

The Scribe

"Every Scribe which is instructed unto the Kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old" - Matthew 13:52

THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE

This message was preached by Brother Amos, on Thursday, 11th January, 2007, at Bible Faith Tabernacle, Lagos, Nigeria. It is a warning to us, of the pitfalls we face, walking in this Continuity light. Let us hold on to the knowledge, that there is only one true faith, and one true body, for our God is one.

Good evening church. May the Lord bless you. We want to let you know that work is going on in earnest, with the production of The Scribe magazine. We are now three quarters through with the production of the first or maiden message we are bringing out in The Scribe, for it is in five parts, titled, The Foundation Of The Fivefold Ministry. It is allotted for this month of January, 2007, and we are trusting the Lord to help us, because we have to finish it before we go on to India on Tuesday, so that the first batch of Scribes allotted for this month can go. When we come back, it will not be as tasking as it is right now. We covet your prayers for the publication. Please remember the Printers, and all those that are working on The Scribe magazine. I am talking about all the Scribe staff. Today, as we sat in my office, I was telling Brother Albert Matimbe, a visiting brother from Zimbabwe, that if you go to the Voice of God Recording in the United States, they are very busy every day, printing the Sermon books. And for all these years since the prophet passed away, they have been doing just that, night and day, year in, year out. Nobody is going to go there and say, "You people, what are you doing? Why are you doing this? Stop this production." They have to do that! The only shame though, is that they cannot see Continuity. Because the unfolding or the unveiling of God's plan of salvation goes on, for it is continuous, and it certainly will keep going on, until salvation is fully and completely accomplished! What a beauty it would have been, if they could only take what they have, and marry it to what God is currently giving in this day and hour. Nevertheless, they are doing a good job, getting the Sermon books out. And today, there are people who are also busy working on The Contender magazine, to get it out to God's people. It is not something that is done once in a while, for it is a full time work. Some people have got to do it. It is serving God's purpose, and it is a lot of dedication, a lot of sacrifice, and a lot of commitment, that goes into producing it. And so will it be with The Scribe magazine. It will not take any lesser d e d i c a t i o n a n d commitment. It will take everything! So, I take it as something that is most important, being a serious work; not because it is a message that I am preaching, but because it is the truth, the absolute truth of the Word of God. It is Christ's progressive light, and as such, the Continuing revelation of Jesus Christ needs to go out, for the edification of the universal body of saints, as God sets the pace. Six months ago, we did not think about The Scribe. We did not! A lot of times, God uses circumstances to get His people into doing precisely what He needs them to do. For instance, when Brother Jackson was on ground, we did not intend going on the web. But here came January 16th, 2005, and here came an outrageous judgment of the only book at that time, which showed the precise position of Brother Jackson, within the entire body of ministry, in God's revealed plan, for the end time bride of Jesus Christ. The present day ministers of Faith Assembly, the men who took over that local assembly from Brother Jackson, declared: "Faith Assembly is not where you will get this book." All the books Brother Jackson had asked his own son-in-law to put on the Website of Faith Assembly, and which were on the Website of Faith Assembly, books we had written: When God Lifts Up A Standard; and Does Raymond Jackson Believe The Message?; they took them out. Then we realized we had to set up our own website, and put the books back out there, for as I said in that day, they do not have the monopoly on the web! So, circumstances were what God used to put us on the Internet, for we did not dream of it. And that is how God leads His people many times. So, we put those books back on the internet. But then, here came all the stones they were throwing, and all the mud, and the tearing down of truth at their Convention at Faith Assembly, muddling the picture of truth. Again, we were forced by circumstances, not by our design, not by our choice, but by circumstances thrust on us, to make a response, in order to rebutt those things they were peddling at Faith Assembly, for they were false, being anti-Truth. Brothers and sisters, we not only put out my book titled, "My Defense", on the revelation of "He That Is To Come", God also helped us to put other books out there, for which we have been having lovely and encouraging letters from various parts of the world, thanking us and appreciating the materials we have put out there.

People are writing in, saying, "Brother Amos, we appreciate these books. They are eye openers. Please, we want all the books which you have published." These are people we do not even know! We produced a book titled, The Way Of Every Lighthouse. It presents a stark truth, a reality of something we are now facing with respect to Faith Assembly, showing the degenerate pathway they are bound to take. If only people would open their eyes, and bury their heads in the Bible, they will certainly see something, just as Brother Alvin Suggs said! And out came another book titled, How Far Are We Into The Fivefold Ministry? And that is a truth of where we are in the establishment of the substantive original ministry of the bride. Deny it if you ever will, it is still the truth! And after that, here came our book on Headship. And when I wrote Headship, I said that would be it, for it resolves the issues on the ground. But then, here came their projection at Faith Assembly that, "A man can have 99% truth and 1% error. Brother Amos has 99% truth; but the 1% error in his message, we will not stand for it." This bunch of hypocrites! Brother Brian

Neill, a white American brother living in the Jeffersonville area, who was once at Faith Assembly for over two decades, called me up. He said, "Brother Amos, I feel moved to write on this thing called 1% error, and all the nonsense!" I said, "Brother, I appreciate your stand, but this is a doctrinal issue. Leave it for God, and leave it for the ministry." But here I was one night. I had a dealing of the Spirit of God. And when I woke up, I knew I was going to write a book on it, and I knew exactly what the title would be: Revelation, Tares, and 99% Truth. Again, it was borne out of adversity. I called the brother, and said, "My brother, the Lord has dealt with me yesterday night, and I am writing a book on that issue, and this is the title." He was so happy, and out came the book, written to tie every loose end concerning what has been going on since the passing away of the chief apostle, to give an explanation for all the madness. Church, as far as I was concerned, I decided within me just to stand in this little corner where God has placed me, and stand firmly for truth, and follow God's leadership wherever He would lead, knowing assuredly that there is Continuity of God's revelation, for it is ever progressive! Because our Lord Jesus is not dead! He was dead, but he rose up from the grave, and he is alive forevermore! And as such, he is still revealing himself to his bride, from the pages of this same good old black Book we call the Bible! And there is Continuity of revelation for today, in the year 2007! Thus, brothers and sisters, on this solid ground of faith we all stood, firmly and categorically, since Brother Jackson passed away. However, as far as I was concerned, since God had been helping me to write books, I decided I would keep on writing books, as God inspires. I have two other books I want to write, but I am waiting on God for the inspiration for them, and for leadership, for it takes God. If I do not get the inspiration and leadership for them, I will leave them on the shelf. It is not that I do not know what to write; it is that it takes God to make the difference. But if all you want to do is just write something, then, you can write what you want and when you want. God will use it though; but you will receive no reward for it. For it is written in Romans Chapter 8, verse 14: "For

AS MANY AS ARE LED by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.” There is leadership in everything. Consequently, if whatever any man writes is to serve God's purpose, and be a blessing for His own children, and something for which one can expect a full reward, then, you will wait on the Lord to inspire you to write, and to determine what you write, when you write it, and how you write it. He will take it and use it as it pleases Him, and He will move it around the world as it pleases Him, for He alone rules the kingdom.

Saints, I am talking about leadership, divine leadership. Not everything comes through visions, and dreams, and audible voices; for many times, God leads us, using the situations and circumstances we face, to move us into His will. I remember Brother Bola Omooba was telling me, he said, “Brother Amos, why don't we have an internet set-up just like Faith Assembly, so people can log on to our live services?” I said, “No, Brother B. The Internet platform of Brother Jackson has served God's purpose, for God allowed it to be established, when Brother Jackson could no longer travel around the world, on account of his wife's health, that he may still be able to address the universal bride. But I could also see its abuse by local assemblies who are using it to reject live ministries, particularly that of the pastoral ministry. For me, that is not the way forward; we need a live ministry, so that God's plan for the fivefold ministry is not defeated, and so that the saints may also have the right attitude towards the gathering of the saints.” That was a good suggestion though, and if I had agreed, my brother and the saints would have done everything possible to make it a reality. But my refusal also shows the state of my heart, for I am not seeking to be seen and known around the world; I am not seeking to make a name. There is a vision that guides the ministry of truth. No, you cannot say that to the people out there, because as far as they are concerned, everybody is making a name! And as true as it is on a general level, the truth also remains that somebody somewhere has to be true, for God never leaves Himself without a true witness on the earth. Exactly! Furthermore, there has also got to be a people somewhere that are true, a people God has reserved to Himself, though the whole religious world may be full of people seeking to make a name for themselves! The Branham Movement said the same thing to Raymond Jackson. They said, “You are trying to make a name... You should be handing out Sermon books and preaching Sermon books; not preaching your own message. You just want to make a name for yourself.” But so did the religious world also tell William Branham as well! They said: “You are trying to make a name. Who do you think you are? You cannot even speak English: How are you going to preach to kings? It is evil spirits showing you such visions. You need deliverance!” Brothers and sisters, what is important is that a man should be humble and faithful enough to follow God's leadership. He has to have enough sense and courage to do the will of God, and allow all the scoffers and skeptics to say what they want, because God will always vindicate His Word and His leading! Saints of God, we have been led into many things we are doing today by sheer circumstances used by God. We did not set out to do them, except to stand firmly and categorically for truth, the Continuing truth of Jesus Christ. Look at The Scribe Magazine. I was not going to produce The Scribe! It never entered my mind to get our messages in that format! I did not intend producing another medium like the Sermon books and The Contender! I remember when we were going to write the book, He That Is To Come. I had first preached the message before writing the book. Brother Bola, sincerely seeking to help, took it upon himself to transcribe that message from the audio tape, and edit it into a book. However, when he finished transcribing the message, he said to me: “Brother Amos, I cannot put this thing together. It is a different kettle of fish.” I said, “Yes, I know that my brother. Writing on spiritual matters, particularly in an age like this, being the final age, is a different kettle of fish.” I had wanted to do it the same way, and even had the message transcribed. But when I read it, I had to put it aside, and wait on God for leadership, and for inspiration. And since that time, I realized, book writing on spiritual matters, is a different kettle of fish. There is an anointing that also goes with it. Church, book writing is not my ministry. But in fulfilling my ministry, God has ordained and given me the grace to be able to write books; but book writing is not my ministry. My ministry is to stand for and in defense of truth, within the apostolic fold of the ministry; that is my ministry. I have not been sent to write books, but to be a guard for the Word, for this hour, holding a rein on truth which God has given today, from the pages of the Holy Scriptures. But in doing that, we will write books as God inspires, and when and if He inspires. Period! Then we heard the news that one of our brothers in the United States, Brother William Fletcher, an elderly ministering brother, and an African-American, was having our audio messages transcribed, because of the background noise, and also on account of the hearing problems he has. He was having problems hearing the tapes! So, when his wife, Sister Vernelle, told us that Brother Fletcher had gotten somebody to transcribe the tapes for him, it suddenly struck my heart, loud and clear: Why do we not take the audio message and put them in printed format? What if the message is butchered through transcribing in the United States, either on account of the background noise, or for lack of clarity of recording, or even on account of the limitation of the brother who would transcribe the message? Right there and then, I knew we would be transcribing the audio messages into printed messages. But look at it church, God is the one that orchestrated all the circumstances! This will show you only one thing: The fact that we are not seeking to make a name for ourselves, because it is not for our glory, but for the glory of God and of His church. Period! So, brothers and sisters, we have ended up doing all these things, because God used circumstances to push us into it, and by circumstances many times, God gets us to do His will. So here we are today with The Scribe, which is now with the printers. God be praised for His goodness and mercy, and for His infinite leadership in the light. Amen. It has been two years since Brother Jackson passed away. And now, TRUTH IS MOVING ON, and God has given it a vehicle called The Scribe. Glory be to God! Saints of God, all these things were not done to make a name. It was done strictly to make a stand, and to be faithful to God and to His truth. It was done in defense of truth! And it was conditions and circumstances that God used to bring us to each point. Yet, I know, the opposition and the unbelievers will always blight whatever God is doing. A child of God will just have to have enough sense to follow the leadership of the Spirit of God, and leave the rest to God, for truth will bear its fruits. So, brothers and sisters, I believe that The Scribe is the vehicle the Lord has given us in this assembly, to carry the light, the Continuing light of the Word of God, for the body of Christ universal. And we are not ashamed to stand for the entire Word of God, for that is what we are: Bible Believers! We want the whole world to know exactly where we stand, and what we believe, for it is nothing but the pure revelation of the Holy Writ of God Almighty. I also know that nobody can stop us, for the more you try to kill something, if it is of God, the more it grows, for it cannot but grow. God just begins to enlarge it, and enrich it, lifting it higher and higher, by each passing day. And the more you speak ill of it and blight it, the more it just grows, and the more the light shines, and you wonder why, for truth cannot but flourish, for it conquers all. I have heard some wonderful testimonies of young men that the Lord has just led into this church, and also the men the Lord has led into the Continuity light around the globe, either through dreams, visions, or prophetic utterances. I will not share their testimonies. They will share them when they are led to come and share, of how the Lord led them to this place, and into this present truth. God is touching His people in supernatural ways, brothers and sisters, and I honestly believe that the supernatural will have a lot to play, in this last move. May God have His way in the bride. Amen and amen. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

