GENESIS: THE MARK OF CAIN

This message is number five in the Genesis Series preached by Brother Amos at Assembly of Faith, Calhoun, Georgia, U.S.A., on Saturday 15th April, 2006. God truly used Brother Amos to shed further light on a subject which is still questioned by the wider followership of the end time message. New nuggets of truth emerged during this message titled, Genesis: The Mark Of Cain.

The Lord bless each and everyone. It is a beautiful day, and we thank God for His goodness towards us, the grace we have of the Lord. We appreciate Him for His kindness and mercy and favour, wherewith He has favoured us, in this way of life. We thank Him for the light. We thank Him for His elective love. We thank Him for the death of Jesus Christ on the Cross of Calvary. We thank Him for our soul salvation. And we thank Him that we can gather together as a body of saints around God's Word, in unity, and with love. David said, "How pleasant is it for brethren to dwell together in unity. It is like the precious ointment that was poured upon the head of Aaron. It flowed to his beards, down to the skirt of his garment."

So we thank God for the love of God in the light of truth, that binds us together, and makes us one happy family.

However, we live in an age and in an hour, when the devil is really prancing over the whole place, seeking whom to devour. Yet, the same devil is warning people to be careful of the devil! But I tell you, scare tactics will not work! There is no point, if I stand before you tonight, and say, "The devil is going to get you. Resist the devil! Resist the devil!" That is definitely scare tactics. Because we must ask the question, How do you resist the devil?! Exactly! It is by the Word of God! So you have got to use the Word! You have got to stand on the Word! You have got to use the Scriptures! It is not enough to simply tell the people to resist the devil! You have got to also bring out the error or strange devices of the devil you are warning the people of, and show how and why it is erroneous, by the Scriptures, so the people of God can resist the devil with the true revelation of the Scriptures! Anything else is just mere noise making! Anything else is mere propaganda, a propaganda of deception, a mere scare tactic! That is so, because without the revelation of the Word, you cannot resist the devil! You cannot! Without the Word, you do not have anything to resist him by! The only way to resist the devil, is by the Word of God! It is by the revelation of the Scriptures, for it takes strictly the revelation of Christ! When the devil came to Jesus Christ during his temptation, our Lord used the Word each time, to resist the devil, and he had to flee! There is no other way to resist the devil, but by the Word of God! So, merely screaming and telling the people to resist the devil is meaningless, and amounts to mere scare tactics, unless you also tell the people how to resist the devil! But if you trample upon the Word of God, if you deny the Word of God, if you compromise truth, the devil has already got you, and you cannot talk of resisting him. Because you are already in his pocket! So, if you are going to resist the devil, you have got to come by the Bible. You have got to use the Scriptures! I repeat: It will serve no purpose if I come, and simply tell you, Resist the devil; resist the devil; resist the devil; he is very smart; he is going to get you. The material issue is, How do you resist him? That is the point! You have got to come by the Word of God! And I have to say tonight, When you have the truth, and you are standing for the truth, there is nothing the devil can do to you. And you have nothing to fear. The only foundation, the infallible foundation, which the enemy cannot overcome, an invincible foundation, a fortress the enemy cannot break through, is the foundation of revealed truth. Precisely! That is why Jesus said, "You shall know the truth, and the truth will make you free." And he also declared: "Upon this rock" (of revealed truth), "I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." It therefore means, no matter the manifestation of the devil, no matter which colour he shows, no matter which way he comes, no matter what form he uses, no matter what disguise he comes with, victory is guaranteed, standing in the truth, and staying in the light. And when you have the truth, you have nothing to be afraid of. For if you are in the light, what can come against you? Who or what can do you any harm? None! There is absolutely nothing that can harm us, for no death, no angel, no principality, no power, no being, not even any peril, nor hunger, nor nakedness, nothing the devil has or throws, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus, for through Christ, we are more than conquerors! Halleluyah! But we have to stay in the light of truth, in order to overcome the devil, a most formidable adversary, of whom the Scriptures declare, he goes around like a roaring lion, seeking for whom to devour. Hence Jesus Christ warned in the gospel of Saint John chapter 10, verse 10: “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly!” God through His Son, our saviour Jesus Christ, in his revelation, is offering us a life of eternal glory and bliss, a life completely devoid of sin, evil, pain, sorrow, sickness, death, disappointment, heartache, or any negative thing whatsoever, in a long, long, unending eternity with God on this planet, an eternal habitation designed for us in God's divine presence. We have a most glorious tomorrow with God in this huge universe, beyond mortal comprehension. And as such, you cannot afford to use your today to spoil your tomorrow. That means you cannot afford to use your today to spoil your eternity. You must keep eternity in focus, whatever you do, because we are here only for a while. However long, or whatever the years you spend in this world, it is still nothing compared with eternity, and the glorious plan God has for you and I in eternity. It is too great for any man to miss. But we must understand, that in attaining unto eternity, we have an adversary we must overcome, and it is the devil. And there is one way he comes against God's people, and it is by deception. It is by unbelief. It is by preaching error. It is by going against the truth, that you may believe error or anti-truth; and by believing contrary to the Scriptures, he gets you out of the way of life eternal. But the only way to overcome the devil, is not by our intellectual reasoning, for he will outclass you in that, but strictly by the revelation of Jesus Christ contained in God's holy Scriptures. That is why Christ gave us his revelation, that by it, we may have prevailing power over the devil. Therefore, church, the victory we have over the devil, is in Christ. It is by the revelation of Jesus Christ we overcome. Therefore, your security is in the light. Your protection is in truth. Your true prosperity is in the light. It is not even in what a man says, because whatever a man says, however anointed he may be, if it is not in the light, and according to the truth, it is not of God. You are under obligation to follow only the truth. And if you are going to follow a man, please make sure you are following a man because he is preaching the truth, because brothers and sisters, if tonight I stand before you, and what I share does not dovetail with the Scriptures, you are under a God-given obligation to pick your Bible and walk away, for when a man leaves the Word of God, you must leave him, or you will die with him. Precisely! Brothers and sisters, the only influence the ministry has over God's people is by the Scriptures. I do not care the position a man purportedly holds, whether he be an apostle, whether he be a prophet, whether he be an evangelist, whether he be a pastor or teacher, the only influence he has over God's people, is in truth. And when a preacher does not have that truth, you are under obligation to get away from him, for the sake of the salvation of your own soul. You have to do yourself the favour and run away for dear life! So, at the end of the day, it is not about man. It is about the truth. It is not about us, it is about Jesus Christ. And as such, if you will stand, make sure you stand because it is the Word of God, for you must stand solely with the Word of God. And if you will follow a man, make sure the man you are following is preaching the truth of the Scriptures. Brother Alvin Suggs gave a lovely testimony yesterday, and I love the analogy or example he gave. He said something so simple, yet so deep, for it demonstrates an infallible principle of truth. He said, When someone preaches or teaches anything, you just pour it through the funnel of the Word, and if it goes through, from Genesis to Revelation, you should receive it. But if it does not, you must reject it. Halleluyah! And it must go through from the book of Genesis, to the book of Revelation, if it is the truth. If it does not, you throw it out, and that is the truth. That just lets you know, You must take everything to the Scriptures, and through the Scriptures. You must be able to run a true revelation through the pages of the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. You must, if it is a true revelation. But if it forms a block somewhere, that is not a revelation at all, because a true revelation cannot deny a Scripture. It cannot deny a Scripture bearing on that matter! It must allow every verse of Scripture on that issue to have its say, without forming a block! And we are going to see that tonight, in projecting what we are going to share. But church, do not forget, the influence the ministry has over you, is strictly on the basis of truth. If we are not standing for truth, and we do not have a Bible base to support what we project, we will not be leading you to Jesus Christ. We will be leading you to ourselves, and that means we are binding you to ourselves, and only a hireling would do that! Only the devil does that! And that is why it is only the devil that binds people with fear, scaring the people: "Don't touch this book; don't read that magazine..." Church, you are under a divine obligation to search out the truth for yourself! You do not need to be afraid of any spiritual material. You do not need to! What did apostle John say in 1 John 4:1? Search, to know which spirit is of God! He did not say run away! He did not say get scared, and out of fear, turn down the voice of God! Because in shutting out the devil, you will also shut out God! So, you must search! That is why he said, "Try the spirits!..." You must test by taking a look at something, using the Word of God as your funnel! Exactly! You have the funnel of the Word of God! You must search to find out what is true! You must find out truth for yourself, if you have the faith! You do not need to be afraid, because we have not received the spirit of fear! We have received the Spirit of wisdom and of a sound mind! We have received the Spirit of truth, which is the Spirit of the Word!

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, BUT TRY THE SPIRITS WHETHER THEY ARE OF GOD”, remains the believers guiding principle of faith! It does! You have to try them first in order to know which spirit is of God! Test first!

