to account for the abominable evil you have helped to established on this planet. You can call us any name you want to; you can call us religious fanatics; you can call us religious extremists, just because we choose to call SIN by its true name. But the Holy Bible, which is the Word of God that I preach, one which you call outdated, in the Old Testament, as well as in the New Testament, and according to the inspired and infallible writings of Apostles Peter and Paul, condemn in so clear terms the sin of homosexuality, for it is an evil and an abominable lifestyle. And as you must all know, SIN HAS ITS PAYDAY! Almighty God called the homosexual lifestyle an abomination and grievous SIN, and there is none of you that can change this absolute fact, for it will ever remain an Iniquity. In the Old Testament, it was referred to as an abomination; in the New Testament, it is still referred to as an abomination, one carried out by "reprobates", for the righteous demands of God remains the same, for Jehovah God does not change. It is written in the Book of Proverbs Chapter 14, verse 34: "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to ANY PEOPLE." Brothers and sisters, today, the Western nations now glory in Iniquity, and homosexuality has become the cause for celebration around the globe. I am simply showing you the days of Lot! People now come on BBC; they come on CNN, and they openly declare that they are gay, and the world celebrate them; they are applauded. And on top of that, they "solemnize" their same-sex marriage by one preacher from hell. They say that we are not liberal, but religious extremists. But I challenge them: Go and preach your gay religion to the Iranians! Go to Iran and preach your gay message there, if you dare! Go to Saudi Arabia, and preach gay messages to them there! Go to Qatar, a nation that is giving you billions of dollars to shut your mouth, whilst at the same time funding ISIS, and preach your gay religion to them! Go to Iraq and preach gay religion to them! You go to Turkey and Syria, and let us see you preach gay rights there! It is not enough for them to have their warped and perverted lifestyles in Europe and in America, having thrown away ALL attributes of righteousness and morality; but they must bring it to Africa and to the rest of the world, where there is still some measure of morality and spiritual sanity; where the people still have a measure of respect for the Name of God, however carnal. Now they are using money to make Africans degenerate. They are offering money for the degeneration of humanity. And everyday, the schools of learning in the West are being bombarded by gay literature and activists, and children in their innocence are being taught and made to love it as good and acceptable, and many children are now being adopted by gay couples, because it is absolutely impossible for them to conceive. And you must know that the children they adopt, will not just accept the homosexual lifestyle as good, but they will also end up being homosexuals themselves, for they will be taught this iniquitous way of life! But we cannot speak against it, for it is called hate preaching, and it now amounts to a hate crime. Gay people can propagate their religion; they can propagate their evil lifestyle; they have the liberty to propagate their warped, perverted, and abominable lifestyle, and to also speak freely against Christians who oppose it, and ridicule the Holy Bible as much as they want to. They can do that unabated, and with impunity. But Christians have no such liberty to stand against unrighteousness. You cannot even speak against it, and you cannot express your personal convictions of faith, because if you do, the law enforcement agents will come after you, and put you in jail, as it contravenes the law, for it is now a crime. It is termed hate preaching and discrimination, for you are not allowed to call Sin by its name! What a world! What a day this is! Brothers and sisters, preachers are now losing their licenses in the Western world because of their stand against what is plainly Iniquitous. Preaching licenses are now being withdrawn in the West, because of the preachers' stand against homosexuality. They forget that our authority to preach does not come from ANY human government, and neither does it come from Barak Hussein Obama, or from David Cameron, but from El Elyon, the Most High God! Our authority to preach comes strictly from Almighty God! Even if I am thrown in prison, I will still p r e a c h a g a i n s t homosexuality, for it is SINFUL CONDUCT, and somebody has to preach against SIN! I will preach against it with every breath I have, and with every fibre in my body, regardless of what any man may say or do, for I owe God my life! And even if they shut my mouth permanently by killing me, yet, my blood, like that of Abel, will still be crying out against homosexuality, because it is SIN, and God hates SIN, particularly this SIN, b e c a u s e i t i s a grievous one! Period!

Brothers and sisters, it was in the news not long ago, that in the United States of America, a great consortium upon consortium of lawyers all over the States were falling over one another to attend court, in support of the gay marriage movement. Most states in the US, 36 in all, have already passed laws recognising and legalising gay marriage. Giant corporations like Walmart, have also thrown their weight behind the gay movement. A few days ago, Tim Cook, the CEO of Apple, one of the five hundred blue-chip companies, these big conglomerate companies, came out openly on CNN and declared that he is gay, and the world went agog (excited) for him. The CNN reporter was saying something to this effect: "It is a good thing that he was able to come out, for this should open the way for CEOs of other blue-chip companies to do the same." Church, that man opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, saying that his being gay is one of the gifts he got from God. My, oh my! Brothers and sisters, that is outright blasphemy! It is utter blasphemy that that moral pervert would say that! A man that should be weeping for his iniquitous life; a man who should be weeping in utter shame for his abominable lifestyle, seeking deliverance from that demon, is glorying in iniquity, and is attributing his warped lifestyle to the Almighty God! It is an abomination and an utter sacrilege! It is blasphemy! Brothers and sisters, this is not all that we are facing in the days of Lot. Remember that we are speaking on LUKE 17:30. Now today, there is something called the LGBT community, for they are giving themselves a “lovely” title, glamourizing sodomy. But ask me, brothers and sisters, what is the LGBT community? It is a gathering of all sorts of perverts. The LGBT community is a gathering of the hordes from hell! They have now added “Queering” and “Intersex” to it, and as such, it is now called LGBTQI. Do you know what all that means? “L” stands for Lesbian; “G” stands for Gay; “B” stands for Bisexual; “T” stands for Transgender or Transexual; “Q” stands for Queering, and it applies to Jews who have taken on the homosexual lifestyle, but are now “queering” (or questioning, and re-translating) the Torah, in order to allow for homosexuality; and “I” stands for Intersex, people whose sex is difficult to determine as male or female by medical doctors, on account of a combination of hormones present in their body, or for having both sex organs, genetic traits which we all know are caused by the operations of demons. All the hordes from hell are coming together under the umbrella of LGBTQI, (and I am referring to the evil spirits motivating them), and they do it openly, and are happy and proud of it. They have formed their Union or Community, and the world celebrates them. CNN rejoices for them; the BBC rejoices for them. Let me address the BBC and CNN, seeing that they have now made themselves the mouthpiece of Lucifer. Your day will come when the Master of the Church, the King of kings and Lord of lords comes with the Bride on white horses. In that day, when the rocks begin to fall, and this earth is rocked by a mega earthquake, tilting the earth out of its axis, as the planet begins to go into unimaginable convulsions, on the Day of the Lord, and God also sets this world on fire, in order to burn out ungodly humanity, in judgment for their gross iniquity, in that day, we will see what you will report! Because you will realise in that day, that the God you hate to hear about; the God whose name you do not want to hear, and whose Bible you detest; the God whose record you do not want to bear, and a God you have ridiculed and spat upon, that that is the very day that you will see His wrath, for it is certainly coming! It will be like what God did in the days of Lot to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, only that it is now going to be on a global and on an unimaginable scale, as the Lord wipes out this evil world, using giant earthquakes and asteroids, and with great fire and brimstone, ALL for man's Iniquity! No, we do not hate people, regardless of their sin; but we hate sin, and we are lifting up our voice against sin, for we are preachers of righteousness! After all, we are sinners saved just by the grace of God, for we are nothing in ourselves. However, the truth remains that although God loves sinners, He hates SIN, and He has appointed a day when He will judge Sin, for INIQUITY HAS AN END! It does, regardless of what the world think! We, as God's children also love people; but we hate iniquity, because the Bible condemns iniquity. Only righteousness exalts a nation! And when a nation, any nation, is given to evil, that nation certainly has no future, but is doomed, for her judgment is sure to come. Otherwise, I will ask you: Where is the Rome of Yesteryears? Where is the glory of Old Babylon, and of Greece? Greece today is with a begging bowl in her hands, pleading for financial bailout from the European Union! Any nation that forgets God, and any race of people that forget their Maker, are all going to go the way of old Babylon, and the way of Old Rome, when it was under the Caesars, for they are now history! God judged every last one of them for their Iniquity! Saints, what a most degenerate and bankrupt age we now live in! The extremely low, social, moral, and spiritual state we find today, as in the days of Lot, has no match in ALL human history! What a day! Many children in the West are now becoming transgender by choice, obviously with the help of their parents and medical doctors; they are having their hormones suppressed, as early as five, six, seven years of age, before puberty, and are undergoing sex changes, much earlier than before, because that is what they want! Saints, in the Western world, with so many transsexuals or transgender people, particularly because they are having their hormones suppressed before puberty, which is very early in life, it is now very difficult to tell as adults, whether a person is actually a man or a woman! It is scary! You will see someone who looks like a lovely lady, with every physical attribute a woman has, but she is a man! I call them "He-she", for he is a he turned to a she. You also see someone who looks very handsome, very macho, and sometimes with muscles, but as a matter of fact, he is a lady, a "She-he", for she is a she turned to a he. And even for an adult transgender female, through plastic or cosmetic surgery, they remove her breasts and everything, and give her male genitalia, turning her into a man. And likewise, for an adult transgender male, they remove his genitalia, and give him female genitalia, and with hormone therapy, they give him a woman's breasts, and honestly speaking, if they stand before you, you are not going to know the difference! In the Western world, it is now difficult to know who you are marrying, whether it is a biological man or woman, or one that has been turned into one by the power of medical science, for these medical procedures are performed every day by doctors from hell! The other day, I read a news report of two married gay couples who filed for divorce; homosexual couples are now also fighting in the court of law for divorce rights! My! See what Satan has turned this world into? Now in Germany, Australia, Bangladesh, India, Nepal, New Zealand, and a host of other countries, on account of the Intersex people, they now have a third class of people, a third gender, a legal third gender of people who are neither male nor female, for they are indeterminate, being Intersex, "X" gender. On their International Passport or Electoral Role, they are described as "X" or "Other" gender. These are indeed the Days of Lot! And listen to this: In these days of Lot, Jehovah God is so much hated, so much despised, that now, Atheists in England have announced that they are going on a Global "Missionary" Tour, in order to establish godless church congregations around the world, called The Sunday Assembly! That is how much love and respect they have for Elohim, the One who created them! What godless audacity the people living in the days of Lot have! What utter impudence! May I inform you that The Sunday Assembly, a godless church in London, is already thriving! They hold Sunday services to make jest of God and His Word, and they carry on, in their opposition of God! The founders of the church, comedians Pippa Evans and Sanderson Jones, are carrying their godless message to Bristol, Brighton, in the United Kingdom. And in the USA, they plan to set up atheist congregations in New York, Washington DC, Chicago, San Diego, Los Angeles, Silicon Valley, and Vancouver, among other places, before heading to Australia. Now listen to the troubling news I got on the Internet on Sodomy: “Over one million people flooded the streets of central Sao Paulo this Sunday, as the city's 18th Annual Gay Pride Parade rode into town, with colour, music and exotic fancy dress in Sao Paulo, Brazil, on May 4, 2014. This year's parade called for the criminalisation of discrimination of members of LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender) community, as well as the approval of the Gender Identity Bill, guaranteeing simplified legal recognition of transgender people.”In the Daily Mail Newspaper of Thursday, 31st October, 2013, listen to what Sir James Munby, a