The little message I want to share tonight is just one of the many little thoughts that was laid out in the first message that is coming out in The Scribe, titled: The Foundation Of The Fivefold Ministry. It is one of the little thoughts in the maiden edition of The Scribe. Nevertheless, I must also warn that it is a very important and most crucial Bible thought, because it is a fundamental truth of God. As I sat reading the Scribe message whilst editing it, I just smiled and blessed God in my heart. I was just amazed that God can inspire somebody to preach three months prior to the time when conditions will develop on the ground, adverse conditions, conditions we did not know would develop, and to now see the manifestation of those things laid out in that message for real in the Jackson Movement. That is amazing, for God is amazing! How God could anoint a mortal, and use his intellect and his mouth to say things that we can now see in reality on the ground, is simply awesome. God is simply awesome! Indeed, it takes God to do that, and I bless His Holy Name. But I will tell you this: Working on The Scribe has made me really appreciate all the more, the labour that goes into the printing of the Sermons books and The Contender. What a labour, and what a sacrifice, and what an expense to have made these materials freely available around the globe! Come with me to the Book of 1 Kings Chapter 13. We just want to read a few verses from it. But let me first give you the background. Jeroboam was a man that had no right to the throne. He was not of the lineage of David. His family line had no right to the throne at all. He did not dream of it. He never would have been king, if not that God ordained it to be so. Because of Solomon's idolatry, God decided to break the kingdom of Israel in two, taking the larger part of it away from his lineage, which happened in the days of his son, Rehoboam. God gave ten whole tribes to Jeroboam, which made up the northern tribes, with its capital in Samaria, and it was called Israel. God left only two tribes for Rehoboam the son of Solomon, making up the southern tribes, Judah and Benjamin, with its capital in Jerusalem, and it was called Judah. Saints of God, in order to keep his congregation, Jeroboam went into idolatry, forgetting the God that made him king over the people, the Lord God, who is more than able to establish and sustain his rule. Brothers and sisters, the only way any ministry can keep a true assembly is by arming them with the truth, and not by taking truth away, for God loves and rewards faithfulness. The arm of flesh will fail you, for carnal efforts and inducements will fail, for it will never take the place of revealed faith in the lives of true seeds of God. And that is why I always say: If the truth we stand for is not enough motivation for you to stay with the Continuity message of Jesus Christ, I do not want you. I cannot keep you, if truth cannot keep you. But the only way I can keep you, is by giving you absolute truth, the pure revealed truth of the Holy Scriptures of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Outside this effort, I will fail, and I must fail, for only truth endures, for it has eternal security, and only truth has an eternal glory. All else must fail and will fail! Saints, we may hurt one another as mortals, for we are not Angels. But if we do, we do not do so willfully or intentionally. And if we can be made to realize that we hurt you, we will apologize, for we mean no harm. However, regardless of our hurt, brothers and sisters, nothing and nobody should take us away from the fountain of revealed faith. If anything does, it is because our heart is not right with God, however much we may justify ourselves, and no matter how wonderful we may feel about ourselves. Hence I said: Though we may hurt one another unintentionally, we will not because of any hurt remove ourselves from the fountain of light, and follow unbelief, which is darkness. You cannot reject the truth, and make an about turn because of a hurt! That is not of God! You will injure your soul, for you will be the loser for it! And as it is written in the Book of Proverbs Chapter 13, verse 15: "... the way of transgressors is hard"! It is also written in Proverbs Chapter 21, verse 16: "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding SHALL REMAIN IN THE CONGREGATION OF THE DEAD." Church, I repeat: The only way the people of God can be kept, is by establishing them firmly in the revealed Word of Christ. If you do that, I guarantee you: The saints of God will stay firmly with your ministry, for they will know they are secure, having found a true anchor for their souls, through your ministry, in the light of the Word of God. Faithfulness to God and to His truth is what also keeps a ministry, any ministry. The same applies to any group or body of people. True faithfulness is not to a man or to an assembly, but faithfulness to God BY His Word. Once that is established, you have absolutely nothing to fear, even if opposition rises: They cannot win! But unfortunately, Jeroboam was a most unfaithful king. He decided to keep the congregation to himself, away from God who made him king, forgetting that the heart of kings are in the hands of God, and He is able to make his subjects love and stay with him, if only he could be faithful. Instead of being faithful and appreciative, Jeroboam set up idolatry in Israel, with one golden calf in Bethel, and another in Dan. Church, idolatry was ignited in earnest! God now sent a young prophet with His prophetic Word, against the evil on-goings in that day. 1 Kings Chapter 13, verses 1-10 records: “And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the Word of the Lord unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the Word of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the Lord hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out. And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the Word of the Lord. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: For so was it charged me by the Word of the Lord, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.”

What an experience that was in that day! And what a marvel God performed in Bethel! However, there was an old prophet in that region of Israel. He had favour with the king, eating sumptuously with the king, being nothing but an old compromiser. And as such, he had no problem with Jeroboam and his idolatrous ways. After all, large sums of money were probably being sent to him every month for his sustenance by the king. Idolatry therefore flourished right under his nose, right under his watch. His unfaithfulness caused God to lay him aside and anoint a young prophet all the way from Judah, way down south, to cleanse an assembly right under his watch, up north! And God vindicated the prophetic message he bore that day, with supernatural signs, for the altar rent, and the ashes poured out, just as he decreed! Moreover, God humbled the king that day, for daring to confront him! However, God gave him a very clear and firm warning, two injunctions in fact, saying: “Do not eat or drink in that place, AND do not return by the way you came.” Two very clear and most categorical injunctions! No, God did not say he should not eat and drink anywhere at all, but that he should not do so in that place! Period! Everything happened precisely according to the Word of the Lord! Saints of God, the news burned through the city, until it reached the old prophet, the man who was the original pastor of Bethel, a man that God had laid on the shelf. The green eyed monster of envy and jealousy rose up in him, and he came after the young prophet. We will continue the story from verse 11. The Bible records: “Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father. And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon, And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: For it was said to me by the Word of the Lord, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an Angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water. And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the Word of the Lord came unto the prophet that brought him back: And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee, But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the Lord did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcass shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers. And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back. And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcass was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcass. And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcass cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcass: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the Word of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake unto him. And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him. And he went and found his carcass cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcass: the lion had not eaten the carcass, nor torn the ass. And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. And he laid his carcass in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother! And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones: For the saying which he cried by the Word of the Lord against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.” What a story! What a sad story! Brothers and sisters, how could this young prophet have allowed another prophet, though senior or older, make him go against a direct and plain instruction of God? Out of evil envy and jealousy, yes, the old preacher lied unto him in the name of the Lord; but how could he have fallen for that lie, which ran contrary to the Word? How could he have had respect for age and longevity in the message, rather than to truth? Just how could he have used any other yardstick than that of the Word of God, to judge the old prophet's message? God had revealed to him what needed to be done in Bethel. But he was also warned, given two direct injunctions. Firstly, he was not to eat or drink in that place. Secondly, he was not to return by the way in which he came to Bethel. And if he had any doubts at all concerning his revelation of the Word, God had vindicated his revelation in a most fantastic supernatural way that day, which created quite a stir and a noise in Bethel! Even King Jeroboam was humbled by the power of God! Jeroboam had sought to make him eat and drink, and also wanted him to return with him to receive a great gift, and he had refused, stating precisely the two injunctions he had received from God to the contrary! So, how could he later return with an elderly preacher against what he knew was the truth? He went back to the same place wherein he was told not to return, and he also ate and drank in the same place wherein he was told not to eat or drink! Saints of God, right there and then, as he was sitting at the table eating, God anointed the prophet He had laid on the shelf, and he gave him a prophetic word of judgment for his disobedience, and he paid for it with his life! Let me now warn you, brothers and sisters: Do not judge any message, whether a teaching message or prophetic, or any so-called revelation, by the stature of the person uttering it, or by the testimony he bears, or even by the number of people or the crowds that follow him, or by the caliber of people that believe and stand for it, but by the Word and the Word only! Use only the standard of the Word of God! Stay with the Word! Stay firmly with the truth, for only truth has a glorious end! The end of untruth is death! Watch the message or teaching, and lay it upon the mirror of the Word of God, because everything must be judged by the Word! Nothing towers higher than the Word, and nothing, absolutely nothing, is free from the censorship of the Word! Everything must be judged by the “Urim and Thummim” of the Word of God, which is the revealed light of the Word!

Everything must be judged by the Word! Every message or teaching; every ministry; and every assembly; all must be brought under the judgment of “the Urim and the Thummim” of the Scriptures of truth, for the Word of God is the absolute!

