THE MARTYRDOM OF SAINTS - PART 2

The following message was preached by Brother Amos, on the morning of Sunday, 19th November, 2017, at the November 2017 Convention, at Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. We thank God for the marvellous way in which He inspired Brother Amos to present this second part of the message, with its complex subject matter, with clarity, and in simplicity.

Good morning everyone. We want to appreciate our brethren online, logging on from the various countries around the globe. We have about a hundred and eighty brethren logging on from the twelve nations we have been mentioning every time. May God bless the saints online, and may God give them a special touch. I want to thank all our sister Churches for their kind support of the Convention, and I want to appreciate all our ministering brothers for their stand for truth, and their support for the work of the Lord. I want to thank the brethren of Bible Faith Tabernacle, for their continued labour of love and sacrifice of faith, particularly all the sisters working in the kitchen, and all the brothers and sisters responsible for organising, cleaning, carrying stuff, and arranging the Convention ground; I want to thank God for those taking care of the various accommodation; the transportation; the toilets; the electrical and generating units; the air-conditioning units; our brethren making the airport runs; all those who are manning the video cameras, as well as those manning the P.A. systems; all the musicians and singers; those in charge of directing traffic and security; and every other organ of service. I appreciate each and every one, and may God bless you all, and count it unto you for righteousness. I was pleasantly surprised to see brethren put envelopes in the offering box with my name on it, and I do not even know who they are, but the Lord knows. It is very kind and thoughtful of you, and I want to thank you sincerely for your love gifts. May God richly bless each and every one of you; may He carry your burdens, and be gracious to you. It has been a joy having you in these meetings. Please pray for me this morning that God will help me, as we continue our message, titled, The Martyrdom of Saints, for this is a very important message.

Can we turn our Bibles to the Book of Revelation Chapter 7, and we will take it from verse 9: "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands." Shall we bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed). Brothers and sisters, last night, we simply made an introduction to this message, and this morning, by the grace of God, we want to go deeply into it. Church, we are at the evening time, and it is obvious that the return of the Lord is at the doors. If you look at what is going on in Gentile Christendom, you will have to agree with me this morning, that Satan has been working feverishly to set the platform for the introduction of "that man of sin", and this current Bishop of Rome, Pope Francis, is working intensely to get the United Nations to go for one leader. And the man was even saying to the United Nations, that the United States of America has proven through time, that it is not capable of governing itself. So, in essence, they need to put the United States under a universal leader, right under the United Nations, and we can only guess who he wants that leader to be, and that is himself. The same Pope is telling the European Union that they need a leader. So, you can see that this man has his eyes on the throne that the Popes of old used to sit on, all through the Dark Ages. And as far as this Jesuit Pope is concerned, fundamental Christians like you and me, who believe in the supreme authority of the Scriptures, are violent people, even if we have done no violence; he has said that we are dangerous people, and he is asking the governments of the West to watch us very well. Brothers and sisters, you can all clearly see that the serpent is talking! Therefore, saints of God, you cannot afford to fold your hands and rest on your oars, ignoring the horrible signals of the day, for it is later than you think. The return of the Lord is at the doors, and as such, the Spirit of God is removing the wraps, whatever balance of wrapping remains on the truth, the written Word. You all know we are going to progress from written revelation, once that has been fully appropriated, to unwritten revelation, in the coming prophetic hour of the Seven Thunders. Therefore, the balance of written revelation that God has ordained for the statural growth of the Bride, written truths ordained for the revelatory adornment of the soul of the Bride, God has been graciously unveiling them, and this lets us see that time is running out. That is precisely why I honestly believe, that the balance of the revelation of the Seven Trumpets will soon come, before this work is over, because we are approaching the end of the unveiling of written revelation. And as we must know, we cannot finish this catching up programme, and still be waiting for the balance of that truth, seeing that we need that light to complete this great work, of the re-establishment of the True Foundation of Faith, that will carry the elect Universal Bride of Christ, right here at this End Time, in true and perfect readiness for the return of Jesus Christ, at the time of the rapture. May I inform you, brothers and sisters, that the Foundation Structure we have today, is much wider and deeper than what it was in the days of Apostle Paul. That is simply because, if the men who are to occupy the Original Ephesian Fivefold Ministry, are to carry a perfectly synchronised Bible Message, that is, if they are to carry "One Faith", for the attainment of the "Unity of The Faith" and "Perfection", within the Universal Bride of Jesus Christ, then, the Truths that go into this Original Foundation, have to encompass not only Doctrinal Truths, but it must also contain the revelation of the Mysteries of the kingdom, along with the revelation of Bible Prophecies, and a perfect understanding of all Instructions in righteousness, giving us a Complete and Wholesome Bible Message, designed to minister to the total man. Because they cannot be right in their Doctrines, and then create confusion in their understanding of Prophetic Revelation, if you see the point! I say that to let you see, that time is far spent, and here is where it all ends! Consequently, if you are going to live for the Lord, you must live for Him now, because tomorrow may not be yours, as the Lord may come for you tonight. Please make hay while the sun shines, because we have a glorious future ahead of us, as a people with a divine promise upon our heads, an elect Covenant people, for Jesus is coming soon. And because he is coming soon, it is important that as the Bride of Christ, we understand certain truths of the Bible, particularly when we come to the various classes of saints laid out in Bible Prophecy, the Bride being the highest class of sainthood, in God's entire redeemed family. Therefore, where the Bride of Christ is concerned, there should be no mysticism about this truth. We have to know the various classes of saints that have been laid out in Prophecy, because we are the Bride of Christ; because we are "the wise" of the end time, an elect people to whom the divine wisdom of Jesus Christ has been given. And of a truth, the things of Christ are ours, because he is our Bridegroom, and we have been engaged to him, in an extremely deep and intimate spiritual relationship, the likes of which no other class of saint has ever had such privilege. So, open your eyes this morning, and open your ears, as well as your heart, and let the Spirit of truth come in; for I will tell you now, the Spirit of Truth is here; the Spirit of Christ is here, even as we speak. I say that, because no man is anything of himself, and no man can do anything by himself, because we are nothing in ourselves: The Lord Jesus is everything, and as such, his Spirit is what makes the difference! Make no mistake about it, brothers and sisters, as Jesus is in the camp of the saints, for he is revealed in his Word, and only in his Word. And as the Bride of Christ, we are also identified in the Word, because the Word of God is our constitution; because by it we are born again. Continuing our message, and as I said yesterday, when Apostle Paul was here, and as we read in 2 Corinthians Chapter 11, verses 1-2, he addressed the people of God in that day, as though everyone he dealt with was a Bride saint. Apostle Paul, knowing his commission, that he had been raised to get a Bride for Jesus the Christ, he addressed the body of saints as if they were all Bride. But like I also said yesterday, it is God that determined that the Message of the cross he carried, the Message of Truth he bore, will not only produce a Bride, but that the same Message of the Bible would produce other classes of saints. And because we are at the very end, God having sent two successive “Householder” Scribes, in fulfillment of Matthew 13:52, and more particularly, because we are at the junction of the third and final Householder Scribe, we have the privilege of time, for we can look back through time, and pick up every nugget of truth that has ever been given. We can look back, and take every single treasure that the other Householder Scribes have been used to give to the elect Bride, from the pages of the Holy Bible, beginning with Elijah, to the first fruit of his ministry, which gives us the Paul of the end time, all things which now make up “Old” Truths, bringing us to the current hour of John, through whom God is giving us present tense nuggets of truth, “Things New”, New Truths. Therefore, brothers and sisters, it is here and now, that the balance of the issues of truth they touched upon to a measure, will be given to us, for whatever “Loose Ends” still remain in the End Time Message, it is in this Move that they will be all tied up, fully tied up, to give a complete and perfect understanding to the elect Bride of Christ. And God helping us this morning, in this message, we want to tie a “Loose End”. God helping us this morning, we have a “Loose End” to tie up, and it is a “Loose End” in the Continuity Message that the Chief Apostle bore. Brothers and sisters, do you know what Jesus said in Matthew 13:11? He said, “... it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven.” This is the divine wisdom, which Saint Paul referred to, as “the hidden wisdom, WHICH GOD ORDAINED BEFORE THE WORLD UNTO OUR GLORY.” The Lord is opening up these precious and invaluable truths to us, not because we are better or smarter than other people, but simply because of God's sovereign elective love for us, for He elected us unto this class of sainthood. Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have a responsibility, under God, to understand, and to know as we should know, the various classes of saints in God's redeemed family, and exactly how they are constituted. It is not up there in heaven, that we will know this truth: We have to know it down here on earth. Why do I say that? Because the various classes of saints are a written issue, a subject matter that God has already given us in the Holy Scriptures. If it was something to be known up there in heaven, it would not have been written for us. However, God inspired it to be written for us, so that we can appropriate its revelation, for as it is written, "... Man shall not live by bread alone, but by EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDETH OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD." (Matt. 4:4). Period! It is also written in Proverbs Chapter

4, verse 18: "But the path of the just is as THE SHINING LIGHT, THAT SHINETH MORE AND MORE UNTO THE PERFECT DAY."

Therefore, we have to follow the Lord, in the Continuous Light of His written revelation, as it is the food of life; the real and exclusive food for our souls. And this we will do faithfully and with great joy, except we are reprobates!

Brothers and sisters, I must continue to emphasise this fact, that in the First Age of Christendom, Apostle Paul thought that the Gospel would produce only one class of saints, which is the Bride of Christ. Hence, in the message laid out in the Contender Magazine, dated October 2005, and titled, THE SEALS, Part 7, Page 6, Brother Jackson stated: "What I want to show you tonight, is that there is Nowhere in any of the Gospels, that mentions anything about this Multitude right here" (on the chart - Rev 7:9). "ALL THE GOSPELS WERE WRITTEN TO PRODUCE A BRIDE. That is one thing we have to get straight in our thinking. There is no such thing, as one Scripture produces this, and another one that. That is foolishness, to think like that. The one thing we have to understand, is that it is God that is watching over this entire period of time from the beginning of Christianity, all the way to the end of the Age. He has worked in every generation through time, not simultaneously, because this has been a gradual process that moves from the Middle East, Westward, and shines back Eastward", God getting seeds to Himself, through the Gospel of Jesus Christ which Saint Paul bore. That was why in 2 Corinthians Chapter 11, Apostle Paul declared in verse 2: "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: FOR I HAVE ESPoused YOU TO ONE HUSBAND, THAT I MAY PRESENT YOU AS A CHASTE VIRGIN TO CHRIST;" because he actually thought that everyone the Lord saved in that day, was Bride! And having laid out the Full Gospel for us Gentiles, in 66 AD., he was called home, and God anointed John the beloved apostle, as his successor standard bearer, and John stepped into the shoes of the Apostle Paul, as a Minor Messenger to that Age, the Ephesian Church Age. Brother Branham acknowledged this truth in his message titled, The Seven Church Ages, apart from the fact that Church History also acknowledged the same fact, although more importantly, it is the revelation of the Holy Scriptures that confirms this truth, and that settles it! Then in 96 AD., John had a spectacular prophetic encounter on the Isle of Patmos, which brings us to the prophetic setting we see here in Revelation Chapter 7, verse 9. He saw an innumerable crowd of saints, from ALL nations. So, we ask: Who are they? What is their breakdown? Let us therefore take a close look at them. Revelation Chapter 7, verse 9, records: "After this I beheld, and, lo, A GREAT MULTITUDE, which no man could number, of ALL Nations", (which gives us the world; it gives us a picture of global saints. Consequently, it is not about the nation of Israel. Come on! This fact takes it away from being a picture about the nation of Israel, because it now gives us a global picture, ALL Nations), "and kindreds, and people", (meaning all races), "and tongues", (meaning all tribes), "stood before the throne" (of God in heaven), "and before the Lamb", (in whom God is deified), "clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands." Hold it there, for we see something right here. One: We see an innumerable multitude, a multitude which No man can count, and they all have white robes. What is the white robe? It represents salvation; it represents redemption, for it is a robe of divine righteousness. This lets us know that they are all redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. Hallelujah! But do not forget, that what they have on them are white robes; they all have white robes, and that speaks of salvation. But when we go to Revelation Chapter 19, we see the picture of the Bride there, and from verse 7, the Bible says: "Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb" (Jesus Christ) "is come, and his wife hath made herself ready" (on the earth). That is why we are gathered here today, because the engagement is on; we have gotten ourselves engaged to him, and we are now preparing ourselves for his return, for the royal marriage that is coming up in heaven. In order for us to get ready is why we are here today, gathered around the revealed Word of God, for the divine unveiling of the Holy Scriptures, is the attraction for the eagles of God. That is the attraction on the mountain; that is what we gather around, for it is the basis of our gathering, and that is why you have made the sacrifice to be here today, from around the nations of the earth. Verse 8 adds: "And to her was granted" (given), "that she should be arrayed in FINE LINEN", (Not in White Robes, but in FINE LINEN), "CLEAN AND WHITE: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints." Brothers and sisters, when we look at this verse, which gives us the Bride of Jesus Christ, we must note that the Bride of Christ is not only clothed with White Robes. Yes, her garment is also white, but the fact remains, that she is not just wearing "White Robes", the material of her garment of righteousness is much better, and is said to be "Fine Linen", which is a special material, and in fact, it is the best material in God's entire redeemed family. Think about it! What the Bride of Christ is wearing, because she is the Bride of Jesus Christ, the Queen of the King, the potential Queen of the potential King, is "Fine Linen", which is a lovely material, an expensive material, and the best material of clothing in God's entire redeemed family! Every other class of saints, whatever class it is, only have "White Robes", and only the Bride of Christ is adorned in "Fine Linen". Why is this so? Because she occupies the highest level of sainthood in God's entire redeemed family! So, when we go back to Revelation Chapter 7, verse 9, we see that this innumerable crowd, are all clothed with nothing but "White Robes", which is in total contrast to the garment of the elect Bride, which is "Fine Linen". That should let you see without any iota of doubt, that you do not take this crowd, the innumerable crowd, and make Bride saints out of them, for they are simply not the Bride! Consequently, we see two separate and distinct classes of saints, when we compare the class in Revelation 7:9, with the class in Revelation 19:7-8. May I remind you, that this divine revelation was only given to Apostle John in 96 AD., as the Spirit of Christ took him through time, in a divine prophetic projection, a divine revelation ordained for the spiritual edification of the Bride of Christ, who are living at this very end of time. As I stated earlier, this constitutes part of what Apostle Paul referred to in 59 AD., in his 1st Epistle to the Corinthians, Chapter 2, verse 7, as "THE HIDDEN WISDOM, which God ordained before the world unto our glory." So, please, do not ever take the white robed saints, and make them part of the Bride. They are a different category of saints entirely, and that is why God used prophetic imagery to characterise the difference between them, thereby concealing the truth from the wise and prudent of this world, all these Professors of Ignorance, Theologians, and so-called Doctors of Divinity. Continuing with the picture conveyed in Revelation Chapter 7, and starting again from verse 9, the Bible records: "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen." Pay attention from verse 13: "And one of the elders", (one of the 24 elders, which gives us the 12 patriarchs and the 12 apostles, representatives of the human race before the throne of the God), “answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes?” (In other words, Who are these ones?) “and whence came they?” (Where have they been redeemed from? In what junctures of time? In what periods of time? In what dispensations of time? Who are they?) This gives us two serious questions which the elder asked John, and the Lord helping us, that is exactly what we want to break down in this message, for it is an integral part of our message. Brothers and sisters, there are some questions we could not answer yesterday. There is a specific question a brother asked me which I could not answer then, which, by the grace of God, I am going to answer for him this morning, because the Spirit of truth is here, giving us the progressive light of Jesus Christ of the Holy Bible. Brother Enoch, do you remember the question you asked me concerning a prophetic passage recorded in the Book of Ezekiel, which I told you I could not answer, because I did not know it? Well brother, now I have the answer to that question by the grace of God; but because it does not concern the issue we are dealing with in this message, in God's appointed time, we will have to deal with that prophetic issue as well, because the Spirit of truth is here. Church, continuing with the prophetic revelation conveyed in the Book of Revelation Chapter 7, where one of the 24 elders asked John two questions in verse 13: “What are these which are arrayed in white robes?” (In other words, Who are they?) “and whence came they?” (In other words, what dispensations of time do they come from?) Brothers and sisters, those questions were too much for Apostle John to answer, for he had not the slightest clue! Consequently, John replied him in verse 14: “And I said unto him, SIR, THOU KNOWEST. And he said to me, These are they which came out of Great Tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.” As I stated earlier, this lets us know they are not Jews, but Gentile believers of Jesus Christ. Do not forget that the Jews rejected Jesus Christ, and they also persecuted the apostles, and God had to shut them out, and turn the Gospel to the Gentiles, in order to get a Gentile Bride for His Son Jesus Christ, which is why the Bride of Christ is a Gentile Bride. She is typed by the Egyptian wife of Joseph, a man who also typed Christ, God's Son of Prosperity. Do not forget that Joseph married an African, a Gentile, because he was rejected by his brethren, his brothers, just as Jesus Christ was also rejected by his brethren, the Jews, and Jesus was forced to take a Gentile Bride. My brothers and sisters, the Jews turned down Jesus Christ, and they also persecuted the saints, calling this way the way of “heresy”; and God had to shut them out. Hence, Apostle Paul told the Jews in Acts 13, verses 46-67, “... It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye” (Jews) “put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth." This Move of God brought in the Gentile Bride, even though the beginning nucleus of the Body of Christ, were made up of the Jewish saints. But predominantly, the Bride of Christ, the wife of Jesus Christ, is Gentile, for God began to slowly shut out the Jews, as the Gospel moved to the Gentiles, until the Jews were completely shut out, leaving us with a Gentile Bride. Therefore, when we consider Revelation Chapter 7, verse 14, which tells us that "... These are they which came out of Great Tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB", who is Jesus Christ, we know immediately that they are Gentile believers from around the globe, who have been redeemed through the Ages of time within the Grace Age. They are definitely not Jews, because the Jews rejected the Gospel of life, which Jesus gives, although God blinded them for the sake of us Gentiles, that we might also be grafted into the tree of life. Consequently, brothers and sisters, when we consider this crowd which no man can count, redeemed from all the nations of the world, giving us a global population of saints, please do not put Jews in the number. You cannot put Jews in that number, for you are looking strictly at a global Gentile group of saved people, and it gives us another class of saints, quite distinct from the Bride of Christ.