UK Judge, said concerning Christian morality: “Courts should not give Christianity more weight than other religions, a Senior Judge has said. Sir James Munby, President of the Family Division, said Britain was a 'multicultural community of many faiths' and that judges must take an 'essentially neutral view of religious beliefs' and not 'weigh one religion against another'.”(What a shame! Tell that to the Judges in Iran; or in Saudi Arabia; or in Afghanistan; or in Iraq; or in Syria; or in Jordan; or in Turkey; or in Dubai; or in Qatar, where the laws of all these countries are based squarely on the religion of their country, which is Islam! My! They are nothing but compromisers; backslidden nations! The report continues): “In a speech in London, he said JUDGES 'HAPPILY' NO LONGER HAD A ROLE IN ENFORCING MORALITY, unlike in the past when they routinely c o n d e m n e d homosexuality, adultery, and promoted Victorian social attitudes. 'ONCE UPON A TIME, THE PERCEIVED FUNCTION OF THE JUDGES WAS TO PROMOTE VIRTUE AND DISCOURAGE VICE AND

IMMORALITY,' HE SAID. 'I DOUBT ONE WOULD NOW HEAR THAT FROM THE JUDICIAL BENCH. 'Today, surely, the judicial task is to assess matters by the standards of reasonable men and women in 2013 not by the standards of their parents in 1970.' Sir James said that Victorian Judges promoted 'virtue and morality' while discouraging 'vice and immorality' with a 'very narrow view of sexual morality'. He cited laws banning gay sex and abortion and rulings that condemned women for adultery. He added that the influence of Christian churches in the courts had also disappeared in recent years. He said: 'Happily for us, the days are past when the business of Judges was the enforcement of morals or religious beliefs.' He said that modern-day Judges had rightly abandoned any claim to be 'guardians of public morality', just as Christian clerics no longer claimed to speak as the 'defining voices of morality and of the law of marriage and the family'. Sir James said the last few years had seen the 'disappearance, in an increasingly secular and pluralistic society, of what until comparatively recently was in large measure a commonly accepted package of moral, ethical and religious values'."What a very sorry state of affairs. What a sad state, and what a sad world. What an apostate condition for a continent that once taught the world to live for Elohim, the God of Creation! Now they happily embrace and celebrate homosexuals; they readily and happily persecute righteous voices of opposition to iniquity, calling it intolerance! Indeed, these are the days of Lot! The gross evil, the wickedness, and the iniquity of this age is so palpable, that you can touch and handle it; it is palpable darkness! I show you the Days of Lot!

Brothers and sisters, I have news for you this morning. Brother Branham did not live to see the days of Lot. That is most undeniable! Brother Branham did not see the days of Sodom! He only read about it in the main, and he also probably knew or heard about maybe two or three people here and there, that were struggling with the sin of homosexuality, but in the closet somewhere, not out in the open; nobody knew them, and nobody saw them. The society of people in the days of Brother Branham maintained a clean moral outlook in relation to proper marriage. Brothers and sisters, you have to agree with me this morning, that when we consider William Branham, the Elijah-prophet of Malachi 4:6B, that when he died in 1965, he did not live to see the days of Lot. And although before he passed away, he condemned the world for its gross iniquity and unbelief, yet, for all that, he did not have any idea of what the world would really be like, in the days of Lot, for it was impossible back then to envisage that the human society would degenerate to such an extent as we now behold today in the earth. That was why he preached a message titled, The Flashing Red Light of His Coming. He also preached another message titled, Satan's Eden, and another one titled, INDICTMENT. I wonder what he would preach if he were here now, because incredible things are going on around the world, and the religious world is sound asleep, having given in to the deluge of Satan. It is only the bride of Christ that is awake. Open your eyes, brethren, for strange things are happening in the earth! Brothers and sisters, now I have to run along with my message, although I am now at the highlight of my message, and I am making a very crucial point. You have to agree with me, that when you look at Luke 17:30, Brother Branham only lived in the days that we are given in verses 26-27, which gives us the days of Noah. And even then, the conditions of the violence that existed in his day, is nothing compared with the sadistic, senseless, and brutal killings and mutilation of Christians, which the Islamic terrorists are causing around the globe today, apart from the mayhem which drug cartels are causing in the nations where they operate, developments which only worsen the days of Noah. Now in the days of Lot, it is no longer human beings walking the streets, but raw demons, demons who have taken over humanity! Saints, as we sit here today, one thing is definite, plain, and incontestable: William Branham did not live in the days of the application of verse 28, which gives us the days of Lot. He did not live long enough to see the days of Lot. If that is a fact, please raise up your hand. (Brother Amos raised up his hand, and the whole congregation also raised up their hands). Halleluiah! Seeing this day ahead, was precisely why our Lord Jesus did not lump the two days together in his prophetic projection, but rather, he separated them, even though they are all applicable in this last age. He could have said: "As it was in the days of Noah and Lot, so shall it also be in the days when the Son of man is revealed." But he did not say that, because he is perfect in the light of God that he bore, being the Testator of the New Testament, the Son of God, our Lord and Redeemer. By divine insight, he knew that the two conditions would not be on the ground at the same time; for he knew by the inspiration of the Almighty God, that the conditions in this age would first give us that of Noah's setting, before things graduate to give us Lot's setting, on a scale that was going to be hard to conceive before now. God also knew that William Branham, the Elijah of Malachi 4:6B, the man He would use to characterise Jesus the Christ in his

"Son of man" ministry, which is a prophetic ministry, in the days of Noah, would not be on ground in the days of Lot. Yet, it is written in Luke Chapter 17, verses 28-30: "Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed." We all know that "Thus saith the Lord" cannot fail, for as it is also written: "THE SCRIPTURE CANNOT BE BROKEN." What then are we going to do with the promise of the Lord concerning the manifestation of the Son of man in the days of Lot? If the Son of man is also to be revealed in the days of Lot, and Brother Branham is dead, for he is not here to characterise and express the earthly prophetic ministry of Jesus in the hour of Lot, how shall the Son of man be revealed in the hour of Lot? Come on! Elijah the prophet is no longer here with us to fulfil the application of LUKE 17:30, with regards to the days of Lot, and today, in November 2014, we are living in the days of Lot. Then we have to ask ourselves this vital question: Where is the Son of man's revelation-manifestation in Lot's hour, which is in our own day, this very day? Where is our privilege to also see the re-enactment of the earthly prophetic ministry of the Messiah, the one who died for us, seeing that we are now living in the days of Lot? Let the Branham Movement answer that! Herein lies the Dual application of LUKE 17:30. Now I show you the Dual application of LUKE 17:30. Brothers and sisters, LUKE 17:30 does not only have application at this end time in the days of Noah, it also has application in the days of Lot as well. And that is the infallible promise! Now that we are in Lot's day, in all seriousness, and as never before, with all the LGBT hordes from hell bombarding the doors of the nations of the world, just as they bombarded the door of Lot in Sodom, way back then in Genesis, I ask again: Where is the revelation of the Son of man? For as it is written concerning Lot's day: "Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed”!What are we therefore going to do with the Dual application of LUKE 17:30, for we cannot get away from its dual application? The days of Lot are staring us in the face, for it is earnestly upon us! Now the hordes of hell are bombarding the gates of the foolish virgins in Sodom! As they bombarded the door of Lot, the LGBT Community are now knocking on the doors of the Denominational world, the doors of the assemblies, holding the Gentile foolish virgins, who are children of God, asking Christians to join their bandwagon, using carnal tolerance and carnal love as their appeal! Saints of God, make no mistake about it: Gays and Lesbians and all these other moral perverts cannot and will not win, just as the Sodomites lost out in that day, for God sent fire and brimstones to burn them out, and Sodom was permanently destroyed! The cup of the Amorites is almost full, and her judgment is at the door. Let me remind you that in that day, whilst the blinding angels were dealing with Lot in that scuffle, who is a type of the foolish virgins in the Organised Religious world of modern day

Sodom, Elohim was dealing with Abraham prophetically, for Abraham was on ground, typifying the elect bride of Christ. And today in these days of Lot, the elect royal seeds of Abraham are also here, following Elohim in His prophetic revelation, knowing precisely what is coming upon the world of Sodom, an imminent judgment at that. And because the Spirit of Elohim is here, He is now pointing us to Lot's day, to help us know what the day is saying, and exactly how to look at it, because it is an evil day, an evil hour of time, one which outclasses all other days in evil. Brothers and sisters, the days of Lot is an extremely evil hour above every other hour man has ever used on this planet, for there is no age as evil as this age! This age makes the people of Sodom and Gomorrah look like saints in comparison. This generation of shameless moral perverts, make the gays and lesbians in Sodom and Gomorrah look like saints! But thank God, that in this horrible hour, there is a promise of the revelation-manifestation of “the Son of man”, the earthly prophetic ministry of the Messiah, to the elect bride of this hour and junction of time. Hence Jesus started with the setting of Noah's day, and the revelation of the Son of man therein, for he knew that time would progress, and we would also hit the setting of Lot's day, still in the Laodicean church age. And then in the hour of Lot, he said: “LIKEWISE ALSO as it was in the days of Lot... Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.” So the question now is: Now that we are in the days of Lot, and the end time Elijah is no longer here, how will Luke 17:30 be fulfilled, in its application to the days of Lot? That is what we want to see, and that is precisely why I am taking this message, for you must all see the Dual Application of LUKE 17:30. That this promise of Scripture is also applicable to this hour of time is not in any doubt, for it is solidly and scripturally established. However, the question remains: Just how will it be fulfilled? How will the Son of man be revealed in this hour of time? For the answer, and by the grace of God, I will give you Scriptures, and I will give you quotes, and I will also seal it up with Scriptures, and then I will close my message. I pray that God will help me. I appreciate your patience, and I thank you for your understanding. But I have to take this route because of the opposition, so that they may not have anything to stand on, if they reject the truth. May God help us to make the truth plain. Amen.