Church, we have a serious scenario before us tonight. God called this young man to do a specific job; he was sent with a specific purpose. God did not call the old prophet to do that job. God gave him precise instructions that needed no interpretation. He went to do the job, but God gave him a plain warning, what he must not do, just as God gave warning to Eve, saying, “Do not eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,” which was figurative, for it was simply sex for pleasure. Saints of God, like Eve, he too went contrary to that simple and plain commandment of God, and he died! Why? He listened to another Serpent! Here came another man, an older man in the message. He had a big name and a following in the movement. All other preachers followed him, because he was like their leader, one who presided over their ecumenical meetings. Whatever he said held sway with the men in the ministry, for they looked to him in Bethel. He was favored by Jeroboam. Why would Jeroboam not like him, when he was not a thorn in his flesh? Why would Jeroboam not favour him, when he was a compromiser, a prophet whose spiritual eyes had been closed, living on past glory; a man who had allowed idolatry to take over his own vineyard? He had become the king's Public Relations-Religious Officer, and he was used to opening all government public functions! He supported the corruption of Israel, for he refused to speak against idolatry and corruption! He would not tell the king the truth, because he loved the feast he ate on the king's table, and the wages of unrighteousness: the favour and the money he received from the king! So, under his unfaithful ministry, the king could do no wrong, although he was a complete idolater, a king who led Israel away from the Holy One of Israel, who is Elohim, the God of All Creation! And God was mad! God had to use this young prophet to do a serious work that day. The old preacher was not the one that was sent for the job; it was this young preacher. It was not the old preacher that was given the message of cleansing; it was this young prophet. Yet, the young minister allowed another man of God to preach him out of the will of God. Like I was preaching in that day in East Chicago, and like it is laid out in The Scribe, if that young man had had any doubts, as to whether the revelation and the dealing he had received from God was right, now that the supernatural sign was fulfilled, and the altar had rent, and the ashes had poured out, and moreover, the hand of king Jeroboam had dried up, God openly and supernaturally vindicating his message that day, should have removed all doubts! If there was any doubt in his mind as to the truthfulness of his mission and of his message, peradventure he felt maybe he was seeing double, or he was hallucinating, brothers and sisters, what took place in Bethel that day settled it all! That should have made him realize that he bore a perfect message, and as such, he had no reason to go against his revelation, for as it is written, God's Word is Yea, and it is Amen, for it does not change! Why then did he allow another man to take the Word from him? And what a price he paid! My! And why would he listen to a man leading another camp, when the man was not standing for truth? Does everything go in the name of the Torah? He should have known better! He should! Turn with me to another Scripture. It is just a little message tonight, though a serious thought. Turn to the Book of Ephesians Chapter 4. We take it from verse 1: “I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavouring to keep THE UNITY OF THE SPIRIT in the bond of peace. THERE IS ONE BODY...” Hold it there for a few minutes. It says: “There is one body”. What does that show you? There is only One true body of believers around the globe, that constitute the true bride of Jesus Christ! Saints of God, this plainly and conclusively shows that in this Message, in this Branham Movement worldwide, and regardless of the multiplicity of camps, there can only be One true body, and there is only One true body! It simply means in essence, that everything will not go in the name of Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B Elijah! Everything will not go in the name of William Branham! Everything will not even go in the name of Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour! That is why in Matthew Chapter 7, verses 21-23, Jesus Christ declared: “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” It simply means that merely saying you believe in Jesus, and that you are following his message, does not amount to anything, unless you walk in the light of the Word of God, for everything will not go in his name! Period! And if everything does not go in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, surely everything cannot go in the name of William Branham, who is a lesser person!

Come on! It is written: “THERE IS ONE BODY”! I repeat: If everything will not go in the name of Jesus Christ our Messiah, Brother Matimbe, everything does not go in the name of Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B Elijah of the end time! Everything does not go in his name! It cannot! And when you look at the Movement around the globe tonight, with the incredible multiplicity of camps we have in it, not one camp stands together in unity with any other camp, for there are no two camps that see eye to eye on issues of truth; there are no two camps that believe the same thing; and yet, all “believe” the end time Elijah! You must therefore know, on the full and infallible authority of the Word, that ONLY ONE CAMP WILL MAKE IT, WHILST THE REST ARE FOR BURNING! That is a harsh thing to say, but it is true nonetheless! Brothers and sisters, all the various camps or groups we have in the Branham Movement, fight one another on issues of faith, for they each believe differently, every last one of them. It is just like the denomination world. There is not one organization that sees eye to eye with another organization. They all fight one another on issues of faith, and yet, they all bind themselves together in Ecumenism, on the flimsy and worthless ground that they all "believe" in Jesus Christ, as if the body of Christ is dismembered! And as if the body of Christ is a confused body, where everything goes! They really think that simply saying you believe in Jesus makes them one! My! And may I also warn you, that that same Ecumenical spirit has now taken over the Movement, which is precisely why in Zimbabwe for instance, they all gather together once every year, in the Branham Movement, regardless of whatever they believe, all in the name of the end time Message. It is Ecumenism! It is nothing but ecumenism, for it is plain babel, and may God help me to knock that nonsense, for it is written in Amos Chapter 3, verse 3: "CAN TWO WALK TOGETHER, EXCEPT THEY BE AGREED?" And I ask you: What is the basis of the agreement? Is it William Branham; Money; Business; Friendship; Family; Carnal love; Mere desire for fellowship? It is absolutely none of these reasons! Two cannot walk together unless they be agreed on the strict basis of the Word and of the Word of God alone! Period! Any and every other basis is nothing but compromise! It is religious compromise, for everything will not go in the name of Jesus Christ my Lord, and consequently, everything will not go in the name of Malachi Chapter 4 Elijah of this end time! It will not go! The denominational world gathers together in Ecumenism simply based upon Jesus, but it is deception, and it amounts to uniting against the Word of God! It is therefore a blatant lie! And the end time Message Movement also gathers together in the name of Malachi Chapter 4 Elijah, but it is also deception! It is also a blatant lie, and it is the same spirit of the devil at work! But ask them: Do they believe the same thing and see eye to eye? No! Some of them do not even believe anything, because for them, anything goes, and everything goes, for they are spiritual harlots; spiritual prostitutes of faith! And in order to allure or deceive unstable and ungrounded souls into their ecumenical meetings, they use the appeal of carnal love, saying, "Brother Branham said only pure love will make it through into the rapture. Jesus also said we should love one another, for by this shall the people know that ye are my disciples..." But let us ask: What is love, the true love of Christ? Jesus Christ our Lord answered this very question, and we will therefore let the Master speak, so that every man can keep quiet, for they are shouting above the clear voice of the Master! In the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 14, starting from verse 15, Jesus declared: "If ye love me", (meaning if ye truly love me), "keep my commandments" (or my words). Let us skip to verse 21, to continue that thought, for Jesus reconfirmed this truth, saying: "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, HE IT IS THAT LOVETH ME: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, IF A MAN LOVE ME, HE WILL KEEP MY WORDS: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. HE THAT LOVETH ME NOT KEEPETH NOT MY SAYINGS: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me." This confirms unquestionably that love, true love, which is the love of Christ, stems or FLOWS strictly and directly from the Word, and is BASED on the Word, and LEADS to a firm stand for the Word of God; otherwise, it is not love, but total hatred of the Lord Jesus! Period! Thus saith the Lord Jesus Christ! Therefore, simply quoting Scriptures on love, as a means of getting people to attend ecumenical meetings, is plain carnal talk, lacking in any ounce of spiritual virtue, for as it is written, two cannot walk together unless and except they agree on the revealed Word of God! Otherwise, there is no ground of fellowship, regardless of how much people say they believe the message! Joining people in fellowship outside of the common faith, which is the fact that you believe the same thing, will amount to spiritual idolatry and prostitution, for it makes you a spiritual harlot and idolater! Simple! And although you will be ridiculed and called a "war lord", and all such carnal derogatory adjectives which they use in the Movement around the world, particularly in Tema-Ghana, against a firm and faithful stand for truth, nevertheless, you must understand that God expects you to stay with His revealed Word, even if you have to suffer persecution for it, for at the end, it will yield eternal dividends! The Ecumenical spirit in the message following is why some men cannot make a firm and faithful stand for truth, because it will make them lose face among the masses of people; and they love being popular and acclaimed! It is a compromise, and you cannot tell them anything, because they are set on a slippery road. And nobody placed them on that road; they placed themselves on it: Because what should be known of truth has been made plain to them at this end time; but they just cannot bear the truth, for they are haters of the Word! They only make empty confessions of love for the Lord and for the Word, being a self-deceived and self-motivated, egoistic (or proud), bunch of religious demons! They have a bloated sense of self importance, rather than to humbly submit themselves to the plain truth! If you do not know where you are standing, they will use Satan's dagger of false accusation of pride and lack of love, to get you on their erroneous level! That is precisely why I lift up before you the mirror of God's Word! It is written: "CAN TWO WALK TOGETHER, EXCEPT THEY BE AGREED?" NO! Then, stay with truth, and ignore the chattering of chickens, for we are eagles! And what has eagles got to do with chickens? It is also written: "For wheresoever the carcass is, THERE WILL THE EAGLES BE GATHERED TOGETHER"! For all true eagles have only one gathering place around the world, wherever they may be located on the planet, and that is around the revealed Word! Our gathering place is in the inspired Word of God, for the true body of Christ is One, just as it is written: "THERE IS ONE BODY..." And if you are not in that One body, a singular universal body, established firmly upon the solid and immovable rock of the revealed faith, (or of the revealed truths), of Jesus Christ our Saviour, you are on a dunghill! Absolutely! And as I said earlier, when we consider the pathetic situation existing in the Movement, where we have myriads of camps, or myriads of groups of Message followers, generated by the myriads of voices that have risen in the Movement, each claiming to speak for God, and each claiming to have the truth, and yet, there is not one group that sees eye to eye with another group, scriptural common sense will tell you, therefore, that someone has to be right! One group has to be right, and all others wrong, for we cannot all be wrong! IF we are all wrong, (which is impossible), then, the ministry and message of the end time Elijah was a total waste of time! It means in essence, and this is what I am saying, that Elijah's ministry has perfectly accomplished the divine purpose God ordained it should serve for, the end time bride; and as such, whilst we cannot all be right, someone somewhere has to be right, for there has to be a bride, and the rest are therefore absolutely wrong, pure and simple! And that is an incontestable fact of the Scriptures, for the revelation of God is one, as it is written: THERE IS ONLY ONE TRUE BODY! One group and one group alone, has the true revelation of the message of William Branham, and all the rest are merely making noise, empty noise! It is written in 1 Corinthians Chapter 14, verse 33: "For GOD IS NOT THE AUTHOR OF CONFUSION, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." When we consider the multiplicity of churches and beliefs in the religious world, no one doubts that Satan is behind it. But I ask: What about the multiplicity of groups in the Movement? Who is behind it? Somebody had better wake up, and look for the true body! But how can she be identified? When Apostle Paul declared that "there is one body", he was talking of THE TRUE BODY; for there can be only one true body of believers! In the midst of the conglomeration of voices and groups, which is nothing but "babel", Not just within the Branham Movement, but also within the Entire religious world, the Master spoke, loudly and clearly, and categorically, to whomsoever has an ear to hear, as recorded in the Gospel of Saint John Chapter 10, verse 11, proclaiming: "And other sheep I have, which are not of THIS FOLD", (THIS DEFINITE AND PARTICULAR FOLD): "them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; AND THERE SHALL BE ONE FOLD", (meaning that there shall be ONE BODY or ONE GROUP of believers), "AND ONE SHEPHERD", (meaning ONE BODY of ministry). Full stop! And may I warn you: If you are not in that one body, that one global body, you are in nothing! You are in nothing! You can go round the whole of creation preaching your message, but you are only wasting your time, and it is nothing but a vexation of the spirit! And although God may use you to accomplish something, even if it is as a mere carrier, you are still going nowhere with it, for there is no reward or glorification for you! You will be here to face the Anti-Christ, for there is only one true body! Consequently, brothers and sisters, you have got to find that body! You have to, if you love life eternal! However, it does not come by physical or natural observation, but by the eye of faith, which is the eye of divine revelation of the Word! Why? It is simply because it is a revelation of the Word that that true body is standing for, and is projecting, and only by it can she be identified! Period! Then look to Jesus and pray sincerely, saying: "Lord, please open my eyes to truth. Show me your true body." But I must warn that you cannot see it without a true love of truth in your soul. You cannot! You must have a sincere and humble heart; otherwise, it will be right under your nose, right in front of you, and still, you will see nothing! Let us continue our exposition of the Book of Ephesians.