Moving on to verse 15, the Bible states: "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat." (Because all that is over now; all their troubles are over now. And it will also be over for us one of these days. It will not be long, because Jesus is coming very soon, for his return is at the doors. So, hold to God, the eternal Spirit's unchanging hand, for all is well). "For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." Amen. So, we ask ourselves the Bible question again this morning: "What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?" Brothers and sisters, in verse 14, we are told that they "came out of GREAT TRIBULATION". Church, when we consider this answer, the "great tribulation", the religious world erroneously take it straight to the 70th Week of Daniel, a period they call "The Great Tribulation", and use it as the time when this prophetic passage has application. That is also how we have considered the Last Week of Daniel in times past, until the true light came, the Spirit of the Lord using Raymond Jackson, and we realised that what we have always seen as "The Great Tribulation", is actually the Last Phase of the Great Tribulation, or better put, it is the Last Great Tribulation. In effect, the Great Tribulation gives us the past almost Two Thousand Years, wherein God's children have been passing through great tribulations, the last of which we have in the 70th Week of Daniel. I repeat: The Great Tribulation is nothing but a long period of time, wherein God's elect children have been going through various "great tribulation", ending with the "great tribulation" we have in the Last Week of Daniel, which is the last phase of the "great tribulation". That is precisely why, in Revelation Chapter 1, Apostle John could say in verse 9: "I John, who also am your brother, and companion in TRIBULATION, and in the kingdom and patience" (or trial) "of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ", (for which he was being persecuted in that day, and for which he was banished to the Isle of Patmos, after having first been fried unsuccessfully in hot oil). That is also why, in his prophetic address to the Second Church Age, the Smyrnaean Church

Age, recorded in Revelation Chapter 2, verses 9-10, Jesus Christ declared: "I know thy works, and TRIBULATION, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, THAT YE MAY BE TRIED; AND YE SHALL HAVE TRIBULATION TEN DAYS: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." In Acts of the Apostles Chapter 14, what are we told that Saint Paul did in verse 22? He was "Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through MUCH TRIBULATION enter into the kingdom of God." Brothers and sisters, tribulation has always been the lot of God's people, throughout the Gentile Dispensation of Grace! That is why the innumerable crowd we see in Chapter 7, verse 9, are made up of people who came out of the various Ages, and yet, they are all said to have come out of "great tribulation"! Because, indeed, the "great tribulation" is not tied to one particular period, but it spans the entire course of the Grace Age, the Gentile Dispensation of Grace, and the 70th Week only gives us the last dose of it! Period! Church, the very fact that the "great tribulation" is attached to the innumerable crowd from ALL nations, and all peoples, confirms without any doubt, that we cannot apply this terminology to just one particular period in time, but to plural periods of time, spanning the entire Dispensation of Grace, wherein the various nations and peoples were positively affected by the Gospel, including nations like Morocco, Libya, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and Turkey, areas which are now totally Islamic! Full stop! Look at what the Jews went through in the Holocaust years of 1939-1945, just for an example. The German Nazis killed them, and skinned their flesh, and used it to make lampshades! They also butchered them, cut them into pieces, opening up their stomachs, in order to get the gold and diamond that some of the Jews had swallowed. Are you listening to me? They were taken to a ditch, and were stripped completely naked, old and young, male and female, mum and dad, grandpa and grandma, children and grandchildren; they were all lined along the ditch, and shot to death! Brothers and sisters, some were beaten to death; countless were gassed to death in gas chambers; some of them were locked inside a hall, and burnt to death! Multitudes of them were starved to death in concentration camps all over Europe, by the Nazis. So I ask you: Is what they have gone through, not a great tribulation, wherein about six million Jews were slaughtered? The only difference, is that the Last 3½ years of the 70th week of Daniel that is ahead, gives us the Last Phase of the "Great Tribulation"; it crowns the great tribulation that has been going on for God's elect children, throughout the Grace Age! You know what happened to Jews in 70 AD., when General Titus came against Jerusalem, in fulfilment of the prophetic words of Jesus Christ, when he cried over Jerusalem, saying, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, if only you had known in this thy day, the things that pertain to your peace. But now, they are withheld from thine eyes. The day shall come, that your enemy shall lay a parapet around you, and hedge you all around, and lay you down to the ground, and your temple will come down, and not one stone will be laid upon the other." Do not ever think, that only the wicked Jews died in that terrible onslaught, because a lot of innocent, God fearing, Judaistic Jews, also perished and suffered in that siege, that horrible blockade! And now, a mosque is standing in the place where the temple of God used to stand, the grounds where the rock of Moriah stands! The Jewish historian, Josephus, wrote about how, in that terrible siege, they ate the Bark Of Trees, until there were no trees With Bark, and they boiled their shoes for its leather, and some women even started killing and boiling their children for food, all out of intense and protracted (prolonged) hunger! Brothers and sisters, you just must understand, that the "great tribulation" is not limited to the Last Week of Daniel: It covers the entire Grace Age, wherein God's children have been going through great tribulations, and the Last Week of Daniel, only gives us the Last Phase of it. That is what I want you to see, by laying out the examples of the sufferings, the great tribulations, which the children of Israel have faced, even though they are not part of the innumerable crowd of Revelation 7:9!

In the Contender Magazine dated October 2005, which I have edited to a measure merely for smooth reading, when Brother Jackson was preaching on The Seals, Part 7, he declared on pages 11-12: "Now I want to say this: Please, I did not know this six months ago. I learned this since then. Traditionists, (the students of Bible doctrine), all have this great multitude of saints shown in Revelation 7: 9, as those that come out of Tribulation at the end of this Age; the revelation of what you read in the 14th verse. (Rev 7:13) - "And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? (Verse 14:) And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." These did not come out of this end time Tribulation at all. How many understand me? THIS GREAT MULTITUDE CAME OUT OF TRIBULATION ALL THROUGH TIME, because they represent every nation, every kindred, every tongue, AND THE GOSPEL HAD NOT BEEN ACCESSIBLE TO ALL OF THEM AT THE SAME TIME OVER THIS GLOBE. We know better than that. It started in Jerusalem, but a few years later it was in Asia. A little later, it had gone into the Roman area. As it does this through about three hundred years, that area of Asia begins to cool off. Christianity went into Saudi Arabia and was flourishing and growing in the Second Century. I have the history on it. If I had a map up here, I could show you. It had penetrated into Egypt. It went all the way across North Africa, and in the Second Century, over here into Morocco, Christian Churches had been established along, and all in the Second Century. By the time of the Sixth and Seventh Century, Mohammad had come on the scene. Christendom in Saudi Arabia was cooling off. Mohammad arose and began to shut them up. It was not long until there were no more Christians known of in Saudi Arabia. In the Eighth Century, Mohammad the Great came out of Saudi Arabia. When he came into Egypt, he threatened to destroy all the Christians, their Churches and everything. For some reason or other, God permitted him to leave a small segment of Christians, but all across North Africa that army went. That is why from Algiers, Tunisia, and all through there, there are no Christians today. They butchered the Christians, slaughtering them by the thousands. That is why some of them are right there, (in that great multitude)", (which no man can number). I have stated all that, to prove to you the true application of the "great tribulation", because that term has been traditionalised, and erroneously tied exclusively to the 70th Week of Daniel. Now coming back to the crowd in Revelation Chapter 7, verse 9, that is, zeroing in on precisely who these people are, the innumerable crowd, brothers and sisters, as I said previously, initially, before God broke down the various classes of saints for us, even the chief apostle of this end time, took this innumerable crowd, and made them the Foolish Virgins, until the true light came. In his message in the Contender dated November 1980, and titled, He Gave Gifts Unto Men, Brother Jackson said: "... those Foolish Virgins will have to have a blood bath in order to get their salvation robes washed clean. (Rev. 7:9-17) But let us praise God for the fact that the Foolish Virgins are not lost souls, as many believe them to be." Please note that in this quote, he used Revelation 7:9-17, as constituting the Foolish Virgins, because he initially saw them as Foolish Virgins. Again, in his message dated March 1984, and titled, Identifying The Antichrist, Part 1, Brother Jackson said: "Among the Gentiles that are supposed to be Christians out here in these denominational church systems, only the Foolish Virgins will ever recognize what they are being led into, and even though they do wake up to reality, it will be too late for them to avoid martyrdom. They will be saved, but only through martyrdom during the great tribulation. Bro. Jackson, what makes you say a thing like that? Simply because the Bible says so. We cannot take time to prove every statement we may make in a message like this, but if you will study Revelation 7:9-17, you will see that there are some mentioned in verse 14, that had to seal their testimony with their own blood in martyrdom.

Bride saints are perfected before the great tribulation ever starts and during that time, they are in glory with Jesus Christ the Bridegroom, at the marriage supper. Yes, of course it is the shed blood of Jesus Christ that pays our sin debt, but those who fail to take full advantage of all the benefits of that shed blood, and walk in a true revelation while there is time to do so, will be left here to face the great tribulation, and the wrath of that beast that will kill every person that refuses to renounce their faith in God. That of course will be Gentile FOOLISH VIRGINS and a certain element of Jews. Jews that will not renounce their faith in Jehovah. Furthermore, in his message titled, From Azusa Until Now, Part 2, he also declared on page 13: "They project that the Church is going to be left here to go through the tribulation. Well saints, we do not have to take their word for a thing like that: We have the Bible to look at; so go with me to Revelation 7:9-17. In the earlier verses you are reading about how many Jews, servants of God are going to be sealed away with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, in the first part of the Last Week of Daniel's prophecy. You see all the twelve tribes mentioned, coming right on down through verse 8. Then in verse 9, we find that John's attention was drawn to another scene. "After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues", (We can see that John is not looking just at Jewish people. He is looking at people of all nations and races, Gentiles,) "stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb." Now let us come on down to verse 13. "And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. (In other words, Sir: I do not know; but you do; so please tell me.) "And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation", (This is what these people see: the people who think this great multitude has to be the Gentile Church, the Bride Church, left here to go through the great tribulation; but the Scriptures tell us differently;) "and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple: and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them." I believe every one of you sitting here, if you have been here for a while, know that this group of martyrs are not the Bride Church. THIS IS YOUR FOOLISH VIRGINS along with Jewish believers: that actually do have to seal their faith in martyrdom during that dark hour of time; but the little Bride of Jesus Christ is with Him in glory during that time." As a result of these teachings, and as followers of the Continuing Light he bore, we all thought they were indeed Foolish Virgins, Gentile Foolish Virgins, until the true light came. For the Lord later dealt with Brother Jackson, on the various classes of saints there are in God's redeemed family, and we now realised that the innumerable crowd are not just Foolish Virgins, particularly because we did not have Foolish Virgins, until we came to the Seventh and Final Church Age, this Laodicean Age. May I repeat myself: We did not have Foolish Virgins until we came to this Seventh and Final Church Age! Because the parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins, recorded in Matthew Chapter 25, from verse 1, which states, "THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom", brings us straight to the beginning of this Laodicean Church Age, when God sent an Oil Message to the earth, through which God restored the Gifts of the Spirit, using William Seymour, an African-American, to spearhead that Pentecostal Movement! And from that time on, we have now had Foolish Virgins on ground. Consequently, we will say that the innumerable number that John saw in Revelation Chapter 7, verses 9-17, are not Foolish Virgins, although it also contains some element of Foolish Virgins, who have passed on in this Last Age. But one thing is certain, and that is the fact that they are undoubtedly a saved universal body of people, bearing the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ our Lord, "the Lamb" of God; because in verses 9-10, they acknowledge Jesus Christ the Lamb. And in particular, verse 14 tells us, that "... These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white IN THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB", Jesus Christ our Saviour. This truth cannot be disputed, for it is a settled fact of the Word of God.