Look at it. In our previous message, we saw how Cain ran ahead of Abel, to offer his sacrifice. But John the beloved apostle said his works were evil! When he offered his sacrifice, running ahead of Abel to get the vindication of God, saints, he forgot God has an infallible and unchanging standard that was already laid out in the garden. God's provided way is by the blood. And church, maybe he may have also preached to Abel, before God's vindication came: “Brother Abel, I think you are wrong!... Brother, you know I love you... But I think you are wrong!... You must recant!... Brother, you have got to check your revelation!... You are killing another creature of God! You must submit to correction! That is most cruel, and God will not accept that!... You know, I think you should be very careful, for I do not know what you are talking about, that God gave you such a revelation. Are you sure of where it came from?... You must be careful now... I am warning you, the devil is going to get you!...” And you know many times, as I earlier stated, it is the devil that usually says the devil will get you, because at the end of the day, how does the devil get you? And as I have also shown, he can only get you if you go outside truth! But if you abide in truth, that is one ground he cannot prevail against! Never can he prevail against truth! The only ground of security, the only invincible ground, the only ground the devil cannot attain unto, is the ground of truth! Precisely! Cain may have tried to scare Abel: “The devil is going to get you!... Be careful, Brother Abel... I do not know where you got that revelation from... And that is what you want to give to God?...” Remember, Cain went ahead. “If that is what you want to give to God, are you sure He is going to accept it?... Be careful!... The devil is going to get you!...” But Abel knew his revelation! “Oh, Brother Abel, did you say an angel appeared to you, and told you to shed blood? But that is not right! That is not civilized!... Why would you kill another creature of God?! That does not show love!... That is cruelty to animals!” He may have preached his animal rights gospel to Abel, but Abel knew how he got his revelation! He knew that was God's provided way! God revealed it to him, and he had also checked it with his daddy's revelation, and it synchronized! Halleluyah! He had checked it with the chief apostle's revelation, and it dovetailed! Halleluyah! And Cain may have blasphemed, “Oh, you said an angel appeared to you? That must be the devil!... Be careful!... It must be the devil!... You cannot kill any animal, for they are God's creatures as well!... Did you not say God put Adam in charge over them? How then can you kill what you are to take care of?” On and on he must have gone. But since the beginning of creation, we have never heard it, nor ever read in the testimony of God, that the devil ever preached truth. Never! Jesus Christ confirmed in St. John chapter 8, verse 44 that, there is NO TRUTH in him, and that he is the father of lies, and abides not in truth! When he even presented the Scriptures to Jesus on the mount of temptation, he perverted the thought of it. There is no truth in him! He did not give a true projection! He twisted the Scriptures! He misapplied it! He overturned it! But Jesus used a true revelation of the same Scriptures, to knock him off each time! So, we do not know in that setting, how Cain may have tried to use scare tactics for Abel, but Abel knew who dealt with him. Period! Abel had a revelation of the fall, and of what God did in the garden for the atonement of his parents. Abel bore the revelation of his own father. He knew the testimony of his dad. He knew the revelation his dad bore. He knew what went on, and moreover, God met with him, and God revealed it to him, because it was a divine revelation to Abel! How did Noah know God was going to wipe away the world? It was a revelation! God showed it to him! He saw the rain fall. He saw destruction ahead of time in a spiritual vision, and he knew it was coming, and without fail. He was not drunk, and neither was he hallucinating. No wonder he prepared the ark to the saving of his own soul, and that of his household! Why? By faith he did that! So Abel knew, and he would have told Cain: “God showed it to me. Moreover, it dovetails with the revelation my father holds, and it dovetails with what God did in the garden. That settles it for me. You might as well quit trying to get me to change my revelation, for a true revelation is an absolute, and never changes! The revelation of God is one!” Halleluyah! Remember, the father of Abel was also a Son of God. And all you need to do if people say you are in error, is to check your revelation with that of the chief apostle of today, and also confirm it with the revelation the prophet to this age bore, for truth is one! Take everything back to the Scriptures, and if it flashes with everything, you are on the right path! You are settled! Not only has God dealt with you, you have also compared it with the revelation of the two standard bearers God set for the bride, and it dovetails with their message; and more importantly, you have checked it against the Scriptures, and it harmonises, giving you three infallible witnesses to your revelation: The prophet's revelation; the continuity revelation the chief apostle bore; and more importantly, the inspired Scriptures! That secures your position. It does! You do not need to be afraid. Halleluyah! Test all things, apostle John warns. The greatest test, and the infallible test, is the Word of God. That a teaching flashes with the Word, is the greatest vindication any man can have, for the greatest vindication, is the vindication of truth. More than the raising of the dead; more than healing the sick; more than opening the eyes of the blind; more than making the cripples to walk, there is no vindication like the vindication of the Word of God, for the Word of God will stand for ever. There is no vindication like the vindication of truth. Look at Elijah at the Mount Carmel showdown. Elijah told Israel, “If God be God, worship him. If it is Baal, worship him.” The Bible says, “Israel answered him not a word.” Israel had gotten into such an apostate state, until they could not even tell who was who!

They could no longer tell who was God, between Elohim and Baal! It took a supernatural display of God for them to realize who God was! Church, when the fire came down, then they exclaimed, "Oh, the Lord, He is God! The Lord, He is God!" What a shame! What a shame! What a shame! And if fire did not come down, so Elohim is no longer God? But church, before there was a fire, Elohim remained Elohim! The fire did not make Elohim God! And if there was no fire, God would still be God! The greatest vindication any man can have is that of the truth itself. Elijah did not have to wait for that fire to know who was God. He had the revelation of God. The fire was not what convinced Elijah of the true God. He knew the true God. He did not need to wait for fire. It was Israel in gross unbelief, that needed the fire to know who was God. But Elijah knew! I repeat, The greatest vindication any man can have, is the vindication of the Word of God. More than fire and earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes, the greatest vindication any man can have, is the vindication of the Word of God, because all those things will pass away, but the Word of God will endure forever. Halleluyah! Therefore, if a man is vindicated by truth, that is the greatest vindication, because I will tell you tonight, John the Baptist did no sign or wonder. He did not even heal a headache, or a tooth-ache. He did not raise any dead. So we can rightly say, he had no supernatural vindication in the way the world see vindication, but he had the Word of God for that day! Precisely! And heaven stood solidly behind him! Even Jesus Christ said, Of all men born of women in that day and hour, there was none as great as John. But did Jesus say that on the basis of the miraculous? No! It was strictly on the basis of truth! Saints of God, I repeat, there is no vindication any man can have, like the vindication of truth. And church, when God vindicated Abel, that became the roadmap of truth for Cain to follow. But there is just something in tares: They will never walk in the light! They walk in it (so-to-say), only for a season, for their personal objective. Remember, Cain was a seed of the devil, whilst Abel was a seed of God. Church, they set a type of the bride saints, and of the tares in the field. But they also set a type of the men in the ministry. EVERY TRUE MINISTRY WILL BE KNOWN TONIGHT, BY HIS STAND FOR THE TRUTH OF THE SCRIPTURES. AND A TARE PREACHER WILL ALSO BE KNOWN TONIGHT, BY HIS STAND AGAINST THE TRUTH OF THE SCRIPTURES. A man can be ignorant, and do something in ignorance, but when correction by the Bible comes, not correction by a man, but correction strictly by the Word of God comes, if he is truly in ignorance, he will repent and say, I am sorry, I was in error, and he will submit to truth. He will! He will swallow his pride, and acknowledge the truth! But when a man is not of God; when a man is a tare preacher, no matter how much Bible you show him, he will defy it! It is the spirit of Lucifer ruling the children of disobedience, because if you loved God yesterday, you will love Him today. Your love for God will not change, because God is God. If you believed yesterday, you will believe today. You could not be a believer yesterday, and become an unbeliever today. It does not work out like that! God does not make unbelieving believers! You are either a believer or an unbeliever! And the only thing that separates the true ministry from the false, is the truth they possess. It is the truth a man stands for, or the truth a man stands against, that shows whether he is a true minister, or a tare preacher. The truth of God's Word, identifies who is who in the ministry, because the objective of the devil is still being carried on in earnest. It is a reality we face even today! Let us be wise.

We saw in our last message, the two lines in projection. Only one verse told us the whole story of the line of Seth, "Then men began to call upon the name of the Lord." Just one verse tells the whole story. But look at the line of Cain. It looked like God used that chapter, to show us the posterity of Cain, just to let us see that lineage, a people who cared less for God. And tonight, his children are denying God, and they are tearing down the Bible. They are tearing down the truths we have received today, with godless audacity. They are rewriting the Bible tonight. They are everything the Bible has projected. These are the kind of religious people the devil wants, but God will have the last say. Halleluyah! Brothers and sisters, this is a race for eternity. If a person is actually wrong innocently, ignorantly, out of a good conscience, he will repent and say, "I have done wrong, I am sorry. Saints, please forgive me. I now see the light." That has to be so, because there is no big man in God's kingdom! You cannot be bigger than God! The only big man is Jesus Christ! And as a seed of God, even if you have to walk on your head, you will do whatever it takes to make right with your God. You will do it! You will not be ashamed to do it, and we will not stand in your way either! But rather, we will be grateful to God, and appreciate your humble attitude. I say that because, no matter what anybody does, what we owe him is love and understanding. We will not stand in the way of a child of God, who is seeking to get right with God, for there is only one thing that is material to a child of God: He just wants to be right with his Maker! Because this is not a game! He does not mind if he has to walk on his head. All that is important to him or her is, "I must be right with my God." But tares do not care for God! Why? They are seeds of the devil! They do not care! They care less for truth! That is a fact! I ask you: How can God manifest Himself to Cain, and Cain still defy God?! How can God show the right way to Cain, and Cain still trample upon it?! And his seeds are doing the same thing tonight. Open your eyes, for the seeds of Lucifer do not care wrecking what God has done! They do not care wrecking the work of 39 years! Let me wrap up this introduction by emphasizing this. Church, this is a race for life. It is not a game. There is only one thing that is important to every true seed, every child of God, who has been called as a bride saint; only one thing is important to every seed of God, male and female. And that one thing is about getting right with their God. God is the centre of their lives. That is why they are a humble people. They just love the Lord, and they love truth, and they wholeheartedly live for God. And that is all you see in Genesis chapter 4 verse 26, in the lineage of Seth. Seth was appointed in the place of Abel. Then men began to call upon the name of the Lord. But in the other camp, what did we see? Intellectual giants; men with world acclaim; geniuses. But also in the same group, we also see every evil you can think of: wickedness, moral debuchery, and violence, laced with godless audacity. That is all we see in projection. But only one verse tells all the story of the lineage of Seth. They were a humble people who lived humble lives. The centre of their life is God. I said the centre of their life is God! And church, the centre of the life of the bride is Jesus Christ. He has to be the centre of our lives! He died for us! We do not own ourselves anymore. He owns us. He paid the price. We are bought with a price. We should live solely for Jesus Christ. He must be the centre of our lives. He must be! Everything about us must radiate around Jesus the Christ, not the other way round. But the Cainite line, they look for worldly acclaim, a worldly glory. They are intellectual giants. They are simply earth bound creatures. They know it all; they have it all; and yet they have nothing, and know nothing. And at the end of the day, their memory will be wiped off from the record of the Almighty God. They have no memory with God. No record. And in the world, God's children also have no record, except with God. And that is what counts, because there is coming a day when the records of man will be wiped away completely, because fire is coming, along with serious earthquakes and gigantic tidal waves, and unimaginable tsunamis, and all the records men have made and acquired, all the books they have written to immortalize their names, will be burnt out, and all their records will be utterly destroyed. But there is a record, way up yonder, a record no robber can steal, a record no moth can eat, a record that is indestructible, for it is permanent. Saints of God, there is a pay day coming. It pays to serve Jesus. Church, all your sacrifice and labour for his name sake, will never be in vain. Just keep on labouring. There is a pay day coming. Right now, things may look hard and harsh, and lonely, but God is watching over you with love, and with appreciation of your stand. You say He does not appreciate? He does! God told the devil, "Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God and escheweth evil?" God was proud of Job. And we have Jobs tonight on this earth. We have, because the testimony of Job is not an isolated one! God has children as well today. May God bless you, Brother Alvin. Thank God for your stand! Thank God for your ministry! Thank God for your life! I am proud to associate with a man who stands for truth, not minding what people may do to his name, not minding if it will put him in opposition with the whole world, but will stand regardless, for the sake of the bride. If he was looking for a name, if he was looking for fame, he surely would have stood with them on the internet platform, and let truth be trampled upon. I say that because most men are looking for popularity and fame. They are looking for prestige, and the opportunity to be in the spotlight, instead of taking their stand for truth, that they may receive an eternal reward from the Almighty God. But the reality, spiritually speaking, is that people take a stand against the truth, only because it is not the word of their father! If the Word of God is the word of your Father, you will stand firmly for it and defend it! You will uphold it! It is not in vain when Jesus said, “My sheep hear my voice and they follow me. A stranger will they not follow.” If the Word of God is the Word of your Father, that is all you will accept and stand for, and you will do so with all your life. They may say you have no love; but praise God for that! I do not want love that lacks truth, because having love without the revelation of truth, will lead you straight to hell! Love that is devoid of truth, is not of God! It is of the devil! Jesus Christ in St. John chapter 14, verses 21, 23 & 24, confirms that! Church, God's people are simple people, humble people. They are not a hateful people, for they do not have hate in their heart for anyone. They love the Lord, and they love truth, and they will stand firmly for it, with an uncompromising stand. That is the difference! Their lives radiate around the revelation of Christ, because they know they are pilgrims here; we are only here for a while. But whilst we are here, we are under a severe test, and trial; we are under a severe pressure of an enemy who has the lake of fire waiting for him; an enemy who wants to take God's children with him to hell as well; although he cannot succeed in that, because we have been redeemed, and there is a seed in every child of God, a germ of life: There is a representation of truth, an attribute of truth, in the soul of every predestinated child of God, anchoring him securely in truth. And although he may not see something for a while, but at the appointed time, when truth flashes, he will see truth for what it is, and he will stand for it, and the devil will lose his hold. With this background, we now want to go into our message for today.