Ephesians Chapter 4, beginning from verse 1, records: “I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavouring to keep the UNITY OF THE SPIRIT in the bond of peace. There is One body, and One Spirit, even as ye are called in One hope of your calling; One Lord, ONE FAITH, One baptism.” Church, did you hear that? Saint Paul just laid out a serious standard of the truth of Christ, and of his elect bride. He declared plainly and categorically, that THERE IS ONLY ONE FAITH! That is, there is only One True Faith! And we all know that the true faith of Jesus Christ is revealed faith, one which is established firmly and strictly upon the foundation of the Word! Moreover, that faith is made up of more than just one or two revealed truths, but of many truths, which is being continuously given by the Spirit of God. As such, THERE IS ONLY ONE TRUE BODY OF REVEALED FAITH! This body of revealed truths is what makes up The Faith, or The Message of Christ. Jesus Christ our Lord declared in the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 16, verses 13-18, as it is recorded: “When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, AND UPON THIS ROCK” (OF THE REVEALED TRUTHS OF GOD) “I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” Brothers and sisters, here lays the true church, the true body, the church triumphant. It is the body of people established solidly upon the rock of the true revelation of Jesus Christ. And as we have scripturally established, there is only one true faith, which means: There is only one true body of revealed truths of Christ, for it is written: “THERE IS ONE BODY, AND ... ONE FAITH”! The true body of Christ has only ONE FAITH, which is the standard of truth! And as I stated before, by this body of revealed truths can she be identified, for she is revealed in the light, being a universal body constituted strictly in the light! And as such, by the light of truth she bears, which is the standard of the truth of Jesus Christ, every other body or bodies can be judged, and will be judged, for the revelation of God is One! God has only one standard of truth! And indeed, the revelation of God is unquestionably One, because the Lord is One, just as it is written in Ephesians Chapter 4, verses 4-6: “There is ONE BODY, and ONE SPIRIT, even as ye are called in ONE HOPE of your calling; ONE LORD, ONE FAITH, ONE BAPTISM, ONE GOD and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and IN you all." Brothers and sisters, from this text, I want to take a message tonight titled, The Revelation Of God Is One. That is the title of our message this evening: THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE. There is only ONE FAITH, because there is only ONE GOD. And because there is only ONE TRUE FAITH, there is only ONE TRUE BODY of people filled with His ONE HOLY SPIRIT, giving us the UNITY OF THE SPIRIT. Brothers and Sisters, the Unity of God permeates everything! The true body of Christ is not only one, but also, the faith by which she is constituted is also one, for it is a common faith to one and all that make up that body! It means that we cannot believe the Lord and believe differently. Hence Apostle Paul declared in the Book of Titus Chapter 1, verse 4, saying: "To Titus, mine own son AFTER THE COMMON FAITH..." It is a common faith, for it is shared by one and all, for it is one body. It is absolutely so, because the salvation of the Lord is the same. The salvation we have in Jesus is one! Apostle Jude confirmed this truth in verse 3, saying: "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of THE COMMON SALVATION, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for THE FAITH", (which is the entire body of revealed truths of Jesus), "which was once delivered unto the saints." It is a common salvation which came via (or through) the same faith! We cannot all therefore believe differently and be speaking by God. As I pointed out earlier, someone has to be right, and all others wrong, because the body of Christ is one! Just look at it dispassionately. In the Branham Movement, every pastor is his own leader, and his own interpreter of the truth, and this horrible attitude and manner of ministry has brought nothing but absolute confusion and chaos to the Movement, for you cannot get any two of these pastors in any part of the globe to see eye to eye on truth! But looking further, when you consider these big shots in the Movement, all these ministers, who are having a global followership in the Movement, whether it is Ewald Frank of Germany, Neal Frisby of Arizona, Joseph Coleman of New York, Richard Gan of Singapore, Peary Greene, Eddy Byskaal or other, not one of these men see eye to eye on anything. They are all doing their own thing, building their separate little kingdoms! Brothers and sisters, they all believe differently, and hence, they have broken up the body of people following the message, and taken them in different directions on issues of faith, and yet, they all claim they are following the same message of William Branham! My! And we know that the revelation of God is one! So, we must ask: Who is right? Which of these men can show us the true way? Which of them has the true light? But do not tell me they all have the light: Otherwise I will tell you that your middle name is confusion! For how can the true light produce a conglomeration of beliefs? Come on! Yet, aside of these men, the masses of people in the Movement, believe "THE MESSAGE OF ELIJAH ONLY", whatever they individually conceive it to mean, creating nothing but chaos in the Movement, worldwide. Yet, when we take a look at the early church, even though they were scattered around the world in their individual locations, nevertheless, they all believed the same thing, and stood for the same thing, and lived by the same thing, and preached the same thing. How come? Because the true body of Christ is one! It is simply because they did not follow every Tom, Dick, and Harry that came down the road in the name of the message! Following every idiot who makes himself an end time message preacher, is nothing but a recipe for confusion and spiritual disaster! Two cannot walk together unless they agree on the strict basis of the revealed Word of God! Anything else is spiritual insanity, for it is spiritual senselessness! The early church knew this, and hence, they followed only the ministry Jesus Christ had established in that day, a body of men who were identified by the purity and the clarity of the Word they bore! They knew that everything does not go in the name of Jesus Christ, for not all men carry the truth, and neither do all men stay with the truth! Brothers and sisters, they stood only for the body of ministry who spoke the very same thing, AND whose message was firmly grounded in the written Word of God! Simple! That was how they maintained their spiritual sanity! And may I point out that there was a Master

Key God used to actualise and maintain this unity of faith within that body of ministry in that day, a key which we shall also lay out shortly. But the truth remains that God cannot be speaking by two men on issues of truth, and for the men to then contradict one another! It is impossible, for God is not a revelatory confusionist! There is perfect harmony and absolute consistency in the unveiling of truth, for the Spirit of God and His inspiration is one! It is either God is not speaking by them at all, which means they are both wrong, or that God is speaking by one, and the other is wrong! Full stop! Yet, in the earth, somewhere on this globe, God must have a true witness, a true voice, for truth, which is the truth of G o d , M U S T B E SOMEWHERE IN THE EARTH! You just have to look for it. However, we must now consider what I referred to earlier as the Master Key for UNITY. It is a very fundamental truth, and it is most crucial to this message, for it is the key. In the Book of Jude, Apostle Jude implores us in verse 3, to earnestly contend for THE FAITH which was once delivered unto the saints. The material question this now leads us to ask is this: How was that faith delivered to the saints? How did it come? How did they receive it? That is a fundamental question, for it brings us to the consideration of the divine logistics of God, for the conveyance of truth to the entire body of saints, for by this divine medium, One Faith was assured in that day, and also by it, it is assured today. Do not forget, that the revelation of the Bridegroom is in the bride, for it is written in Revelation Chapter 22, verse 17: “And the Spirit” (of Christ) “and the bride say, COME.” (They say the same thing). “And let him that heareth say, COME. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” So, we ask again: How did the early church saints receive the common faith? How exactly was it delivered to them? That is the pertinent or material question! Remember, the early church saints bore the standard of the faith of Jesus Christ, which we must conform to today. It is therefore very important to understand these logistics of God, for the revelation of God is one, for God is one. So, how did that same revelation come to one and all? How did they receive it?

In his prayer to God in Saint John Chapter 17, Jesus pleaded in verse 20, saying: “Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me THROUGH THEIR WORD.” This prayer reveals the mind of the Spirit, showing clearly that the apostles are divinely ordained to carry the revelation faith of Jesus Christ, for the entire body of ministry, and in turn, the body of ministry will impart the same to the entire body of believers, that the universal body may be established in the faith, thus having one faith. Therefore, it is established by the Word of our Master, that following the revealed faith which the apostles carry, is what gives us the true faith, which is the true faith of Jesus Christ our Lord. Period! Apostle Peter, knowing this most crucial position they occupied as apostles, and the revelation of Christ invested in them, admonished us in 2 Peter Chapter 3, verses 1-2, saying: “This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets” (of old), “and of the commandment OF US

THE APOSTLES of the Lord and Saviour.” Apostle Paul also, in Ephesians Chapter 2, verses 19-22, records: “Now therefore ye” (Gentile believers) “are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the FOUNDATION OF THE APOSTLES and prophets” (of old), “Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.” The knowledge of this profound truth, was what inspired Apostle Luke to record concerning the early church saints, in the Book of Acts Chapter 2, verse 42, stating: “And they” (in the early church, the church which was born on the Day of Pentecost), “CONTINUED STEDFASTLY IN THE APOSTLES’ DOCTRINE...” Why? Because the entire body of Christ is built upon the foundation of the apostles! Hence, Apostle Paul warned seriously, in 1 Corinthians Chapter 3, verse 11, declaring with absolute divine authority: “FOR OTHER FOUNDATION CAN NO MAN LAY THAN THAT IS LAID, which is Jesus Christ”, (NOT IN HIS FLESHLY BODY, BUT IN HIS DIVINE SCRIPTURAL REVELATION, a revelation which the apostles laid down for the entire body of saints)! Because the apostles are the inspired writers and custodians, of the true revealed faith of Jesus Christ our Lord, and as such, they wrote every verse of the New Testament, being the head of the Ephesian fivefold ministry! They hold a rein on the Word of God, in order to keep it clean and free from leaven, thus guaranteeing the safety and sanity of the universal body! I also have to remind you that they are the midwives of the church, for it was the apostolic ministry that birthed the church that was born on the Day of Pentecost, being the only fold of ministry on the ground in that day, thus making them the founding fathers of our faith! Consequently, brothers and sisters, without their ministry, we are going nowhere, for the logistics of God does not change, for God is one, and He is perfect in all His ways! That is also precisely why Malachi Chapter 4, verse 6B Elijah, hands the end time bride over to the hands of the end time apostolic fathers of faith, just as that same verse of Malachi promises, starting with the office of Saint Paul, The Apostle to the Gentiles! Absolutely! Hence we had a Raymond Jackson, the chief apostle, following the passing away of William Branham!