However, the question remains, and we ask for the umpteenth time, just as verse 13 asks: "...What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?" Who are these people, and where do they come from?

Brothers and sisters, let us now take a close look at this crowd, which we have portrayed right here on our chart. (Brother Amos points to the chart). When we look at this crowd described in Revelation Chapter 7, verses 9-17, brothers and sisters, it takes us right back to the days of Saint Paul, right here. The making of this righteous crowd began right there, in the First Church Age. Now pay close attention. The crowd takes us through the entire Seven Church Ages, and that is precisely why they are said to be "a great multitude, WHICH NO MAN COULD NUMBER!"

We have among them, saints who came out of the "great tribulation" that began in the First Age of Christendom, right from the days of Apostle Paul. The Book of Acts Chapter 8, verse 1, records: "And Saul was consenting unto his death", (the death of Saint Stephen). "And at that time there was A GREAT PERSECUTION against the Church which was at Jerusalem; AND THEY WERE ALL SCATTERED ABROAD throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles." Acts Chapter 11, verses 19-20, adds: "Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus." In Acts Chapter 12, from verse 1, we are duly told: "Now about that time HEROD THE KING STRETCHED FORTH HIS HANDS TO VEX CERTAIN OF THE CHURCH. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him." Saints, all that was happening in the First Age of Christendom, under the Roman Beast Empire, because that was where the persecution of the saints started. May I remind you, that our Lord Jesus Christ himself was born during the rule of the Roman Beast Empire, and he also died in the Era of the Roman Beast Empire, by a Roman Judgment of Crucifixion. The Roman Beast Empire was a most vicious and iron-like Political Empire, which persecuted the Christians with Satan's ferociousness, from way back then. The Church of Jesus Christ that was born on the Day of Pentecost, was also born under the rule of the Roman Beast Empire, an Empire we have also portrayed on our chart, right here, (Brother Amos points to the chart); the Beast which has "Seven Heads and Ten Horns", although in the days of the Early Church Apostles, it only had one big head of the Caesars, for the seven heads had not yet evolved. The Roman Catholic Church Organisation that was later formed, greatly influenced and ruled this

Roman Beast Empire, through the Papacy, in the Dark Ages, and that is precisely why we see her riding on the back of the Ten Horned Roman Beast, right here on our chart, as Revelation Chapter 17 confirms. May I add, that speaking about the martyrdom of the saints, the Roman Catholic Church Organisation, has been Satan's greatest killing machine of the saints, for she has killed through time, about Sixty-Eight Million souls, particularly during the Dark Ages! Even the German Nazi soldiers, were led by Catholic priests! Consequently, the martyrdom of the saints started way back then, right from the First Age of Christendom, and right under the Roman Beast Empire, the Fourth and Final Beast Empire of Daniel Chapter 7, and it will be the Roman Beast till Jesus comes for his Bride, though reconstituted at this end time as the European Union. And even when Jesus also comes on the Day of the Lord, it will still be the Roman Beast, the European Union, under the leadership of the Pope of the Roman Catholic Church Organisation. This Roman Beast has been the primary means of the persecution of the saints, all through time, and it will still be so, even in the 70th Week of Daniel. Leaving the First Age of Christendom, brothers and sisters, do not also forget that it was in the Second Church Age, that the Red Horse Rider of Revelation Chapter 6, now went forth, and the Mass killing of God's people started, for a serious bloodbath of Christians began, setting in motion the Age of Martyrdom, and you can look nowhere else for that mass slaughtering of the saints, than to the Roman Beast that we have right here. (Brother Amos points to the chart). However, the more the devil killed them, the more mass conversion God wrought, until the devil realised, "There is no way I can kill them out", and he had to change his tactics, climbing on yet another horse, the Black Horse, with a pair of balances in his hands. Are you with me? Brothers and sisters, persecution did not stop, and neither did the killings ever stop! The "Great Tribulation" of the children of God only continued, raised to another level of wickedness, and utter evil, as the various Inquisitions were now set up in Europe, through the influence of the Church of Rome, killing and torturing the saints of God in the most dastardly, most barbaric, and most demonic ways, throughout the Dark Ages of about One Thousand Years of Satan's Millennium, for this Roman Beast Church Organisation, the spiritual woman riding the Ten Horned Beast, is nothing but a monster! I am not talking about the people, I am talking about that Evil Church Organisation! Therefore, the "great multitude" we are looking at here, in Revelation Chapter 7, "which no man could number", takes in the white robed saints in the First Church Age, the white robed saints in the Second Church Age, the white robed saints in the Third Church Age, coming to the white robed saints in the Fourth Church Age, which leads us to the Dark Ages, right up to those in the Reformation Era, in the Fifth and Sixth Church Ages. That is precisely why no man could number them! And when we now consider this Seventh Age, this Last Age, we still have to put the Foolish Virgins into that innumerable crowd of white robed saints, right up to a point, stopping precisely just before the 70th Week of Daniel commences, for there is nowhere else we can put them, scripturally speaking. Yes, I know that in the Contender dated October 2005, when he was preaching The Seals, Part 7, Brother Jackson said: "The Foolish Virgins only came into the picture when there was a Shout made that awakened them." Brothers and sisters, the truth is, and you should know this as a true follower of the chief apostle's Continuity Message, particularly knowing his teachings, that he meant to say that the Foolish Virgins came on the scene with the Oil Message the Pentecostals bore; but it was the Shout that made them manifest to us, as it is what brought about the separation of the two classes of virgins. I say this, because the issue of Foolish Virgins was already here, ever before the Midnight Cry was given in verse 6, of Matthew 25, giving us the Shout, for that is what it correlates to, A Cry which awakened the whole of Christendom, and which also separated the Foolish Virgins from the Wise Virgins. It was Brother Jackson, however, that was used to give us a perfect understanding of the parable of the ten virgins, to begin with! So, as I said before, when we come to this Laodicean Age, we also have to put the Foolish Virgins into this innumerable crowd of white robed saints, stopping just before the 70th Week of Daniel starts. This is because, any Foolish Virgin who passes into the 70th Week, will be martyred, as once the 7th Seal is broken, salvation is completely over for the Gentiles, and as such, everyone is sealed into their respective slots. Therefore, any Foolish Virgin who passes into the Last Week, is certainly ordained for slaughter; they will be martyred. Period! Consequently, when we look at this great crowd, we have to take them from the days of Apostle Paul, and carry them through time, through all the Church Ages, and stop just before the 70th Week starts, and we will have to stop right there, because the balance of Foolish Virgins who pass into the Last Week, are coming down here, on the sea of glass mingled with fire; which is precisely where they are coming. (Brother Amos points to the chart). They are coming into this crowd down here. Yet, throughout the same Church Ages, God has also been harvesting to Himself Bride saints, and we are still coming to deal with that class of saints. But as we speak today, there are Foolish Virgins dying around the globe, some of them by Natural Death, and we have to put them precisely where the Scriptures give us. Do you know how many people were butchered in Rwanda, during the Rwandan genocide? And what of Syria? Brothers and sisters, look at what is going on, with the massacre of Christians in Syria, in Egypt, in India, in Pakistan, in Afghanistan, in Indonesia, in Iran, in Iraq, in Northern Nigeria, in Somalia, in Sudan, in North Korea, etc. And nobody cares for us Christians: The Western nations are taking the Muslims in as refugees, but nobody cares for the Christians! Brothers and sisters, you have to agree with me this morning, that in ALL these places, surely there are Foolish Virgins being slaughtered! Are you listening to me? And we are looking strictly at the end time reality! So, I ask you: Where are you going to put these people who are not in the Bride, but who have a genuine love for Jesus Christ, having accepted him as their Lord and Saviour, and who were butchered for their Faith? Come on! These are people who were not part of the Bride, for they could not log on to the Message of the Bride, the deep revelation of Jesus Christ which the Bride possesses, and which sets her apart from every other element of believers in the entire world! So, we are making a point, saints, and it is that, the innumerable crowd in Revelation Chapter 7, are white robed saints, starting from the days of Saints Peter and Paul, although the Early Church ministry did not know this fact, because they felt everybody that was brought in by the Gospel, was Bride. It was God that knew who was Bride, and who was just a white robed saint. That is why we are talking about The Martyrdom Of Saints, because we are looking at the various classes of white robed saints, who are very distinct from the Bride of Christ. And God helping us, we will prove why they are exactly what they are, by the full and unquestionable authority of the Holy Scriptures, because the Word of God is what settles ALL issues for ALL true believers. Brothers and sisters, the fact that it is written, settles all issues for every last one of us in the Bride of Christ! When we hear "It is written", ALL arguments cease; ALL questions stop; we simply bow to it, and unreservedly, we ALL say "Amen!" Unbelievers question, but saints believe; unbelievers question, the Bride believes, because we are believers, believers of the Holy Scriptures! We are Bible believers, sticklers to the Word of God! Amen!

We welcome our visiting brethren this morning. We have no papers or Church forms for you to fill in your names, but God knows everything about you, and you are welcome in the name of the Lord. If you ask us, "Who are these? What kind of people are these?" We will simply tell you, we are Bible believers. With the Bible alone we stand, and the Bible alone is what we believe, and is the exclusive basis for everything we believe. There is nothing you give to us, unless it is anchored in the Holy Scriptures, we will reject, because the basis of everything we believe is the Holy Scriptures. With the Scriptures alone we stand, and we are not ashamed to let the world know we are Bible believers, pure and simple. The world can condemn the Holy Bible all they want to, nevertheless, we want them to know that that is our life! And if they do not like us for that, tough! We cannot help them in that regard, for we cannot deny the Word of God by which we have been saved, and which is our spiritual constitution, our spiritual make-up. Moreover, the world has never loved the Bride, and they will never love the Bride, because we are not of the world, but of God, for the world loves his own, and is not a friend to grace. The lot of true believers has always been persecution, and that has been so from the very beginning; that is our lot, and as such, we cannot behave as though something strange is happening to us, because we are being persecuted around the globe. That has always been the portion of the saints of God, because we are not of this world! That is why we are talking about The Martyrdom Of Saints. Brothers and sisters, do not forget that this innumerable crowd here in Revelation Chapter 7, their constitution starts right from the days of Apostle Paul; but none of them in that crowd belongs to the Bride of Christ. Every last one of them is a white robed saint. Do not forget that: Every last one of them is a white robed saint. Therefore, we cannot bring the Bride of Jesus Christ, who is clothed from the crown of her head to the sole of her feet, with the pure and unadulterated revelation of the Holy Scriptures, into that innumerable class of saints, because she is a Word Bride, a Virgin of the Word of God. Halleluiah! Amen! She knows no creeds or dogma, and no traditions of men, no carnal interpretations or carnal conceptions of the Word of God. She is begotten of the pure seed of the Word of God, which is Jesus Christ in his pure divine scriptural revelation. Period! Brothers and sisters, in his message dated April 2003, and titled, THE LAST 100 YEARS-PLUS, Part 4, pages 12-13, under the subtitle, IDENTIFYING THE DIFFERENT GROUPS OF SAINTS OF GOD, the chief apostle stated: "The question was asked, to John, Rev 7:13 "And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are (already) arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? Notice, (Rev 7:14) "And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation", (Not The Great Tribulation of the Last half of the Week,) "and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." I pray you everyone see the difference. They were standing before the throne, already clothed. They had something already, that did not have to be given at that time, (unlike the souls we saw under the altar). "That tells me, that this is not only saints that fall into the same category of the Foolish Virgins of Matthew 25, that have died through this Christian Era of time by Natural Death, but also some that have been killed", (Martyred), "like in Russia, China, and other places as well. DO NOT TELL ME ALL OF THEM HAD TO BE MARTYRED IN ORDER TO STAND THERE LIKE THAT, because I have a surprise for you after a while", (for we must realise, that all of that group takes in ALL white robed saints, whether they were martyred, or they died of a natural death.) "The tribulation here, speaks of great tribulation they have come out of throughout ALL times, from the beginning of Christianity right on through. The only exception is, THOSE SLAUGHTERED IN THE GREAT TRIBULATION OF THE LAST HALF OF THE 70TH WEEK OF DANIEL, ARE SEEN STANDING ON A SEA OF GLASS, in the 15th Chapter of Revelation. We must keep in mind, that those First Christians that started out in the upper room in Jerusalem were all Jews: A hundred and twenty. How many of them lived to get out of the First Age? None of them. They were Martyred. Those of the Apostolic Era, all who received the Holy Ghost and received a revelation and walked accordingly, will stand with the Bride of Christ. Those who received life that only comes from the Spirit of God, but were Martyred or died by some other means, even a Natural Death before they had lived long enough to qualify as Bride saints, are everyone in that great multitude of Revelation 7:9. There are no Bride saints in that group: They are seen in another setting. John saw all of this, and he wrote it all, but he did not write it in the exact order of literal fulfilment. The Bride is seen in the 19th Chapter of Revelation... Those seen in the multitude of Revelation 7:9, did not live long enough to cultivate a righteous life and take on the stature of the Bride saints, but they all have life: They are certainly not going to be judged with the wicked and ungodly vessels of humanity. One thing I do want to emphasize, is the fact that all of those in that multitude, came out of the same generations of mankind that the Bride came out of, right on through Two Thousand Years of time, right on up to the point where the great tribulation saints of that Week are set apart in another setting; seen standing on a sea of glass. Let me say again though, Even though they came out of the same generations the Bride came out of, the Bride is not in this crowd." Then on page 14, Brother Jackson stated: "My point is this, Even though that Scripture sounds like all those in that group have been tortured and brutally murdered (martyred) for their faith, I must ask you, What about those believers who by their lives on earth fall into the realm of those that are identified as Foolish Virgins, that died a Natural Death? You have to look beyond the actual writing in a situation like this, to the grace of God: realizing He is not just looking for a reason to cast people into hell. Are you listening to me? When God gives us a revelation on some particular subject or event, He does not have to explain every little detail of every situation that revelation pertains to: He expects wise virgins to apply His righteous principles, having confidence in the integrity of His Word and character... When you pick up the history, all through the Book of Acts, persecution, martyrdom and torture are seen. Through the First Three Centuries, the Gospel written by Paul was primarily to get a Church grounded upon God's Word, (a Bride for Jesus). We have to understand this, Some of those people that were converted to Christianity (saved by the shed blood of Jesus the Christ), did not live but a very short time after that; and did not have time to learn anything about investing talents and preparing themselves as the Bride is ordained to do. Are you listening to me? If you cannot see this, you need to go back and study some history: The history books are full of

it. Some of them were Martyred and some died a Natural Death. Is it not strange, that it does not say a thing here in the Book of Revelation, Chapter 19, about how many of them were Martyred? You just see the Bride of Christ, a great number, arrayed in fine linen clean and white. I happen to know by the record of the Book of Acts, and the histories that have followed, that this whole thing started with the Gospel preached for that hour of time. Therefore, some of them had to die a Natural Death, because they were not all Martyred. Yet as time moved on, many of those that are in the Bride, did die a Martyr's death. We all know that. That is the way we have to look at it."