We want to take tonight, Genesis: The Mark Of

Cain. May God help me. Please pray for me. The Mark Of Cain. We will take our text, starting from Genesis chapter 4, verse 8: “And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. And Cain said unto the Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.” Now, we are going to verse 15. Please pay attention: “And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the Lord SET A MARK UPON CAIN, LEST ANY FINDING HIM SHOULD KILL HIM.”

After that encounter, verse 16 tells us Cain walked away from the presence of the Lord, and that was the end of his walk with Jehovah. Now, the devil just took him out, to start the next phase of his agenda. After he had failed to derail Abel at the hour of worship, because the objective of the devil was to use Cain to derail Abel, but Abel had a revelation, and Abel stood for his revelation, and he had to die for his revelation, but he stood for it; the devil realised, “Oh my! I have not been able to derail Abel. And God has appointed Adam another seed. I will now earnestly pursue my next plan.” And here he moved his own seed out of God's divine presence, to start a work, entering his second phase, in his attack of the line of God's children. Like I said, he had tried to attack the line of God's children at the hour of worship in chapter 4, by trying to derail Abel, but Abel knew he had a true revelation, and he stood for his revelation, and also died for it. And most times, that is why you will be persecuted for the faith, for the truth you stand for. But if you have a true revelation, brothers and sisters, you will stand for it with all your life, because you know, there is a glorious day coming ahead. It is a great privilege to be called into the light, and to stand for truth. It is God's grace. If it was not for His grace, we would not be able to do so. And the devil led Cain away. That was the end of his worship of God. The devil had now mapped out another onslaught. But before he could set that onslaught in motion, he first had to brew up the mass of people he would use for that onslaught. We are coming to that tomorrow morning, in our next message titled, The Mixing Of Seeds. But church, tonight, we want to see the Mark of Cain. I will start by saying this; This is an issue Brother Jackson never preached about. He never preached on the Mark of Cain. Yes, he preached on The Sin of Ham, but he never preached on the Mark of Cain, although he may have made personal remarks on it; but he never taught it. I was in Mike Hefner's church in Montgomery, Illinois, U.S.A., in December 2004, the week after the burial of Brother Jackson. A Mexican brother, Emmanuel Rojas, came to me. He asked me a question, he said, “Brother Amos, Brother Jackson made a statement that the Mark of Cain was his stature.” Now, in all the messages and teachings of Brother Jackson I had read to that point, I had not come across that phrase. I did not even know he made such a statement! But I knew he had not preached on the Mark of Cain. And I also knew, if God had dealt with Brother Jackson on the truth of the Mark of Cain, giving him the revelation of it, he would make more than just a mere remark, or more than just a mere statement on it, for a mere statement does not establish a truth. Moreover, making mere statements on issues of truth, whether in public, or in private, and not being able to teach it to God's children from the pulpit, only shows we are yet to come into possession of the revelation of the thing we are making mere statements about. Precisely! But I know, if God had dealt with Brother Jackson on the Mark of Cain, he would definitely have preached it! That is the essence of God opening the eyes of His servant who is bearing the Standard, to truth! Precisely! God gives him a revelation, that he may in turn give it to the saints! Therefore, there is no room for any private revelation! And there will be no secret revelation either. Every true Scriptural revelation will be, and must be appropriated, by the universal bride of Christ, for the adorning of their soul. And that is also precisely the conviction of Brother Jackson, the chief apostle to this age. I say that because I do not believe in any secret revelation! And although God did not reveal this truth to the chief apostle, that he may give it to us, the Lord in His infinite mercy and elective love, has revealed it to me today, and I will shout it from the roof top! I will sing it to the world, because the Lord has given me a song to sing, a continuity song, and it is the truth of God! And there is no statement of anyone, regardless of who he is, you can use to nullify a true revelation, when God unveils it at His appointed hour. But until God's ordained hour comes, all men can do is to probe and make mere statements and conjectures, as to what a Scripture means. That is the absolute truth! What I am trying to say is well summarized in a quotation of Brother Jackson I will now give. I take the quote from the Contender titled, Meat In Due Season, Part 17, of From The Beginning To The End series, page 7, column 2, of May 1992: “We put our name on everything we have ever printed or preached; and I am not ashamed of any of it. I have nothing to hide. As we go on with this message, I am going to challenge this entire movement. Oh yes, it will bring a lot of criticism, and cause a lot of shots to be fired; but I will tell you, There is not another preacher that was a witness to this man's ministry” (i.e. Brother Branham's ministry), “(and I want to say this as humbly as I know how) that has backbone enough to stand against all that foolishness and say what is right and what is wrong. I do not have millions of dollars to play with, like some of these people do. I never have had a lot of money to use in my ministry; but I have always said, Whatever God gives me, I will use it for His glory. THEREFORE IF HE PUTS A REVELATION IN MY HEART OF SOMETHING THAT I CAN SEE IN THE BIBLE, I WILL PREACH IT FROM THE HOUSE TOP. I WILL NEVER COME TO YOU AND TALK TO YOU ABOUT SOME SECRET REVELATION GOD HAS GIVEN ME, AND NOT HAVE THE NERVE TO PUT IT OUT TO THE PUBLIC. THERE ARE NO SECRET REVELATIONS AS FAR AS THE BRIDE CHURCH IS CONCERNED. REVEALED SCRIPTURE IS FOR ALL OF THE TRUE BODY OF CHRIST. It is only hidden from carnal minded people who do not know what to do with a revelation. I realize there are times God will say, Wait just a little season, it's not time yet, then release it; BUT THERE IS ONE THING SURE, I WILL

NEVER DENY WHAT GOD ALLOWED ME TO SEE. That is why as we go along with this message, I am going to challenge this entire movement." I have given that quote simply to show that, he did not preach on the Mark of Cain, because God did not deal with him on it. Simple! Moreover, if he preached everything, How are we going to have continuity, of the revelation of Jesus Christ our Lord? But in that day, since I did not have any idea as to the Mark of Cain, I simply told the brother, I said, "Brother Manny, I do not know." He said, "Alright, do you have any Scripture to back it up?" I said, "I do not have the revelation of the Mark of Cain. And as such, there is no Scripture I can give you for it. I just do not know anything about it. I do not have a clue." So that was how we dropped the issue. But saints of God, here we were a few months back. I told the church, now that Brother Jackson has passed away, and having received so much light from him, it is the responsibility of the ministry to take all the truths we have received at this evening time, from the prophet, and from the chief apostle, and establish God's people in it, so that we may be established in that which God has given us, for the dressing of our soul, as bride saints, from the pages of the Bible. So I said to the church: That we may be faithful, we are going to start all the way from the very beginning in Genesis, and take it through to the book of Revelation, going through all the revealed truths we have received from the prophet, and from Brother Jackson, at this evening time, from the Word of God. God opening up new nuggets of truth, or further light, was not at all on my mind. I simply wanted to be sure the church was solidly established in the truth, and adorned with all the revelations God has given to us, from the pages of the Bible. Period! That was my sole motivation and desire! I desire to be faithful. And may the Lord help me. However, whilst I was studying for this series, suddenly, God dealt with me when I came to Genesis chapter 4, verse 15! I had a revelation from the Lord, which just opened this truth up, and for the first time, I saw what the Mark of Cain truly was, and I shouted for joy, right there in my church office! But I kept it to myself, until we got to that part, in our study of Genesis. Then I shared the revelation with the church, and by the grace of God, when I was inspired to write the book, Revelation, Tares, and 99% Truth, I was able to project that truth in the book, for the world to judge by the Scriptures. We do not need to be afraid of truth. If something is a true revelation, it will have its anchor in the Word of God. It will not go against the Scriptures. Rather, it will open up the Scriptures, and dovetail with the Word of God. It will not form a block with any Scripture, but it will flow with each and every Scripture on the matter, because the Bible is the yardstick for truth. There is no other yardstick for truth, but the Word of God. That being so, let us therefore use the infallible and unchanging yardstick of the Word of God, to test each and every revelation presented to us. That is the litmus test, the test of all tests.

But may I say this, revelation is not what you need to climb a ladder for,

to bring it down from heaven. Revelation is a dealing of the Spirit of God; but it makes truth so simple and so plain. And revelation does not give you what is not there. It does not allow you to manufacture truth. Revelation gives you what is already written in the Scriptures, which the Spirit of God just covers with a spiritual veil, and when God removes the veil, you joyfully exclaim, "Oh my!... That is true!... I see it now!... How come I did not see it before?" It is because it takes a revelation! That is why the Word of God is inspired. It is a Spiritual book, the greatest Spiritual book there is, and will ever be. That is why there is a spiritual veil that covers the Bible, and God uses His Spirit to give its revelation to God's elect seeds, that they may have a true understanding of the truth of the Word of God. But the beauty of revelation is that, it makes truth very simple and plain, and it is not something that is not there in the Word of God! It is not something that comes out of the blues! It does not come out of Mars! It is something there already. Isaiah chapter 8 verse 20 clearly and firmly declares: "To the law and to the testimony: If they speak not according to this Word," (If they speak not according to this Bible), "it is because there is no light in them." That is: No Holy Ghost inspiration in them; no divine revelation in them! God is not in it! Because true revelation must dovetail with the Word of God! It must! Halleluyah! It must anchor in the Word of God to be true! Nothing is true without a Scriptural basis, because God's Word alone is truth! Jesus Christ revealed that firmly in John chapter 17, verse 17: "Sanctify them through thy truth: THY WORD IS TRUTH." That settles it! Apostle Paul said the same thing in Romans chapter 10 verse 17, when he declared: "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Why? Because the Word of God is the exclusive foundation of faith, the sole anchor for truth! Something just has to have a Scriptural base to be true! I repeat: If what you are preaching is true, it must have its basis in the Bible! It must! Because a true revelation of God is not something you bring from your head, or out of the blues! It is something in the Scriptures, something already there in God's Word, though hidden or concealed. But by revelation, the truth is unveiled. REVELATION THEREFORE IS THE UNVEILING OF THE TRUTH OF GOD'S WORD! That is what caused apostle Paul to declare in Romans chapter 3, verses 3 and 4: "For what if some did not believe?" (Believe what? The Word of God!), "shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect" (That is, Shall their unbelief nullify the Word of God?). He declared: "God forbid: yea, LET GOD BE TRUE, BUT EVERY MAN A LIAR; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in" (ALL) "thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged" (or when God's Word is called to question). That lets us see, brothers and sisters, once God writes it, it holds! It stands! It becomes an absolute! No true revelation can tear it down, or deny it! I am laying out these principles on purpose, because we are living in an hour, when people are no longer using the Scriptures as the basis of their revelation, but instead, they are denying the Word of God, with their so-called revelation, which is not a revelation at all! Some preachers use fear, or fear tactics, to get the people to believe them. But let me tell you today, as bride saints, children of the living God, there is only one solid, i m m o v a b l e , unchangeable, and unfailing foundation or basis, for what you are to stand for, for what you are to believe, for what you are to receive, and for what you are to reject. It has got to be on the strict basis of the Scriptures! The basis of truth is the Word of God! So, if something is a true revelation, it must, and it will dovetail with God's Word. Period!