However, I must also point out at this junction, for it is most material, and it now leads us to consider what I call The Master Key For UNITY, that you cannot have two or more apostles, without one of them being the lead apostle. Saints, I repeat: You cannot have a body of apostles, and there not be a lead apostle! It is absolutely impossible not to have a lead apostle, because one of them has to bear the plumbline or the standard of truth! Someone has to bear the torch of the true faith of Jesus Christ, as a lead ministry, all under Christ! Just consider this open declaration Apostle Paul made in his day. 1 Corinthians Chapter 3, verses 9-11 records: “According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as A WISE MASTERBUILDER” (OR

CHIEF BUILDER, OR AS THE CHIEF APOSTLE), “I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon.” (Then he warned, saying): “But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.” This wise master builder position is the key office within the apostolic fold of the ministry, for he is the man with the revelation of the blueprint or the masterplan! This chief or lead apostolic office Saint Paul held in that day, was the office that bore the torch of the light of Jesus for the entire body of ministry, for he bore the standard! He knew that, and so he declared in Romans Chapter 11, verse 13, saying openly and categorically: “For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am THE APOSTLE of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office!” That was not a man boasting! That was a man simply declaring his precise office within the entire body of ministry, for this is not a game, and neither is this about carnal humility! Knowing precisely who he was, the ministry he occupied, the authority he wielded, and the purity and perfectness of the revelation of Christ he bore for the entire body of Christ universal, was precisely why he warned in Galatians Chapter 1, verses 8-9, placing a divine curse, declaring: “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” Then from verses 10, he went further to show his credentials, of how he got the revelation of truths he preached, saying: “For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. But I certify you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal His Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus." In the Book of 1 Corinthians Chapter 14, when some people were doubting or questioning what he laid down by divine revelation of God, concerning women preachers and stuff like that, he thundered in verses 36-38, challenging them, saying: "WHAT?" In other words: Do you want to challenge me? Do you want to doubt or question my revelation? He now asked them in return, further challenging them, saying: "CAME THE WORD OF GOD OUT FROM YOU?" In other words: Did the revelation of the truths of Jesus Christ come from you to the body? Are you the ones that brought the revealed faith of Christ for and to the Gentiles? It came from Paul, for God set him as the light of the Gentiles! He was implicitly or indirectly saying: How dare you challenge my revelation concerning women preachers! How dare you! He also asked: "OR CAME IT UNTO YOU ONLY?" In other words: The revealed faith of Jesus Christ you received, are you the only ones that received it, that you are now questioning my stand, when no other assembly has done such a thing, behaving like you know it all, and have it all? Now he warned them, giving them the seal of his stand on the matter, declaring: "If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you ARE THE COMMANDMENTS OF THE LORD" (JESUS CHRIST). "But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant." Every mouth was shut in that day, and they had to admit that God has not set any woman preacher in office! Full stop! Saints, why did I go down this avenue? It is simply to show you that for establishing and maintaining true unity, there has to be ONE VOICE God raises up, over and above any and every other voice around the entire globe, bearing the standard of truth, giving a true focus and direction to the body of ministry, thus avoiding confusion! Such is the most crucial role a lead ministry plays, particularly a lead apostle! It guarantees UNITY OF REVELATION, which is Unity of faith, and it also guarantees UNITY OF MINISTRY, DIRECTION, AND PURPOSE! This is the master key to unity! This was what ensured absolute unity of faith in the first church age, for every other man in the ministry, whatever their fold of ministry, particularly those who paraded themselves as apostles, were all censored and judged by the message Apostle Paul bore, by the inspiration and leadership of the Spirit of Jesus our Lord, for the entire body of Christ, as the standard bearer! Exactly! In his prophetic revelation recorded in the Book of Revelation Chapter 2, verses 1-2, Jesus Christ stated: "Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and THOU HAST TRIED THEM WHICH SAY THEY ARE

APOSTLES, AND ARE NOT, AND HAST FOUND THEM LIARS! How were they able to do that, so much so that they received the commendation of our Master, Jesus Christ? Saints of the Living God, they were able to pick out these false apostles and deceitful preachers, by censoring their message by that of Apostle Paul, the chief apostle to the first church age! They did not follow every idiot who called himself an apostle, but who knew no more of truth, than the dog in the backyard of a garment factory! Brothers and sisters, they did not accept every leader of men as apostles, simply because they had a great following around the globe! If the men did not come with the revelation of the Scriptures which Saint Paul had been used to give, but contradicted it, they instantly recognised they were false, and immediately threw them out of the window! Because God used one man called Saint Paul, to establish the standard of the faith of Christ our Lord, for the entire body of ministry, which was why he wrote almost three quarters of the entire New Testament writings! Saints of the living God, THIS IS THE DIVINE R O A D M A P T O OBTAINING ONE FAITH! It is not for nothing that the Book of Ecclesiastes Chapter 12, verse 11, provides concerning the Wise One, who is Jesus Christ, saying: “The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters” (or pastors) “of assemblies, WHICH ARE GIVEN FROM ONE SHEPHERD”, (WHO IS J E S U S ' U N D E R - S H E P H E R D). Jesus having one under-shepherd, which is a lead ministry, gives unity, AND also ensures unity, whether of divine revelation, or of divine purpose. May I inform you, that this is the revelation William Branham also bore on this matter, for he also stood in his message on this scriptural base, for he plainly laid out this very master key in his message titled, Spirit Of Truth, which he preached in 1963. On page 4, paragraphs 23-25, he stated: “But each life has been planted by the Master Life-Giver, and He knows just how and what to do. And everything that He has placed here on earth is for His glory. The stars are for His glory. The winds are for His glory. The flowers are for His glory. And we are the crowning of His glory. But it seems like that everything will obey Him but man. Man just seems to...He has such a time, because that he was the only thing that fell. Everything else stayed in its original condition. But, man fell. Therefore, God has a battle with him, to get him to do what is right, and to obey. And one of the great problems for God, down through the years, as the history of the church goes, is to find SOMEBODY that He can completely get in His control. HE ONLY NEEDS ONE MAN! He's always used one man at a time. We studied that last few nights: ONE MAN, NOT A GROUP. He just wants one. THAT'S ALL HE NEEDS! Cause, two men would have two different ideas. HE JUST TAKES ONE MAN, REPRESENTS HIMSELF THROUGH THAT ONE PERSON. Never did He do it otherwise than that. See? This one person is the lead ministry. Under the Old Testament, it was a lead prophet, but under the New Testament, it was a lead apostle. This lead ministry is the master key to unity. Church, we have to see the most crucial and indispensable role a lead apostolic ministry plays, for it is the main key to ensuring unity in the body, for somebody has to carry the plumbline of what truth is! Consequently, having a lead apostolic ministry on the ground, carrying the main revelation message of Christ, which is the torch of the Word, (or the torch of truth), working together with the other apostles, who together make up the apostolic head of the fivefold ministry, standing firmly with him in that light, ensured that there was unity of revelation, in the first church age! That was how unity was established and maintained! Even when Apostle Paul passed away, that unity held up, for it remained and was maintained, until Apostle John passed away, for John was placed in his shoe as the lead apostle, Christ's "candlestick" for the universal bride, in that succeeding hour of time. And being the lead apostle, Saint John could likewise declare in 1 John Chapter 4, verse 6, saying: "We are of God: HE THAT KNOWETH GOD HEARETH US; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error." That bold pronouncement was made, on account of the standard of truth he bore on that day, for the universal body of Christ, and by this standard, UNITY OF FAITH was maintained in the universal body, till he passed away around 100 AD. As the true apostles of Jesus Christ our Lord, they "delivered" or gave to the entire body of saints, the true faith of Jesus Christ, thus establishing a "common salvation", by the common faith "which was once delivered unto the saints"; and by this move of God, the church was grounded immovably and unshakably in the truth, in that first era of Christendom. I show you precisely how "ONE FAITH" of the Lord Jesus came about, in the universal body of saints. It cannot be different today, if we seek to walk pleasing unto the Lord, in the true light of his Word, having unity of the faith.

Coming back to the Book of Jude verse 3, the Bible records: "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly CONTEND FOR THE FAITH which was once delivered unto the saints." I re-affirm: Saint Jude could give this charge that they should earnestly CONTEND FOR THE FAITH ONCE DELIVERED TO THE SAINTS, because the revealed faith of Jesus our Lord is one! It is absolutely one, because God does not have double standards! And neither can God contradict himself, for He is not a revelatory confusionist, being a perfect God, who is perfect in His revelation, and also perfect in all His ways! He is not a man that He should lie! So, do not tell me God sent two or three or more men, and they do not agree on what truth is. Come on! I reiterate or repeat: THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE! It is one because the Spirit of God IN the true ministry is ONE! It is written, and I must remind you: "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." Therefore, it is utterly impossible for us to have the same Spirit of Christ, and be speaking by the same inspiration of the Spirit of Christ, and yet contradict one another on truth! That is impossible, for as I keep emphasising, God does not contradict Himself, and hence, He does not contradict His Word! Once He sets forth a truth, which is His truth, He will never change it, for it must hold forever and ever, for God's Word is an absolute! As it is written in Romans Chapter 3, verse 4: "... LET GOD BE TRUE, BUT EVERY MAN A LIAR; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in Thy sayings", (all thy sayings), "and mightest overcome" (or be vindicated), "when thou art judged", (meaning when the Word of God is called to question or challenged). The prophet to this age taught and often preached, saying: "God does not change His mind about His Word!" Hence, brothers and sisters, there is only one provided way, which is the revealed way, and every other way is false! Period! Brothers and sisters, in all the multiplicity of camps or groups currently existing in the Movement, there must be one true body, because all of us cannot be wrong. I have told you the implications already. If all of us are wrong, then the message of William Branham accomplished nothing for the bride of this end time, for he was sent with a message, which is the message of Christ, in order to get a bride for the Master. If every one of us is wrong, and there is nobody somewhere who is right, it simply means that there will be no bride, and hence, there will be no rapture, for there is an infallible image the true bride of Christ must attain, in order to be in a ready AND acceptable spiritual shape for the rapture, on the full authority of Ephesians Chapter 5, verses 26-27. However, the message of William Branham is true, and his truth will produce the true bride, according to the revealed plot of God for accomplishing the Unity AND Perfection of the universal bride. Consequently, it is a fact that in the multiplicity of camps within the global body of believers of the message of the end time Elijah, there has to be one true camp. Somebody has to be right, whilst all others wrong; somebody has to be true, and all others false! That is an absolute and unquestionable truth of God, for it is written in the Book of Romans Chapter 11, verses 2-5: "... Wot ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I HAVE RESERVED TO MYSELF