Church, we must now ask ourselves this material question: Why do the saints in Revelation 7:9, have just white robes, when they reach even way back to the hour of Apostle Paul? How come they have "white robes", and not "fine linen"? How come they did not make it into the Bride?

There are two main reasons responsible for this. REASON ONE: Just as we read from the message of the chief apostle, many of them did not have the opportunity to live long enough to bear Fruits, that can make them part of the Bride. They are like the thief on the cross, and please note that I did not say they are, but that they are likened to the thief on the cross, who was saved just at death's door. Therefore, the thief on the cross, gives us a type, of saints whom God saves through time, but who did not have the opportunity of living long enough after their salvation, to bear Fruits of any kind. Brothers and sisters, just consider the saints that were killed in the First Church Age; look at the saints slaughtered in the Second Church Age, all the way through the Dark Ages, an era of time when we had mass conversions. As they were being killed en-masse, fed to lions, burnt on stakes, and even when soldiers saw their faith, and heard the song of redemption that they sang to face the lions, they too said, "We want what they have. How can these people sing and still face lions? How can they be fed to Lions, and they are still smiling?" And they said, "Kill us as well, for we also are Christians", and they were killed along with the saints. Because if you identified with Christians in that hour of time, you had to be killed right there and then! It was an hour of intense persecution, but then the Lord was also converting souls amass, in that horrible hour, an hour of mass conversion, because it was when the Gospel was just going forth. Church, those people are not different to the thief on the cross, who believed just at death's door, because salvation is a gift the Lord gives to whosoever would dare to believe. It is not of works, but as it is written: "For God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him", (as that is all it takes to be saved), "should not perish, but have everlasting life." It is not on the basis of works; it is not on the basis of merit; it is not because they joined a Church, and placed their names on the Church Roll somewhere; but it is because they believed the testimony of God concerning His Son. Hence, in the Book of Romans Chapter 10, verses 9-10, the Holy Bible declares: "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

This is absolutely so, because salvation is strictly a gift, a free gift, for it is written in Ephesians Chapter 2, verses 8-9: "FOR BY GRACE ARE YE SAVED THROUGH FAITH; and that not of yourselves: IT IS THE GIFT OF GOD: NOT OF WORKS, lest any man shoul d boast."

Consequently, if a person will believe, truly believe, even when he is on his death bed, he will be saved, for salvation is a gift. The thief on the cross is a perfect example of a death bed salvation. And although it is very dangerous and a great gamble, for people to wait till they are at death's door, before surrendering their hearts to Jesus Christ to be saved, for they may be taken away by instantaneous death, one that does not afford them any opportunity for a death bed salvation experience, nonetheless, the fact remains, that God saves even at death's door. But a person may never have such an opportunity, because nothing in life is certain, as we do not know tomorrow, and anything can happen. Therefore, it is only wise that people believe, and settle their salvation, long before they get to death's door, because they may never make it, particularly as no man can determine exactly how he will go, which is precisely why we have a lot of sudden deaths, whether by accident, or a sudden natural death! Nevertheless, the truth remains, brothers and sisters, that God saves people even when at death's door, like he did the thief on the cross. But these people, because they did not live long enough to bear any Fruits, they have to be brought into the class of white robed saints of Revelation Chapter 7, verses 9-17. The lack of opportunity to live long, so as to bear Fruit, is the first reason they will end up in the innumerable crowd. REASON TWO: We must equally realise, brothers and sisters, that we also have people in this white robed category of saints, that is, in the crowd in Revelation Chapter 7, verses 9-17, who had the opportunity to live long enough to bear Fruits, for not every one of them died without an opportunity for Fruitfulness; they had an opportunity to walk with Christ as Christians, but their lives were Fruitless, nevertheless, because their Fruits just did not abide; they lived a Fruitless Christian life. They also belong in this class of saints, for we cannot deny the fact that the Fruits of some people will not abide, particularly as we cannot take a truth, indeed any truth, into extremes! That is why in the quote of Brother Jackson that we saw earlier, laid out in his message titled, The Last

100 Years-Plus, Part 4, Page 13, he declared: "When God gives us a revelation on some particular subject or event, He does not have to explain every little detail of every situation that revelation pertains to: He expects wise virgins to apply His righteous principles, having confidence in the integrity of His Word and character." That is also why, in his message dated May 1991, and titled, The Woman of Mystery, Part 4, Brother Jackson plainly stated: "No doubt there are yet many details to be revealed of this end time picture; but meanwhile we are to live for God and wait patiently until the time comes for Him to reveal the rest to us. Surely we are so close to the end now, that it cannot be long until the rest comes." Consequently, saints of God, we have to make room for the redeemed souls, whose lives fall short of God's acceptable standard for the Bride saints, for we have to look at the Foolish Virgin type people of ALL Ages, people who have lived long enough, but who just failed to cultivate that required Christian life of a Bride saint! The group making up the innumerable crowd, cannot be determined strictly by death shortly after conversion, otherwise, we will have to create another class for Foolish Virgins; because a lot of Foolish Virgins have been dying by natural death around the world, since the outbreak of the Pentecostal Movement, and they have lived long enough, but yet, they are not going to be in the Bride! How many see the point? A lot of Foolish Virgins who have died by natural death in this Last Age, have lived long enough, but yet, they will not be in the Bride, because they do not have what the Bride have, the Fruits the Bride saints have! It is the same with the white robed saints of ALL Ages! It is just like the souls under the altar, whom Brother Branham restricted to the Jews who were killed under Hitler's purge, during the Holocaust years, the World War 2 years of 1939-1945, and Brother Jackson came later in time, and showed that that class of souls also extends to Jews throughout the Grace Age, who equally lived faithfully to the Torah! In other words, the white robed saints we see in Revelation 7, verse 9, are made up of a universal body of saints, and not only takes in saints who died without the opportunity to bear Fruits, but it also takes in saints who lived long enough, but just did not bear the Fruits that could make them Bride, and we must likewise accept this fact. If we do not, we are going to run into serious problems with the Foolish Virgins, because they are also white robed saints, and not every one of them died shortly after conversion, for many also lived long enough to bear Fruits, but they just fell short of God's standard for the Bride, who are the Wise Virgins, and that is scripturally incontestable! I hope that is settled, for we should be able to know how to look at these two classes of saints, because as the elect Bride of Christ, we are much closer in time to the return of Christ, than when the chief apostle was here, and as such, our understanding of the Word is much clearer, most deeper, and richer, having been lifted unto a much higher revelatory plateau, by the Spirit of Christ.

However, and in contrast to all other classes of saints, you and I have been called into something that is most glorious, and from which the Foolish Virgins have been completely shut out, for God is giving us the opportunity to be the Bride of Christ. As such, I beg you this morning, knowing that God has been extremely good to us, that we should appreciate something. We deserve nothing but death, but God gave us life on a platter of gold. Think about it! He opened up His wonderful plan of redemption for us, giving us unlimited accessibility to the matchless light of Jesus Christ, and offered us the highest class of sainthood there is, in His entire redeemed family. My! Therefore, let us live for the Lord, as true believers; live for Him, and love the Lord with all your heart; walk humbly, sincerely, and holily before Him, and be faithful to His Truth, for it is your life. I am making this plea, because, brothers and sisters, Fruitlessness is a major reason for the group we have in Revelation Chapter 7, verses 9 - 17. This innumerable crowd of white robed saints, is not just made up of people who did not have the privilege to live long enough to bear Fruits; you also have people that had the privilege to live long enough to bear Fruits, but unfortunately, their Christian life was Fruitless. That is why I beg you this morning, the way you live your life, AND the service you render, the works you have, are the things that determine your lot. I am saying this to you Bible Faith Tabernacle, although it applies generally to the entire body of saints, and please note that I am speaking strictly about works of Faith. Some of you are lackadaisical in your service; you are very laid-back; but I love you all, for you are a lovely people. But some of you are very lackadaisical; very laid-back, and slack. Nobody forced you to take up a particular service for this Convention. So, if you are responsible; if you have any sense of responsibility, you will be at your post of duty, right when you should be there. It is a sacrifice! You will make the sacrifice, because it is not forced on you; it is by your own volition, for it is your freewill. Nobody has been forced to serve in any capacity, and it is a privilege to be called to serve. Consequently, you will serve faithfully and selflessly! Nobody needs to call you to your post of duty. It is a privilege to be called to serve, because by this, by your sacrifice, by your dedication and pureness of heart in doing what you do, your Works are being determined, Works of Faith. And your lack of sacrifice; your lack of dedication, and your insincerity of heart, is also going into determining your Works, Works that will not abide, Works that God will reject. Remember the word of the Lord recorded in Hebrews Chapter 6, verses 10-12: "FOR GOD IS NOT UNRIGHTEOUS TO FORGET YOUR WORK AND LABOUR OF LOVE, WHICH YE HAVE SHEWED TOWARD HIS NAME, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end: That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises." Do not also forget the serious admonition of the Lord, as is written in 1 Corinthians Chapter 3, verses 13-15: "Every man's WORK shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed BY FIRE; and the FIRE" (of the Lord's scrutinising judgment), "shall try every man's WORK of what sort it is. If any man's WORK abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's WORK shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as BY FIRE." And if a man's Work is burnt, what does that make him? He becomes a white robed saint! So, I want you to understand this morning, you do not know how privileged you are to be called to serve the cause of Christ in any capacity, in this way of revealed Faith. But some of you are slack, and some of you do things grudgingly, for you do not understand that you are sowing for tomorrow. You do not understand that you are sowing for your tomorrow, because there is coming a payday. The light has never been as bright, brothers and sisters, for God is helping us this morning. I have a long way to go in this message, because we have Scriptures to open up, to prove everything, for it is only by the Holy Scriptures that we will settle everything. Brethren, it is a great privilege to serve these weary pilgrims of God. Bible Faith Tabernacle, look at your weary pilgrims, for they are here from far and near, pilgrims from around the globe. God has entrusted you to spiritually feed them, house them, feed them naturally, serve them, take care of them, whether it is to drive them up and down during the Convention; whether it is to direct the traffic, to make it easy for brethren to come in and out; whether it is in the kitchen, or on the public address systems; or on the Camera, or as a musician; or whether it is to take charge of the electrical and the air-conditioning systems; or to clean and arrange the Convention hall, or the rooms, or to carry things needed for the Convention; or whether it is minister to one need or the other, serving in one capacity or another, whatever the service may be. Brethren, whatever the service may be, it is a privilege to serve, and you should serve selflessly, and whole heartedly, for you are not doing it for anybody but yourself. If only you knew; if only you realise that you are building your reward base! When there is no understanding, it will be done anyhow, because you do not understand that you are laying up treasure for yourself, by doing it right, that is, by doing it sincerely and sacrificially. You do not understand that by your insincerity and lack of dedication, your lack of commitment, you are depriving yourself of the necessary Works, the Works that can abide, and which can make your tomorrow a different ball game! In other words, your negative attitude is going to be your undoing, if you do not wake up, and shake yourself, for it is counterproductive! Do not do things with murmuring; do not do things with complaining; because I am showing you why some people lived long in their Christian Faith, but yet, they ended up here, with the white robed saints, right from the days of Apostle Paul. (Brother Amos points to the chart). Why? Because although they lived long, their Christianity had no Fruit, and no Works, No abiding Works. Saints, we are looking strictly at Fruits and Works of service, service to God. But remember, God is not here in a body of flesh, so you cannot minister to Him, for He is invisible, being a Spirit, an Omnipresent Spirit. Therefore, as you serve God's people, and God's cause, in the light of the Holy Scriptures, you serve the Master, and you are laying treasures up there for yourself. You know God refused King David from building the temple in Jerusalem. But David did not have this horrible attitude, saying to himself or to God, "It is either I build the temple, or not at all", and I say that, because that is the attitude of some men in the ministry: "Oh God, it has to be the ministry, or nothing else." Even their salvation, they will throw back in the face of God, because what they want is not salvation; what they want is ministry, even though they are disqualified from the ministry, by the Word of God. But when God told David, "You will not build my temple." God also said to him, "You are disqualified from building my temple, not because I do not love you, but because you have shed too much blood. Let it not be said by my enemy, that it was a bloody man that built God's temple. But I love you." And David said, "I agree, Master of the Universe. Thank you, Father." He sat at home, and pondered deeply on the building project, its immense importance, and the greatness of the cause of God, and he decided, "Since God will not use me to build this temple, and yet, the temple must be built, and they will need materials for it; although I may not be the builder, but I can help the builder; I can support the builder; I can provide all that is necessary for this temple.

Therefore, I will support the builder of the temple of my God, who made me king." The man began to lay up gold, and silver, and wood, in abundance, giving sacrificially towards the cause of God, and he told the man Solomon, whom God had chosen to be the builder: "The Master of the Universe has refused me, and He has chosen you to build the temple." He said, "This is my offering, everything stored up before you here, are all for the building of the temple, for I have provided them as my stake in the temple of El Elyon, the Most High God." Halleluiah! Brothers and sisters, there is a payday for everything, and God is keeping record! Saints, the Master is watching, for David did not throw a spanner in the works, all because he was not the one chosen to build the temple. No, he did not do any such evil! And as it is written: "A house divided against itself cannot stand!" If you cut off your hand, simply because you do not want your hand, or because you do not like your hand, it is because you are very foolish; if you cut off your hand, if you amputated your hand, you will become handicapped! You may not like the shape of your fingers, but they are your fingers nonetheless. You will wash, cream, and nurture them; you will take care of them, because they are your fingers, and so likewise is the body of Christ. Everything you do, Bible Faith Tabernacle, you do unto the Lord, because some of you, we have to run over you to do things, and I just smile to myself, because I know you have no clue. You do not understand the privilege you have been given to serve God's people. Because when you are serving God's people, you are serving the Almighty God, and you are laying up your reward in heaven, because there is a payday coming, and that is what this message is going to zero in on eventually. There is a Payday coming! (Brother Amos bursts out singing:)

It pays to serve Jesus, I speak from my heart He'll always be with us, if we do our part There's naught in this wide world can pleasure afford;

There's peace and contentment in serving the Lord.