Brothers and sisters, as I said before, seeing that there is no doubt that the Son of man must be manifested in the days of Lot as well, the only question we now need to answer is: How is the Son of man to be manifested now that the prophet is no longer here? In other words, if we are looking at the manifestation of the Son of man in the days of Lot, the question is: Who is God going to use to characterise the Son of man? That is the issue! And as I said, that is the question I will now answer, and close my message. Come with me to the Scriptures of truth. I will take you back in time to the hour of Prophet Ezekiel. Do not forget that God is perfect in ALL His ways. Open with me to the Book of Ezekiel Chapter 3, beginning from verse 1, and it records: “Moreover He”(the Lord) “said unto me, SON OF MAN”, (meaning a prophet), “eat that thou findest; Eat this ROLL, and go speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that roll. And He said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. And He said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.” Amen. In this Chapter, a son of man, A PROPHET, was given a roll to eat. But please note that the roll that he ate had no seals on it whatsoever. Now, please come with me to the Book of Revelation Chapter 5, and we will take it from verses 1-5: “And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne”(of God in heaven), “a book”,(which is a scroll, the scroll of redemption), “written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.” Here in this prophetic passage of Scripture, we see the scroll of redemption in the hand of the Lord Jesus, sealed with seven seals. With this thought, now come with me to Revelation Chapter 10, for we want to look at something that happened relating to this scroll, in the prophetic projection the Lord Jesus also made in 96 AD, on the Isle of Patmos. Verse 1 states: “And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven...” (This is none other than Archangel Michael, conveying the very presence and physical image of Jesus Christ our Lord. That is why he is) “clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head”,(showing us that he is Jesus Christ, the Messenger of the Covenant); “and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire”, (descriptions which confirm that he is the Lord Jesus in representation, the one who stood our judgment) Verse 2: “And he had in his hand a little book open”, (which is the scroll of redemption we just saw in Chapter 5, in the hand of the Lord, the one who paid the price for our redemption). But now, the seventh and final seal on the scroll had finally been broken, making the scroll a fully open scroll, an open book. And as we sit this morning, you and I know that the seventh seal has not yet been broken. There is still a seal keeping Jesus Christ on the Mercy Seat. And for our visiting brethren, if you really want to know the truth on the seventh seal, we have a message in the Scribe titled, The Seventh Seal. It is on our website for free downloading, and the printed Scribe is also available for free on request. And I believe, by the grace of God, that it settles the issue of the seventh seal, for we know that it has not yet been broken. But when it is broken, then Revelation Chapter 10 will be set in motion, barring verse 7, for verse 7 has already been accomplished, setting the foundation for the fulfilment of Chapter 10. Coming back to the issue of the scroll, we will take verse 1 again, and move on with it: “And I”(John) “saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand A LITTLE BOOK OPEN: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.” Brothers and sisters, before we consider verse 3, which ignites the ministry of the seven thunders, we must first take verses 1-2, and connect it with verse 8, to further connect it to the ministry of John, the one who sees the mighty angel's literal descent in the spirit, for the angel is coming with something for him. We saw that at the last Convention, when we took a message titled, The Lead Thunder, And The Chronology Of Revelation 10. Continuing in verse 8, it says: “And the voice which I”(John) “heard from heaven”, (which is the baritone voice of Elohim), “spake unto me again, and said” (to John), “Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, AND ATE IT UP; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.” Under the Old Testament, in Ezekiel Chapter 3, we saw a son of man, a prophet, who was asked to eat a scroll, and the result of the eating of that scroll was a prophetic message to the entire Nation of Israel, as a “son of man”. Now, here under the New Testament, we see another prophetic setting concerning the eating of a scroll. However, this is the scroll of redemption, quite unlike the roll Ezekiel ate. The roll Ezekiel ate represents the Word of God for that hour; but the scroll John is given to eat here depicts or speaks of the scroll of redemption, and that makes it a different kettle of fish entirely. This scroll of redemption was originally sealed with seven seals, but now, the seventh and final seal has finally been broken, making the scroll a fully open scroll. Jesus Christ our Lord and saviour, who has the scroll in his hand, rises from the Mediatoral throne at the breaking of the seventh seal, as revealed in Revelation Chapter 8, verse 1, and slips to the earth in the spirit, characterised by Michael, the archangel. When he does that, brothers and sisters, he gives the open scroll to John for his total consumption. Remember, in the day Apostle John had this divine prophetic encounter on the Isle of Patmos, way back in 96 AD., all the seven seals were still on the scroll, for not even one seal had been broken as at that time. And the scroll that was eaten is a fully opened scroll. Yet, it was not until 1963 that the first six seals were broken by Jesus Christ in heaven. This lets us know that when John the beloved disciple ate the scroll in the spirit, in the prophetic projection, he did it only in a representative capacity, for he was only standing in the shoes of the end time John, the man who will have the reality of the visionary experience John had on the Isle of Patmos, for it is at the end time that John will eat the scroll without any seal on it. We have a message dealing specifically with this issue in a Scribe, titled, The Eating of The Scroll, and it is for free distribution upon request. The real question now is this: What is the essence of John eating the scroll of redemption? What is its prophetic significance? How do we apply it in reality, knowing that no man will be given literal paper to eat? Saints, the eating of the scroll is simply to set in motion John's prophetic ministry, for it portrays the activation of the prophetic fold of his ministry. Full stop! Hence, following the eating of the scroll in verses 8-10, verse 11 declares: "And he" (Jesus Christ our Lord) "said unto ME" (John), "Thou must prophesy AGAIN", (meaning a second time), "before MANY peoples, and nations, and tongues, AND KINGS." Brothers and sisters, we all know that John the beloved apostle did not fulfil this verse of prophecy, for he never left Asia Minor, which is now modern day Turkey, when he passed away around 100 AD. He died in Asia Minor, and he never fulfilled this prophecy, simply because it was given strictly on account of the end time John. Period! Do not forget that the Book of Revelation is a Book of symbols, in which the Lord hides deep prophetic issues in deep and complex prophetic symbols and imageries. Therefore, the eating of the scroll is what sets the prophetic ministry of the end time John in motion. That is why it is very crucial that you understand that the ministry of the end time John has a twofold anointing, and a twofold message, and this fact is already vindicated by the ministry of the first John, for John the beloved apostle carried a twofold anointing in his day, and a twofold message! A few years before Apostle Paul passed away in 66 AD., the Spirit of the Lord led Apostle John to Ephesus. In preparation for the passing away of Saint Paul, who was the star messenger to that age, the Spirit of God led Saint John to Ephesus. And in 66 AD., when God called Apostle Paul home, the unction of the revelation of truth that Apostle Paul bore, which made him the chief apostle, was not transferred to Timothy, and neither was it transferred to Titus, two of the men who were the closest to Apostle Paul in the ministry in that day, men, one of whom we would have thought would have gotten the anointing. But because the election and the sovereignty of God stands inviolate, God did not give the revelatory key, or the revelatory unction of truth to Timothy or Titus: He invested it in John the beloved apostle, making John the Lead Apostle to that age, the Ephesian age, stepping directly into the shoes of Saint Paul, from then on. I now ask you sincerely: What kind of anointing did John carry in that day, that is, from 66 AD to 96 AD, before he was banished to the Isle of Patmos? It was strictly a salvational anointing, and by this anointing, he carried only a salvational message! However, in 96 AD., he was banished to the Isle of Patmos on account of the Word of God, and that was precisely where the Master needed him to be at that very point in time, because before the foundation of the world, God had foreordained that in Patmos, the prophetic anointing would descend upon him. And on the Isle of Patmos, the prophetic anointing descended upon him, when he had an encounter with Michael, the archangel; and that encounter changed the ministry of John, and also changed everything for John! No, he did not stop being an apostle, but now, he was placed squarely in the shoe of a prophet, bearing a prophetic anointing, as God began to deal with him prophetically, with serious visions and prophetic projections. He received such a great anointing in that day, but it was strictly a prophetic one. And by that great prophetic unction he received, he carried the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ in deep prophetic imageries, which out classed every prophetic Book we have in the entire Bible. But do not forget, brothers and sisters, for I want you all to see this, and you must all understand it as well, that although it was a prophetic anointing he received on the Isle of Patmos, nevertheless, it was strictly a REVELATORY ONE, even though it was extremely deep and complex, and although it was unparalleled through time, making the Book of Revelation the greatest prophetic Book in the entire Bible, the greatest prophetic Book ever. That is an undeniable fact, for the Book of Revelation stands in a class all by itself, intriguing and bemusing (confusing) the entire religious world for almost two thousand years, for they had no clue about it, and still have no clue as we speak! Yet, for all that, the anointing of John the beloved apostle, and his experience, still only gives us the prophetic revelation of the mind of the Spirit of Christ, laying out the revelatory content of God's end time plan! Full stop!

There is no record where people came to Saint John, and he discerned their p e r s o n a l l i v e s prophetically, as a proper prophet would do. There is no record where they came to John, and he told them of events in their personal lives by prophetic insight: Because the prophetic unction that he received, although unparalleled, was strictly revelatory, laying out the revelatory plan of end time events! Period! Please note that! I repeat: The prophetic anointing John received in that day was purely revelatory, though prophetic, for it was to enable him to lay out the entire plan of end time events, as foreordained by God, and as given to Jesus Christ by the God the Father, which he in turn sent down by his angel, unto his servant John, for and on behalf of Christ's plural servants! Thus saith the Lord in Revelation Chapter 1, verses 1-2: “The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: WHO BARE RECORD of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and OF ALL THINGS THAT HE SAW."