SEVEN THOUSAND MEN, WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO THE IMAGE OF BAAL. Even so then at this present time also THERE IS A REMNANT ACCORDING TO THE ELECTION OF GRACE." In other words, not only does God not leave Himself without a true witness at any point in time, a man to carry His light for His people, God also never leaves Himself without a true body of believers, a people that will walk with Him, strictly in the light of His Word! Unknown to Elijah, the man who carried the light of God for that day, God's true witness, there were seven thousand men who were faithfully following his message, kept by the power of God in the hour of Jezebel's idolatry and total extermination of true prophets of God! I therefore re-affirm: Somebody AND his group of people have to be right, and all others in the entire Movement worldwide, completely wrong, and thus, have all missed the boat! Somebody just has to be right, for truth must be somewhere in the earth! This will lead me to say: IF the masses of preachers in the Branham Movement, (a people who in the main constitute "Elijah Only" people, and who stoutly refuse to follow any ounce of further Bible revelation, other than what Brother Branham gave us from the pages of the Bible as per 1965, when he passed away), ARE RIGHT, then brothers and sisters, all of us who are following Jesus Christ in his progressive divine revelation of the Scriptures are completely out, and that is absolutely impossible! It is "impossicant"! That simply means it is impossible and cannot be! Do you know why? It is simply because our God is not dead! It was his servant that died! Neither are we serving a dead Jesus, for although he died in that day, he later rose from the grave on the third day, and is alive as we speak, even forevermore! As a result, he constantly keeps revealing himself to his bride, for as it is written in Revelation Chapter 2, verse 1, he is the one "who WALKETH" (or is WALKING, presently and continuously), "in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks", guarding, leading, and revealing himself to his bride! Amen! Brothers and sisters, the revelation of Jehovah is progressive, and being inherently progressive, there is Continuity of divine revelation of the written Word of God, that we may live by every written Word! That lets you see that the "Elijah Only" people missed the boat, big time! What a shame! And to think that the prophet they are following pointed forward, over and over again in his messages, speaking prophetically to the bride! My! What does that show you? It shows that in reality, these people do not understand the message, for they do not have an ounce of the revelation of the message they make so much noise about! But nevertheless, God needs carriers, and I must admit, they are very successful and accomplished carriers of the message! Brothers and sisters, turning to the leaders of groups in the Movement, I also have to say, if Neal Frisby's followers are right, then the rest of us are all wrong. But he is definitely not right, for his so-called revelation is nothing but a bloated balloon; it is prophetic nothingness! If Joseph Coleman's followers are right, then we are all wrong; and I refute that, for the revelation of Joseph Coleman is blatantly and irredeemably wild! If Ewald Frank's followers are right, then we are all wrong, which is flatly denied, for he bears no revelation of any substance, being very empty in his message! I say that humbly and with respect, though firmly. It is the truth, regardless of what anyone thinks or feels. If Richard Gan's followers are right, then we are all wrong, which is also denied, for he is nothing but a master confusionist, a proficient "wind" miller! You cannot be established in anything of truth by following his message, for he will simply blow you away with his empty use of Greek and Hebrew! I can say the very same thing about each and every one of these men, for THEY ALL MISSED THE PLOT! The only man in the entire Branham Movement, who had something worth listening to and standing for; the only man who bore a pure and wholesome revelation of truth, opening up the fountain of revealed faith, was Raymond Jackson! With the passing away of William Branham, God anointed that humble brother to carry the torch of truth, for the bride of Christ universal, and let me tell you: He packed an unparalleled and incredible measure of light in his hour or junction of time, bringing Continuity or Progressive revelation for thirty nine solid years, Continuing the unveiling of Bible truths for the bride! I know what I am talking about, for I am a fruit of his ministry. I have censored the messages of all these other men, whose writings I have in my library. Brother Jackson stood head and shoulders above every other man who professed to know or follow the prophet, in the divine revelation of the Word, for he was the chief apostle of Jesus Christ to this age, the first ministry produce of Elijah's ministry! He brought perfect revelatory Continuity to the message of the Bible which Brother Branham brought, for the message is one! The message of Jesus Christ our Saviour is one. But God is constantly adding to that light, moving the bride on in their knowledge of Christ, lifting them higher and higher in divine revelation of the Word, making the Bible become an Open Book, and A LIVING BIBLE. Because God is still talking to His children from it, even as we speak, and this confirms the truth that the Bible is a living Book, not a dead Book! Therefore, there is Continuity of divine scriptural revelation. I know though, that not all who say they are following Continuity are seeds, for every revival produces twins. But nevertheless, it is most certain that in this final junction of time, water will find its level, for every tree that is not planted by the Father will be uprooted, that the bride of Christ may shine forth. I am certainly aware that there are people who say they believe in the Message of Continuity, but who are following nothing, for they think this is just a game. When you consider their stand carefully, you see that all they really see, and all they are really following, is Elijah of the end time. Period! For them, Continuity is just mere words meaning nothing, for they really see nothing, pathetically. Yet, for some others, Continuity and Unity is taking a little of Joseph Coleman, whom they consider an apostle; a little of Ewald Frank, whom they also consider an apostle; a little of Neal Frisby, who they also consider one of the end time apostles; a little of Richard Gan, who they also consider is an apostle; and a little of Joseph Coleman, who they also consider an apostle, for as they say, "They are all apostles, who will bring unity to the bride." That is the vision of some, incredibly! Their thinking is that they are all men of God. And in a way, that is true, for God also called Pharaoh His servant! But we do not want to be that kind of servant, for he is a servant unto reprobacy! So, just how can men who disagree on almost every verse of Scripture be the apostles of the Lord? My! How can they also bring unity to the body of saints, when they themselves are not in unity? That is not a vision but chaos! That is a recipe for spiritual anarchy! It will be just like taking a little of the Pharisees; a little of the Sadducees; a little of the Scribes; a little of the Herodians; a little of the Essenes; and then adding it to a little of John the Baptist, and a little of Jesus Christ. What do you think that is going to give you? My, oh my! That is the ridiculous vision some have in the Branham Movement! You know that that is not a true divine vision! Ephesians Chapter 4, verse 4, affirms: "THERE IS ONE BODY," (one true body), "AND ONE SPIRIT!" It is absolutely certain that if we have the same Spirit of Christ, we will see the same picture, and draw the same picture of truth for God's elect bride seeds, because the Spirit of the Lord draws only one picture, for the revelation of the Lord is the same, for it is one! Saint Paul continued on the perfect unity in the body universal, saying: "... even as ye are called in ONE

HOPE OF YOUR CALLING. Everything about the bride of Christ is in a unity. It is a unity! Is it her calling? Is it her hope? Is it the Spirit she received? Is it the body she is a member of? Is it her faith? Or is it her ministry? Everything about the bride of Christ is in a unity! And you are either in that, or you are in a mess! I said you are either in that unity, or you are in a big mess! Look at the next verse. Verse 5: “One Lord...” One what? “One Lord”! So, just how can the Lord who is one, deal with men on truth, and for their revelation on that truth to clash? How can the Lord send men with opposing revelation of His Word? How can men be speaking by God and for God, and take the bride in different directions on truth, thereby tearing the body in pieces with their revelatory fracas? Come on! I am not asking anyone to follow me; but at least you ought to see that somebody has to be right, and all others wrong, for all of us cannot be right, and be going in different directions with the Word, for the revelation of God is one! You have to get it: THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE! Follow the man with a clear tone of the Bible, for as Brother Branham declared, all else is “Uncertain Sound”! North, south, east, or west, the revelation of Jesus Christ is one! We do not have two faiths, or three faiths: There is only one true faith, and hence, there is only one standard of truth! A person is either in that faith, or he is in nothing, for he is only playing cards and checkers! That only makes him a gambler and a drunkard in the eyes of God, for this is not a game! Think about it! That is why in this Message Movement, I have been saying this for the sake of anyone with an ear to hear, and I will say it again, for it is a serious warning: In view of the multiplicity and plurality of teachings and of groups in this Message, it will take God for a seed to find his way through this Message, for it has been designed by God as a giant and complex spiritual maze! And unless God deals with you, to show you the revealed plot, you must die in one pathway or the other, for there are so many such ways in this Movement, which are nothing but dead ends, for they lead nowhere! As such, you can read those Sermon books, and fill your home with it, and bury your head in it, and still go nowhere with it! If God is not dealing with you in a true divine revelation, to show you the plot, you will be worse off for ever coming in contact with the Sermon books, because unto whom much is given, much will be demanded. And as a follower of Elijah's message, if you miss the rapture, you are bound for the mark of the beast! Yes! “There is ONE BODY, and ONE SPIRIT, even as ye are called in ONE HOPE of your calling; ONE LORD, ONE FAITH, ONE BAPTISM, ONE GOD and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.” Hold it there, church. I know we have stayed on this passage earlier, but I need to polish it up, in order to rub truth in. Let us ask ourselves: What does faith mean? It is not what we pluck from behind our houses. Faith is a divine revelation which comes directly from God. But faith has a basis, a solid and an immovable base, for it does not come out of the blues. It anchors solely in God's Word. Consequently, until a teaching or a belief has its firm basis in the Word, it is not the revealed faith of God, for faith has an anchor, not being in a vacuum! I do not care what message of Brother Branham you read, his message confirms this fact.

True faith is based upon the written Word, for the Bible tells us in Romans Chapter 10, verse 17, declaring: “So then FAITH COMETH BY HEARING, AND HEARING BY THE WORD OF GOD.”

It therefore means that you cannot have divine faith, Christ's faith, outside of the belief of the truth of God's Word. There is no faith found outside Bible faith, for that is the only anchor for faith, and the proof of faith. Otherwise, any such faith is not faith, but carnal conception of men, and it avails practically nothing at the end of the day. What a lot of people call faith is not faith at all, but carnal reasoning of men. And as it is written, by faith we cast down all human reasoning! 2 Corinthians Chapter 10, talking of the power of revealed faith, declares in verses 3-5, saying: “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) CASTING DOWN IMAGINATIONS, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.” For as John Huss of Bohemia often stated, “TRUTH CONQUERS ALL”! Brothers and sisters, faith is not faith unless and until it is established firmly upon the inspired Scriptures, for the Holy Scriptures is the exclusive anchor for faith. There is nothing else called true faith outside that, for Apostle Paul declared clearly and categorically, that there is only one faith. It means in essence that there is only ONE TRUTH. Can I hear Amen? Yes! There is only one truth, for truth is truth. There is therefore only one body of truths. A truth of God declared in Canada tonight, holds true in Nigeria; it also holds true in Australia; it holds true in Zimbabwe, in Mexico, in Europe, in the Philippines, and in all the countries around the world, for the truth of God holds true, throughout the Universe, for it is one! There is only one true faith! The revelation of God is absolutely the same, for God is one! That was why, when Brother Branham was preaching his message titled, The Seventh Seal, he said: “There are visions, and visions. If it is contrary to the Word of God, leave it alone.” In another message he said: “If that Angel told me anything that was contrary to the Bible, I will not believe him.” Think about it! That shows you the supremacy of the Word of God over all beings, over all manifestations, and inspirations, and teachings, and beliefs! THE BIBLE IS THE ABSOLUTE! Church, yet, we know, and Brother Branham also knew, that a true Angel of God, being a righteous Angel, will not take away from the Bible, because they are God's instruments who convey these truths to men, and it is through their unseen ministries, the entire Bible was written! They are the spirit beings inspiring the true preaching and teaching of God's Word, including the writing of the Holy Bible! They are also anointed to stand in defense of God's Word behind the scene, and to help to bring it to pass, all under the anointing of the Spirit of God. Think about it! For just as God is bound by His Word, for He magnifies it above His name, for on it hangs His honour and integrity, so also, Angels are bound by truth! Absolutely! What am I saying? It is that there is only one faith, and that this faith, being God's revealed faith, anchors exclusively on the written Word of God, which is the Holy Bible! Inarguably therefore, the revelation of the Bible is one, if we are all dealt with by the Spirit of God, which is the Spirit of Truth, the Spirit of the Word! As such, wherever the children of God are located in any part of this globe, what they will believe, and stand for, and uphold, cannot be different from what another group of God's children elsewhere will believe, and stand for, and uphold, in any other part of this earth, as elect bride saints, so long as they are being dealt with by that same Spirit of the Lord. Why? It is simply because "THERE IS ONE BODY" AND "ONE FAITH", for the revelation of God is one, for God is one! Remember, tonight, we are considering a message titled, THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE.