CHORUS:

*I love Him far better than in days of yore, I'll serve Him more truly than ever before,
I'll do as He bids me, whatever the cost, I'll be a true soldier, I'll die at my post.*

It is more than a song, for you can sing it, and walk contrary to it. What is the Master asking you to do that is a problem for you? What is too much for you to do? Some of you, you cannot even be rebuked, you will throw in the towel! Your ego is offended, because you are Mr. Big-shot, Mr. Big-stuff! Just a little rebuke asking you to do more, and to do better, and you throw in the towel. Go ahead and throw it in! Are you doing it for me? Throw in the towel, and deny yourself the Fruits and Works for reward! Humility, simplicity, sincerity, and dedication, they are all watch-stones of a Christian. Simplicity, humility, sincerity, and dedication, they are watch-stones of a Christian. When you lack these values, you lack everything, and you do not even know what you have been called into! Because I will tell you this morning, it is a privilege to be called to serve God's people. I will never forget my beginnings, and where God picked me from! He picked me from the gutters of sin, one who is not worthy to be a minister of the Gospel! It was enough for Him to save my soul, but in His sovereign love and mercy, He went beyond that for a wretched me. That was why I said yesterday, I am everything Brother Branham was not. Brother Branham wanted to drink alcohol, I do not remember whether it was brandy or beer, when his friends made fun of him, and told him that he was a sissy. In anger, and out of manly pride, he asked: "Give me the beer." And as he took it, to put it in his mouth, grace then appeared. The angel of the Lord descended, and Brother Branham heard, "Whoosh, whoosh!" He threw down the beer, and ran out in shame from his friends, crying, "I cannot even drink beer!" He ran away, crying in frustration, that God would not even allow him to do it! Another day, it was a cigarette that he was taunted (mocked) with, and as he took that cigarette, and he was about to put it to his mouth, to smoke it, again, here came that "Whoosh, whoosh!" However, in my case, when I picked up the cigarette, I did not hear any "Whoosh", and I smoked it, and I threw it away eventually, because I saw that there was nothing to it, but cancer. I was on holiday with one of my uncles, who lived in Ondo town at that time, and in the presence of his friend, he said to me, "Student, you do not drink. Try this beer." I replied him, "I can drink beer, for I am a mature man. Give me the beer." I drank it, and I realised that it was bitter, and I saw nothing to it, and hence, I moved away from drinking beer. But the point is, there was no "Whoosh, whoosh" to stop me from taking that drink. Brothers and sisters, I am everything Brother Branham was not. Why would I not love Him, and why would I not serve Him who loved me, unworthy as I am? I cannot forget the gutter where God picked me from! Therefore, brothers and sisters, all I can do is to just love Jesus Christ, because he first loved me and died for me, a wretched me. Brothers and sisters, I encourage you to love the Master, because he loves us as none ever will, and as none ever can. He has shown us this straight and narrow way, so that we can be partakers of His righteousness, and be the Bride of Jesus Christ. If we leave this place today, and all we have is just a head full of knowledge, and all we can say is, "Brother X, Sister Y, we have a new revelation. God has opened up new nuggets of truths for us, and we can now answer questions we could not answer before now"; but our conduct is not positively affected and impacted; if our coming together around the revealed Word of God, under this holy anointing, in this holy atmosphere, does not affect your character, and is not helping you to be more dedicated; if it is not helping you to be more sincere; if it is not helping you to be more committed, and if it is not stirring you to want to have a closer walk with the Lord Jesus Christ; if it is not making you want to measure up to the spiritual image that the Bride must have, then I ask you, what is the value of what you have learnt? What is the value of your being here? That is why the Holy Bible says, "... Knowledge puffeth up, but charity", (which is divine love), "edifieth." (1 Cor. 8:1). And love is humble, love is simple, and love is sincere, for it is pure. Our God is a simple God, and He loves faithfulness. I challenge you my brothers; I challenge you my sisters, let us be the people God wants us to be; let us bubble with the zeal and the love for God, and for Jesus Christ! Make hay while the sun shines! There are some of you, who will never support anything, and neither will you help anyone. You are very selfish, living just for yourself. You will never support anything, and neither will you help the poor and needy, but yet you want everything. It is a terrible thing to live a selfish life, when all you think about is yourself, and you care for nothing else. I will challenge you this morning, what about the work of the Lord, does it not also concern you? And will you not also support it? Are you not concerned that we are no longer able to print Scribes? People want spiritual things, but they will not make a sacrifice, any meaningful sacrifice, because people are just living selfish lives! Some will only give meagre support, when they can do much better, and when God knows every man's capacity. For some of you, it is the fact that you do not have anything, that is always your excuse, the excuse you give yourself, when you can give your widow's mite! Let me tell you now, you have enough excuses to kill yourself, because you will always be needy! There is a sacrifice you must make, and you will make, if you truly have a stake in this kingdom. Brothers and sisters, I am not begging for your support, but I am only stirring your hearts to "good works", and to let you know how to support the course of God, if you have a stake in this work, and if you have a stake in the kingdom of God. It is my duty to provoke you to Fruitfulness and Good works! In Hebrews Chapter 10, verses 23-24, Apostle Paul urged us: "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to GOOD WORKS." Hence, in Titus Chapter 3, verse 8, the Holy Bible firmly implored. "This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God MIGHT BE CAREFUL TO MAINTAIN GOOD WORKS. These things are good and profitable unto men." Then in verse 14, Saint Paul added: "And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses", (for urgent or vital needs), "THAT THEY BE NOT UNFRUITFUL." Brothers and sisters, it cannot be just the few hands every time, carrying the financial load for the work! And then, for some of you, everything you have is just for yourself; everything is for yourself, for it is all about you! It is a terrible thing to live a selfish life, and to not have any stake in the kingdom. May God help you and me. I am showing you the way of righteousness, because this is our kingdom. We have no other kingdom but one. You are my brothers and sisters, and I love you with all my heart, and it is a privilege to stand before you this morning, to share the Word of life. And because you love me, and because of the support and encouragement you give to me, is precisely why, the Lord being my helper, I am going to be faithful to your soul. If I have to "spank" you, as a father does his children, I will do it, but I will do it in love. If I have to rebuke you, I will do it. If I even have to "war" with you, I will "war" with you, only so it can be well with your soul; because everything of God is redemptive. I am trying this morning, to stir up your hearts unto good works, and unto dedication, because it is not enough to know all the answers, and to have a head full of knowledge, and to then miss the rapture. I show you the right way, a Fruitable Way! May God help you and me. But if we leave this place, and are not better Christians, we have heard nothing, because we are here to wash ourselves with the washing of water by the Word, so that we can better serve the Master. At the end of the journey, we want to hear that sweet voice, the sweet voice of the Master, saying as in Matthew 25, verse 21: "... Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord." I love the revelation of it which Apostle Luke gave, as recorded in Luke Chapter 19, verse 17, which declares: "And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, HAVE THOU AUTHORITY OVER TEN CITIES." I want to hear that verdict of reward! That is what I am working for! That is the voice I am labouring to hear! You also want to hear that voice, for that is why you are here! And may we hear that sweet voice in Jesus' Name. Amen! Church, I hope you all understand this morning. For two main reasons, all through the Grace Age, right to just before the Last Week starts, a lot of folks are coming right in here, (Brother Amos points to the chart); they are ending up as white robed saints, and that is for those two main reasons: Because many of them did not have the opportunity to live long enough to bear Fruits, and also, because some who had lived long enough, their Christian walk was Fruitless; for what they considered as Fruits, the Master rejected it as unacceptable Fruits, Fruits that cannot abide the scrutinising judgment of the Lord. But what Fruits are these, Brother Amos? We are still coming to consider it later, for I am reserving it on purpose, till we get to that point. However, it is good to do things sincerely, humbly, faithfully, and wholeheartedly, because the Master is marking the records. Do not forget what the Bible says, as laid out in 1 Corinthians Chapter 13, verse 3: "And though I bestow ALL my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have NOT CHARITY", (which is divine love), "IT

PROFITE THE ME NOTHING"; because our motivation for doing all these things may not be pure; the motivation must be out of pure love, otherwise, God will use what we do, but we will have no rewards for doing it! Think about it, for nothing will take the place of a pure heart! May God help you and me, because the state of heart with which we do things matter a lot to God. So, brothers and sisters, when we look at this innumerable crowd in Revelation Chapter 7, the constitution of that group of saints, begins right from the First Church Age, right under the ministry of the Apostles, and it goes all through time, to this Seventh and Final Age, stopping precisely just before the Last Week of Daniel starts. I hope everybody is settled on this prophetic picture. They are saints who just could not make it into the Bride. This lets us know, that this crowd also takes in the Foolish Virgins in this Seventh and Final Age, leaving out the Foolish Virgins who enter into the 70th Week. With this group of saints fully identified, we will move on to the next group, the next crowd of saints.

Please turn with me to Revelation Chapter 6, and we will take it from verse 9: "And when he had opened the Fifth Seal" (in heaven), "I SAW UNDER THE ALTAR" (OF GOD IN HEAVEN), "THE SOULS of them that were slain for the word of God, AND for the testimony which they held." Please Note the basis upon which the souls under the altar were slain; please see the reason for which they were slain. They were not slain for the Lamb of God, who is Jesus Christ; they were not slain for his revelation, for they did not hold the testimony of Jesus Christ: they were slain solely for the Word of God, which is the Torah that Moses brought. That is the testimony they held, and that is a testimony you have to take back to the Word of God, which is the Torah! Consequently, we know we are looking strictly at the Jews. But Jews of which Age are they? Jews of what Dispensation? Verse 10 gives their identity to us, in coded prophetic language, declaring: "And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not JUDGE AND AVENGE OUR BLOOD on them that dwell on the earth?"

They were crying for vengeance, because that is what Moses taught them to do in Exodus Chapter 21, verses 23-25, as well as in Leviticus 24, verses 17-21, "... Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth!" Therefore, these are Judaistic Jews, Jews who lived according to the Old Covenant that Moses brought. And when I say that, I am not talking about Jews who lived in this Old Dispensation Era back here, (Brother Amos points to the chart), the Dispensation of the Old Testament, at the end of which Jesus Christ was crucified. The souls under the altar are not the Old Testament Jews, and I say that for a number of Scriptural reasons, although they were also adherents to the Torah, the law of Moses. In the first place, the Old Testament saints have already had their bodily resurrection, and hence, they are only waiting to enter into their reward. In the second place, the Old Testament saints were not "slain" (killed) as these ones were, which was why they were crying for vengeance in heaven. Thirdly and finally, the souls under the altar were told categorically in verse 11, "that they should rest yet FOR A LITTLE SEASON, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled", and as such, contrary to what William Kumuyi, of Deeper Life Bible Church teaches, we cannot take it back to those who were killed during the Old Testament Era, which was before the New Testament Era, because it has much more than a whopping 2000 years in-between, plus an additional three and a half years, of the first half of the 70th Week of Daniel, before the "fellowservants and also their brethren, THAT SHOULD BE KILLED AS THEY WERE, SHOULD BE FULFILLED" (OR KILLED)! Saints of God, the Old Testament Era, taking in the first to die, which was Abel, added to a long period spanning the entire Grace Age of about 2000 years, plus an additional three and a half years, most certainly does not amount to "a little season"! Come on! Therefore, tying the souls under the altar, to the saints who died during the Old Testament Era, is a most carnal interpretation of a deep Bible prophecy! Consequently, we are looking strictly at Jews who lived during this Grace Age, beginning from the First Age of Christendom, right from the days of Saints Peter and Paul, but having a pre-eminent people who were killed at this end time, here in this Seventh Age, and not Jews who lived in the Old Testament days. Please note that we are still going to consider every other aspect of this prophecy, so we can settle this issue conclusively. May I remind you though, that Jesus Christ was born under the law, and that he died under the law, because he was judged according to the law, and that brought the Law Era to its end. So, we know that the Old Testament period ends in the hour of Jesus Christ; it ends with the crucifixion of Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary. Consequently, the Jews whose souls we see under the altar in heaven, are Jews, who, during the duration of the Gentile Dispensation of Grace, walked faithfully according to the Torah that Moses brought. The Torah gives us the First Five Books of the Bible, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. Brothers and sisters, right there in heaven, under the altar of God, the heavenly altar, which gives us another realm in heaven, in paradise, they were crying for vengeance, just as Moses had decreed, an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. Brothers and sisters, thank God for William Branham! Thank God for the star messenger to this Laodicean Age! It took his revelation, under Christ, to open up this prophetic setting in 1963, in order to give a true and perfect understanding to the Bride, of the truth that is buried in this prophetic passage of Scripture. And as Jesus dealt with him by his angel in March 1963, Brother Branham revealed: "The souls under the altar are Jews under Hitler's purge; the Jews who were killed during the Holocaust years." In his message titled, The Fifth Seal, paragraphs 215-216, all quotes which I have edited to a small measure for smooth reading, William Branham said: "Now notice, in the 9th verse, "Souls under the altar." Now, here is where I'm going to get some real disagreements" (from people). "But just watch just a minute... I thought that, too, but it didn't come that way. We have...(thought)... "I have always thought that these souls under the altar were the martyrs of the Early Church. And I'm sure that Dr. Uriah Smith, and every one of them, says it is. See? But, I thought so, myself. But when the Holy Spirit showed the vision to it, it wasn't; it isn't the souls" (of the Early Church). "Now, you say, "Well, I don't know about that." Well, just a minute, we'll find out. Look. These are not the souls of the Bride Church; not at all. We thought that that was the Bride Church waiting there, souls under the altar, you see, crying, "How long, Lord, how long?" Let me read it again now, so we get it right. "And when he had opened the Fifth Seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held." (Then in paragraphs 221-223, he asked:) "Now, who are these souls, then? That's the next thing. Who are they, then, if they're not the Early Church? THIS IS ISRAEL THAT'S TO BE SAVED AS A NATION, ALL THEM THAT ARE PREDESTINATED. THAT'S ISRAEL. That's Israel, itself. You say, "Oh, wait a minute." You say, "They can't." Oh, yes, they are to be saved. Here, let's settle it, just a minute. I've got four or five Scriptures, but I'll take one. Let's take Romans, just a minute, and find out if they are. Let's take the Book of Romans, and go to the 11th Chapter of Romans, and we'll find out. Let's just read it, and then we'll have it by ourselves. Romans, the 11th Chapter, the 25th and 26th verse. Now listen at

Paul here..." (Brother Branham now quoted Romans Chapter 11, verses 25-26, which we will see shortly, which clearly states that God blinded the Jews, so they do not recognise the Messiah, and it was for the sake of the salvation of us Gentiles. In paragraphs 240-241, the prophet now declared:) "Now notice this, these souls under the altar... they were martyred by sinful men like Eichmann" (of Germany, Hitler's henchman). "See? They're holding right on, millions of them, see, but they remain Jews. Now, remember. What was it? "They were killed for the Word of God's sake," Not for the testimony of Christ. Did you understand that?" (In paragraph 286, the prophet now stated:) "And those souls that's been martyred, down through here, real, TRUE JEWS down through there; that had their names on the Book" (of Life), "that lived the right life and done the right thing, LIVED JUDAISM TO THE DOT. THEY, THEY WERE MARTYRED BY EICHMANN AND MANY OTHERS. HONEST PEOPLE, MILLIONS OF THEM DOWN THERE! AND THEM GERMANS SHOT THEM TO DEATH, and murdered them, and killed them, and hung them on fences, and burnt them up, and cremated them, and everything else. That blood-hearted, hungry Hitler, and Stalin, and Mussolini, and all them people that hated them Jews!" Brothers and sisters, please note, however, that it is not every Jew that was killed in the Jewish Holocaust, that comes into this class, for some Jews died, no doubt, cursing God for their plight! And there are Jews who have no time for God, except for money, for that is all they care about, making money (shekels)! It is only the believing Jews, who were faithful to the Torah in the Grace Age, that we see their souls under the altar. Brothers and sisters, I thank God for this wonderful revelation! What a difference it makes! Because we have always looked at the Jews as people that are totally lost, because they did not accept Jesus the Christ.