I have been privileged to study the teachings of Richard Gan of Singapore. I have his book here, titled The Mark Of The Wicked Ones. The book is about the Mark of Cain. I will read his revelation on the Mark of Cain to you, before I go into the Scriptures. On page 7, from paragraph 4, he says: "The mark set upon Cain was something which could protect him from being killed. Therefore, it could neither be an indelible visible sign on his forehead nor the black colour of his skin." How could the Mark on Cain's forehead translate into the colour of his dark skin? The Bible did not say that! And just how could the Mark that was to protect him from being killed, be the dark colour of his skin? How can a dark skin protect him?! And who told them Cain was ever dark skinned?! What a religious world! That just lets you see the wild and weird revelation of some people! They said the Mark was his blackness! Incredible! They are saying in effect, that God just turned him into a black man, and that was the Mark of Cain! That just lets you see how carnal, and utterly ridiculous, religious humanity can be, without the dealing of God. But let us go on: "How could a mark upon Cain's forehead (the Bible does not state so) or being a black person ever protect him from men? The mark was certainly a visible protective sign which was able to generate fear in his opponents." I agree. "Any would-be

killer would think twice before making any attempt on Cain's life lest he be overpowered by Cain." That is the truth! It is a fact! "BELIEVE IT OR NOT, THE MARK SET UPON CAIN WAS HIS SIZE." Absolutely! That is correct! And to the opposition, let me say this: Although I am not a follower of Richard Gan, though I once was, and although I do not agree with a lot of his teachings, I still have to acknowledge truth, regardless of who states it, for truth is truth! I cannot deny a truth simply because I am not following a man's ministry, or because we do not believe the same thing! Are you hearing me?! This is not about men, but about truth! You cannot personalize truth! And if what a man says is true, I have to acknowledge it, for I cannot do anything against the truth, but for the truth! You have to understand that! I will continue with his quote: "This is the revelation I have received from the Holy Spirit according to His Scriptures. That same MARK was upon some of his kind, as we shall see by partly following the trail of the Serpent.” I say, true! He continued: “The Prophet Branham told us that the Serpent was a BIG fellow. Let's say he was 1 foot taller than Adam who was perhaps 6 feet tall based on the average height of mankind. Remember, he was created to be Adam's servant to work the field. Being a Serpent's seed, Cain must also be a BIG fellow like the Serpent according to the law of reproduction. When God set the MARK upon Cain, He in fact further increased his PHYSIQUE and his INTELLECT. Now, would any of his descendants, who stood about 7 feet tall and weighed 300 pounds, dare to look upon a giant like Cain, who stood, perhaps between 9 and 10 feet tall and weighed 800 pounds, and say, “I am going to kill you, you trouble-maker”? Undoubtedly, no man in his right mind would dare make that attempt.” I agree with Richard Gan to this point. It is a fact! It is the truth! But right here my agreement with him stops. Here it ends. Next he says, “At this junction, let me say that though Cain was the father of the Cainites, his descendants...” Now listen attentively: “His descendants were not giants until they intermarried with the Sethites and produced the hybrids.” That is a lie! That is contrary to the record of the Scriptures! He continued: “Genesis 6:4 states that there were giants in those days before and after the flood.” That is not what the Bible says! The Bible did not say it like that! “The giants were a result of the intermarriage of the two lines of people, the Sethites and the Cainites” That is half-truth! And half-truth amounts to a lie! He added, “which probably began round about the generation of Enoch.” That is also not true! He ended: “This can be determined by looking at the two genealogies of Cain and Seth.” I have to say this tonight, A man can make a statement of truth, and yet he himself may lack the revelation of that truth. I repeat: A man can make a statement of truth, for he can say something that is very true, yet, he himself may not have the revelation of the statement he has made! Exactly! So, it is not enough to make a right statement. It is certainly not enough to merely make a statement of truth, or a statement that is true. You must have a Bible base for what you project! Absolutely! It has to have that base, if what you have is really a revelation from God! It just must be established in the Scriptures, because the basis of truth is not your thought, and neither is it your idea, it is strictly the Scriptures, the Word of God! So until a man has a Scriptural base, church, he does not have a revelation, because revelation does not come from the blues! REVELATION MEANS GOD IS UNVEILING THE TRUTH OF HIS SCRIPTURES TO YOU! HE IS UNVEILING THE WORD OF GOD! Therefore, if you have a true revelation, your revelation will be anchored in the Scriptures of truth, to give us a true understanding of that Scripture. Precisely! And no matter how true a statement is, church of the living God, Until a man has a Scriptural base, he does not have a revelation! He does not! Because it is not hit and miss! It is not guess work! Revelation gives certainty, for it is an anchor! The revelation of God is life, and therefore, it is a tie-post! Absolutely!

In the gospel of Saint John chapter 11, from verse 47 - 51, the council of Chief Priests and Pharisees were debating about what to do to Jesus Christ. The High Priest Caiaphas, got up, and said, "It is better for one man to die for the people, than for everybody to perish." Church, and that was prophetic! That was absolute truth! It spoke of Jesus Christ's death, the Lamb of God, given for the sins of the whole world. It was a true statement, yet he himself had no revelation of the statement he uttered! Yet he was inspired! But yet, he did not understand what he spoke! He had no clue! He had no revelation! Brothers and sisters, it is a fact that, a man can make a statement of truth, without having an ounce of revelation himself. Absolutely! Am I making sense? Of course I am! We will take that text. John 11 verse 47: "Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him..." They were scared for their positions! Are you with me? They were scared for their influence! They wanted to continue ruling Israel at all costs! They wanted to continue being the religious leaders, not caring anything for God's plan of salvation, nor for the spiritual good of the people! And that is precisely how the devil operates! He does not care for the plan of salvation of God! All he cares for is his own interest, his agenda! And his seeds, his ministers, are exactly like that too! All they care for is their own prestige! All they care for is their own ambition! They do not care for the soul of men! They do not care if they take people to hell or not! All that motivates them is their selfish ambition: Their love for money, or their love to be in the spotlight! Verse 48: "If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation." Liars! They were just saying that to justify themselves for what they would do to Jesus Christ! If they so much loved the nation, and they did not want the Romans, how come when they took Jesus to Pilate, they accused him of being disloyal to Caesar?! They falsely accused Jesus of saying they should not pay tribute to Caesar, and that was a lie, and they knew it! They raised false witnesses against Jesus Christ, and they lied against him! So, if they were really zealous for their nation as they professed here, how come they went to accuse him of standing against Caesar?! They should have loved Jesus, who was one of them, and who stood for their nation! But they went to accuse him to Pilate! They accused him of leading rebellion against Caesar! And even when Pilate told them Christ had done no wrong, for he found nothing wrong with him, they blackmailed him, saying, "You are not a friend of Caesar!" You see that in John 19 verses 12 and 13! In other words, We are going to report you to Caesar! You will lose your position! Hypocrites! And the seeds of the devil in every age remain the same. They have not changed, for Satan cannot change. Let us go on. Verse 49: “And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient for us” (the Jews), “that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.” Watch verse 51: “And this spake he not of himself.” He spake it not of himself! What was that? Inspiration! Yet the man inspired to utter such a true prophetic statement, had no revelation of the Word he uttered! Verse 51: “And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation.” What a statement! What an utterance! Yet, the minister who gave it had no ounce of revelation, for he had no clue to what he was saying! Thus saith the Word of God! “This spake he not of himself!” And because he had no revelation; because he had no clue, verse 53 reveals: “Then from that day forth THEY took counsel together for to put him to death!” And who led the way? Who taught them to kill him? The high priest! Saint John chapter 18, verses 13-15, and verse 28, also confirm that! Caiaphas was the first person to teach the people to Kill Jesus! How could he have a revelation of who Jesus was, and be the agent of his crucifixion?! Think of it! So, that lets you know, he did not understand what he said! He had no revelation! It is just like people who say, “We know who Brother Jackson is.” No, you do not! If you knew who Brother Jackson really was, you would not have torn down the revelation of “He that is to come.”! You would not have done that! You only did that, because you do not know who he is! Because that book is meant to let the Branham movement, and the entire world, know Brother Jackson's precise position in the ministry, that they may follow his truth! So how can you tear that down? The fact that you tore it down, only shows you do not know who Brother Jackson is! You do not! That is a fact! You have no revelation! You are just like Judas who also said, “I know who Jesus is.” But how could he really know Jesus, and still sell him out?! He did not truly know who he was! He could not have known Jesus is the Messiah, and still sell him out! It is impossible! He did not know who Jesus was! And these people at Faith Assembly do not know who Brother Jackson was! Even his own family do not know! That is why they accused me of idolatry, simply for showing he is the chief apostle, the Paul of the end time! They felt I was lifting up a man! They could not see what God was doing in their very midst! Their very stand shows they do not know who Brother Jackson is! And brothers and sisters, is it not interesting, that these same men today, are tearing down the very truth of headship, Brother Jackson laid out?! They said they know who he is. They do not know! They said they know his truth. They do not know his truth! They are tearing down his truths! They sat right there on his platform, and the truths that that man packed, passed over their heads! It sure did! It did! Here we see Caiaphas, he was inspired by the Spirit of God, to make a prophetic utterance, but his soul was devoid of the revelation of the very truth God inspired him to speak that day! Exactly! And why did God inspire him to speak that? Saints of God, that shows you something. That tells you something. It clearly shows, that a man can make a statement of truth, and be inspired to make a statement of truth, and still be devoid of revelation, inspite of his true statement. Absolutely! A man can be inspired in a moment, and yet be completely devoid of the Spirit! That is, he can be devoid of the Spirit indwelling! And that is precisely why such a person will not have a Bible base for what he projects, however true his projection may be. Moreover, it is an incontestable fact, that nothing is true, until it is based upon the Scriptures! Because the Word of God alone is truth! Thus saith the Lord in John 17:17, "Sanctify them through" (or by) "thy truth: Thy Word is truth." Nothing is truth, but God's Word, and God's Word alone! And until something anchors squarely in God's Word, it is not true! A true revelation just must have a Bible base to be true! Amen.