Church, with the full understanding of the fundamental and unchanging and infallible truth of God, that THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE, let us now return to our main Bible text for this message, which is 1 Kings Chapter 13, which deals with the story of the young prophet God sent to Bethel. It is very apparent that the young prophet did not understand the basic or elementary principle of faith, a principle of God we have laid out today, that the revelation of God is one. It makes us wonder: Where did this young prophet learn his experience? Where did he grow that he did not understand that God's revelation is one? And what is also wrong with men in the Message today, that they also seem not to understand that the revelation of God is one? What is wrong with this body of people following the Message Movement, walking without a revelation, without an understanding of anything, following the wind, believing every man is of God, because he has done a lot of commendable work, using a contrary yardstick? You cannot use the yardstick of works! You have got to use the yardstick of the Word of God! We are not denying any man's works or labour; but their works do not justify their obvious stand against the truth, for true works can only be done in the light of Christ! Otherwise, we would have to approve the ministry of women who preach, if it is just about works! Exactly! You did not hear me. You cannot deny their works, for they have the works! But their stand against the Word of God, is what shows them out, for their works are not wrought in the light of truth! That makes it a sad case of labour loss, a case of vain worship and service! So, the standard is not the works, because false seeds have more works to show many times than seeds, if that is all you are looking for! It is the truth you must use as the determining factor for everything, and it is the truth of the Word you must seek, for that is the divine infallible yardstick, for as it is written: ALL OTHER GROUND IS SINKING SAND! (Matt.7:21-27). That platform of the revealed truth of Jesus Christ is the fountain of life, and the platform of eternal security. It is written: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? AND IN THY NAME DONE MANY WONDERFUL WORKS? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. FOR ALL OTHER GROUND, APART FROM THE SOLID ROCK OF THE WORD OF TRUTH, IS SINKING SAND! So, what is wrong with the end time message believers so-called, that they do not understand that the revelation of God is one, and they do not want to listen either? They seem to be so fast asleep! They look like people in a deep spiritual stupor, drunken with sleep! And they just do not and cannot seem to understand, that the revelation of God is one! I do not care when God called you; I do not care how God called you; I do not care the amount of people who follow your ministry; I do not care how many books you have written; I do not care how many Continents you have visited; I do not care how many follow you around the globe, or how much money and fame you have made; I also really do not care how big your ministry is; saints of God, the truth remains that, THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE. Do not ever, ever, forget that, because that is something they obviously do not believe or care for in the end time message following. There is an absolute divine unity that runs through the entire body of Jesus Christ. Why can the message people not understand that? But what are they following tonight? They are following the wind, carrying a message all over creation, which they do not understand in its true revelatory reality! Yet, they are so heady, so stubborn, and so willful and prideful! I have never seen such a pack of willful unbelievers like that in my entire life! You cannot tell them anything! They know it all: Laodicea! God had dealt in a wonderful way with this young prophet. We will call him a preacher. God gave him words of instruction, two injunctions precisely, that he should not eat or drink in that place, and also that he is not to return by the same way in which he came: The instructions were very clear and precise. God told him precisely what to do in Bethel, and he did it exactly as God had demanded, EXCEPT the two injunctions! How very similar it is to that of Eve in the Garden of Eden! God vindicated his message that day, that the whole of the city was stirred! But here came an old prophet, an old preacher. He was jealous because the shine had been taken out of his ministry by this young preacher who came out of "nowhere", to captivate the people in his parish; even the king was captivated! He got on his horse and ran after the young preacher. We will pick the account in 1 Kings Chapter 13, from verse 14: “And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: For it was said to me by the word of the Lord, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. BUT HE LIED UNTO HIM. So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.” Now, pay attention.

Tell me: How could the young preacher do what he just did? How could he have listened to this revelatory junk, even if an angel had indeed appeared to the old preacher, which was not even the case? How could he have believed a message that outrightly contradicted a clear injunction God had given him, when it was not the old preacher who sent him? Just how could God have sent another man to contradict a supernaturally vindicated message? How could he have fallen for that cheap stunt of the devil, when God had already vindicated his revelation? How could he have been taken by this deception, when the revelation of God is one? Apparently, he was yet to understand this truth of God, but it cost him his life nonetheless, for he should have known better! What a lesson, and what a price! Brothers and sisters, do not ever forget the truth we are setting forth today in this message, and that is that The Revelation of God is One! God does not contradict Himself, and neither does He change His Word, for God's Word is Yea and Amen! Once God gives His revelation, heaven and earth may pass away, but that revelation of God will never fail, and neither can it be changed, for it will hold against the whole wide world! When God gave His Word through Samuel the prophet, that the kingdom had been rent from the hand of king Saul, Samuel gave a material pronouncement to Saul, recorded in 1 Samuel Chapter 15, verses 28-29: “And Samuel said unto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for He is not a man, that He should repent.” That simply means that God is not a man that He should change His mind! He does not change His mind, for His mind or His will is sovereign! His mind is revealed in His Word! Moses the great prophet of God had laid out this same truth way back there in the Torah, when by divine inspiration, he recorded the message Balaam the prophet gave, when Balak the king of Moab sought that he curse Israel. It is a shame that that record was there in the Word of God, and the young prophet just would not believe that the revelation of God is one, and as such, that it does not change, for God is absolutely consistent in His revelation! God does not change His mind about His Word, for His Word must remain His Word, for it must remain the same, being most perfect! Even Balaam, a hireling prophet, knew this truth! My! Numbers Chapter 23, verses 17-20, record: “...And Balak said unto him, What hath the Lord spoken? And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor: God is not a man, that He should lie” (or fail); “neither the son of man, that He should repent” (or change His mind): “HATH HE SAID, AND SHALL HE NOT DO IT? OR HATH HE SPOKEN, AND SHALL HE

NOT MAKE IT GOOD? Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and He hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it." Even Balaam in his greedy quest, still knew that God's Word is unchangeable, for it is yea and Amen! It remains the same, for His revelation is one! Simply put: God cannot double-talk, for only the devil does that; which is why Satan is the master of inconsistency, and the author of all inconsistencies; for revelatory inconsistency breeds nothing but utter confusion and failure, being a recipe to anarchy! Our God is not in such, for as it is written: "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints!" (1 Cor. 14:33).

Therefore, how could the young preacher have allowed another man in the ministry, regardless of whoever he may be, contradict a divine revelation God gave him, when the revelation of God is one? He should have known that the old preacher was either sincerely deceived, or that he was lying outrightly! He should have known that, for God cannot inspire men to carry two opposing messages! Once the Lord had given him that revelation, and God had even confirmed and vindicated it that day, if any other man in the ministry would rise from any part of the globe, the young preacher should have known that, such a man could only add to his revelation, Not take away from it! Because God having given a revelation, cannot later send another man to annul it! No man of God who comes later in time can annul what God has already established through an earlier vessel, in the light of His Word, for there is perfect harmony and consistency in God, for His revelation is one! Let us take the case of Prophet Micaiah for example, for it is most instructive in this instance. Turn with me to 1 Kings Chapter 22. Ahab the king of Israel was going to war. He asked Jehoshaphat the king of Judah to join him in that battle against Syria, over the land of Ramoth-Gilead. Jehoshaphat agreed, but requested they first enquire from God. Ahab gathered all the prophets together, four hundred in all, including the head prophet, Zedekiah, who was very much like the old prophet which the young prophet faced. Incidentally, Micaiah was also a young prophet, but a faithful and a highly revealed man. On the other hand, we had these four hundred prophets all whom Ahab and Jezebel had corrupted, and as such, like the old prophet, they were all unfaithful men, ardent compromisers, the head of which was Zedekiah. However, prior to this event, Elijah the prophet of God had been used of God to give a firm prophetic Word concerning Ahab. 1 Kings Chapter 21, starting from verse 21, records the judgment pronouncement of God, which declares: "Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked Me to anger, and made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell h i m s e l f t o w o r k wickedness in the sight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel."

Saints of God, this Word of the Lord was hanging over the head of Ahab, as it is written. Now turn with me to see the "wonders" which the four hundred prophets performed that day, as they stood before Ahab and Jehoshaphat. 1 Kings Chapter 22, starting from verse 6, records: Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord besides, that we might enquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the Lord: BUT I HATE HIM; FOR HE DOTHTH NOT PROPHECY GOOD CONCERNING ME, BUT EVIL. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramothgilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the king's hand. And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good. And Micaiah said, As the Lord liveth, what the Lord saith unto me, that will I speak. So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord? AND HE SAID, I SAW ALL ISRAEL SCATTERED UPON THE HILLS, AS SHEEP THAT HAVE NOT A SHEPHERD: AND THE LORD SAID, THESE HAVE NO MASTER: LET THEM RETURN EVERY MAN TO HIS HOUSE IN PEACE."

Here we have a typical scenario, the reality of which is staring us in the face tonight in the Jackson Movement. Four hundred preachers synchronised in their message against one lone preacher, but yet, he was the one with the true revelation, whilst all the four hundred were absolutely false and very deceived, in their so-called revelation, for numbers do not determine truth! Secondly, and most importantly, the so-called revelation of the four hundred preachers went completely against the Word of God concerning Ahab, which God had already used Elijah to give. And we know that since God had already given His Word concerning

Ahab, it could not be annulled by a later ministry, as to bless a man under the divine curse and judgment of God, for as it is written: THE REVELATION FAITH OF GOD IS ONE! God is not a man to change His mind about His Word, for He cannot lie! If they were given to study at all, and they had any ounce of understanding of the Word of God, and of the mind of the Spirit of God, they should have seen that they were contradicting the Word of God through Elijah! However, we must also realise that they were not ignorant of what Ahab was doing, and the judgment Elijah pronounced; they knew it well! But the truth is that they were having a good time under Ahab's reign, living in total compromise of the truth of God! So, they did not care for truth, and God had also laid them on the shelf! On the other hand, Micaiah was a very faithful man, who knew what the Word of God said precisely, and he stood firmly and unwavering for truth, so much so, that he incurred the hatred of the king, who wanted him to compromise the Word of God, and join his palace ministry! He was thus hated and persecuted seriously, for he was totally ostracised. However, and this is the point I want you all to see: Not only was his revelation perfect, being truly God given, he had also checked it against the Word that God had already given through an earlier Prophet of God, and it synchronised perfectly with the revelation of Elijah. He had searched the Scriptures, and he saw precisely what the Scriptures stated. The man knew exactly where he stood, as he faced the two kings! He was standing on the solid rock of the Word of God! But having laid out his Word based revelation, God gave him a revelatory upgrade, for he saw a prophetic picture which added to the revelation Elijah bore! Remember, I stated earlier, that no man of God can come later in time, to disannul what a previous man of God has been used to establish in the Word, for the revelation of God is one. He can only add to it; not take away from it. Now let us see the higher revelation Micaiah gave. We take it from verse 18: “And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right hand and on His left. And the Lord said, Who shall persuade Ahab, THAT HE MAY GO UP AND FALL at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. And there came forth a spirit” (or a demon from hell, who appeared before the throne of God), “and stood before the Lord, and said, I will persuade him. And the Lord said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I WILL BE A LYING SPIRIT IN THE MOUTH OF ALL HIS PROPHETS. And He said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now therefore, behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil concerning thee.” Elijah did not see these logistics, of how Ahab would be deceived into going to war, that he may be killed, in fulfilment of God's Word. Elijah only gave the inspired judgment Word God gave him, which most likely came by an audible voice, added to the vision of the scenario of the wicked killing of poor Naboth, whose vineyard Ahab had taken. Brothers and sisters, please note that the further light Micaiah shed on the Word of God concerning Ahab, did not contradict the revelation of Elijah, but only added more light to the truth Elijah bore, proving that whichever way we look at things, the revelation of God is one! But please note: The oneness of revelation is Not as to the extent of truth, but as to its harmony and consistency; because although the revelation of God is one, that does not mean that God cannot shed further light on the truth already established! This is so, because not only is there perfect unity in truth, there is also Continuity in the unveiling of the Word! FOR TRUTH COMES IN FOLDS! But the completeness of the revealed truth of Christ is invested in John, the man whom Jesus gives the entire scroll of redemption to eat. This scenario with Micaiah, exemplifies most beautifully and perfectly, the truth of the harmony of divine revelation, and of the Continuity of revelation, for revelation comes in folds. As such, you should be able to see clearly, that indeed, the revelation of God is one, if your heart is right with God, and with His Word! But as is always the case with revealed faith, Micaiah was tried by the fire of persecution he faced on account of truth. Let us finish the passage. Verse 24 records: “But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the Lord from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, WHEN THOU SHALT GO INTO AN INNER CHAMBER TO HIDE THYSELF. And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. And Micaiah said, IF THOU RETURN AT ALL IN PEACE, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Harken, O people, every one of you.” But unfortunately, people never listen to the voice of truth. They never do until it is too late. And because a true revelation is infallible, Ahab was killed that very day, in spite of his great disguise, for he did not come back in peace. And just as Micaiah had also warned, on hearing the news of the death of the king, and seeing his prophecy of victory fall apart, Zedekiah must have run to hide in his room, from great shame! Yes! It pays to stand for truth, for truth will have the last say, and the last laugh, though we may be persecuted on account of truth. So I ask: What was the foundation of Micaiah? Truth! Please, also stay with truth, and you will also see the glory of God, for God confirms His Word.