But you know, in this Dispensation of Grace, as long as a Jew is faithful to the Torah, he will be saved, because it is God that blinded them from accepting the Gospel, on account of us Gentiles, and as such, His justice and righteousness, cannot send them to hell at the same time, having blinded them! Hence, in the Book of Romans Chapter 11, which Brother Branham quoted as his solid and infallible scriptural base, starting from verse 25, it is clearly and categorically written: "For I would not, brethren, that ye" (Gentiles) "should be ignorant of THIS MYSTERY, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; THAT BLINDNESS IN PART", (NOT TOTAL BLINDNESS, BUT ONLY PARTIAL BLINDNESS), "IS HAPPENED TO ISRAEL, UNTIL THE FULNESS OF THE GENTILES BE COME IN. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: For this is my Covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies FOR YOUR SAKES: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. For as ye" (Gentiles) "in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy THROUGH THEIR UNBELIEF: EVEN SO HAVE THESE ALSO NOW NOT BELIEVED, THAT THROUGH YOUR MERCY THEY ALSO MAY OBTAIN MERCY. FOR GOD HATH CONCLUDED THEM ALL IN UNBELIEF, THAT HE MIGHT HAVE MERCY UPON ALL. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out!" After all, salvation is of God, for it is a gift, and God can save whomsoever He wills; but ALL salvation is through Jesus Christ His Son.

Coming back to the souls that are under the altar in heaven, because these Jews died believing the Torah; they died living faithfully to the law of Moses, is precisely why they were crying for vengeance, even in heaven, just as Moses had taught them: "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a breach for a breach, a wound for a wound!" Which is most unlike what Jesus taught us to do under the New Testament, that we should pray for our enemies, and bless those who curse us, and forgive those who offend us. Are you with me? Jesus Christ came with the New Covenant, and he said, "I have come to magnify the law", giving us A HIGHER LAW, THE LAW OF LOVE. In the Gospel of Saint Luke Chapter 6, verses 27-38, Jesus declared: "But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. BUT LOVE YE YOUR ENEMIES, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for He is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: FORGIVE, AND YE SHALL BE FORGIVEN: Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." Church, so, under the New Covenant, we are to pray for our enemies; but under the Torah, it is a law of vengeance: Wound for wound, tooth for tooth, eye for eye. Hence, on the cross, Jesus Christ showed us the perfect example, praying: "Father forgive them, for they do not know what they do." That is the New Covenant message! The cry for vengeance in heaven, brothers and sisters, lets us know undoubtedly, that these people are not New Testament believers, but they are Jews who lived under the Torah, in this Dispensation of Grace, this Grace Age! That is why as we speak this morning, the Jews who do not believe the Message of Christ, but who believe the Torah, and live faithfully by the Torah, will be saved, because they will come into the group of souls under the altar, IF they die before the 70th Week of Daniel starts. Saints, Brother Branham did not only use the record of Romans Chapter 11, verses 25-26, he also used the record of Genesis 45, a beautiful typology which God gave through Joseph, a man who typed Jesus Christ. For like Jesus Christ, he was rejected by his brethren, thrown in a well, left for dead, imprisoned, and came out of prison, raised up as the Prime-Minister of Egypt, second only to Pharaoh, and was given a Gentile wife by Pharaoh, just like Jesus Christ the Messiah. Furthermore, when the time came for Joseph to reveal himself to his brethren, and he did, they were very afraid of him, for the evil they had done to him; but what was his reply to them, as recorded in Genesis Chapter 45? From verse 1, it is written: "Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence. And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt." (Watch from verses 5:) "Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: FOR GOD DID SEND ME BEFORE YOU TO PRESERVE LIFE. For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earring nor harvest. AND GOD SENT ME BEFORE YOU TO PRESERVE YOU A POSTERITY IN THE EARTH, and to save your lives by a great deliverance." (He reaffirmed this truth, firmly declaring in verse 8): "SO NOW IT WAS NOT YOU THAT SENT ME HITHER, BUT GOD: and He hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt." Is that not what also happened to Jesus Christ? He was equally rejected by his brethren, that mercy and salvation may come upon us Elect Gentiles, a universal body of saints, and in the end, the mercy and salvation of God is also shown to his Jewish brethren. What a revelation! God be praised! May I add, that with regards to this deep and beautiful truth, with the unveiling of the souls under the altar, only those who follow the End Time Message of William Branham, the Bible Restoring Message of Elijah, understand this serious prophetic passage of Scripture. Period! That is why they cried for vengeance, as Judaistic Jews, and right there in heaven under the altar, not on earth, but up there in heaven, the Lord did something for them, just as verse 11 now records: "And white robes" (of redemption, white robes signifying salvation), "were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Saints of God, the Lord had to save them up there in heaven, even though they did not accept Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour whilst on earth, because it was God that blinded them, in order to save us Gentiles, and as such, He had to also have mercy on them, IF they walked faithfully to the provisions of the Torah, the law of Moses! Because God could not blind them from recognising and accepting Jesus Christ the Messiah, and then send them to hell at the same time, for not accepting the Messiah! However, may I point out, that we cannot, and must not, extend that number to include the Jews who crucified Jesus Christ, because "the Scripture" dealing with that class of wicked and evil Jews, "cannot be broken", and neither can we put Jews who have no time for God, in that number. Brothers and sisters, we are dealing with the souls under the altar, which brings us to the crowd right here, as revealed in Revelation Chapter 6, (Brother Amos points to the chart), souls under the altar of God in heaven, which is paradise; because in the domain of heaven, there are various realms, all making up paradise. In other words, paradise has various realms, and the saints are placed in different realms, all in paradise, up there in heaven. That was why Apostle John could see the innumerable crowd standing here "before the throne", in one realm, and in another realm, he saw souls here "under the altar". The word "altar" now gives us another realm in paradise, and please note, that under the altar in heaven, these Jewish souls were given "white robes" of salvation, robes signifying the salvation they did not have whilst on earth, in total contrast to the innumerable crowd before the throne, who were already adorned in "white robes", signifying a salvation that they already had on earth, before they appeared in heaven. Let me therefore say this, because of the Roman Catholic dogma that is being peddled by that organisation. In the Roman Catholic Church, if you are not dead for many years, you will never be a saint. You have to be dead for a number of years, ever before you can be considered for their carnal sainthood! In the Roman Catholic Church, as long as you are alive, you will never be a saint, for a person must die for a number of years, before he can be sainted, and that is even IF he is considered for sainthood, which is nothing but an overturning of the Gospel! It is nothing but a whole load of Nonsense! What utter deception! Let me warn you, on the full and unquestionable authority of the infallible Holy Scriptures, that as a Gentile, if you are not a saint of God here on earth before you die, showing that you have been saved, you will never be a saint of God! Church, Sainthood is not on account of Any Merit that we have, but it is exclusively upon the merits of what God did for us, for it is on account of the salvation that we have of God, through Jesus Christ; that is the sole basis upon which we are made saints, meaning, THE SANCTIFIED ONES! Hence, it is written in 2 Thessalonian Chapter 2, verse 13: "But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation THROUGH SANCTIFICATION OF THE SPIRIT AND BELIEF OF THE TRUTH." That is what makes us saints, our "Sanctification by the Spirit of God and Belief of the Truth"! Which is precisely why Apostle Paul could address the brethren in his day, calling them "SAINTS", LIVING SAINTS, as recorded in many Scriptures, an example of which is in Ephesians Chapter 1, verse 1, which states: "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to The SAINTS which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus"! In 2 Corinthians Chapter 13, verse 13, Apostle Paul also declared: "All The SAINTS salute you." It was God that blinded the Jews to the Saving Message of Jesus Christ; He did not blind the Gentiles. Consequently, Gentiles are wilfully blind, because all that should be made known of God, has been made known to them; but they will just not walk in the light, being children of darkness! As such, as a Gentile, if you are not saved here before you die, you are on your way to Hell!

If you are not saved here on earth; in other words, IF you are not a saint here and now, when you die, you will have a First-Class Ticket to Hell, for you will never be a saint of God! If you are not a saint before you die, as a Gentile, a billion Popes can never make you a saint! Because only God our Saviour makes saints! All sainthood ceremonies that are carried out by the Church of Rome, are just lies of the devil; they are nothing but a grand deception of innocent souls! For as I must continue to reiterate or repeat, If you die without being a saint, you will never be a saint of God! Why is this so? It is simply because God did not blind Gentiles: All that should be known of God, has been opened up to Gentiles in the Holy Scriptures! Consequently, Gentiles are wilfully blind, and they will pay an eternal price for their wilful unbelief of the Word of God! Continuing with our message, brothers and sisters, it is also important that we understand, that the souls under the altar, who are given white robes in heaven, does not take in every Jew: It is only the Jews who live faithfully to the Torah, during the Dispensation of Grace. Period! May I say again, saints of God, what an outstanding year 1963 is, for the Bride of Jesus Christ; what a pivotal year! It is a landmark year, a turning point for the Bride of Jesus Christ of this end time. The religious world do not understand this fact, because they see and know nothing; but we understand this fact. Just as 96 AD., was a turning point, an outstanding year for the Early Church, the Ephesian Church Age saints, when Apostle John received the unparalleled Prophetic Revelation that he copied into the Seven Scrolls, making up the Book of Revelation, which he gave the Seven Local Churches in Asia Minor, so is the year 1963, an outstanding year for us Gentiles! Because that was the year when Jesus Christ broke the First Six Seals in heaven, and sent down a constellation of seven great angels, with their prophetic revelation, as well as with a prophetic insight into the Seventh unbroken Seal, to William Marrion Branham, the Elijah-Prophet and Star Messenger of Jesus Christ to this Laodicean Age, the man the religious world deny and “crucify” most vehemently, consistently, and relentlessly! But the truth of God moves on regardless, and as it is written: “... THE GATES OF HELL SHALL NOT PREVAIL AGAINST IT.”

Church, I say this to our visitors: Because William Branham was a True Prophet; because he was the Star Messenger of Jesus Christ to this Last Age, carrying an incredible depth of the revelation of Jesus Christ of the Holy Bible, is precisely why we know our Bible, the Holy Bible! Because of the wonderful and most outstanding revelation of the Holy Scriptures which William Branham carried, for the Universal Bride of Christ, is precisely why we know the Holy Scriptures, and can face any Goliath in the ministry around this globe, armed solely with the double-edged sword of the Spirit! The man whom Kenneth Hagin and Gordon Lindsay, claimed did not know how to teach, the man they claimed intruded into the teaching ministry, because they claimed he was not a teacher, is the very ministry God used to give us an incredible and untouchable divine revelation of the Holy Bible! And if I may ask: Who are the teachers? Is it Gordon Lindsay, who did not know the correct formula for Water Baptism, that it is in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and neither did he know the elementary truth, that his wife should not have been a preacher and teacher of the Word of God?! Who are the teachers? Is it Kenneth Hagin, who did not know his Godhead, who made God, three Gods, all co-equal, all omnipotent, all omniscient, and all omnipresent, which is nothing but a load of garbage, as it is plain idolatry, FOR OUR GOD IS ONE?! Are those the teachers?! That is why God gave us the grace to defend Brother Branham in a new Scribe message, which we already have Online, and which we are now putting into a book, as an additional means for that message to go out, and it is titled, Dispensational Messengers, Lead

Ministries: In Defence Of William Branham. Saints, that message is so crucial, that it just has to go out as an additional book, and when we produce this book version, we will only send two copies to the Voice of God Recording, not to convert them, because we will never convert them, and we are not seeking to convert them; but just to put them on Notice, leaving them with that lovely testimony. Brothers and sisters, I will tell you now, and I say this to the glory of the Almighty God who inspired that message, that Brother Branham has never had such a defence! It is the magnitude and the depth of the defence, on account of the great evil that was heaped on him, which was knocked down by the Word of God, that made the difference! It is the gross injustice and the injury that was inflicted on Brother Branham's Name, Message, and Ministry, using the prophecy that Kenneth Hagin gave about his death, a prophecy which God helped us to x-ray and tear to shreds by the Holy Scriptures, unveiling the utter hypocrisy and evil ambition of the man, a prophecy no man has been able to touch till now, is what made this defence a different kettle of fish, and it is all God's doing, and to God alone be the glory! May I warn, lest you blaspheme, that my ability and intelligence could not have produced, and did not produce that message, because the ability and intelligence of men amount to nothing, when we come to the deep things of the Spirit of God! It is the Spirit of God that makes the difference, and you should be able to see God in something, as a true elect seed of God, a true eagle! I deem it a great privilege, to be used of God in this small measure, to defend that Great Eagle Prophet of God, in way of this medium: Dispensational Messengers, Lead Ministries: In Defence Of William Branham. I say that to make a point. They say he was not a teacher, that he usurped authority by going into the teaching ministry. That is very wonderful! A man who was not a teacher, yet, he could open up prophetic pictures of the Bible that nobody else in the whole world could understand, since 96 AD., and they say he was not a teacher! What if would be a teacher?! I can stand before you this morning, by the grace of God, and take the Holy Scriptures, deep prophetic pictures of Jesus Christ, which no man of God has been able to understand, until William Branham came at this end time, and on account of the light of the Word of God that he bore, I am able to show you the Truths of Jesus Christ, which no Doctor of Divinity, or Professor of Ignorance, can tear down with the Scriptures, because it is God's absolute truth, and they say that the man is not a teacher! What if William Branham would be a teacher?! The man who was not a teacher, a man who usurped authority, or so they said, could open up the deep things of God, things buried in the most complex prophetic Book of the Holy Bible, to enable me to have a perfect scriptural understanding of the Message of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour: What if the man was a teacher, what else would he do?! What if he would have authority to teach, what else would he do? Then I have to praise God for William Branham! Brothers and sisters, I say all that to give glory to God, for the marvellous way He has moved in the earth at this evening time, for the Elect Royal Bride of Jesus Christ. How can people see such a great light as this, and call it darkness? Just how can anyone see this glorious light, and walk away from it, and not want to be a partaker of it? And may I add: In the entire religious world; in the whole of Christendom, ONLY ONE GROUP OF SAINTS WILL MAKE IT THROUGH AS THE BRIDE OF JESUS CHRIST; only One Group of believers will make it into the rapture, and ALL others will be left here to face the Antichrist, in the Last Week of Daniel! Full stop! Choose which way you will follow, and whom you will serve: But as for me and my family, we will follow only the Continuing revelation of Jesus Christ of the Holy Scriptures, the Pure Living Word of God. Period!