Period! He only bore record of all things that he saw, the prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ, and that was why he laid out the end time prophetic events in such deep and complex prophetic symbols, for that was precisely how the testimony was given to him, as the scribe of Jesus Christ in 96 AD! Consequently, every elect seed of God must see that the prophetic anointing which John the beloved disciple received in that day, was strictly a revelatory one, as the prophetic scribe of the Lord! And all that was also pointing to an era of time, which is this day of Lot, for his prophetic anointing and experience, also speaks of an end time reality, which the end time John will also have. Yet, the visit of the angel of Christ to him in 96 AD., on the Isle of Patmos, was not what made him the Lead apostle in that day, for he had been in that shoe since the passing away of Apostle Paul in 66 AD. As verse 1 vindicates, angel

Michael came to him in 96 AD., to give him the prophetic revelations that he received, for and on behalf of ALL other servants of Christ, because he was Lead Apostle, the "candlestick" of Jesus Christ on the ground in that day, as also vindicated by Revelation Chapter 2, verse 5! As we showed earlier, before 96 AD, he had been carrying a salvational message, borne by a salvational anointing, and by it, he wrote the Gospel of John, and the three Epistles of John. But with the experience on the Isle of Patmos, the anointing on him changed, and his message also changed. The anointing became a prophetic one, and his message also became a prophetic one. And by this prophetic anointing, he bore the greatest prophetic Book of the Bible, and this Book ended the entire record of the written Scriptures, for that Book brought climax, completion, and closure, to God's inspired written Word. However, the point I am emphasising, and a crucial point that you must see, is that the prophetic anointing he bore, although great, was strictly one that was revelatory, for it only enabled him to lay out the prophetic events which God foreordained at this end time. It had no application to individual person or persons, except that he was to make seven copies of that prophetic writing, and he was to give a copy to each of the seven pastors of the seven churches in Asia Minor. Period! That is the extent of the prophetic dealing which the John of that day had! But now, look at Revelation Chapter 10, verse 11, which declares infallibly that JOHN "MUST PROPHECY AGAIN", which is a second time, in strict reference to the end time John, thus giving us a repeat prophetic ministry. However, saints of God, this is where the prophetic ministry of the John of the end time becomes different to that of the John of the first church age, and herein lies the greater glory the Lord has conferred upon the end time John. In the first place, we know that the end time John will not be a writing prophet, in terms of adding to the writings of the Holy Bible. No, he will not; for no man can add to, or subtract from the written and infallible Word of God, for it is absolutely complete! And herein lies the greater glory of the end time John, just as it is written in Haggai chapter 2 verse 9, that “the glory of the latter SHALL BE GREATER than that of the former”. It is also written in Ecclesiastes Chapter 7, verse 8: “Better is the END OF A THING than the beginning thereof”! This is not spoken to lift up the flesh of a man, but strictly to unveil the truth of God's prophetic Word to the eagles of God. After all, you cannot take away the investment of grace in any man, for God is sovereign. And no matter how much you do not like something; no matter the resentment you have towards it, the fact remains that you will never change the plan of God. So it is not about what we are saying, it is strictly about what God says in His Word, for you must consider God's revealed plan of salvation; what the Lord has recorded in the Holy Bible concerning John. Full stop! But look at what the Lord Jesus Christ spoke prophetically to John, on behalf of the end time John. In Revelation Chapter 10, after John had been given the scroll of redemption to eat, verse 11 records: “And he”(Jesus Christ our Lord) “said unto ME”, (which is the John of the end time, the man living in the day of the reality), “ T H O U M U S T PROPHECY AGAIN...” It gives us the return of the spirit of John; Not his human spirit, but the anointing of God that carried his ministry from the divine encounter he had on the Isle of Patmos. When we talk of the return of the Spirit of Elijah, which came upon William Branham, nobody in our midst is saying it is the human spirit of Elijah the Tishbite that he received. So, if it was not the human spirit of Elijah the Tishbite that came upon William Branham, but the anointing of the Spirit of God, how then can people question us, when we similarly say that there will be a return of the Spirit of John, when the Scriptures promise a return of his Spirit? And how can they accuse us of implying that it is the human spirit of John that we are teaching that will return, when we have never made such statements, not even by mistake? The truth is that if Elijah the Tishbite came the first time, and God anointed him with His Spirit, and subsequently, his anointing fell upon Elisha, for he received a double portion of the Spirit of Elijah, and it later came upon John the Baptist, and then, at this end time, it also came upon William Branham, and yet, in the Last Week of Daniel, it will still come upon a modern day Jew, when we now speak of the return of the Spirit of John, why will people then say that we are speaking of his human spirit? If God can use the anointing of Elijah so many times, what is impossible about God using John's anointing twice, if it is not because men are haters of the Holy Scriptures? Why can they not see such plain truth, if it is not that they are haters of Jesus Christ? Let me tell you this morning, since I have touched on it, the Branham Movement do not like Jesus Christ: They actually hate him! They are haters of Jesus Christ, which is precisely why they hate his Word, the Holy Scriptures! It is only Brother Branham they love, and it is even a carnal love that they have for him, and not true divine love! That is why they hate the Holy Bible which William Branham loved and upheld with all his life! The Branham Movement are nothing but haters of God's Holy Writ, the Bible! That is why they will take the quotes and the sermon books of Brother Branham, rather than the Holy Scriptures, for they lift the words of a man over and above God's written inspired Word! I do not care what they say concerning us! Let me tell our visitors who are in the Branham Movement: It is good that you came to find out what kind of people we are. But I will not be afraid to tell you now: If you do not come by the Scriptures, I do not care how many quotes of William Branham you have, On the authority of the Scriptures, I refuse all your unscriptural quotes! I reject all your unscriptural quotes, on the overriding authority of God's Holy Bible! For the Lord did not send that man to give us another Bible, and neither was he sent in order to rewrite the Bible! He was sent solely to bring us back to the Bible, so that from the grounds of the written Scriptures, Jesus can once again begin to speak and deal with his elect bride. But after so many years, it is now very plain and certain that the Branham Movement will not submit to the absolute authority of the Word of God, for they hate God's Holy Bible! They are haters of the Scriptures! No matter how much Bible you show them on issues of truth, they will look at you, and simply walk away. They say: "You are not in the Message." I am happy that I am not in your MessAge! And may I never be in your MessAge! And let me tell you straight: I do not care for the noise you make, for we know exactly where we stand! We believe only the Scriptures, for we are believers of the Word of God, and sticklers for the Holy Scriptures! We believe only the Bible! With the Bible we stand, and with the Bible we make war! With the Bible we unite, and with the Bible we separate, if we have to separate! With the Bible we make friends, and with the Bible we also make enemies, if need be! We are not looking for enemies, and we are certainly not praying for enemies, but if the Word of God will bring separation and cause us to become enemies, so be it! But this Movement hate Jesus Christ of the Bible! And the truth that the Lord has given me to share with his children in this message, will only add to their stomach trouble, for truth, which characteristically and inherently overturns ALL falsehood, only makes them mad, for they love error and falsehood, being children of the night! But we are children of the day, children of light! It is like the Jews in the days of Jesus Christ. All they saw was Moses. They thought they loved Moses, and that they truly believed Moses, just as the Branham Movement think that they love and believe Brother Branham, not knowing that all they have for the man is nothing but carnal love, for they are nothing but a pack of unbelievers! There was nothing holy or divine in all their love, and there was really nothing of Moses that they truly believed, for they were simply deceived! Jesus looked at them with the microscope of God, and said to them: "If only you had believed Moses..." In John Chapter 5, verses 45-47, he said plainly and categorically: "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: THERE IS ONE THAT ACCUSETH YOU, EVEN MOSES, IN WHOM YE TRUST. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me, FOR HE WROTE" (OR SPOKE) "OF ME. But if ye believed not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?" Exactly! What does that show you? They were a pack of unbelievers, a deceived people! They did not really believe Moses, for they were only deceived by the devil into thinking that they believed. Like my brother was saying yesterday, it is bad enough for you to be deceived by somebody; but it is worse when you deceive your own self. There is a saying which states: "To thy own self, be true." If people deceive you, you can be helped. But when you deceive yourself, nobody can help you, because nobody deceived you: You are self-deceived! Let me say this this morning: I do not care for what they say. You can call us any name you want to; we will simply add it to the other names that we have already received. Give me more names, and let me put them in my pocket, until it is full. And when I see the Lord Jesus, I will show him how many names I bore for him! Halleluiah!

As I was saying before, the prophetic anointing which John the beloved disciple carried in 96 AD., although outstanding, was strictly a revelatory anointing, for it only enabled him to lay out the prophetic events of the end time. It certainly had no application to any individual person or persons, and this is where his prophetic anointing differs to that of the end time John. Brothers and sisters, the foundation of truth is the Scriptures, for the Holy Bible, the written Scriptures, is the absolute of the believer, a true believer; for it is the exclusive foundation of true faith, true revealed faith. Consequently, all I expect from any person who has respect for the Word of God, and who believes that it is indeed the infallible Word of God, is to ask me to prove my message by the Word. Period! And that is precisely what I now want to do, and please pay attention, and follow me with the eye of faith, for of a truth, LUKE 17:30 definitely has a dual application, and that is the title of our message: LUKE 17:30. Let me show you by the Word of God, the vessel it pertains unto, the vessel of clay that LUKE 17:30 in its dual application devolves upon, in this day of Lot. In prophetic representation of the end time John, the Lord Jesus, in his revelation to John on the Isle of Patmos, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 10, gave a repeat prophetic commission to John, but now on a global scale, as recorded in verse 11: “And he said unto me, Thou must PROPHECY AGAIN before many PEOPLES,” (not before a few peoples, not some peoples, but many peoples, which gives us many races of people), “and NATIONS”, (meaning many nations), “and TONGUES”, (meaning many tongues, which are tribes), “and KINGS.” Now, pay close attention and see this. IF John is to go to

Kings of different Nations with a message from God, one which is strictly a prophetic message, and we know that he must do so, for it is thus saith the Lord here in verse 11, then, there is only one way that he can do this, and that is by going to them as a fully fledged prophet. Come on! We are looking strictly at the prophetic message which he will take to kings, and not a salvational message; for he is not going to kings in order to save them. Do not forget that in that day, salvation for the Gentiles is already over, for once Christ breaks the seventh seal in heaven, salvation is over for the Gentiles! Therefore, John in that day will not be carrying any salvational message but a prophetic one. And there is no way that he will be able to prophesy to individual kings, except and only except he is bearing a prophetic unction that will enable him to know the secret things of that king! When he gets to the king, which is actually a President of whatever Nation God has ordained that John will be sent to, John will know things about his life that only God can know, and he will tell him of things in his life that even his wife does not know: Because men keep things even from their wives; for it is not everything a wife knows! I am not teaching you to keep secrets from your wife, but it is a mere statement of fact! Brothers and sisters, he will go to kings with a prophetic unction. He will know things about the life of that king on a level that is not humanly possible to know, except God is on the scene. We are speaking now of a prophetic message to individuals, men who are Presidents or Heads of States! Church, the message he will bear to these kings is not written in any verse of the Bible, for it is fresh from heaven, and it relates strictly to individuals, touching on the personal details of their lives, their administration, which is impossible for John to know except Elohim is revealing it to him. This confirms the fact that the prophetic unction upon John in that day, will enable him to function as a prophet, one with the ability to see into the invisible, discerning people's lives, and not one that carries only a revelatory message of truth, as John the beloved apostle did in 96 AD! So, we are seeing something this morning by the grace of God. Saints, this proves undoubtedly, that the activation of John's prophetic ministry enables him to bear a prophetic unction that is also not common in the New Testament, for no New Testament apostle ever functioned as a prophet in this wise, for none carried the gift of prophetic discernment which prophets do. None did! May I also remind you that John, being an apostle, and as the lead apostle, apostolic glory is going to follow him, for the apostolic glory is coming for the plural apostolic ministry around the globe. The apostolic glory is coming for the bride. You know that already. I hope you know that already. The apostolic glory is still coming. God is going to back up the apostles He is establishing on this earth, on a level man has never seen, a level that will outclass anything that we read in the Book of Acts, for it is the "writing" or the re-enactment of the Last Chapter of the ACTS OF THE APOSTLES. Numerous miracles on a mega scale are coming, to complete the apostolic ministry record. Because even the evangelists that are to come, men like Philip the Evangelist, will bear the miraculous that will astound and stupefy T.B.