I have gone to that length, to show you something. The statement Richard Gan made, as to what the Mark of Cain is, is a true statement, for it is the truth; but he obviously has no revelation of the Mark of Cain. He does not! That is a fact! I say that because the Scriptural foundation for this revelation, he flatly denied. I said, The Bible base for this revelation, is the very thing he denied! Then, if you deny what is the basis of something, then you have nothing! Exactly! You have nothing! For we are not going to believe something simply because you say it! We are going to believe it strictly because it is the Word of God! That is what will anchor our soul! We are not supposed to believe something simply because somebody says it! We have got to believe it because it is the Word of God! Anything we are to believe must have a Scriptural base! We cannot take mere statements! It is the Word of God we must believe! Therefore, before we believe something, as children of light, we are under a divine obligation to find out whether that thing is truly the Word of God! And until we know it is the Word of God; until we are certain that that teaching is the Word of God, we do not yet know! Because we do not have a revelation, until we are anchored in the Word of God! You may believe a man, and you may stand with a man, but until you know the Word of God, and you have your anchor in the Word of God, you do not know anything yet, because God is not seeking that you follow flesh! God is not seeking that you accept the words of a man! He is seeking that you accept a man's word, because you know it is the Word of God! Therefore, it is not the words of a man you are accepting, when you accept a man's teaching, you are accepting the Word of God! Therefore, until you are certain that something is the Word of God, you have no revelation! You have no anchor! You are not yet established, for you cannot be established outside truth, for all other ground is sinking sand! Precisely! And as such, you cannot stand for a man simply because you like the man, or because he is kind to you. You must stand because of truth! So you must look beyond the man! You must see the truth! And if you do not see the truth, and you stand nonetheless, you are only following flesh! Exactly! You will fail!

Looking at the Mark of Cain, in Genesis chapter 4, verse 15, strictly from a Scriptural standpoint, we must now ask: What is the Mark of Cain? The Word of God clearly bears it out here. May God help me tonight. Now Cain cried out to God in Genesis chapter 4, verses 13 and 14, "Anyone that finds me is going to kill me. Please spare my life. Already, I will never be in your divine presence again." That was his own way of saying, "You have got to do something for me. Spare my life. Keep me from being murdered!" And God was gracious to him. God showed mercy and compassion. God bore with this seed of the devil. Let us take Genesis chapter 4, verses 13 and 14 again: "And Cain said unto the Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that EVERY ONE THAT FINDETH ME SHALL SLAY ME." And God hearkened to his plea. Church, like I earlier stated, there was no point God allowing the devil to make his move in our own Eden (Are you with me?), and cutting it short immediately thereafter. God had to allow him, knowing that His will as God is sovereign, and it will prevail. Moreover, the devil and his children were going to be the means of our testing for eternity, testing for faithfulness. Are you with me? So God had to allow the devil to carry on in his objective. It could not have stopped merely with the conception of Cain! And as such, God could not kill Cain. Otherwise, God would have killed Cain right there and then! But that would have put a full stop to the move of the devil in our era. So, what was the point in letting the devil start, and not finish? So, God overlooked the gross impudence and wickedness of Cain. So, here in Genesis chapter 4, Cain pleaded with God, "You have got to do something for me, so that people do not kill me out of hatred or vengeance." In other words, Cain was pleading for a supernatural preservation of his life, and God agreed. So, what did the Lord do? Verse 15: "And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever" (whosoever) "slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." Hold it there! "Whosoever slayeth Cain" does not mean, Whoever succeeds in killing Cain! I say that because, if a person succeeds in killing Cain, God's preservation of Cain would be nonexistent! Do not forget, Cain was pleading for his life to be preserved from would-be murderers! Are you with me? If God agreed to that, and He did, How would Cain be preserved, if somebody was able to kill him? So this verse cannot mean, "Whosoever is able", or "Whosoever succeeds in killing Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." It cannot mean that, and it does not mean that! What then does it really mean? It simply means, "Whosoever would attempt to kill Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." You are looking at an attempt! The “slaying” here simply means, to attempt to slay! It is an attempt! Otherwise, the divine preservation of Cain's life would be meaningless! So it has to be, and it really means, “Whosoever attempts to slay Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” This verse is looking at would-be murderers of Cain; people who would attempt or try to kill Cain. It is a matter of how this verse was translated into modern day language. Verse 15 declares: “And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” (And for this cause:) “And the Lord SET A MARK UPON CAIN, lest any finding him should kill him.” In other words, So that anyone who sees him should not kill him, God set a mark on Cain, to preserve him from being killed. I now ask: What then is this mark? You are looking strictly at a means by which humanity would be deterred from making an attempt on Cain's life. Exactly! The mark therefore stands as a deterrent. God gave Cain the mark in order to deter people from making an attempt on Cain's life. Precisely! The mark therefore acts as a deterrent! And that is why verse 15 reveals that God put a mark on Cain, “... lest any finding him should kill him!” That is the Word! Thus saith the Word of God! And as such, the mark is strictly a means of deterrence! The mark deters people, for it was given to deter would-be killers! It warns them off! Verse 15 itself gives us an insight, for the Mark is like a flashing warning sign, which loudly tells would-be killers, Do not even think about it! Do not try it! The mark deters anyone who meets Cain! And as such, it is not an anointing on Cain! It cannot be an anointing of God's Spirit on Cain, because Cain was never again going to come into God's divine presence! Cain said so himself! And hence, how can God's anointing dwell permanently on him?! That is impossible, for the mark was definitely not an anointing! It was not! Yet, it is true, Cain pleaded for God to preserve his life supernaturally, that nobody would be able to kill him. Are you with me? And God agreed to that. But the mark was not an anointing! Yet, God preserved his life by a means hidden in the mark!

The mark therefore holds and hides, the means of Cain's preservation! It does! Therefore, the question remains, What is the Mark? In other words, What was the means God used to preserve Cain's life, from attempted-murderers? That is what we want to find out, for the particular means God employed, Moses simply called a Mark! Asking for what the mark is, therefore, amounts to asking for the means God employed in preserving Cain's life from would-be murderers! Brothers and sisters, the same Word of God gives it to us. Remember, “Whoever would seek to kill Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” This verse itself, holds part of the clue, for it gives us the first clue. And as such, we must ask: What does it mean? You are looking at a means of deterrence, something that would put fear in the hearts of people, and would make them abort any thought or idea of trying to kill Cain. Even if someone thinks about it, he would not try it. He just would not dare! And if he tries it, or attempts to kill Cain, he would die sevenfold, for “vengeance shall be taken on him” sevenfold!” Precisely! We must then ask: What is it to die sevenfold, or how would vengeance be taken on him sevenfold? That is the next material question! It simply means, If you try to kill Cain, you are going to die seven times before you actually die for attempting it! You are going to die over and over, before you give up the ghost! And how do you die seven times before you die? Church, Look at me for a second. I have a very small frame. What if I go to George Foreman, the former heavy weight world boxing champion, and challenge him? You know if he throws a punch, just the wind from his punch alone is going to knock me down, because I have a small frame! Are you with me? I am no match for a man like that! Moreover, I do not have too much flesh on me! And saints, if George Foreman should handle me, he would be so infuriated, so mad at my audacity at attempting to kill him, he would say, “What impudence! How dare you try to kill me! I am going to show you!” Church, to die sevenfold, or for vengeance to be inflicted sevenfold, actually means you are going to die many times over, before you actually die, for daring to attempt to kill Cain! It just shows the p h y s i c a l and overwhelming power, the brute force of your opponent, that when he handles you, he is going to make you die several times over! He will make you pay! How? By the time he begins to break you from limb to limb, as he pulls out one socket here, and pulls out another socket there, as he begins to dismember you, you would die seven times before you actually died. Because you would faint, and pass in and out several times, before you actually died! Exactly! Particularly when a man has to fight for his life! You are going to scream, “Please, I beg you!... Please I beg you! Forgive me! I am so sorry! I did not mean it!” That is what it means to die seven times! “Vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” Church, you are simply looking at a man who has the physical power, by his humongous physical stature, that when he handles a person that would dare to make an attempt on his life, that person would die seven times! Precisely! You have to see it! It has to do with his physical stature or frame! Vengeance would be taken on him sevenfold! Remember, it is a sevenfold vengeance to be had on a would-be killer! Therefore, that vengeance would invite a sevenfold death! That is what the sevenfold vengeance would translate unto! Exactly! But who would inflict the sevenfold vengeance? Who would take revenge? Cain! Why do I say that? It is simply this: The man that would inflict a sevenfold vengeance on a person who attempts to kill Cain, who himself became a public enemy for killing Abel in cold blood, can only be Cain himself, whose life is in danger! Precisely! You have to see it! The person who would inflict the sevenfold vengeance on an attempted murderer of Cain, can only be Cain himself! Therefore, you have to see that Cain had to have that physical stature, that brute force, that daunting gigantic stature, that not only could preserve him when faced by an assailant, but also would act as a deterrent to the general public! And as such, you have to see, that the Mark of Cain, is his physical stature, for God seriously increased his physique that day, in order to put fear in those who meet him! Remember, it was a vengeance to be taken on Cain's assailants! Therefore, it would be Cain fighting for his life, and it would be Cain taking a sevenfold vengeance on his assailants! Exactly! And the only way he could overcome powerful assailants, and also deter the public, was to have a physique or stature, that not only would enable him disarm and overpower all sorts of assailants, but also act as a deterrent to the general public! And as such, the Mark cannot be anything other than his gigantic stature! Exactly! God simply turned him into a giant! That is the truth! Verse 15 itself, gives us the first clue! It does, if we will only open our heart to God, and to the Scriptures. That day, God increased his physique, and turned him into a giant of a fella, the first giant ever to walk this planet. The Mark of Cain therefore, was his physique, his stature, his gigantic frame, for God transformed him right there and then, into a giant of a creature, right there in God's divine presence.

This reminds me of something God did in this our day. In the days of Brother Branham, there was a potted plant placed right in front of the pulpit, when he was having a meeting in 1958, in Lakeport, California. The live plant was standing before the pulpit, as the prophet preached. The highest point of that plant was on the same level with the microphone Brother Branham used that day; but Brother Branham stood taller than the highest point of that plant. But right in God's divine presence, before the meeting was over that day, that plant had grown way up, much higher than the prophet, and even a lower branch of that plant, had grown to reach the neck of the prophet, all within one divine meeting! Think of it! The plant grew much taller than the prophet, who was taller than the microphone, right in divine presence! It grew right in service! You all probably have the pictures, for I also have them hanging on the wall, in my office at church. It was the divine presence of the Lord that produced that growth. It was a supernatural growth! And this was not a mystical event! We are talking of a modern day reality! That is why today, we have the photos of that supernatural event as solid proof! The angel of the Lord stood on the left side of Brother Branham, revealed in that same photo shot, shrouded in a cloudy form, whilst Jesus Christ our Lord stood directly behind the prophet, with his two hands stretched out towards the prophet, and with streaks of fire coming forth from him to the prophet, who was now shrouded in that glorious supernatural presence. God is awesome! That plant had to grow! It immediately grew! God is simply an awesome God, for He is indeed the author of life! Halleluyah! That event in 1958, is a reality of our day, how God caused a plant to grow supernaturally and tremendously, right in a divine service; that is right under the anointing presence of the Spirit of the Lord! And likewise in that day in Genesis chapter 4, God's divine presence, by His anointing, increased the stature of Cain, until he became a monster of a being, a giant, a highly intimidating being! And then, look at you, as a normal statured human being, you want to kill a giant, and then he looks at you, "Do you want to kill me?!" Church, you are looking way up at that huge monster, and he is looking so way down on you. If he blows wind, you will feel it, for it will be like a hurricane! That is a figurative way of expressing something! It just means, if he handles you, you will die sevenfold! Because he will not simply kill you so that you die easily. He is not going to snuff out your life just like that! He will make you pay! Exactly! That is where the sevenfold vengeance comes into play. He will twist your arm, break your leg, break your back; he will break you bone to bone! You imagine what the impact would be; the terrible agony and pain you will suffer, before you eventually give up the ghost! How do I know that? Because of what the Bible says!