Brothers and sisters, we are looking at The Martyrdom Of Saints, and as we come back to continue our consideration of the second class of saints we see right here, under the altar of God in heaven, souls under the altar, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 6, in verse 11, we see that "white robes" were given to every one of them. Brothers and sisters, in March 1963, as Jesus Christ broke the Seals in heaven, and as I said earlier, God sent down a constellation of Seven Angels, and on the Fifth Day of that momentous divine visitation, the Fifth Angel came directly to William Branham, with the revelation of the Fifth Seal. However, the truth remains, brothers and sisters, that the revelation of God comes in Folds, being Progressively given, and as such, in that day, the Lord only opened the wrapping on the Fifth Seal, to a necessary and crucial measure, revealing to him, on behalf of the Universal Bride of Christ, that the souls under the altar, were the Jews that were killed under Hitler's purge, in the World War 2 years, the Holocaust years, of 1939-1945. There his revelation stopped, for that was the Fold of revelatory understanding that he was given, concerning this prophetic event, as the Principal Householder Scribe, the First Scribe of Matthew 13:52. But here came Raymond Jackson, The Paul of the end time, the Chief Apostle, and the Second Householder Scribe, a Fruit of Brother Branham's ministry, and in fact, the First Fruit of Brother Branham's Elijah ministry. And when Brother Jackson stepped on the scene, for the Universal Bride of Christ, as the Successive Standard Bearer, he took the wrapping from where Brother Branham had stopped, and the Spirit of Christ used him to unveil the balance of the truth of this prophetic setting to us. And the truth is this, and hear me well: If in this Grace Age, this Dispensation of Grace, the Almighty God saved Jews who were faithful to the Torah, during the World War 2 years; if God saved Jews killed during the Jewish Holocaust, for their faithfulness to the Torah, what about the Jews who lived faithfully to the Torah, back in the days of Apostle Paul? What about the Jews killed in the various Inquisitions of Rome, who also lived faithfully to the Torah? And I ask this question, because the Church of Rome killed many Jews! Are you listening to me? What about the Jews who were killed in 70AD., when Jerusalem was destroyed, and the temple came down? What are you going to do with the Jews who died during the World War 1 years, but who were also faithful to the Torah? That lets you see, brothers and sisters, that the souls under the altar, does not only give us Jews of the Jewish Holocaust, it actually takes us back in time, to include the Jews in the days of Apostles Peter and Paul, and all through time within the Grace Age, to the point just before the 70th Week starts, who lived faithfully to the Torah, particularly when we also consider the fact, that the standard and the justice of God, is one, for God does not have double standards! Consequently, we must see that this prophetic picture captures the Jews through time, within the Gentile Dispensation of Grace, stopping just before the Last Week of Daniel begins. In other words, when we come to just before the 70th Week starts, that Group or Class of souls under the altar, comes to its completion, for it stops. Do not take that class into the Last Week, because the constitution of the souls under the altar, stop just before the 70th Week starts. Why do we say that? Come with me to Revelation Chapter 6, verse 11, because verse 11 holds the key, and it states: "And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should REST YET FOR A LITTLE SEASON", (And for what purpose are they to rest?) "UNTIL THEIR FELLOWSERVANTS ALSO AND THEIR BRETHREN, THAT SHOULD BE KILLED AS THEY WERE, SHOULD BE FULFILLED." The question now is this: When exactly will these people be killed? It is in the Last Week of Daniel! Therefore, their brethren that are to be killed as they were, gives us the balance of Jews to be killed in the 70th Week of

Daniel. Now listen to me. This lets us see that in the spirit, in that prophetic vision, Apostle John was standing precisely at the end of the Grace Age, to have seen the souls under the altar, because they are told to "rest yet FOR A LITTLE SEASON"! They are not told to rest for a long season, but for "a little season", which brings the time portrayal of this vision, to the end of the Dispensation of Grace, just as the Last Week is to start! It also lets us see, that the souls who stood in the forefront in that heavenly setting, are the Jews killed during the 2nd World War Years of 1939-1945, just as the Bride of Christ is in the forefront of the heavenly "Armies" of Revelation 19, verse 14, "clothed in fine linen, white and clean", which we also refer to as Joel's Army! But as we said before, brothers and sisters, it is important that we understand, that the group we see here, the souls under the altar, were constituted all through time, beginning from the days of the apostles, to the period of time, ending just before the 70th Week begins, in order to give them the "Little Season", the resting period of about Three and a half Years, when their "fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled", as verse 11 provides. Because verse 11, gives us the balance of the people that are still going to be killed like themselves! The material question now is this: When this balance of souls are killed, do they come under the altar, or are they destined for another realm of heaven? That is the issue! Naturally, we will lump them with the souls under the altar, however, the question remains, will that be scripturally correct? Is that the true prophetic picture that the Spirit of Christ gives to us in the Holy Bible? Consequently, we now want to consider precisely where that balance of people go, the exact place we must slot them in, strictly in the light of truth. So, I hope you understand the period of time the souls under the altar are constituted: It is all through time within the Grace Age. We cannot take them to the thief on the cross, and the Old Testament saints, and furthermore, we must not forget that they are all white robed saints. I hope that is very clear. We now want to move on in this message; but I will only bring it to a point this morning, and then close, to continue in the evening, the Lord being our helper.

Come with me to Revelation Chapter 15, where we will see the third category of saints in heaven, and we will bring our message to a close. Revelation Chapter 15, from verse 1, records: "And I saw another sign IN HEAVEN, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. And I saw as it were A SEA OF GLASS MINGLED WITH FIRE: and them that had gotten the victory over the Beast, and over his Image, and over his Mark, and over the Number of his Name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God." Hold it there. Why is it a sea of glass mingled with fire? Brothers and sisters, it is to let us see what these saints have gone through, in the Last Phase of the “great tribulation”, in that darkest hour of human time, because Satan knows his time is extremely short, for his days are now literally numbered to just three and a half years! Do you not remember what the Bible says in Revelation Chapter 12? Verse 12 states: “... Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! FOR THE DEVIL IS COME DOWN UNTO YOU, HAVING GREAT WRATH, BECAUSE HE KNOWETH THAT HE HATH BUT A SHORT TIME.” So, you can just imagine what that day will be like, with all the incredible and mind-boggling evil and raw wickedness we see around us today on the earth, at this end time! Satan knows he has just three and a half years, before he is bound for a thousand long years, and even then, it is only a short time he has, before he now faces the Lake of Fire! So, he decides, “Let me do my best, my very best, and my last, for this is where it all ends for me.” Brothers and sisters, we are looking at Satan at his basest estate yet, a spirit that is the epitome of utter chaos, absolute evil, and raw wickedness; the prince of total godlessness, absolute perversion, and utter lewdness and obscenity, and as such, you can only imagine the ordeal of the saints who pass through that period, the Last Phase of the “great tribulation”! That is precisely why the horror they go through, in its prophetic characterisation, is projected or portrayed as standing on a sea of glass, mingled with fire. No wonder, in the Book of Prophet Jeremiah Chapter 30, a terrible picture was painted for the children of Israel in verses 5-7, which declares prophetically: “For thus saith the Lord; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

Alas! FOR THAT DAY IS GREAT, SO THAT NONE IS LIKE IT: IT IS EVEN THE TIME OF JACOB'S TROUBLE; but he shall be saved out of it.”

Brothers and sisters, very dark and grim days are ahead for this evil world. Saints, coming back to Revelation 15, where we see saints standing on a “sea of glass mingled with fire”, do not forget that the glass itself is made from sand mixed with lime and soda, heated together under intense fire, one carrying extreme pressure, for it is under a great furnace, and it turns into liquid glass, which rollers flatten into glass sheets, and when cooled, are cut into shapes. However, the prophetic picture in this passage of the Bible, gives us nothing but liquid glass, which is what they are standing on, for it becomes their foundation, the foundation of their Faith. It conveys the truth of the genuineness of their Faith, which has withstood such enormous fiery trial and intense persecution, intense pressure, and eventual death! What they are standing on as their foundation, reveals the utter seriousness, and the absolute value of their Faith, the revealed Faith they bear, for they are standing on “a sea of glass mingled with fire”.

Consequently, the fire is the fire of intense persecution and affliction, the fire of torment they have had to endure. You know that glass is a liquid, when we talk about the state of matter, glass is a liquid. We have three states of matter: Solid, Liquid, and Gas, and of the three states, glass is a liquid. I am not a scientist, but those of you who are scientists, will know that glass is a liquid, and you can imagine saints standing in an intensely hot liquid glass sea! As I stated, glass is formed from sand mixed with lime and soda, under intense heat, for it liquifies, because of the intense pressure and heat, and when it cools down, it crystallises and becomes solid glass. So, that lets us see the great intensity of their trial and persecution, the intensity of the trial of their faith. In order to move on with our message, we will take verse 2 again, and it records: "And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the Beast, and over his Image, and over his Mark, and over the Number of his Name", (during the second half of the Last Week of Daniel, when these things were demanded), "stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God." Remember, under the Fifth Seal in Revelation Chapter 6, the souls under the altar were told in verse 11, "...that they should REST YET FOR A LITTLE SEASON, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Now we see them right here in Chapter 15, verse 2, "on the sea of glass", having been slaughtered on earth, in the Last Phase of the Great Tribulation. Church, look at verse 2 again, for it lets us know exactly when they were martyred: "And I saw... them that had gotten the victory over the BEAST" (MAN, the man of sin, the Antichrist. That is the 666 man, who is the Pope of Rome of that hour), "and over his Image", (which is nothing but the World Council of Churches), "and over his Mark, and over the Number of his Name," (which is 666, and which is the numerical value of his name in computer terms), "stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. This verse of Scripture lets us see, that the people standing here on the sea of glass mingled with fire, entered into the Last Week, and they actually faced "that Man of sin", "that Antichrist", "the son of perdition", but they gained victory over him, because they rejected him; they reject his Name, his Number, and his Mark; they also refuse to join his Image, the Image of the beast, in that hour when it was legally demanded. And for that refusal, they sealed their testimony with their blood, purifying their souls by faith unto death. Brothers and sisters, in that day, and as I warned at the very beginning of this message, the price of truth changes. Right now, you do not need to go through that in order to buy the truth, particularly as God has given us the glorious opportunity to make it into the rapture, which is a glorious option indeed. Today, truth is free, for you do not need to pay for it, although it will cost you something. It is not money; it is your sacrifice; it is your firm and unshakable stand for truth; it is your unreserved love for the truth of Jesus Christ, which is Bible Truth; it is your firm resolve, that you will not compromise the true revelation of the Word of the cross for any brother, or for any pastor, or for any Church, or for any friend or family, and neither will you compromise it for any job, position, fame, or fortune. It demands absolute faithfulness, for that is the price you must pay! That is the price, for it is not money; but it will cost you something! That is precisely why we say, that truth is free, but it is not cheap, because it certainly has a cost, it has a price, for it will cost you something! It is a sacrifice; it is a firm, uncompromising, and militant stand for the Truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and of you not being ashamed to stand for the revelation of the Holy Bible, even if it will cost you pain, rejection, ridicule, poverty, imprisonment, persecution, and even death! You will pay the price, if you consider it to be worth more than your mortal life! So, right now, today, the price of truth is free. But in that day, the price of truth changes; it will change. In that day, in order to have the truth, it will literally ask for your blood. You will have to give your life for it. Your mortal life is required for the truth, for that is its price in that day! If you want to stand for truth, you will give your life for it, literally! The price of truth will change very soon, brothers and sisters, but for now, truth is free. So I beg you: Take it my brethren; Take Truth! Do not go to the Last Week, because the price of truth is going to change in that day. And all these ones we see on "the sea of glass", down here on our chart, (Brother Amos points to the chart), will give their lives, because they consider the revelation of life which Jesus gives, much more important than their own mortal lives! Because the revelation of life Jesus Christ gives, is something that is much more than this mortal life, for it gives us the promise of live everlasting, which is eternal life! Consequently, they will tell the Man of sin, "Kill me, and make my day!" What do you want of me? You want to throw me to lions? You want to burn me on the stake? Or is it my neck you want for the guillotine? Please make my day, and make me a martyr, because there is a crown of life waiting for me on the other side." Hallelujah! And they will seal their testimony with their blood, every last one of them. One of these days, brothers and sisters, the price of truth is going to change. So, please make hay while the sun shines, for the price of truth is going to change. Let me bring my message to a close, and we will continue in the evening by the grace of God.