Joshua, and it will send that sorcerer packing, for he will carry his load and go off the centre stage of the world, for it is the hour of the showing of the royal bride of Jesus Christ! Yes! If the ministry of evangelists like Philip was overflowing with the miraculous in the early church, as it happened in Samaria, and as recorded in the Book of Acts Chapter 8, then you can imagine what God will use the original evangelists to do today, for IT IS THE ENDING GLORY OF THE ROYAL BRIDE! Then you can also imagine what He will use the original apostles of today to do, in the realm of the miraculous. When the end time John is standing before the King, whatever king the Lord sends him to, he will be bearing a prophetic unction upon his life, that enables him to carry specific details of the private life of that king, in order to give him a message straight from heaven, concerning his life and stewardship. In these days of Lot, a highly intellectual and computerised scientific world of gross unbelief, this prophetic gift is what will let the king know that it is God speaking through John, a mortal! And this fact is what sets the prophetic ministry of the end time John apart, from that of the John of the first church age. For as I have been stressing, the deep prophetic unction which John the beloved disciple bore in that day, was strictly revelatory, though great; whilst on the other hand, the end time John, not only carries a revelatory unction of truth upon his life, in addition, he also carries the prophetic unction which bears the divine ability to see into the invisible, in relation to current events and individual lives, thereby operating as a full time prophet! This is so for a number of reasons. In the first instance, the kind of commission the Lord gave the end time John, in relation to unbelieving Gentile kings, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 10, verse 11, following the breaking of the seventh seal, an hour when Gentile salvation is over, shows that he is functioning as a full time prophet. And as it is written: He must "PROPHESY" to kings! Secondly, if the ending glory of God's universal salvation is to be greater, and further, knowing that the end time John will not be writing one jot of Scripture, the only way he can outclass the glory of the prophetic anointing which the early church John received, is for him to function as a fully fledged prophet! Herein lies the difference in the prophetic anointing which the end time John will bear, when compared with that of the first age John. This is absolutely so, because it is written: "The latter glory shall be greater than that of the former." It is also written: "The ending of a thing is better than its beginning." This is stated not to lift up the flesh of a man, but simply to show you the revelation of Jesus Christ expressed in the Book of Revelation Chapter 10, verse 11. Brothers and sisters, when we even come to Revelation Chapter 11, the thought of the standard bearing ministry of John is still carried on, for it declares: "And there was given ME a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the TEMPLE of God, and the ALTAR, and THEM THAT WORSHIP therein." Brothers and sisters, when you consider 96AD., there was no temple in Jerusalem, and even as we speak today, there is still no temple there but a mosque, the Dome of the Rock; for the temple was destroyed in 70AD., when General Titus of Rome attacked it, and sacked the city and the people of Israel. Yet, in 96 AD, John was told to measure the temple with the plumb-line in his hand, which speaks of the standard. So I ask: What temple did he measure? Brothers and sisters, it is strictly a prophetic picture, for John the beloved measured the temple in the vision, standing in the shoe of the end time John. Yes, the vision also speaks of the fact that there is a temple to come, one which is going to be built, the third temple, which will be the Millennial temple. However, we must still ask: What has the end time John, the man who lives in the days of that reality got to do with the Jewish temple? Exactly! It is simply showing us the Jewish connection! Revelation Chapter 11, verse 1, in relation to John, is simply portraying the Jewish Connection. Period! The standard of truth must be restored back to Israel, and we Gentiles are carrying the Gospel standard back to the Nation of Israel, for her revival. (Are you with me?) The standard of truth must be restored back to the Nation of Israel, in order to re-establish true worship, true service, and make way for the acceptability of the saints. So, it portrays nothing other than the Jewish connection, because the standard is used in the prophetic setting to measure the temple, without giving any measurements of figures! Prophet Ezekiel already gave the specific measurements and dimensions of the temple in Chapters 40-43! In relation to John, therefore, it shows that the pure standard of truth is being brought back to Israel, for her redemption. It is giving us nothing but the Jewish connection. Then in verse 3, the ministry of the two Jewish prophets is now set in motion, to bring about the revival of Israel, in the first half of the 70th Week of Daniel. I have gone into all that in order to show you that the ministry of the end time John also takes in the Jewish Connection as well. However, and this is where I am going, when John eats the scroll of redemption, by his encounter with the angel of Christ, Michael the archangel, that is what actually sets his prophetic ministry in motion, because God will put him in the shoe of a prophet. The divine encounter John will have with Michael changes everything for John! The question however is this:

What kind of prophet will he be? That is the issue! Saints, John will be nothing other than an Old Testament type prophet, for that is precisely how he will function in that day. That is why, brothers and sisters, he is sent to races, nations, and tribes, and even to kings, with a prophetic message known only to God. But watch, church. When we consider Revelation Chapter 10, in relation to the ministry of the end time John, it is God taking what John the beloved disciple had back there in 96 AD., and magnifying it. I will remind you that the prophetic anointing John bore in 96 AD., was what enabled him to carry the greatest prophetic Book EVER, conveying such deep and complex prophetic imageries, which no Old Testament prophet ever carried; not even MOSES! Think about it! It is because it is written in 2 Corinthians Chapter 3, verses 7-11: “But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness EXCEED IN GLORY. For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.” That was why, speaking concerning the prophetic revelation which John later carried, in 2 Corinthians Chapter 12, Apostle Paul described it in verse 4 as: “... UNSPEAKABLE WORDS, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.” The standard of truth was simply lifted much higher than what we received from Saint Paul! Do not forget that it is also written that the glory of the latter shall be greater than that of the former, being the ending glory of God's great plan of universal salvation! Consequently, IF John carried such an unparalleled prophetic revelation, how is the ending ministry of John to outclass that of the first age John, in wrapping up God's plan of Gentile redemption? I repeat: IF the written record of the Word of salvation, (the written Plan of salvation), ended with a prophetic and an unparalleled climax, what about the ending actualisation of that great plan of salvation itself? Come on! What kind of prophetic climax do you think the ending days of its reality will have? Will it not be greater than any testimony before it? Think about that seriously, for we are on holy ground! You have to see without any iota of doubt, that John has to be an Old Testament Order of prophet, with a greater measure of anointing than John the beloved apostle. That is serious food for thought! Yet, we must all know or realise, that all this has a purpose, a divine purpose, because God does not do anything in order to lift up the flesh of men, and neither does He do anything for nothing. There is definitely a divine purpose which the Scriptures also give to us, and we will take it and bring our message to a close. However, before we take that Scripture, I first want to read something to you from Brother Branham's message, which confirms this truth.