Verse 15: “And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” Watch. And for this reason, “And the Lord set A MARK UPON CAIN...” Why? “...LEST ANY FINDING HIM SHOULD KILL HIM.” In other words, lest anyone should attempt it! It speaks of an attempt!

Therefore, the mark was a means of deterrence; a mark that would deter men from doing Cain bodily harm! Then, it means, the mark had to be a physical thing which human beings can see, and take instruction, knowing it would be suicidal, attempting to kill Cain! Precisely! Because of his gigantic stature! And as such, the mark is definitely not a spiritual mark; it is not an anointing, as earlier laid out, for that would give Cain, God's Spirit, knowing that in verse 16, he walked away from God's divine presence, never again to walk with God, and being banished from God's presence. Moreover, a man cannot defy God, and walk out from God's divine presence in defiance, and follow his own way, and have God's abiding presence at the same time. You cannot do that! So, the mark was not an anointing. It was not! You should be able to see that! And neither was it a physical mark God put on his forehead, so that people could see a sign on Cain's forehead, warning them off! That is plain carnality! There is no sign on a man's forehead that can scare anybody! And neither can the colour of a man's flesh scare anybody! I repeat: The colour of Cain's flesh could not have deterred anybody, for there is no deterrence in the colour of anyone's skin, white, black, or yellow! Exactly! But if a man should weigh about 700 - 900 pounds, being a giant of a man, even if he bashes into you by accident, you are the one that will be quick to say, I am sorry, lest he takes offence! Exactly! Wisdom will tell you to say sorry real quick, in case he thinks you are the one that knocked into him! Precisely! That is the truth! On the authority of Genesis chapter 4, verse 15, the Mark of Cain was his gigantic stature. Verse 15 therefore is the basis of my revelation, but it is not the only base, for it is written, that out of the mouth of two or more witnesses, shall the truth be established. That is what the Scriptures say! But nevertheless, verse 15 gives us the first clue, for it gives us an insight into what the mark of Cain was. Our next Scriptural clue will seal this issue, for a true revelation of God must be vindicated by the Word of God, for the Word of God, is the sole test of truth. Amen.

Thus far, one thing has been established: God increased Cain's stature supernaturally that day, and made a giant out of him, by His Spirit. He immediately became a giant of a fellow, the very same way God supernaturally changed his dad (the Serpent) into a snake, right there in divine presence, in Genesis 3:14. Praise the Lord! But what is my second witness, a seal to this revelation? It is right there in the Scriptures! Let us take a close look at Genesis chapter 6 verse 1: "And it came to pass, when men" (plural) "began to multiply on the face of the earth" (When men, the line of Cain, began to multiply on the face of the earth), "and daughters were born unto them..." These were daughters of the lineage of Cain. "That the Sons of God," the Sethite line, which is the Adamic lineage, "saw the daughters of men." And in case this message falls into the hands of those out there (i.e. in the Christian religious world), or it falls into the hands of someone just coming in from the cold (i.e. from the cold and dark religious organized world), let me clarify this issue. The Sons of God here were distinguished from the mere men. Here the Bible gives us two distinct classes of men: The Sons of God, and men who had daughters. This is Bible language. I said, here in verse 2, we have two categories of men. We have those, the Word of God call, the Sons of God, and we also have men who had daughters born unto them! Hence, "the daughters of men". These were not daughters of the Sons of God, but daughters of men, daughters of carnal men! I repeat: We have Sons of God, and we also have here, daughters of men. In other words, men who had daughters! These were carnal or fleshly men! But the Sons of God saw daughters of men, not daughters of the Sons of God, but daughters of men! You are seeing two classes of humanity! Precisely! But who are they? You are looking at the lineage of the Sons of God, the Sethite line, for God appointed Seth in the place of Abel, to carry on Adam's lineage, for all inheritance purposes. You are also looking at the lineage of Cain, the serpent seeds, who are carnal men, earth-bound people, being fleshly creatures. These two lineages give us the two lines of humanity we see here in Genesis chapter 6. That is that. Now the Bible says: "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply..." A time when mere men began to multiply; the Cainite line began to have a population explosion starting from the land of Nod. Are you with me? "...when men began to multiply, and daughters" (daughters galore) "were born unto them..." We have a predominance of the female population being born in the Cainite line. "That the Sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose." Mixed marriages started! The Sethite line began to marry into the Cainite line! The Sons of God began to marry the daughters of men! "And the Lord said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years." Watch verse 4: "There were giants in the earth in those days." I take that again: "There were giants"

(plural) “in the earth in those days.....” Which days? The days before the mixed marriages! Absolutely! We will take that verse again. Please pay attention, for this verse holds the second clue, the second witness, and it is the clincher: “There were giants in the earth in those days;” (semi-colon), “AND” (conjunction) “also AFTER THAT.....” (After what? After those days in verse 1 which gave us the era of giants!). We will take verse 4 again: “There were giants in the earth IN THOSE DAYS.....” Which days? The days we are given in verse 1, for verse 4A connects with verse 1! We must realize that the mixed marriages did not start overnight! It did not! There was first a population explosion in the earth among the Cainite line, before the Sons of God started taking the daughters of men! Precisely! Verse 1 reveals that! “And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them” (When the population explosion was taking place in the Cainite line, leading to female abundance, then and only then) “That the Sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose”! (Then mixed marriages started)! Precisely! Verse 4 now reveals: “There were giants in the earth in those days.” Which days? Verse 1 days! Days before the mixed marriages! It refers to the days when men began to multiply on the face of the earth! Who were multiplying on the face of the earth? The Cainite line! Absolutely! Taking the entire verse should now open up to you, if you love the truth, and if you have eyes to see. I say that because not everyone has eyes to see, for no matter how plain truth is made, non-seeds will not accept it, for they are like bats. Verse 4: “There were giants in the earth in those days.....” (when Cainite men began to multiply on the face of the earth according to verse 1); “and also AFTER THAT” (i.e. there were also giants after that. When?) “when the Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men” (when the Sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, according to verse 2, and mixed marriages started), “and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.” Let us hold it for a while. Moses reveals: “THERE WERE GIANTS IN THE EARTH IN THOSE DAYS” (Which days? Days before mixed marriages started!) “AND ALSO AFTER THAT” (That simply means there were also giants in the earth when mixed marriages started)! There were not only giants in those days in which the Cainite line started multiplying, producing an abundance of daughters, there were also giants “after that, when the Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men!” That is clear! In verse 4A, we are seeing a population of giants in those days, when the Cainite line was multiplying, as revealed in verse 1. We are not looking at a one-off scenario, where maybe one giant was born here, and one giant was born there. We are looking at a population of giants! When were these giants born? These giants were born in the earth before the Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men! THUS SAITH THE WORD OF GOD! They were produced in abundance before the mixed marriages started! Precisely! Richard Gan said the giants started strictly when the mixed marriages started. But that is a lie, because Genesis chapter 6 verse 4A, clearly and plainly tells us, giants were born in the earth in those days, when the Cainite line were multiplying on the earth! Exactly! But additionally, “After that!” “And also after that” (i.e. additionally, there were giants), “when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.” What does that show you? It shows you when mixed marriages started between the Sethite line, and the Cainite line, it also produced giants, as a result of the genetic imbalance! But before the mixed marriages started, there were already giants in the earth! Precisely! So you are looking at two dispensations: The era before mixed marriages, and the era after mixed marriages. But both dispensations or eras, gave us a population of giants! Richard Gan should be able to see that, regardless of the punctuation used in this verse, for this is the verse that establishes the revelation of the Mark of Cain! Exactly! So, church of the living God, how can he say he has a revelation, and deny a truth of the Bible?! That is impossible! How can God deal with a man, to give him a true revelation, and the man would deny the truth of that Scripture, particularly, when that Scripture forms the very basis for the revelation?! It is written: “To the law and to the testimony: If they speak not according to this Word, it is because there is no light in them” (Isaiah 8: 20). May I tell you this, when you have a true revelation, your revelation will not nullify or deny any verse of Scripture. It will not! True revelation will allow every verse on the issue to have its say. When you take a revelation from Genesis, you must be able to take it through to Revelation without forming a block. If it forms a block against any Scripture, you do not have a revelation, and God has obviously not dealt with you, because you cannot use a truth to knock out another truth of the Bible! That is confusion! And you cannot use your revelation to knock out a verse of the Bible, because every verse of Scripture must have its say, because it is all inspired, and all has its input, particularly a verse which forms the basis for the revelation of the Mark of Cain! Precisely! But Richard Gan is denying Genesis 6:4A! He says giants started only with mixed marriages! But to say that is to deny the revelation of the Mark of Cain! Absolutely! To say that is to take away the truth of the Mark of Cain! Why do I say that? Because this verse, verse 4A, forms the very basis, for the revelation he says he has, and yet, he is denying the very Scripture! And if as he claims, mixed marriages between the Sethite line and the Cainite line, was what produced giants, just how will he then show that Cain was a giant, and that he produced giants?! Precisely! Yet, until he can show us by the Scriptures, that Cain was transformed into a giant, and also show by the Scriptures, that he fathered giants as a result, he is only making mere statements! Absolutely! And that clearly shows, he has no revelation of anything! I say that with respect, for we are nothing in ourselves. We are what we are by the grace of God! But mere statements do not establish a truth! It is obvious he does not know the implication of denying Genesis chapter 6, verse 4A giants! But the Word of God declares, In those days, there were giants in the earth, before the Sons of God started taking notice of the Cainite daughters! Satan had to brew up the Cainite line first, before he could carry out his onslaught, to bring about mixed marriages! Precisely! This produced an abundance of daughters to the Cainites. But it also produced giants! You are looking at a natural population of giants!