Brethren, there is something about this young prophet, a negative attribute, which you will not find in the true bride ministry, on account of the serious and most important job they have to do at this end time. He was unfaithful and was easily deceived, and thus, he proved that he had no understanding of the infallibility and the unchangeability of the Word of God, and of the absolute oneness of divine revelation. For the standard of truth is one! The revelation of God is one! When God lays His truth, it does not matter through whom it is given; once it is laid, it holds true for every child of God, and for everybody who will dare to walk with God. And it holds against the entire world, for the standard of the truth of God is one, for truth is one.

This young prophet did not understand this elementary truth. You can imagine having such a man in the ministry in this last move of God for the universal bride, when she must be brought into complete unity and perfection! He would cause great havoc by his undiscerning mind, and by his lack of the fundamental principles of truth, which is necessary to guide and also secure the bride, keeping her firmly on course! When you have a true revelation from God, there is no devil that can move you from it, for it anchors your soul solidly in the Word. They will try to convince you against the truth though, but when you know where you are standing, (oh my!) there is absolutely nothing that can shake or move you. You will not worry about whether you have to stand alone like Micaiah, or whether they like you or not, because you are not looking for the love of men; neither are you looking for the glory of yourself. You are only looking for the love of God, and for the glory of God. You are standing for the integrity and the honour of the Word of God, for you are seeking a better resurrection. So, you really will not care whether people like you or not. When people like you, what is that going to do for you spiritually? Will it put you into life eternal? Of course not! And can their hatred take eternal life from you? Of course not! It is your attitude and stand for or against the truth of Jesus Christ, that will either put you in life, or take you out of life, for righteousness is strictly an imputation, for salvation is by grace, being that it is by faith. Then, let us be faithful to the revealed faith of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, for that is all that really matters, for he is more than life. As Apostle Paul declared: "FOR TO ME TO LIVE IS CHRIST, AND TO DIE IS GAIN." (Philip . 1 : 2 1) . Consequently, brothers and sisters, even if I have to hurt you, I will hurt you; Not to kill you, but that I may beat you back in line to the Word of life, for true love is corrective. As an unprofitable servant, God expects me to be faithful. It is the eternal reward on the other side that I am looking at, and working towards. That is what matters! Saints of God, God loves and rewards faithfulness to His Word. The young prophet should not have allowed another man, though in the ministry, to take away the Word of God from him. And that is a warning to Bible Faith

Tabernacle. You must not allow your littleness or smallness in numerical strength, to move you away from the foundation of truth, in the face of these big ministries, and the mass followership they have; because I tell you, truth is still the truth, and God is not a respecter of persons. He is not! God is not in the crowd: God is in His Word, and He is in the body of His people who are established in that Word by His Spirit, though they be a remnant. All these big ministries like Joel Osteen, Benny Hinn, T.D. Jakes, Joyce Meyer, are all doing their own individual things; and are preaching their own individual things; carrying on in with their own individual ministries, without the slightest recourse to the universal body of Christ, in terms of God's revealed Bible programme, for getting the bride ready for the rapture, which is bringing Unity of revealed faith and perfection, to the universal bride of Christ. Yet, the revelation of God is one, and the ministry of Christ is one, for the body is one, being put together by the one same Holy Spirit. That is a fundamental truth the young prophet did not understand. And the old prophet made him throw down his revelation, just as the Serpent beguiled Eve, making her throw down her revelation, and believe a blatant lie. Yet, the injunction of God in that day was also categorical and very clear! Think about it! How could she have fallen for a contrary so-called revelation, when the revelation of God is one, and hence, it is infallible, and unchangeable? One man takes a truth to the North, and another man takes the same truth to the South, and we want to think that they are speaking for God, and that we should allow both of them! My! That was precisely the horrible attitude the young preacher had in that day! He did not have enough sense to say, "Sir, please stop right there! Something is wrong somewhere, if you say that an angel appeared to you, asking me to return and to eat in the place where God said I should not eat or return. God is not the author of confusion, for the revelation of God is one. We should be saying the same thing, if the same Spirit of God is dealing with both of us! Let us now find out who is right. Let us therefore take it to the Word. Let us take it to the Word!" But no, he did not do that! He just dropped the Word of God, and accepted a blatant lie, knowing full well that it totally conflicted with the Word of God he had received! Yet, Apostle Paul, knowing he bore a perfect revelation which is therefore unchangeable, declared: "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." This should have been the pronouncement of the young prophet, for the revelation of God is one, and it does not change! It was not for nothing when Apostle John, in 2 John 9-11, warned the saints, saying: "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine", (meaning doctrines, or the total teachings or faith) "of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. IF THERE COME ANY UNTO YOU, AND BRING NOT THIS DOCTRINE, RECEIVE HIM NOT INTO YOUR HOUSE, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." This should have been the attitude of the young prophet in that day, for the old prophet was preaching rebellion to him! Prophet Isaiah also warned seriously in Chapter 8, verse 20, saying: "To the law and to the testimony: IF THEY SPEAK NOT ACCORDING TO THIS WORD, IT IS BECAUSE THERE IS NO LIGHT IN THEM." When you have no true love or regard, for the precious and priceless Word of God, God will allow the devil to come and take it away from you! The young preacher believed the words of a man against the Word of God, and he followed the prophet to eat and drink in a place where God said he should not eat and drink; and he went back to a place where the Lord said he should not return. That just nullifies everything he stood for that day! That just rubbished every accomplishment he wrought that day! All the exploits he performed in the name of the Lord, was turned to dung! Let me ask you a serious question, and please ponder on it seriously in your hearts. What is the use that you have come so far, and you have gotten so close, only to lose it all? When a man bears a true divine revelation of God, he bears it against the whole wide world, for it is an absolute! God did not give this young prophet a second chance. He paid with his life for not standing with the Oneness of divine revelation! A lion killed him, speaking of the devil, for it is written in 1 Peter Chapter 5, verses 8-9: “... your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, SEEKING WHOM HE MAY DEVOUR: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.” In that day like I said, God did not give the young prophet a second chance. And there are some people today that will not have a second chance also. One rejection of truth may be all, and their eternal destiny is sealed forever! When you see people playing with unbelief; when you see others doing something totally anti-Word, do not follow them to do it, because if you do, you may cross over a line. Other people may be doing it twenty times over, and you may have never done it in your entire life. Keep away from unbelief, for God is watching you. Do not obey the wind, for if you dare to do so, in your own case, that may be your point of no-return, for you may never have a second chance! God is to be feared by all who come to Him; He must be revered by all who profess to serve Him. IT PAYS TO STAY IN THE LIGHT, and to maintain spiritual sense, for there is a true revelation, a divine wisdom, that guides the children of light. As the chief apostle proclaimed in his very last sermon before he passed away, “DARKNESS IS SETTING IN”! You cannot afford to follow every ministry on the ground. That is confusion, for there is only one faith. Look for the true witness, for there you will find the true body, and stay with truth. It has one tone, and one tune, around the earth, and it is one most clear, and very distinct.

Church, in closing, I must warn you: Outside of the followership of the revealed faith of Jesus Christ of the Bible, a revelation which is one, no one will make it as bride, in this final junction of time. For God is not a mixer, but a separator. As it is written: “... AND GOD DIVIDED THE LIGHT FROM THE DARKNESS.” (Gen. 1:4). It is further written: “Can two walk together, except they be agreed?” B E C A U S E T H E

REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE! I repeat: In this final hour of Gentile time, there is no person or ministry, and there is no religious body or group of people, that will make it through as bride, in any part of this globe, not just in the Branham Movement, but in the Entire religious world, who is not standing firmly for the revealed faith of Jesus Christ, which is a Continuous One, for the light of Jesus the Christ, is inherently progressive, AND is unchangeably One, for God is One. Brothers and sisters, ONLY ONE GROUP OF BELIEVERS WILL MAKE IT THROUGH! As it is written: “THERE IS ONE BODY” AND “ONE FAITH”! The testimony of our Master seals it all, for he promised emphatically, stating categorically: “And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; AND THERE SHALL BE ONE FOLD, and one Shepherd” MINISTRY. Argue with that! Let me say this loud and clear, and make no mistake about it, for I must re-affirm this absolute truth: Only one fold or one group of believers around the globe, will make it through as the bride of Jesus Christ. Ignorance of the truth makes no difference. It is so, because the Spirit of the Lord is one, for God is one, and His Word is infallible and unchangeable. Furthermore, the Lord Jesus promised it, and that settles it! Therefore, I repeat for whosoever has an ear to hear: Only one group of believers will make it through as the bride of Christ, for there is only ONE BRIDE; the body of Christ is one, and the revelation of the bride is also one, for her Lord and Bridegroom is One! Do not follow confusion. It is ecumenism; it is babel! Run away from it! Run away from confusion, for the true light is now shining! Follow the light, for it is clear and perfect, and it is health and life unto whosoever finds it. God is not in everything, even though He will use everything. God is revealed in His Word. AND HIS REVELATION IS ONE. AND IT DOES NOT CHANGE, ALTHOUGH IT IS PROGRESSIVE. I reaffirm: The revelation of Jesus Christ is one; not two; not three; but one, FOR THE STANDARD OF TRUTH IS ONE. And hence, it harbours no revelatory conflict of any sort, and it is perfect, anchoring perfectly in the written Word of God. Brothers and sisters, the revealed faith of our Lord Jesus Christ is not only one, it is also absolutely pure. Therefore, I implore you: STAY WITH THIS TRUTH. STAY WITH THE CONTINUITY TRUTH! Stay with the ONE FAITH of Jesus Christ, for it is God's absolute truth. If you do, you will not be blown away, for you will not fall. THE REVELATION OF GOD IS ONE. Amen. Let us bow our heads in prayer. (Brother Amos prayed).

May God bless you.