Saints, when Brother Branham was here, he believed that God would use him to do something to get Israel back to the Word, thereby laying a foundation for the two Jewish prophets to step on the scene, and I will quote him in material parts. In his message titled, The Seventy Weeks Of Daniel, from page 31, paragraph 150, straight through to page 33, paragraph 157, Brother Branham said: "... Israel returning to their homeland, Israel. Let me just say this now while ... I guess it's off of tape. Let me say this. The very hour that Israel became a nation ... THE REASON I'VE ALWAYS BELIEVED, 'fore my class here, THAT T H E R E W A S SOMETHING THAT I'D HAVE A PART, BEFORE I DIE , OF GETTING ISRAEL BACK TO THE LORD." He gave three reasons why he personally believed that God would use him in a way to get Israel back to the Lord Jesus Christ, before the two Jewish prophets start their ministry. I will fast forward now, for the Jewish Connection was arranged, and he was to hold meetings in the land of Israel. Now on his way to Palestine, he said: "When Billy, my son, and I, and Ern Baxter, was on our road to Palestine, after we had met the Jews at Brother Arganbright's, and they seen the meeting. Lewi Pethrus had sent these Bibles over there. And he said ... These Jews come, said, "If you will call up a bunch of the leaders of Israel, I mean, not these new rabbis with all their ceremonies, but CALL THE REAL ISRAELITE LEADERS TOGETHER. And we have read this New Testament, and we know that when the Messiah cometh, He'll tell us these things, like the woman at Samaria. We know that Moses said our Messiah would be a prophet. And when you can tell them and show them, by the Scripture," that which we will get in tonight's Message, "that they had to be darkened and their hearts cut off, so that the Gentile space could come, that we'd have a time of reconciliation for the Gentiles. And their hearts were hardened just exactly like it was in time of Joseph, and so forth. And then bring those Jews to a place, and call those men from that audience, just like you do these Gentiles here, by that inspiration of the Spirit." (That is, by prophetic inspiration, showing the secret in the hearts of men): “Cause, they said, “If this Jesus, if He is the Messiah, and your words are true, then He is not dead, and He’s alive. And if He is alive, He promised to be in His servants, His disciples. AND IF WE CAN SEE HIM DO THE SIGN OF THE PROPHET, THEN WE WILL BELIEVE THAT HE IS MESSIAH.” The Jewish Connection was arranged for Brother Branham, and he took off for Israel. Let us skip to paragraph 153, as the prophet continued: “And I was on my road, and stood at Cairo, Egypt, with the ticket in my hand, and fifteen or twenty minutes of calling time. They was fixing to make the call. And I walked down to see a little piece of this ebony, with a little elephant made out of ebony, with a ivory tusk. I was going to send it to a doctor friend of mine, Dr. Sam Adair, for a paper weight. And I was looking at it. AND SOMETHING SAID TO ME, “THIS IS NOT YET THE HOUR. STAY OUT OF PALESTINE.” So I thought, “That was just me thinking that.” And I went on. SOMETHING SAID, “THIS IS NOT THE HOUR.” And I went out behind the hanger. I raised up my head to God. I said, “God, was that You speaking tome?” SAID, “THIS IS NOT THE HOUR. STAY OUT OF PALESTINE.” (That is, he was to stay away from Israel. Saints, the instruction to turn back was given to him right here in Africa; right here in the tabernacle of Ham. God allowed him to buy his air ticket. God also allowed him to board the airplane, and cross the Atlantic Ocean. And when his plane touched down in Africa to refuel, with only about ten or fifteen minutes flight time remaining to get to Israel, God said, “Now make a U-turn.” Let us continue, for the Lord told him precisely why. God declared categorically): “THIS IS NOT THE TIME.” (For the days of Noah was not the God ordained time for the Jewish Connection, but the days of Lot is what will be. The prophet c o n t i n u e d his testimony): “Then I took my ticket and changed it, and went from there up through Rome, and come back to Lisbon, in Portuguese, and from there back to the United States. THE HOUR WAS NOT YET. The iniquity of the Gentiles hasn’t filled up yet, just to the end of the cup”, (for that is what the days of Lot now gives to us. It gives us the filling up of the cup of the Iniquity of the Amorites. Now pay close attention to his next statement, for it is very instructive, and it declares in plain terms the calibre of ministry that God will use to make the Jewish Connection. Brother Branham declared with prophetic certainty): “But some day that will be, AND GOD WILL SEND SOMEBODY THERE”, (a singular person; not persons, but that God will send somebody there) “THAT’S A PROPHET, AND WILL PROVE TO THEM.” (That is, that that prophet will prove Christ to the Jews. But the real question is how? How will he prove the Lord Jesus to Israel? It is in the same way he himself wanted to go and prove the Lord Jesus to Israel. It is by manifesting the Messianic Signs, which is prophetic, the signs of the Son of man, the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ in his earthly prophetic ministry! Because the only thing Israel recognises is the sign of a prophet. He has to go as a prophet, bearing the full attributes of a prophet, with prophetic signs, as an Old Testament prophet, for that is what Israel recognizes: for God deals with them strictly by prophets! From the foundation of that nation, God has always dealt with them by prophets, and as such, the nation of Israel does not recognise anything but the sign of a prophet. It is not just merely preaching a message; it is that he must also possess that prophetic unction that sees into the invisible concerning the affairs of men, discerning the personal affairs of men, the secret affairs of men, things which only God can know. Why is this so? Because God deals with Israel by way of prophets, just as it is written in the Book of Hosea Chapter 12, verses 10 and 13: "I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets." "And BY A PROPHET the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and BY A PROPHET was he preserved." Israel knows nothing but prophets! Remember they rejected the message of the apostles, and this is why the message came to us Gentiles. So God put them on hold, and He turned to us Gentiles to get a bride for His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. The last two prophets they had was John the Baptist, followed by Jesus Christ, and then God shut them out. By the time God starts dealing with them again, He will be sending Moses and Elijah, two modern day Jewish prophets. And it is those two prophets who will reveal Jesus Christ to them, because God deals with Israel by way of prophets, right from her very beginning. So for Brother Branham to go to Israel, they needed him to show the signs of a prophet, and the meeting was set up in Israel. Brother Branham concluded concerning this Gentile Prophet-Connector, saying): "I trust that God will raise HIM upright away, WHOEVER HE MAY BE, that'll raise HIM quickly. I BELIEVE IT HAS TO COME. That's what we're studying this for, that we're so close." Saints, when they saw the prophetic ministry of Brother Branham displayed, they knew that if he went to Israel with that sign, and showed by the Scriptures, as well as by the prophetic sign, that Jesus is the Messiah, they would believe him. So the meeting was set, but God cancelled it when he got to Africa: Because in Africa, John would be raised up. God allowed him to touch down right here. And when he got to Africa, the Continent of Ham, God said, "Now turn back. It is not yet time for the Jewish Connection, and moreover, it is not for you. There will be a Jewish connection, in the day when the Iniquity of the Amorites is full. What you thought you would have a part in doing, in turning Israel back to the Lord, will be done by another person, according to my foreordination, which cannot change." Brother Branham was not in any doubt about the prophet to be raised up among the Gentile bride ministry, who will make this Connection. He said, "I believe God will raise him real quick." He said, "But he must come. God will send somebody to Israel, THAT WILL BE A PROPHET, and that will prove to Israel with prophetic signs, the signs of the Son of man, that the Jesus they crucified about two thousand years ago, is truly the Christ." Do not forget that the Messiah is the Prophet which Moses said would come. If Israel can only see the sign of a prophet, and he can also show by Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah, they will believe. Brother Branham wanted to make the Jewish Connection, but God cancelled it, because that Connection, that Input, was not ordained for William Branham, who lived in the Days of Noah: It is ordained for the end time John, and it is ordained for the Days of Lot. And with all the LGBT crowd, can you not see that the cup of the Amorites is now almost to the brim? Brothers and sisters, “AND IF YE WILL RECEIVE IT”: JOHN IS THAT PROPHET, THE JEWISH CONNECTOR. Brothers and sisters, you do not need to take offence. Somebody had to be the deliverer of the children of Israel from Egypt, and God in His sovereignty chose Moses. Somebody had to be Elijah, the forerunner of Christ's first advent; for somebody had to bring down the mountain, and lift up the valley, and make the crooked parts straight, ahead of the Messiah. It was God that chose John the Baptist in His sovereignty; for He had to choose somebody to fulfil His Word of promise to the children of Israel. Someone also had to be the end time Elijah to the Gentiles, fulfilling Malachi 4:6B. And when the Spirit of Elijah was to come at this end time, God had to use somebody, and sovereignly, He chose William Branham. And now that we have a promise of the return of the Spirit of John, the Lord also has to use somebody, and the choice is strictly God's own. For if God decides to use a man, what can you say or do about it? What can anyone do about it? What can you do about it, when it is not in your hands? You are only expected by God to have a hearing ear for truth, and a heart that is submissive to the Word of God, that you may follow the leadership of God in the light. The choice of John as the Jewish Connector, is strictly God's territory, and God is sovereign! If the man on ground today in the earth is not John, I ask you, when John comes, what else will he do? Is it about miracles? Even if you want to consider that, I will tell you now that if it is about miracles, God has not started working miracles in the bride as yet, for that is coming. Just wait and see, and it will not be long. Brother Branham said it is coming, for there is going to be “The Latter Rain”; which is why the prophet also qualified it, declaring that “THE REAL RAIN” is coming. But he also revealed in 1960, in his message titled, The Seven Church Ages, page 174, paragraph 2, that there is “THE MESSENGER IN THE LATTER RAIN.” He said Malachi 4:6B Elijah “will start at the Serpent's seed”, (in Genesis), “and carry on TO the messenger in the Latter Rain.” And the rain is yet to fall, that torrential downpour of the Spirit of God, for the time of the apostolic glory is not yet here, as the Lord is first dealing with the bride revelatorily, in order to get her in a true spiritual shape in readiness for the rapture. Saints, when the latter rain comes, this world will be mesmerised and dumbfounded, as the world has never seen that kind of rain before, for this unbelieving and Iniquitous world is due for a serious shaking! God will stupefy this God hating, Internet-Gadget loving world! You wait for God to vindicate this unparalleled light! Church, by the grace of God, the light we have today is unparalleled. And if it is unparalleled, you must also know that the vindication of truth will also be unparalleled; for to the measure of light will be the measure of the miraculous power display of God, in order to confound this atheistic God hating world! It is the ending glory of the royal elect bride of Jesus Christ; her crowning glory! Absolutely! It is written in Mark Chapter 16, from verse 17: “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.” Now watch how the Book ends in verse 20, for that is also to come on a greater scale: “And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and CONFIRMING THE WORD WITH SIGNS FOLLOWING. AMEN.” The Lord confirmed the truth they had in that day with supernatural signs and wonders. Just consider the rich and unparalleled depth and power of the truth of God which the bride possess today, the truth which the Lord will similarly confirm! What a greater glory it will be indeed, for we have not seen Spirit Gifts, and Signs and

Wonders in operation as yet. This is what William Branham called in The Seven Church Ages, the “inalienable right” of the true bride of Jesus Christ: For as the prophet proclaimed: The bride that Jesus Christ is coming back for, “is Mark 16:16 IN ACTION”! It is also why William Branham, when he spoke squirrels into being, and God used him to do astounding miracles, he said: “What you see now in a minority, in that time, you will see in a majority”, because the greater glory is coming. God is going to vindicate this truth like He has never done before, because what we see in the Book of Acts, is nothing compared to what God will do today; because as it is written: The glory of the latter WILL definitely outclass the former glory; and because the end of a thing is better than its beginning. Brothers and sisters, that is why the light that the John of today carries, outclasses the one John carried in that day. And the prophetic anointing he will bear or receive, will also outclass the one which John received back then. It is not about John: I am simply showing you the revelation of Jesus Christ, as contained in the Book of Revelation; for I am showing you precisely how the Lord intends wrapping up this great plan of Gentile redemption, as laid out in the Holy Bible. I am simply showing you what the Lord will use John to accomplish, and how it is all according to the revealed plan recorded in the written Word of God.

Saints of the living God, I have gone into that just to let you see that when the Jewish Connection is made, the apostolic glory is already here, and more than that, John is functioning in the shoe of a prophet, an Old Testament type prophet, revealing Jesus Christ to an elect remnant of the children of Israel, somewhere in Jerusalem. There is no one in the Branham Movement that can deny the fact that Brother Branham wanted to make the Jewish Connection, but God told him no! Moreover, God told him plainly that the time had not yet come, and the Lord further let him know that another man will make the Connection. That was what let him know that there will come a prophet from among the Gentiles to accomplish what he was forbidden to do, at a time when God says “the