Then we have to ask, Where did these giants come from? Did they jump down from heaven? Where did they come from? We have to ask! It is the material question! Who fathered them? Saints of God, we can only look to the line of Cain, because there were only two lines of humanity in the earth, in this beginning: The Cainite line, and the Sethite line. Period! There were no other class of humanity! And if Seth did not produce giants, until mixed marriages started, then Cain did! Exactly! I said, If the line of Seth did not produce giants, until they went into mixed marriages, after seeing the abundance of beautiful Cainite daughters, then who produced the giants that abounded in the earth, before the Sethite line went into the Cainite line? That leaves us with only one lineage! It does! It has to be the lineage of Cain! And it can only be the lineage of Cain! And it was the line of Cain! Absolutely! Why? Because, church, the giants had to have a genetic progenitor! Wake up! They had to have a father! They did not jump down from heaven! I say wake up! Moreover, we are already told in verse 1, that “when men” (the Cainite line) “began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them”, verse 4A adds, “there were giants in the earth in those days!” They were giants in the lineage of Cain! Absolutely! Thus saith the Word of God! These giants had nothing to do with the Sethite line as yet! We are told in these two verses, that Cain's lineage produced giants in those days! Period! I did not say Cain produced only giants. No! Cain produced giants, but he also produced normal statured people alongside of giants, because he even had an abundance of daughters! So we are looking at a class of people who were giants, giants who were being born by everyday common birth, which gave this earth a population of giants, alongside normal statured people, by common everyday birth. It was not an isolated event, or a one-off scenario, of one lone giant, as I formerly stated. You are looking at a population of giants in the earth, side by side normal statured human beings! I ask again, Where did they come from? Church, there are only two streams of life, only two seeds of humanity, Cain and Seth; and this was at the beginning of man, and Seth did not produce giants, until mixed marriages started. Yet, there were giants in the earth before mixed marriages started, even though the mixed marriages also produced giants. Then we have to consider, just where those giants came from. You have to look strictly at the Cainite line, and that is precisely what the Scriptures say, when we add verse 1, to verse 4A! Precisely! The Bible answered this question! These giants did not jump down from heaven! They had to have a progenitor! And they had! And it was Cain! Moreover, it is the absolute law of reproduction, that every seed brings forth after his kind. Precisely! Then we must now ask, knowing we have to look only at one lineage, the lineage of Cain: How can Cain produce giants, if he was not a giant? Church of the living God, there is only one way for him to produce giants, before the mixed marriages started, which also produced giants, due to the genetic imbalance it created. As such, God had to have touched him, and transformed him into a giant. Precisely! That is the only way Cain could have fathered giants, as verses 1 and 4A reveal. And when God transformed him into a giant (remember this is genetic), everything about him was transformed along, his legs and arms, his hands, his height, build, intellect, etc, (Are you with me?), including the seed in his loins! As his stature was increased, so was his genetic constitution, and so was the seed in his loins, for every seed brings forth after its kind! When God transformed the father of Cain (the Serpent) into a snake, the seeds in his loins was transformed along, that he may bring forth after his kind, so as to exist to be in the Millennium! Precisely! And so also, when God transformed Cain, the seed of the Serpent, the seeds he held in his loins, were touched correlatively as well! The seed he bore in his loins, was increased along, that he may bear after his own kind! Absolutely! As such, you have to see, since Cain fathered giants, he had to have been transformed himself into one first. Amen. And that takes you right back to Genesis 4: 15!

Saints of God, the mark God set on Cain, was his transformation into a giant. But not only was he transformed into a giant, a very intimidating fellow, the seed he bore in his loins, was also transformed, so he could produce after his kind, to preserve the lineage of Cain. This was what produced the giants in verse 4A, for God's law of genetics, which demands that everything must bring forth after its kind, is staring you in the face. God transformed Cain into a giant in Genesis chapter 4, verse 15. And by so doing, the seeds he bore in his loins, were also genetically given the capacity to give birth to giants. Brothers and sisters, Cain being transformed into a giant, and also having seeds who were giants, ensured the preservation of his own lineage. Nobody would dare touch him, because it would make no sense trying to do so, because he would simply crush the person bone for bone, by virtue of the brute stature and power he possessed. Moreover, as earlier laid out, in considering chapter 6, verse 4A, you are not looking at a one-off scenario of the birth of a giant, which can happen through genetic imbalance, when, once in a while, something runs out of sync. You are looking at a natural population of giants in the earth. That gigantic and highly intimidating stature God gave Cain, was a serious deterrent for any man who would want to kill him! But do not also forget, Cain did not give birth only to giants. He was able to father a population of giants, alongside normal statured people. How do I know that? I touched on it earlier on. Genesis chapter 6, verses 1 and 4A does not say everyone born was a giant! There were also daughters! It only says giants were born! It does not give us the number, although there were lots of them! Therefore, it was not an exclusive birth of only giants! Otherwise, the Cainite daughters would not have had such a great appeal to the Sethite lineage! Precisely! You should see that! The physical appeal the Cainite daughters had, was so much, that the Sethite sons began to take them for wives, enmass! They could not have enough of them! But if they were all gigantic looking daughters, the Sethite lineage would not have been that much attracted, if they would be attracted at all. Exactly! But the Bible says "they were fair"! They were beautiful! Exactly! Let me give you another example to seal this point. Look at Ham, one of the sons of Noah. He is the father of the entire African race, but he also fathered the Canaanites who were giants, the sons of Anak, the Philistines, and all such people! But Ham produced a normal statured people like you and I! Exactly! But he also produced a race of giants alongside normal statured people he also fathered! Not every Philistine was a giant! If Ham could have that capacity, and the Word of God cannot be broken, why would you deny Cain the ability to father children, who also look normal in stature? Exactly! Moreso that the devil's objective had to be fostered! And as such, Cain produced giants, alongside normal statured people. The daughters that were born to them, sure were not all giants! But some were giants, whilst some were normal statured people! But all belonged to Cain's lineage. Brothers and sisters, nobody could fight them. They were a terror! Are you with me? Look at the days of king Saul. There was a giant, Goliath by name, in 1 Samuel chapter 17. For forty days, he gave a challenge to the hosts of Israel, and no military general in Israel could dare face him. Everybody turned into a chicken, even as it is written in verse 24 of that chapter: "And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, FLED FROM HIM, AND WERE SORE AFRAID." It took a David, a man with a revelation, an anointing of God, to withstand Goliath. But the Philistines were not all like Goliath in size! Exactly! But Goliath was also their own brother, and so he stood for their defense, and was also the instrument of their offence! So also, Cain bore a population of giants alongside normal statured people whom he also fathered, and that population of giants was their wall of defense, and a means of deterrence. That was the objective of God in Genesis 4 :15!

What is the Mark of Cain? Church, you take Genesis chapter 6, verses 1 and 4A, and place it under Genesis chapter 4 verse 15, and the Mark of Cain opens up to you. The Mark of Cain was his gigantic physique. God turned him into a giant, along with the seeds in his loins, and by so doing, he was feared and preserved, and consequently, he was also able to father a population of giants, alongside normal statured people. Nowhere better demonstrates the effect, which the brute force and the most daunting and fearsome gigantic frame, Cain's appearance must have had on his would-be assailants; nowhere better demonstrates God's objective in Genesis 4:15, than in Numbers chapters 13 and 14 scenario. I want you to see what God meant in Genesis 4, verse 15, when He set a Mark on Cain: "And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the Lord set a Mark upon Cain, LEST ANY FINDING HIM SHOULD KILL HIM"; a preventive mark, and a mark that can ensure a sevenfold vengeance on would-be assailants (would-be attackers).

In Numbers chapter 13, when Moses sent twelve elders of the children of Israel to spy the land of Promise, Canaan land, they saw giants there. Twelve leaders went to spy the land of Promise, to bring back report, to lead Israel into God's promise. Out of the twelve elders, ten of them became chicken. Ten disbelieved God's Word, and stood against the word of promise. I said they stood against the word of promise! They defied the plan of salvation God ordained for Israel! Come with me to the Bible. Numbers chapter 13, from verse 26: "And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh..." The twelve elders had gone to spy the land, and they brought back report; they brought back evidence: "...and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land. And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there. The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan. And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are able to overcome it." A man of faith; a man with a revelation. Church, only two elders were faithful to God's Word. All the other leaders, they became chicken. They were unfaithful! The ten leaders went into unbelief, and stood against God's Word. Church, they spat at God's Word of salvation, and they rejected God's promise of victory. Only two men stood with the Word. Let that speak to you tonight. Only two men! All the other ministers compromised truth, and rejected God's plan of salvation. They defied it! Why? All because of giants! What does that show you? They never had faith in their souls! It took that encounter for God to bring out the unfaithfulness in their heart! It took the encounter with giants to show that they had no faith in God, and no faith in His plan of salvation! They only went along for a while! Now look at it. Caleb tried to still them, and say to them, “Look, we have a sure word of promise. We can overcome by faith.” Verse 31: “But the men...” These are the ten elders: “... that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we!” In other words, “Caleb, shut up! Shut up! Stop deceiving the people! You want to kill us?! Congregation, do not believe this man! He is a deceiver! We are telling you the truth, believe us!” Saints, let me also say this to you: Do not believe any man, believe only God's Word! I said, Saints of God, do not believe any man, but believe only God's Word! But if you would believe a man, then believe him only because he speaks God's Word! Amen! At the end of the day, what you would believe would not be men, but God's Word. You are under obligation only to truth, and you can only follow a man as long as he walks in truth, and presents truth. Otherwise, you must leave him. This is about eternal life! Use the Word of God to test the teachings of every man! This is about eternity! It is not a game! Only two ministers were faithful. The rest were compromisers, unfaithful men, unbelievers, who looked like true preachers, until the showdown came. God made sure they faced the sons of Anak, to bring out what was in them. God will bring all of us to the waters, to test what is in us. Verse 32: “And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof...” Why were they not dead then? How come they met people there? But listen to this, for this is where I am going: “...And all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. AND THERE WE SAW THE GIANTS” (plural), “the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.” And truly, they were grasshoppers! Spiritual grasshoppers! I have to say that, because we must ask, How come David did not see himself as a grasshopper?! How come he saw Goliath as a fly?! How come?! Yet, in physical stature, David was nothing compared to Goliath! But David saw the monstrosity of a man, this man-mountain, and saw him only as a dog! Verse 43 revealed that! (1 Samuel chapter 17). How come David did not see himself as a grasshopper? It was by faith! He had a revelation! And truly, these ten elders, these main leaders of Israel, these unfaithful ministers, these compromisers, these unbelievers, were spiritual grasshoppers! Exactly! That was their confession, and that was really what they were! Church, it is written, We have not received the spirit of fear, but of boldness, of courage, and of a sound mind. Church, faith will pull down every mountain! By faith, we cast down every mountain of human reasoning and of the devil! We pull down the stronghold of the enemy, and bring every high and proud thought into subjection, and in obedience to truth! Their confession was that they were as grasshoppers: "In our sight we looked like grasshoppers, as well as in their sight." What a load of unbelievers! What stumbling blocks they were! And until this point, they looked like believers! They looked like they loved Jehovah! They looked like they believed God's plan of salvation for Israel! They looked like they longed to get to the Promise land! They looked like seeds! And they were the leaders of Israel! But this was a time of showdown. As God gave a showdown to Cain, God gave them a showdown. It was a serious one. Let me tell you now, in case you are not aware: There is a serious showdown going on right now, in the continuity light movement of Brother Jackson tonight; a serious showdown, and a lot of men have been derailed, just as the ten elders. They are present day unbelievers, who never believed the continuity truth, but it looked like they did. They preached like they did. They ran the roads like they did, until the showdown came for truth. They threw down the Sword of the Spirit, and started peddling foolishness, denying truth, and also throwing mud, instead of preaching the Word of life, showing indeed, that they were not meant to walk this way! They are nothing but spiritual grasshoppers! God had to anoint His Caleb and Joshua of today! He had to anoint His little David, and today, by God's grace, two men have also been able to stand in the gap, and say, "We are more than able!... God gave it to us!... This is the Word of God!... Stay with the plot!... This is the plan of God's salvation!... Apostles will lead the way in this era!" Let me say this firmly: T A K E A W A Y A P O S T O L I C HEADSHIP, AND YOU HAVE NOTHING! The church cannot move forward without apostles! She cannot! Are you listening to me? The church cannot move forward one dime without apostles! Not because we say so, but because it is God's provided way, and the chief apostle warned us on it, much enough for anyone to come and deny it, because of their godless ambition, all borne out of the unbelief in their heart. They had to stand against truth, and preach fear unto the people, instead of preaching truth. Numbers chapter 14, verses 1-4 continues the wilderness scenario: "And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would God we had died in this wilderness! And wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? Were it not better for us to return into Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." Church, look at the effect on the congregation! Yet, the congregation all heard the word of Moses! They knew the promise! They saw God on mount Sinai! They saw all the miracles! Oh my! But look at the influence of the majority of the unbelieving ministry that followed Moses! Look at their influence! The problem has always been that of leadership! And the problem in the entire Branham movement today is leadership! That is why God always gets Himself faithful men who are not looking for fame, or for popularity; men who do not care for the spotlight! They care for truth, and that is all they care for, because it is about watching over these precious souls Christ died for! And woe betide the man who would cause a stumbling to a seed of God! It would be better for him to hang a millstone around his neck, and jump into the ocean, than to wait for the day of judgment. Woe betide that man! This is a battle for life, a battle for precious souls for whom Christ died! It is certainly not a personal issue! Everybody should understand that! After all, nobody has stolen my food, and nobody has taken my wife. Are you listening to me? Church, I say all that to say this: I have nothing personal against anybody. But I must stand for the truth of the Word of God, and also stand against falsehood, and unfounded teachings of men, for we are in a battle for life. It is not a game! Lucifer is not joking with anybody! Therefore, stay in the light, and use the Bible to test every man. Please!