So, we see here, brothers and sisters, that the people right here, (Brother Amos points to the chart), are the elect people of God, who were allowed to pass into the Last Week. But the material question is this: What is their true identity? Who are they? Are they just Jews? Is the balance of those to be killed, in fulfilment of Revelation Chapter 6, verse 11, made up of only Jewish saints? Who gives us the balance of the souls we see under the altar? To this question I will say this: The balance of souls to be killed, in fulfilment of the promise that the Lord made to the souls under the altar, goes beyond just Jews, for they are more than Jews! It not only gives us the balance of Jews that were referred to under the altar, but it also takes in the Gentile Foolish Virgins, the Foolish Virgins that pass into the Last Week of Daniel, for any and every Foolish Virgin that passes into that Week of time, is appointed for martyrdom; they are ALL appointed for slaughter, and they will ALL seal their testimony with their blood. Now pay attention to what the Bible says in Revelation Chapter 15, for it gives us the key in verse 3: "And they sing the SONG OF MOSES the servant of God, and the SONG OF THE LAMB, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints." Please remember that in prophecy, the song "they sing", is the revelation of God that they bear, for this is strictly prophetic language. It is Jesus Christ hiding truth in prophetic language. Therefore, the Lord is using figurative language to convey a truth, for by this symbolic representation, their identities are concealed. So, who exactly are those that sing the song of Moses the servant of God? I do not need to remind you, that the song of Moses gives us the Torah, for that is the Covenant he brought in the Old Testament. In the Book of Deuteronomy Chapter 32, verses 44-46, the Bible declares: "And Moses came and spake all the words of THIS SONG in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun", (who is Joshua). "And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel: And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law." Please note that in the earlier verses, Moses had taken the children of Israel through a prophetic revelation of all the evil that will befall them on the earth, on account of the unfaithfulness that they will show to God and His Word, which is the Torah. This lets us see, that the song of Moses in that day, was the Torah. And when we apply this truth to the song of Moses revealed in the Book of Revelation Chapter 15, verse 3, and knowing that in that day, Moses is characterising Jesus Christ, the Promised Deliverer, recorded in Romans 11:26, the Jewish Messiah, then, the song of Moses, gives us nothing but the Prophetic Testimony of Jesus Christ that he bears, for the salvation of the Nation of Israel. This lets us see, that the saints bearing the song of Moses are Jews, because they are identified by the very song of Moses that they sing! The only difference in that day, is that these Jewish souls, are believers in Jesus Christ, for they have been affected by the prophetic ministries of Moses and Elijah. So, although they are said to sing the song of Moses, who brought the Torah, nevertheless, that is stated, not because they stood for the Torah, but to show that they are Jewish believers, converts of Jesus Christ, through the ministry of Moses, who is one of "the two olive trees"! Please, do not ever think, that Moses and Elijah, having brought revival to the Nation of Israel, in the First half of the 70th Week of Daniel, that any elect seed of God among the Nation of Israel, will still be holding to the Torah. Of course not! Because that will defeat the essence of Jesus Christ being revealed to that nation in that day, and it will also defeat the second chance that Roman Chapter 11, verses 25-27, gives to them, for it speaks about the conversion of the elect seeds of God, in the nation of Israel, to the saving message of Jesus Christ, who is indeed the Jewish Messiah, to whom they were partially blinded back then! Verses 25-27 states plainly and categorically: "For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of THIS MYSTERY, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so ALL ISRAEL SHALL BE SAVED", (coming to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ, the Promised Messiah): "as it is written, There shall come out of Sion THE DELIVERER, AND SHALL TURN AWAY UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB: For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins." Consequently, in that day, the song of Moses they sing, is the New Testament Faith, the New Covenant Faith, but the terminology of the song of Moses that is employed, is to reveal that the identity of the people singing that song, are Jews! And as I must keep emphasising, Moses is coming to them in that day, representing and characterising Jesus Christ, who is that promised "deliverer", and he will be carrying the revelation of the New Covenant, even as Romans Chapter 11, verse 26, tells us! Period! May I add, that any Jew, who refuses the saving prophetic revelation of Jesus Christ that Moses and Elijah carry in that hour of time, become wilful unbelievers, because that is the day when their partial spiritual blindness comes to an end. Consequently, in that day, God is not blinding them, but rather, He is opening their eyes to the Messiah that they rejected and crucified back then, in 33 AD.! You must see the true application of the song of Moses, for carnal minds, no doubt, will take it to the Torah, looking at Deuteronomy 32:44, not having the revelational understanding of Zechariah 12, which promises the revealing of the Messiah to his brethren, the Jews, showing them the wounds which he received from them back then, and which makes them weep for him, as they realise that they killed their Messiah, just as verses 10-14 records: "And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplications: AND THEY SHALL LOOK UPON ME", (JESUS CHRIST THE MESSIAH), "WHOM THEY HAVE PIERCED, AND THEY SHALL MOURN FOR HIM, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart; All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart." Where are you going to put this prophetic reality, one that will be accomplished through "the deliverer", Moses?! You must see the Messianic prophetic song of Moses! We cannot leave any prophetic stones unturned in our consideration of truth, for the revelation of the Spirit of Christ is what makes the difference. Come with me.

Church, when the chief apostle was here, the Lord used him to open up the two classes of Jews that will be positively affected by the Jewish ministries of Moses and Elijah, God's "two witnesses" of Revelation 11:3-4, "the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth." And the first class of Jews that they will positively impact on, are the 144,000, Everlasting Gospel Preachers, called and sealed with the Holy Ghost, in Revelation Chapter 7, verses 1-8, and who are turned loose in the Middle of the 70th Week, from Jerusalem, to the nations of the world, as recorded in Revelation Chapter 14, verses 1-13. The second class of Jews that the ministries of Moses and Elijah will positively affect, is "the woman" of Revelation Chapter 12, verse 1, "clothed with the sun", which gives us the Nation of Israel in her Millennial glory, having come out of the law season, depicted or represented by "the moon under her feet", having "upon her head a crown of twelve stars", signifying that the twelve original tribes have been restored back to her in the Millennium. They are mortal elements, spiritual elements of the nation of Israel, who we have also portrayed on our chart, on the extreme top right-hand corner, directly above the souls under the altar, a class we are still coming back to consider. The fundamental issue or point is this: Having seen these two categories of Jews, who will both be positively affected by the coming ministries of Moses and Elijah, and ALL who will be preserved alive, as Jesus physically comes back in the sky on the Day of the Lord, at the very end of the 70th Week of Daniel, in order to establish the Millennium, the question is, what are we going to do with the Jews who are slaughtered in that Last Week, and who are revealed on "a sea of glass mingled with fire"? Because they are different and distinct from the other two classes, and they are also Jews! What Faith are they killed for? That is the issue! That is why Brother Jackson said, that more details will still emerge, for more light will come from the further unveiling of the Book of Revelation! In his message dated May 1991, and titled, The Woman of Mystery, Part 4, which we quoted earlier, Raymond Jackson declared: "NO DOUBT THERE ARE YET MANY DETAILS TO BE REVEALED OF THIS END TIME PICTURE; But meanwhile we are to live for God, and wait patiently until the time comes for Him to reveal the rest to us. Surely we are so close to the end now, that IT CANNOT BE LONG UNTIL THE REST COMES.” Saints of God, as I said earlier, before long, we must have the balance of the revelatory details of written truths, ordained for the statural growth of the Bride of Christ, because we are in the Final Junction of time for the Bride Universal, this being the Last Move for the Bride. This is where it all ends, and as such, we must know all what needs to be known, and consequently, all the remaining wrapping of Prophecy must and will go, to allow us to complete this great Foundation of Revealed Faith, because we must have a complete and wholesome picture! So, I ask again: What are we going to do with the Jewish saints on “the sea of glass”, a class most distinct from the other two classes of Jews, that is, the 144,000 Jews of Revelation 7, and the woman element of Revelation 12? What Faith do these martyred saints, the saints on the sea of glass hold?! Is it the Torah, or the New Covenant Faith of Christ? What exactly do they believe in the hour they are killed? Saints, it cannot be anything but the revealed Faith of Jesus Christ! Yes, the daily sacrifices and evening oblations will be offered by the Jews in that day, beginning from the moment they get access back to the temple grounds, and they are able to raise up an altar to God, ever before Moses and Elijah step on the scene, in the land of Israel! Yes, according to Daniel Chapter 12, verse 11, tied with verses 6-7, the daily sacrifices and evening oblations will continue to be offered, until the Antichrist stops all that from the Middle of the Week. But that is only because that is where they were put on hold by God in 33 AD., when they were shut out from the plan of redemption, and as such, that is precisely where they will also take off from, at this end time! They were cut off offering animal sacrifices, and they will resume offering animal sacrifices, before Moses and Elijah step on the scene! However, when Moses and

Elijah step on the scene, as the animal sacrifices continue, they will bring revival to that nation, revealing the Messiah to them, thereby bringing redemption to Israel, out of which the Jewish saints standing on “the sea of glass”, will be gleaned for Christ, being the Jewish balance of the tribulation saints appointed for martyrdom! Brothers and sisters, our revelational understanding of the plan of God for the nation of Israel is incomplete, and will continue to be incomplete, without a perfect identification of the Faith of the Jewish saints “on the sea of glass”, because they will not be following the law of Moses, but they are following the prophetic revelation of the Jewish Messiah, Jesus the Christ, which Moses sings for them in that day, and for which they will be killed by the Antichrist, giving them a second chance to the tree of life, from which they were shut out, when they were temporarily blinded by God! Because in that day, Moses will not be carrying the song of the Torah, but he will carry the Prophetic Messianic song of Jesus Christ, the Promised Deliverer, who turns ungodliness away from Jacob! I hope that is clear to one and all, because God cannot open the Fountain of Life to the Jewish Nation in the Last Week, and at the same time, accept those, who, out of sheer unbelief, are still clinging wilfully to the Torah, disregarding the message of Moses and Elijah! Come on! We just have to see this third class of saints from the Jewish nation, who will equally be affected by the ministries of Moses and Elijah. And from the Middle of that Week, the 144,000 Jewish Everlasting Gospel preachers, will also give them encouragement in that raw satanic hour, to stand for their Faith, and to die in the Lord, knowing that they will rise in the morning. In other words, and this is what it is in effect, it is three classes of Jews, and not just two classes, that will be affected by the ministries of Moses and Elijah, and you must see the third class. This third class of Jewish saints affected by the ministries of Moses and Elijah, are different from, and must be distinguished from, "the woman" of Revelation Chapter 12, a class we have on our chart, who, according to verse 14, is "given two wings of a great eagle", (which is the message of Moses and Elijah), "that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time", (giving us a total of three and a half years, of the last half of that Week), "from the face of the serpent", (who is Satan, and who incarnates the Antichrist). Consequently, "the woman" is not in the number of those on "the sea of glass", which we are currently looking at, and neither is she among the souls "under the altar", for the woman stays alive on earth, till Jesus comes back to establish the Millennium, as the mortal element of Jews, whom God will use to repopulate the Jewish race in the Millennium. Therefore, in reality, she does not come within the class of the elect people of God that we are considering in this message, because we are dealing strictly with THE MARTYRDOM OF

SAINTS, who are the Tribulation Saints.

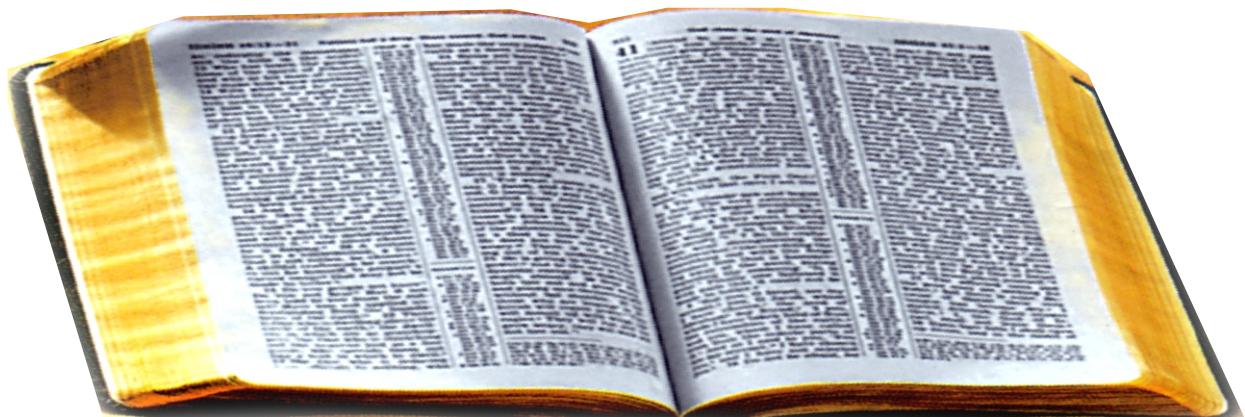

Brothers and sisters, by the grace of God, we have seen the innumerable multitude who "stood before the throne", and the souls "under the altar", two classes of Tribulation Saints. Now we are considering the third class of Tribulation Saints, those on "a sea of glass mingled with fire". Therefore, coming back to finish off the prophetic picture conveyed in Revelation Chapter 15, concerning the Last Tribulation saints on the sea of glass, verse 3 records: "And they sing the SONG OF MOSES the servant of God", (a song which, as we have shown by the Holy Scriptures, reveals the identity of these saints, to be Jews), "and the SONG OF THE LAMB," (a song which also shows, that these saints are Gentiles, the Gentile Foolish Virgins. For as we have shown by the Holy Scriptures, their song is what reveals the identities of these saints. Hence, the latter song of the Lamb, shows that these saints are Gentiles), "saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints." Amen. Church, this group of saints, who are right here, down here on the sea of glass, (Brother Amos points to the chart), gives us the balance of the people we see over there, under the altar. (Brother Amos points to the chart). Remember, brothers and sisters, the numerical constitution of the innumerable crowd in Revelation Chapter 7, verse 9, stops just before the 70th Week begins. The balance of Foolish Virgins that enter into that Week, as well as the balance of Jewish saints, are all killed in that Week, and they all come into this crowd down here, on the sea of glass. Are you listening to me? They give us the tribulation saints in the Last Week of Daniel. Brothers and sisters, may I add, that for these categories of saints, both Jews and Gentiles, what they are all going to have, is nothing but "white robes", for all three groups of the "great tribulation" saints we have considered, as laid out in the Book of Revelation, in Chapter 7, in Chapter 6, and in Chapter 15, are ALL white robed saints, every last one of them. The balance of the Foolish Virgins in Revelation Chapter 7, come into this class on the sea of glass, and the balance of the souls under the altar, who are reserved for "a little season", also come into the class of saints on sea of glass. Listen to me carefully, because people question everything, and ask for Scriptures for every little thing, simply because they just have no revelation of any sort, to enable them read between the lines. The truth is, IF the innumerable number of saints "before the throne" of God wear "white robes", and the souls "under the altar" also wear "white robes", I ask you, what are we going to give to THE BALANCE, who are the saints on "the sea of glass"? You have to see that it has to be "white robes" as well! How many see the point? You have to see the white robes, because the material is the same, and it just shows without any iota of doubt, that all of these groups of saints are very different to, and distinct from, the Bride of Jesus Christ. Therefore, I have to say: What a privilege it is to have been called into the highest level of sainthood in God's entire family! Brothers and sisters, having laid out the various groups of tribulation saints, and also shown precisely how they are constituted, there are other questions we still are yet to answer, which we need to answer, particularly with reference to the saints that listened to Apostle Paul, in that First Age of Christendom. And with that subject matter in mind, God helping us, we will conclude this evening. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

The Lord bless you.