Iniquity of the Gentiles” GETS FILLED UP, “JUST TO THE END OF THE CUP”, which is right here IN THE DAYS OF LOT, a time when twenty countries have now approved the right for homosexuals to marry one another, and many more nations are to follow. Church, Brother Branham put all those who have an ear to hear on Notice, of this imminent prophetic event, for it is certainly coming. The Jewish Connection will make the elect children of Israel realise that they killed their Messiah, the Lord working through the signs of a prophet. Saints of God, the Jewish Connection is what sets the platform for the ministry of the two Jewish prophets, for it prepares an elect Jewish remnant in readiness for their ministry. What was Brother Branham saying in effect? There will come a Gentile brother whom God is going to anoint with a great prophetic unction, to do what he wanted to do, but which he was divinely forbidden to do, and the brother will go to Israel to fulfil the part he thought he would have, of getting Israel back to the Lord! He confessed: “I’ve always believed, ‘fore my class here, that there was something THAT I’D HAVE A PART, BEFORE I DIE, OF GETTING ISRAEL BACK TO THE LORD.” How? Through the manifestation of his office as a prophet! Consequently, I ask you then: When that brother gets to Israel, how is he going to show Israel that Jesus is the Messiah? There are only two ways he can do it. FIRSTLY: He has to carry the light of the Scriptures, because he will go to the writings of the prophets, beginning from Moses, and he will show them the truths concerning the Jewish Messiah, all of which points to Jesus Christ. He will say to them: “You have the writings of Hosea. This is what he said, I will say to a people who are not a people, Thou art my people. The Lord also said to Abraham, as recorded in Genesis, “Through you, I will bless all the nations of this earth”, and that blessing is redemptive.” He will take Prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah, Hosea, Amos, Malachi, going all through the law and prophets, with the Psalms, revealing the truths of Jesus Christ as the promised Messiah, and they will realise from the Old Testament record, that they killed their own Messiah. It has to be so, because they do not believe in the New Testament. SECONDLY: In order to prove to them that Jesus Christ is alive, that he truly rose on the third day, and that he liveth forevermore, according to the Scriptures, that brother will now step into the shoes of a prophet, an Old Testament order of prophet, and begin revealing the prophetic ministry of the promised Lamb of God, whom Moses said that God would raise up! In that house where elect Jews are gathered, just as elect Gentiles were gathered in the household of Cornelius, as recorded in Acts Chapter 10, the brother will tell them: “Having shown you by the Scriptures, the law and prophets, that Jesus is the promised Messiah, now let me vindicate this truth, with an open demonstration of the abiding presence of the risen Christ, the one whom I have preached to you today, one who was dead, for your fathers killed him in ignorance, but who is now alive, and liveth forevermore. For as I am speaking to you now, he is here; the Spirit of the Lord Jesus is here. And to show you that he is here, Sir, yesterday night, when you were invited to this meeting, you said you would like to invite your brother, but when you got to his house, he turned down your invitation, and made a mockery of you, and you left disappointed. He refused to come, and today, he is not in these meetings, and his name is Mushi. But do not worry, for he is God's elect. He has a son named Ocran, who has been suffering from epilepsy for many years. Take this handkerchief to him, and in the presence of his father, lay it on him in the name of the Lord, and the evil spirit will leave him. And tomorrow night, Mushi will be in these meetings, along with his son, Ocran." What is that showing them? It is showing that Jesus Christ, the Son of man, the Lamb-Prophet, is here! What is it? It is A son of man, A prophet, revealing The Son of man, the Prophet of all prophets. This prophetic event is ordained for the Days of Lot, and not for the Days of Noah, although the conditions in the Days of Noah do not go away, but only get worse, further compounding the degeneration of the Days of Lot. And this is my Scriptural seal to the prophetic ministry of John, operating as an Old Testament prophet. The Gospel of Saint Luke Chapter 17, verse 30, beginning from verse 28 declares: "Likewise also as it was in the Days of LOT... Even thus shall it be in the day WHEN THE SON OF MAN IS REVEALED." Here is a coded promise of the ministry of an end time Gentile prophet, one living precisely in the Days of Lot, and foreordained for the Days of Lot, who will be used to characterise and express the earthly prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ, the man whom the Lord will also use to make the Jewish Connection, FOR LUKE 17:30 HAS A DUAL APPLICATION. Saints, this also clearly gives us a prophet in the Days of Lot, a time when the Iniquity of the world even surpasses that of Sodom and Gomorrah, and a time when the cup of the Amorites is almost full to the brim! Thus saith the Lord in His Word! And thus saith Elijah the Prophet to this age, by the Spirit of God! Brothers and sisters, the prophet ordained for the Days of Lot, gives us none other than the promised prophetic ministry of the end time

John, the John of Revelation Chapter 10, verses 8-11. For right here in the Days of Lot, in this Laodicean church age, we are given a son of man, who will be used to reveal The Son of man, not only to the elect remnant seeds of God in Jerusalem, in the nation of Israel, in the hour of the Jewish Connection, but also to kings, peoples, nations, and tribes of this world.

Please note that this "son of man" or prophet, is from the race of Ham, and to be specific, he is from the "Tabernacles of Ham", which is Africa. But you ask, Brother Amos, of what further significance does this prophetic Connection have? It gives us a connection which spiritually, re-connects the race of Ham with the race of Shem, for as I have been warning all those who have an ear to hear, HAM IS IN THE COVENANT, and further, THESE ARE THE DAYS OF THE INPUT OF HAM! The Hamitic race is being re-connected with the Shemitic race, in furtherance of the prophetic application of the name of Abra-HAM, which, as is recorded in Genesis Chapter 17, verse 5, means "a father of MANY NATIONS." This was why, Ephraim and Manasseh, two Hamitic-Shemitic seeds, two seeds born in Egypt to Joseph, a Hebrew, by an African mother, Asenath, the Egyptian, were incorporated into the Nation of Israel, as part of the twelve tribes of Israel: Abra-HAM! I feel religious! Remember that in Egypt, Joseph had to marry an African wife, when he was rejected by his Jewish brethren, just as Jesus Christ was also rejected by his Jewish brethren, and he too had to take on a Gentile bride. However, the first two seeds he bore in Egypt were divinely incorporated into the nation of Israel. Patriarch Jacob, speaking under the divine inspiration of God, declared in Genesis Chapter 48, verse 5: “And now thy two sons, EPHRAIM AND MANASSEH, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, ARE MINE; as Reuben and Simeon, THEY SHALL BE MINE.” The Lord confirmed this divine move in Psalm 60, verse 7, clearly declaring: “Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is THE STRENGTH OF MINE HEAD; Judah is my lawgiver.” Brothers and sisters, do not ever forget that Ephraim and Manasseh have African ancestry, for it all points to Abra-HAM, the joining of Ham with Shem. It ties in with the Jewish Connection which John the seed of Ham will make, for I reiterate, these are THE DAYS OF THE INPUT OF HAM. The Days of Lot are in the days of the Input of Ham. The last Gentile Lead Apostolic Ministry, operating fully as a son of man, a prophet, after eating the scroll of redemption, will stand in that house where an elect remnant of Jews are gathered at the hour of the Jewish Connection, having sent for him in Africa, by the divine instruction of the angel of the Lord, and they will become the beginning nucleus of people that will be redeemed from the Jewish race, in preparation for the ministry of the two prophets that God will send to Israel. He will say, “Brother, last week, you were in the office. You had an argument with your boss, and he told you that he would sack you at the end of the month. You begged him, but he did not agree. Thus saith the Lord, Tomorrow when you get to the office, he will call you and tell you it is now okay.” Halleluia! That Jewish brother will know that the man is a foreigner, a

Gentile, who does not speak the Hebrew language, and who does not live in Israel, and who has never met him, telling him about events that happened in his office. He will realise that that can only happen because the Spirit of the Lord is there. John will also look at a sister, and say, “Sister, you have been crying to God. You cried yesterday night. You cried bitterly, because you are thinking about your second daughter. She has a so-and so problem, and you want God to turn things around for her. Thus saith the Lord, it is done.” And that daughter may not be in the meeting. She may be in a foreign land when the connection is going on. John will say, “Her name is so-and-so. But thus saith the Lord, She is healed. All is well with her.” Brothers and sisters, the testimony does not end there. He looks at another brother, and the brother is blind in one eye. He will say, “Brother, do you believe the message, that Jesus is the promised Jewish Messiah?” The brother says yes, he believes. And John will declare: “The Lord Jesus heals your eye. Let it open.” And the other eye will pop open! Do not forget that Jesus' prophetic ministry, just like that of Moses and Elijah, carried the miraculous as well, for that is the kind of ministry he had when he was here as The Son of man. It gives us prophetic insight, and the open miraculous, powered by the unction of the revelation of truth.

This reminds me of the dream the Lord gave to our sister. I do not mean to make this personal, but it just ties right in with the truth we are laying out, and I feel like sharing it. The dream came as a surprise to me, but it throws light on what we are sharing.

DREAM BY SIS. EVA ONYEBUOHA

“I had a dream yesterday night, Thursday 13th May, 2010, where we were gathered at Bajulaye, (the normal church site), for some kind of meetings. The crowd was not as large as the one we have in this Convention, but people had come from different places for the meetings. Brother Amos had been ministering to us for quite some time, when all of a sudden, he just stopped preaching and started prophetically addressing the people. I honestly cannot remember the details of the messages he was giving, but I do know that he was addressing individuals like Brother Branham used to do when he was alive. The messages were so precise that he would give it, and immediately address some other person, as the people confirmed through screams and signs of clear adoration to God. The pull of the Spirit was so strong that he came down from the pulpit (like he does), and ran into the crowd. As he came, I had been sitting at the back, and somehow, I had this fear that he would pick me out, even though I had bowed my head to hide from him. When he got to where I was, he stopped and placed his hand on my shoulder. I felt a strong anointing from his hands. Then he said, “You have a problem.” As he said those words, I looked at him, and the only way I can explain what I felt was like it happened to the woman at the well. His eyes seemed to say that he had an all-knowing power. He told me to follow him to the pulpit. When I got there, he began to speak about things that only God my Creator can ever know about me. I wondered in amazement and fear, and I was confused, because I knew he is an Apostle; but I also didn't know he had that prophetic unction. I kept looking at him and saying to myself, (like the Bible would say, “Is Saul also amongst the prophets?) Is he a prophet?”