Look at the effect those ten elders had, those ten ministers, those ten leaders of Israel. Look at the effect they had on the whole congregation. They derailed the movement! Think about it! It is repeating tonight. Oh my! They began to cry, "Ooh!... Ooh!... Moses, you are going to kill us... Moses, you are deceiving us... How can you do this?... You have no love for us..." Moses became a horrible man, all because of ten elders! Moses suddenly became a man without love, just because he always stayed with God's Word! The whole congregation went into unbelief! They disbelieved God's Word, and they bought a lie of men ruled and inspired by the devil! These ten elders were tare preachers! I said they were the seeds of Cain! It was a mixed leadership Israel had, and God was going to show it out! Until this day, all of them looked like faithful men, ministers, who believed Moses' revelation. So they looked! "They wept all night." What unbelief! Look at verse 2 again: "And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would God we had died in this wilderness! And wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? Were it not better for us to return to Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." What height of unbelief! And who brought the congregation to disbelieve God? The leaders! The ministers! It is the same tonight. Open your eyes! The leaders of the continuity movement of Brother

Jackson, have brought the same condition upon the people tonight. History is repeating itself. And that is why tonight, you can present truth as much as you want to these people, a people who once followed Brother Jackson in his light, they no longer want it. They do not want it, and they do not care for it in the least! Why? Leadership! Church, I say again, Woe betide the man that would form a stumbling block to one of these little seeds of God, to stumble them on the way of life! It is better for him, Jesus said, to hang a millstone around his neck, and throw himself in the ocean, than to wait for that day. They can smile now; they will gnash their teeth then, if they do not repent! Church, you know the result. God swore in His wrath they would never enter the promised land. And God told Moses, "Make a U-turn, turn around!" They were facing the promised land before. But now, God said, "Turn back, and face Egypt!" And a journey of a mere forty days, was turned into a journey of forty long years! Church, they could see the promised land right in front of them, and they were made to take a detour, and were going round and round, encompassing the mountain, as God ensured that they fell one by one, for their unbelief. They were falling one by one, according to the Word of God, following the message of the hour, the message of Moses! Oh my! And when Jesus came, they said, "Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness." And Jesus said to them: "They ate it and they are all dead!" Eternally separated! God swore they would not enter His rest! They failed to enter the promised land; they failed to enter Canaan; and they will not be there in heaven! Why? Because of unbelief! That is why Paul warned in Hebrews chapter 3, Let there not be anyone of you with a heart of unbelief. And do not let any minister preach truth away from you. That is why you are under responsibility to search out the truth for yourself, because every man will bear his own burden, and there will be no excuse for not walking in the light. Find out the truth! Search it out! We will not tell anybody not to read any book, because you do not know what medium God can use to open your eyes. It is good to even know what is going on out there. It is good to know. It will make you appreciate the grace of God in your life. It is even good to know what other men are preaching out there, for it helps you see what snares the devil is casting out there, so you can use the Word of God to show the deception to your people, in order to arm them with the truth! Reading other materials sometimes lets you appreciate what God has done for you, because revelation opens your eye to the foolishness of men, if your soul is robed with the revelation of the Scriptures of truth. Exactly! Church, let me ask this, What led these ten elders to come to that point where they did not care anymore for God's plan of salvation for Israel, that they rejected God's masterplan? God's promise of salvation, they threw away. They said, "Let us go back to Egypt! Away with the word of Moses!" It is like saying, "Away with the Bible!... I do not care what Brother

Branham says!... I do not care what Brother Jackson says!... Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! You will find out one of these days. You will find out, that when God raised up a prophet to this age, and sent a chief apostle, He was not playing a game. He was not playing a game. You will find out one of these days! I do not say that to you my precious brethren. You know it is going on tape, and the opposition will surely listen to it. They will! They will later find out this is not a game. It is a battle for life. I do not say that to be arrogant. I do not say that to be mean. I do not say that to put fear in anybody's mind, because fear cannot put revelation into your heart. Moreover, truth does not put fear in God's people. Truth only rejoices the heart, for there is stimulation in revelation. Revelation brings joy into the heart of God's people, and is a yoke breaker! It is an anchor! You know, you know, you know! Nothing else will God approve, but what you are holding to, and if anybody is going to make it in, in any part of this globe, he is going to have to believe just like you, because the standard of God is one. Halleluyah! The revelation of God is one. Truth is truth, whether in Japan, in Norway, in Mexico, in Nigeria, in South Africa, in Canada, or in Australia, I do not care. There is only one standard of truth, for truth is truth! So at the end of the day, we must ask, How come these people refused God's plan of salvation, and decided to go back to Egypt, and even dared to make a captain for themselves? That is the question! What activated all that? They saw giants! They saw giants! The terror of the giants they saw, was so great upon them, the terror of the giants they saw, made them throw away the Bible, throw away God's plan, throw away everything, so much so that they longed for the land of bondage! The fear of the sons of Anak, who were giants! Oh my! They saw giants! They saw giants! What a terror the mere appearance of these giants had on the Israelites. Seeing the sons of Anak was all God needed to do to show their unbelief; to show who they really were, spiritually, to you and I.

They were tare leaders! They were tare preachers! They set a type of the tares following this way, but are not meant for this way! At the end of the day, they all derailed! And that was why Cain also walked out of God's presence. He walked away from divine presence. And that really shows how much value he placed on eternal life; how much value and love he had for God. You know he had none! He had none! And look at these ten elders with the congregation. They showed how much value they placed on God's plan of salvation, and on God's Word. The fear of giants, was what God used to bring separation in that day, in the following of Moses.

Saints, I appreciate your patience. I am at the close of my message. But look at it, we are at the junction of time tonight, when the Bride of Christ is facing the same reality. Then I ask, What will you believe? And who will you believe? Will you believe the testimony of men who are like ten elders, men who control the majority of the people following the continuity message of Brother Jackson, so-to-say? Or will you believe Joshua and Caleb, who are sounding the sound of God's pure Word? Will you believe the confused voices of these men in the Branham movement? Or will you believe the Scriptures? You are under obligation to search out the truth for yourself. I say to you tonight as we close, If you walk with God faithfully in the light of His Word, there is no harm that will come to you. But rather, you will see the glory of God. If you have a true love for God in your soul, and a love of truth, God will keep you from the wicked one. I have to warn you tonight: The demons have been released into the human society. They have taken over human society tonight. That is why you have disasters breaking out on every hand. Look to Jesus Christ! Hide in His Word! Hide in the revelation of Jesus! That is your only place of security. I did not say trust in a man! I said, hide in God's Word! That is your place of refuge. But God uses men, to convey the revelation of His Word. But the standard or test, is the Word of God. Therefore, use that Word to judge all men. The stature of the sons of Anak, was what brought these unbelieving congregation to disbelieve God. They were so afraid of these giants, not even the Word of promise of the Almighty God, God who made the Universe, made a difference to them. Church, I said the fear of mere mortals, giants, was so enormous, only because they had no revelation. I say that because, how come David saw the same giant class, and cared less for his stature? How come Joshua and Caleb saw the same giants they spoke of, and cared less for them? How come Joshua and Caleb believed God's Word, and believed they could overcome? How come Joshua and Caleb stayed with the Word of God? And church, come to think of it, at the end of the day, did Israel not overcome those giants, and take over their land? You know they did! You know they eventually did, under the leadership of Joshua, a man whose ministry, in relation to the Priests and Levites, stands for the headship of the Ephesian ministry, for it stands for the apostolic head of the five fold ministry, which

God ordained for today.

The Mark of Cain was his gigantic stature. God turned him into a giant. And God also touched his loins, and by that transformation, he could transfer that DNA, that genetic trait he bore, to his seeds, to also produce giants, and his seeds also bore giants. Even in Ham's race, who was one of the three sons of Noah, we also see a population of giants, the sons of Anak, alongside normal statured people. Brothers and sisters, the Mark of Cain, was one that acted as a restraint, to any possible assailants of Cain. A mark that acted as a means of caution, is what you have to look at. The mark was something that ensured physical intimidation and discouragement, as it made people think again before trying to touch Cain. Why do I say that? Genesis chapter 4 verse 15 reveals that objective of God! The Mark of Cain was his gigantic stature, the same stature we saw in the sons of Anak, and the panic it created in the congregation of Israel. Cain's Mark was his brute physical size; but what terror it brought!

 What terror it created!
 What fear it caused! How do I know that? Genesis 4:15, plus Genesis 6:1-4, all fuse together, to reveal the truth of the Mark of Cain, the father of giants; the genetic progenitor of a lineage which produced giants; for his Mark was his huge stature. And that was why he could father a lineage of giants, which we see in Genesis chapter 6, verses 1 and 4A. That is the Word of the Lord. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

May the Lord bless you.