I am trying to let you know this morning, that when it is time for the Jewish Connection to be made, in fulfilment of the quote of Brother Branham, because it is thus saith the Lord, the Lord will send somebody there that is a prophet. That cannot be a New Testament type of prophet! It can only be one order of prophet: It has to be a prophet of the Old Testament order. This is simply because the New Testament order of prophets are limited in their prophetic unction; because they are not the head of the ministry. Brothers and sisters, I am showing you the ministry of Revelation 10:8-11, in relation to the Dual application of LUKE 17:30, for in that day, when John meets Michael, John steps immediately into the shoes of a fully established Old Testament prophet. He is not just carrying the unction of truth, for it involves more than that! God upgrades the anointing, and John is functioning as a fully fledged Old Testament prophet, outclassing the ministry of the first John. And it is as a prophet that he makes the Jewish Connection, and then the rapture will come. This truth which William Branham saw by divine prophetic insight, was why in The Seven Church Ages, he rejoiced in the spirit, and proclaimed: "Oh, if I could only show you; if only God could permit me to reveal what He has shown me, This great thing that is about to happen IN THIS OUR DAY, THIS SAME LAODICEAN AGE. This great thing, when it is set in motion, "will carry OVER", it will carry the Gentiles over, and connect with the two Jewish prophets, Moses and Elijah." He said it categorically on page 36, paragraph 5! And for the application of that prophetic proclamation, you are looking squarely at the Days of Lot, for the prophecy hangs squarely on those Days of Lot. This is because the Days of Brother Branham, which gives us the Days of Noah, is not what Brother Branham was speaking about, but of another period of time, ALL within this last age, which are the Days of Lot! Consequently, for the Dual Application of LUKE 17:30, we are looking strictly at the ministry of John, because that is the only prophetic ministry the Bible gives to us at this end time, which bears the connection with Israel, for it bears the standard of truth back to the nation of Israel, on the full authority of Revelation Chapter 11, verse 1, and this is where the plan of Gentile salvation ends. That is why John's ministry is set in motion in the Days of Lot, a period of time which ends the Gentile age of grace. And we are now in the Days of Lot. Thus saith the Lord: "As it was in the days of Lot, so shall it also be in the days when the Son of man is revealed." But what is the purpose, the divine purpose for this promise? What is the divine objective for the Dual Application of LUKE 17:30? Brethren, God is using this avenue to also give the Gentiles living at the very end of the Gentile Dispensation of grace, people who were not privileged to see the live ministry of "The Son of man", as he was characterised in the Days of Noah by the end time Elijah. Ninety nine percent of those of us who are now following the message of Brother Branham today, have only read and heard about it, but we were not privileged to see it expressed or manifested live. We are not witnesses of that live ministry. So, here now, the Lord God ordained that the reality of the earthly prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ will also be re-expressed on earth, in order that we may also have a taste of his earthly ministry. Brothers and sisters, what does all these prophetic dealings at this end time show us? It shows that the prophetic unction which God used to set the plan of salvation in motion at the very beginning, in Genesis, is the same prophetic unction God uses to finish out the plan of salvation. I show you the Alpha, and I also show you the Omega; I show the Beginning, and I show you the End; because He is the Author, of our faith and He is also the Finisher. How the Lord started setting forth this plan of redemption, is exactly how He is also ending it. He started everything with a prophetic anointing, and He is ending it with a prophetic anointing as well. But the only difference is this: What He started through prophets, He is ending through apostles. However, the unction is the same, for the Lord started with the prophetic unction, and He is also ending everything with the prophetic unction, just as it is written in Hebrews Chapter 13, verse 8: “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.”

I will close my message with the Book of Revelation Chapter 19, for it bears witness to this objective; it bears witness to this truth, the truth that the way God started is precisely how He ends everything pertaining to universal salvation. In Revelation Chapter 19, verse 10, it is written: “And I”(John) “fell at his feet to worship him”, (who is the angel of the Lord). “And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus IS THE SPIRIT OF

PROPHECY.” What is the angel of Christ saying here? John, after having had this wonderful and spectacular prophetic experience, and seeing these deep and marvellous prophetic insights, fell down to worship the angel, and the angel said, “Get up! Do not worship me, worship God: for the testimony of Jesus IS THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY.” What is the angel saying here? He is saying in effect: “The experience you are having now, which is a marvel to you, is just to show you that the testimony of Jesus, even though it starts with a salvational anointing, conveying a salvational message, in its end accomplishment, it will end up becoming a prophetic anointing, conveying a prophetic message, on an unparalleled level. In other words, God's plan of universal salvation, which starts with a Gospel message of salvation, will be wrapped up with a prophetic message, on a higher scale, because the testimony of Jesus is also the Spirit of prophecy, and it is by this Spirit that the prophets of old spoke of this universal salvation. This in turn shows, that when salvation is accomplished in reality, the plan of salvation will be capped with a prophetic anointing, bearing a prophetic message, one which is unsurpassed.” That is the meaning! That is what the reply of the angel projects in reality, for that statement in itself is prophetic! We must not forget, after all, that the angel was giving John an explanation; he was giving him the reason for his spectacular prophetic experience! Consequently, it means that the message of Jesus Christ which starts with a salvational message, borne by a salvational anointing, will at the end, change into a prophetic message, borne by a prophetic anointing, one that outclasses everything before it! Simple! And we all know that, not only is it forbidden for any man to add to the written Scriptures, for the written Bible is complete, and cannot be added to, but also, the record of the Bible was brought to its climax and completion by a prophetic anointing, which produced the last Book of the Bible, which is strictly a prophetic Book, the Book of Revelation. Yet, we all know that John did not live in the days of the reality of the prophetic things he saw. Therefore, on account of the ending glory in the days of the reality, the prophetic ministry of the end time John will necessitate that he functions as a fully established prophet of the Old Testament order, in order to fulfil this objective, as God wraps up His dealing with the Gentile bride, and then turns to the Jews, in the 70th Week of Daniel. I will remind you of the Book of 1 Peter Chapter 1, verses 9-12: “Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the Gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.” This Scripture vindicates the truth that the plan of salvation we have in Jesus Christ, started with a prophetic anointing, and as it is also written in Revelation Chapter 19, verse 10, it is also ending with a prophetic anointing. That is precisely why, when Michael gives John the scroll to eat, just as Ezekiel ate the scroll, his prophetic ministry will be set in motion, and he will begin to stir the bride, putting her on notice that the seventh seal has now been broken; that Jesus is off the mercy seat; and that redemption is over for the Gentiles, for Michael the archangel is now on the ground. Brothers and sisters, this is the hour when the Jewish Connection will now be made, and this prophetic move will create a great stirring in the camp of the bride universal. He will also put the bride on notice that we are now in the hour of the seven thunders. Before you know it, the Lord ignites the seven thunders, setting their prophetic ministry in motion, for in God's numerology, seven is the number of completion, and it is a prophetic ministry fold which still has John as lead thunder. With the ministry of the seven thunders, God brings a literal closure to His dealing with the universal bride, and Jesus comes for her in the rapture, for with the prophetic anointing everything ends for us Gentiles, just as the angel said it would. And in the days of the seven prophetic thunders, the two Jewish prophets, Moses and Elijah, will also be on ground, dealing with the Nation of Israel, thus giving us the three greatest prophetic anointings, ALL expressed together on earth, just before the rapture: The Spirits of Moses, Elijah, and John, ALL Old Testament type prophets. Let me therefore say, that the anointing of John will have a measure which none of the other thunders will match, being a major anointing. Moreover, John has something above any and every other thunder, being the lead thunder, and because he is the only man that Jesus gives the entire scroll of redemption to eat. And since we are on the issue of the seven thunders, let me warn each and every one, that only God knows where the thunders will come from, and who exactly they will be. You cannot tell me that a thunder will come from your country, for only God knows exactly where they will be ignited. It is a prophetic ministry to the universal bride of Christ, and there will be only seven of them. So I have to see that geographically, they are well located around the world, in order to effectively and successfully reach the universal bride. Therefore, you will not see a concentration of thunders in one place. There is even no point thinking about who will become a thunder, for that is God's business. Do not be a fool! By such arrogant and selfish thoughts, men have destroyed themselves. Leave the thunders to the time of the thunders, and let God anoint the thunders! What is your problem about where they are coming from? Do you choose for God where they will come from, or who becomes a thunder? Brothers and sisters, the choice of the seven thunders is not in our hands. It is not in the hands of John, for he is only a vessel of clay, a wretched sinner saved by grace. It is only in the hands of God! It is a privilege that we even know that John will be a thunder, and that he will put us on notice when we have entered into the hour of the thunders, after the seventh seal has been broken, in order to give focus and direction to the body of Christ. But do not go beyond that. Please! Do not go beyond the bounds of what God has given to us in the Scriptures, for that will amount to walking on thin ice. Be humble, for as it is written: "Pride comes before a fall." The way up is down. Leave such deep secret things of God to God, and be content with the knowledge that no one can choose for God. Moreover, you do not need to fall in the gutter in order to learn a lesson of humility, for the days are evil, and time is short. God loves a humble heart. And humility is not in words, and neither is it in a pretentious persona: Always saying, "God bless you... God bless you", in a sanctimonious way, as if butter will not melt in your mouth, acting just like these pretentious so-called Deeper Lifers!

Brothers and sisters, I love you with all my heart, and I appreciate your understanding. But I show you today infallibly, THE DUAL APPLICATION OF LUKE 17:30, for it gives us the two days which Jesus Christ prophetically broke this Laodicean age into: The Days of Noah, and the Days of Lot. It is undisputed that Brother Branham lived in the Days of Noah, but the truth also remains that he never saw the Days of Lot. Yet it is written, that in the Days of Lot, the Son of man shall also be revealed. Are we now going to wake Brother Branham up from the grave to fulfil the application of the manifestation of the Son of Man in these Days of Lot? Are we going to be like the Wright brothers, who had more money than scriptural sense, and who bought a plane, and stationed it for many years, expecting Brother Branham to rise from the grave to fulfil the tent vision? The two brothers went to their graves without seeing the fulfilment of their desire, because it is absolutely carnal! They wanted to be the ones carrying the prophet up and down to fulfil the tent ministry. Brothers and sisters, let me say this to the Movement: You cannot take the prophetic quote of Brother Branham I read earlier, which gives us a Gentile prophet in this last age, a prophet which follows his own prophetic ministry, the prophet whom God will use to make the Jewish Connection, and hang it in the clouds. You cannot do that, for God has to use someone to fulfil it! He spelt it out plainly and categorically, and it is thus saith the Lord, and it is perfectly vindicated by the Word of God! For Revelation Chapter 10, verses 8-11, and the Jewish Connection concealed in Revelation Chapter 11, verse 1, is staring you in the face, being the scriptural anchor for the prophetic quote of Brother Branham, ALL which confirm this message as God's infallible truth! The Dual application of LUKE 17:30, lets us know that as God used William Branham to characterise "the Son of man", Jesus Christ in his earthly prophetic ministry, so will the Lord also use John here, (Brother Amos points to the chart), in the Days of Lot, to characterise "the Son of man", Jesus Christ in his earthly prophetic ministry, right here, leading up to, and in the hour of the seven thunders. As it is written: "Likewise also as it was in the DAYS OF LOT... Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man IS REVEALED." Brothers and sisters, I show you The Dual Application of LUKE 17:30. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

The Lord bless you.

LUKE 17:30

NOAH'S DAY

LOT'S DAY

The Days of The Son of Man

The collage is divided into three main sections. The top section, labeled 'LUKE 17:30', features a central image of a man in a white robe with his arms outstretched, with the text 'The Days of The Son of Man' below it. To the left of this central image is a vertical banner with the text 'LUKE 17:30'. The middle section, labeled 'NOAH'S DAY', includes an illustration of Noah's Ark with a rainbow, a man in a white robe, and a man in a white shirt. The bottom section, labeled 'LOT'S DAY', includes a man in a white suit, a man in a white shirt, and a man in a white shirt. The entire collage is framed by a green border.
